FIFTY SEASONS

MEDIA GUIDE

DEDICATION

The 2015 Miami Dolphins Media Guide is dedicated to the memories of former Dolphins Defensive Coordinator Bill Arnsparger, linebacker John Bramlett, Media Relations Coordinator Mike Hanson, defensive tackle Bill Keating, Director of Professional Scouting Pat Peppler, cornerback Robert Sowell, quarterback Dick Wood and kicker Garo Yepremian, each of whom passed away within the past year.

Arnsparger (Dec. 16, 1926 – July 17, 2015) served two tours of duty with Miami (1970-73 and 1976-83). In his 12 seasons with the Dolphins, the team earned four trips to the Super Bowl, winning two championships, including the only perfect season in NFL history. The architect of two of the most famous defenses in the history of the league, the No-Name defense and the Killer B's, and the innovator behind modern day situational substitution with his introduction of the 53 defense, Arnsparger's units ranked among the top 10 in the NFL in six of his 12 seasons in Miami.

Bramlett (July 7, 1941 – Oct. 23, 2014) played two seasons with Miami from 1967-68, earning a trip to the AFL All-Star Game following the 1967 season. He was traded to the Patriots along with quarterback Kim Hammond in exchange for future Hall of Fame linebacker Nick Buoniconti in 1969.

Hanson (Feb. 1, 1966 – June 17, 2015) served two seasons (1995-96) as media relations coordinator with the Dolphins. He also was a member of the publicity departments of the Patriots as well as the NBA's Portland Trailblazers and the NHL's Florida Panthers.

Keating (Nov. 22, 1944 – Jan. 1, 2015) played defensive tackle during the 1967 season with the Dolphins. He also saw action with the Denver Broncos (1966-67).

Peppler (April 16, 1922 – June 23, 2015) worked with the Dolphins from 1972-74 and was part of Miami's consecutive Super Bowl championships.

Sowell (June 23, 1961 – June 22, 2015) joined the Dolphins as an undrafted free agent before the 1983 season and was named the team's Outstanding Special Teams Player that year. He played in Miami from 1983-85 and 1987, finishing his career with a sack and two interceptions.

Wood (Feb. 29, 1936 – April 4, 2015) played for the Dolphins in the club's inaugural 1966 season and holds the distinction of being the first starting quarterback in team history. He played for five different AFL teams, including the Broncos (1962), Chargers (1962), Jets (1963-64), Raiders (1965) and Dolphins (1966) during his football career, the only player to do so.

Yepremian (June 2, 1944 – May 15, 2015) played for the Dolphins from 1970-78 and ranks as the second-leading scorer in team history. His 37-yard field goal in the second overtime ended the longest game in NFL history, a Dolphins' playoff victory over the Chiefs on Christmas 1971. A two-time Pro Bowl selection (1973, 1978), Yepremian was named the game's most valuable player in 1973.

STEPHEN M. ROSS

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD/ MANAGING GENERAL PARTNER

COLLEGE: MICHIGAN // NFL: EIGHTH SEASON // DOLPHINS: EIGHTH SEASON

Stephen M. Ross, Chairman and Founder of Related Companies – an international real estate firm – began his ownership interest in the Miami Dolphins in February of 2008 when he became a 50 percent partner with H. Wayne Huizenga in the team, Sun Life Stadium and the surrounding developable land. He increased that share to a 95 percent ownership of the team and the stadium on January 20, 2009 and assumed the responsibility of Managing General Partner of both the Dolphins and the stadium, which culminated one of his long-held dreams; Mr. Ross grew up in South Florida and the Dolphins have been a lifetime passion for him.

Under Mr. Ross' leadership, the Dolphins have become one of the most fan-friendly teams in the National Football League. They have significantly expanded the Miami Dolphins Foundation's presence in the South Florida community with a host of new civic and charitable initiatives. Additionally, Mr. Ross reached a unique agreement with Miami-Dade County in June of 2014 to modernize the home stadium of the Miami Dolphins. Phase I of the project involves changing every seat in the stadium and rebuilding the concourses on the 100 and 300 levels. Every seat in the stadium will be brand new and fans will notice improved food and enhanced concourses throughout the entire facility. Phase II will involve the installation of a state-of-the-art canopy that will keep as many as 91 percent of the spectators in the shade and protected from the rain, depending on the time of the day and the month, and four giant high-definition video boards, as well as upgrading the concourse at the 200 level. Also, Mr. Ross has lived up to his pledge to provide the coaches, staff and players all of the necessary resources to build a winning team, including a multi-million dollar renovation of the club's training facility over the past two seasons.

In 2012, Mr. Ross and Matt Higgins founded RSE Ventures, a multi-national sports and entertainment venture firm with a focus on new technologies. Today, RSE Ventures owns and operates a diverse group of companies in four interrelated verticals: Sports, Entertainment, Digital, and New Ventures. In addition to building businesses, RSE also actively invests in early stage companies through its partnership with marketing expert and serial entrepreneur, Gary Vaynerchuk. In the summer of 2013, RSE revolutionized the international soccer landscape by organizing the Guinness International Champions Cup, an innovative transformation of the traditional European club preseason tours into a competitive tournament which has attracted hundreds of millions of viewers. The championship game of the tournament is held at Sun Life Stadium.

Mr. Ross, a resident of Palm Beach and New York, formed Related in 1972. Today, the company is considered one of the most successful privately owned real estate firms in the United States, with expertise in fund management, development, acquisitions, property management, marketing and sales. Related is one of the largest owners of affordable housing, has real estate assets valued at $20 billion and has developed over $22 billion in real estate assets including the landmark Time Warner Center and Hudson Yards development in New York City, and CityPlace in West Palm Beach.

Mr. Ross graduated from the University of Michigan with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree and from Wayne State University Law School with a Juris Doctor degree. He later received a Master of Laws in Taxation from New York University School of Law. In 2004, the University of Michigan renamed its business school the Stephen M. Ross School of Business at the University of Michigan and in 2011, the school awarded him an honorary Doctor of Laws degree at its commencement.

Mr. Ross is Chairman of the Board of Directors of Equinox Holdings, Inc., and serves on the Executive Committee and is a trustee of Lincoln Center. In addition, he is a trustee of New York-Presbyterian Hospital and the Guggenheim Foundation. He also is a director on the board of the Culture Shed and the Jackie Robinson Foundation and Chair Emeritus of the Real Estate Board of New York (REBNY), the city's leading real estate trade association. Mr. Ross is also a director on the board of the World Resources Institute (WRI) and recently established the WRI Ross Center for Sustainable Cities, an innovative new initiative to integrate urban planning, sustainable transport, energy and climate change, water resources, and governance.

Over the years, Mr. Ross has received numerous honors for his business, civic, and philanthropic activities. Most recently, he was named a New York Power Player by the New York Times, the Most Powerful Person in New York Real Estate by the New York Observer, Multi-Family Property Executive of the Year by Commercial Property News, and Housing Person of the Year by the National Housing Conference. He also received The National Building Museum Honor Award, REBNY's Harry B. Helmsley Distinguished New Yorker Award and the Jack D. Weiler Award from United Jewish Appeal. Crain's New York named Mr. Ross one of the 100 Most Influential Leaders in Business and he was recognized by NYC & Company with their Leadership in Tourism Award.

In May of 2013, Mr. Ross pledged to give more than half of his estate to philanthropic causes and charitable organizations, including South Florida based institutions. The commitment was made through the Giving Pledge, a long-term global initiative created by Warren Buffett and Bill and Melinda Gates that aims to inspire deeper engagement in philanthropy and increase charitable giving globally.

In February of 2014, Mr. Ross spearheaded a white paper with the NYU Sports and Society program, headed by University Professor Arthur R. Miller and NYU Law Dean and founder of the Sports and Society Program Trevor Morrison, examining the phenomenon of intolerant behavior in sports, and proposing a comprehensive range of initiatives focused on youth athletics to combat them. Mr. Ross is working with Morrison, Miller, a team of NYU Law faculty, alumni, and students, as well as faculty affiliated with NYU to work on a range of linked projects examining the issue.

SUN LIFE STADIUM MODERNIZATION PROJECT

On June 17, 2014, the Miami-Dade County Commission approved by a 7-4 vote a Performance-Based Marquee Event Grant Agreement, which moved forward the Sun Life Stadium modernization plan. The agreement gave bonus payments to the Miami Dolphins for hosting major events in exchange for Dolphins Chairman of the Board/Managing General Partner Stephen Ross being financially responsible for the renovation of the stadium without county assistance.

The agreement, which was designed to help bring marquee events such as Super Bowls, college football championships, college football semifinals, World Cup soccer matches as well as other international soccer events, is for a period of 20 years.

The modernization of the stadium, which commenced on June 28, 2014, is taking place during two off-seasons (2015 and 2016). When complete prior to the 2016 season, the stadium will have a canopy to protect fans from rain and sun, more seats closer to the field, a reduced capacity of approximately 65,000, new HD lighting, upgraded sound system, four new video boards and other modern amenities.

TOM GARFINKEL

PRESIDENT AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

COLLEGE: COLORADO // NFL: THIRD SEASON // DOLPHINS: THIRD SEASON

Tom Garfinkel is in his third season as president and chief executive officer of the Miami Dolphins and Sun Life Stadium. He was named to the position on September 9, 2013.

During Garfinkel's tenure with the organization, he has led an executive team that has grown local revenue, lowered expenses and achieved the highest year-over-year home ticket sales growth in the NFL between 2013 and 2014. He also championed an innovative solution to get Sun Life Stadium renovated into a world-class venue without putting the burden on local taxpayers. The two-year project will ensure that the facility will be transformed into a global entertainment destination for South Floridians to enjoy for many years to come. The new venue will include a roof canopy to shade fans with seats closer to the field, innovative new luxury seating products and vastly improved concessions, security, parking and traffic experiences for fans.

Garfinkel joined the Dolphins after working with the San Diego Padres from 2009-13, where he served as president and chief executive officer. During his tenure with the Padres, Garfinkel led an executive team that grew local revenues and attendance, improved and innovated concessions, implemented new Wi-Fi throughout the ballpark, built a farm system recognized as the best in baseball by ESPN.com in 2012, and negotiated a new landmark local TV contract worth more than $1.2B. In addition, the team was recognized in a Sports Business Journal survey for having the number one ticket sales and service team in baseball in both 2011 and 2012. Garfinkel also created the first Little League jersey program in Major League Baseball, outfitting over 23,000 Little Leaguers in San Diego with authentic Padres jerseys and hats from every era.

Prior to joining the Padres, Garfinkel was executive vice president and chief operating officer of the Arizona Diamondbacks. During his tenure there, he built a long-term strategic plan for the franchise, led the re-branding of the club and updating of Chase Field, and led a team that produced the highest controllable revenues in the franchise's history in 2008.

Prior to joining the Diamondbacks, Garfinkel spent five years with Chip Ganassi Racing Teams as executive vice president, overseeing all business operations of the 400-employee company. He negotiated more than $500 million in sponsorship and driver contracts that resulted in a 280 percent increase of annual company revenue during his tenure. While Garfinkel was at Chip Ganassi Racing Teams, the organization won two championships and grew to include three NASCAR Sprint Cup teams, one Nationwide Series team, two IndyCar teams and one Grand-Am team.

Garfinkel's background also includes time at Texaco, Inc. and at Miller Brewing Company. Garfinkel earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Colorado, Boulder, and a Master of Business Administration degree from the Stephen M. Ross School of Business at the University of Michigan.

Garfinkel lives in Pinecrest, Fla. with his wife and three sons.

Miami Dolphins Chairman of the Board and Managing General Partner Stephen Ross named Mike Tannenbaum as the team's executive vice president of football operations on January 6, 2015. He originally joined the organization as a consultant in August 2014 and has 18 years of NFL experience at various levels of NFL personnel departments and front offices.

In his role, Tannenbaum oversees and coordinates the effort of football operations and administration. He works together with General Manager Dennis Hickey and Head Coach Joe Philbin, and other senior executives in implementing the philosophy of building a championship caliber football team. In his first full offseason with the Dolphins in 2015, Tannenbaum helped land one of the top unrestricted free agents in four-time Pro Bowl defensive tackle Ndamukong Suh, while also signing another player with a Pro Bowl on his resume in tight end Jordan Cameron, to go along with signing cornerback Brice McCain and trading for wide receiver Kenny Stills. He also was instrumental in signing Pro Bowl center Mike Pouncey and quarterback Ryan Tannehill to contract extensions.

For the past two years (2013-14), Tannenbaum served as a principal at Priority Sports and Entertainment as an agent. Prior to joining Priority, Tannenbaum spent 16 seasons (1997-2012) in various roles for the New York Jets, including his final seven years (2006-12) as the team's executive vice president and general manager. During his time as general manager, the Jets went to the playoffs three times, won four playoff games and made two AFC Championship game appearances.

Tannenbaum began his tenure in New York as director of player contracts in 1997 and was promoted to assistant general manager and director of pro personnel in 2001. In 2004, he was elevated to the role of assistant general manager and senior vice president of football operations before taking on the role of general manager prior to the 2006 season. Tannenbaum's first draft at the helm as general manager began with the selection of two offensive linemen, making the Jets the first team since the 1975 L.A. Rams to select two offensive lineman in the first round. Both left tackle D'Brickashaw Ferguson, chosen fourth overall, and center Nick Mangold, selected 29th overall, were named to various NFL All-Rookie teams and have since been named to multiple Pro Bowls. That draft class started 47 games in 2006 and helped the Jets advance to the first round of the NFL playoffs with a record of 10-6, a six-win improvement from the 2005 campaign.

In Tannenbaum's second draft as GM, the Jets selected two invaluable additions to their defense. Using the trade route, they moved up in rounds one and two to select cornerback Darrelle Revis and linebacker David Harris, respectively. Both emerged as starters as rookies. Revis quickly blossomed into a perennial All-Pro and Harris emerged as one of the game's most consistent linebackers. The 2011 draft generated an immediate impact when Tannenbaum selected first-rounder Muhammed Wilkerson, who started all 16 games on the defensive line during his rookie season.

Tannenbaum began his career in the NFL with the New Orleans Saints in 1994 before accepting the position of player personnel assistant with the Cleveland Browns in 1995. He returned to the Saints for the 1996 season as a player personnel assistant prior to joining the Jets in 1997.

A native of Needham, Mass., Tannenbaum received a degree in accounting from the University of Massachusetts-Amherst and graduated cum laude from Tulane University Law School. He also was selected to the NFL General Managers Advisory Committee in 2008 and appointed to the Board of Directors of the Sports Lawyers Association, while serving as a member of the American Bar Association in the Sports and Entertainment division.

DENNIS HICKEY

GENERAL MANAGER

COLLEGE: TULSA // NFL: 20TH SEASON // DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

Dennis Hickey is entering his second season with the Dolphins after Chairman of the Board and Managing General Partner Stephen Ross named him the team's general manager on January 28, 2014. Hickey works together with Executive Vice President of Football Operations Mike Tannenbaum and Head Coach Joe Philbin in implementing the philosophy of building a championship caliber football team. He is responsible for football operations and administration, including directing the college and pro personnel departments. He directs all scouting efforts involving the college draft, free agency, the Canadian Football League and personnel of the other 31 NFL teams.

In his two offseasons with the Dolphins, Hickey has played an important role in acquiring four players with Pro Bowls on their resume, including signing one of the top unrestricted free agents in 2015 in four-time Pro Bowl defensive tackle Ndamukong Suh and tight end Jordan Cameron. He also played a key role in signing Pro Bowl center Mike Pouncey and quarterback Ryan Tannehill to contract extensions. In 2014, he helped bring aboard tackle Branden Albert and re-signed cornerback Brent Grimes. In his first season overseeing the team's draft in 2014, the Dolphins selected tackle Ja'Wuan James and wide receiver Jarvis Landry with their first two picks, both of whom were selected to the PFWA All-Rookie team.

Hickey joined the Dolphins after spending 18 years with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, including three seasons (2011-13) as the team's director of player personnel. During his time as Tampa Bay's director of player personnel, Hickey worked alongside General Manager Mark Dominik to engineer a series of impressive off-seasons both via free agency acquisitions as well as through the NFL draft. In addition to his eye for talent evaluation, Hickey also has a history of scouting and evaluating all levels of professional football including NFL, CFL and the Arena Football League while also handling all aspects of the NFL draft. He also assisted in managing the day-to-day football operations focusing on player personnel, overseeing both the pro personnel and college scouting departments. Along with his football operations duties, Hickey also assisted Dominik and the Buccaneers coaching staff with all transactions made by the team, including daily roster moves, free agency and contract negotiations.

Hickey served as director of college scouting from 2005-09. Prior to taking a senior administrative and personnel role with the Buccaneers, Hickey was a member of the team's college scouting staff where he was responsible for the Midwest region of the country. He joined the Buccaneers as a pro personnel assistant in 1996 following a stint as a coach at Blinn Junior College where he was responsible for coaching the defensive backs as well as recruiting in the state of Texas. Hickey has been a part of programs throughout his career whether on the high school, collegiate or professional level that have gone on to win championships, including a high school state championship in 1989, a junior college national championship in 1990 and a Super Bowl title in 2002. Hickey began his collegiate career as a safety at Coffeyville Community College in Coffeyville, Kansas, where he was a captain and an academic All-American prior to becoming a three-year starter and letter winner at safety for the University of Tulsa. He graduated from the University of Tulsa with a degree in history/education.

Dennis and his wife, Stephanie, have one daughter, Breanna, and one son, Barrett. A passionate supporter of community efforts, Hickey regularly assists with Special Olympics programs throughout South Florida. For the last two summers, Hickey and Dolphins players have met with and held flag football clinics with Special Olympics athletes. Additionally, he hosts local organizations at home games as part of "Hickey's Heroes" through the Dolphins' All-Community Team program. Hickey was recognized for these efforts when he was selected as winner of the Executives Award of the inaugural Steinberg-DeNicola Awards for Humanitarian Service, which was presented during Super Bowl XLIX. The awards are designed to recognize an owner, an executive, a coach, and a player who supports their community through service and charitable actions.

DAWN APONTE

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

COLLEGE: DELAWARE // NFL: 25TH SEASON // DOLPHINS: SIXTH SEASON

Dawn Aponte, in her sixth season with the Miami Dolphins, joined the team on February 1, 2010, bringing with her a wealth of football experience at the team and league level. She was promoted to executive vice president of football administration in July 2012 after serving as the club's senior vice president of football operations from 2010-11. Aponte works closely with and in support of Executive Vice President of Football Operations Mike Tannenbaum on all football operations and support functions. She also serves as the team's chief contract negotiator and is responsible for overseeing the day-to-day management of the football business and administration operations, including management and strategic planning of the teams salary cap and financial planning, negotiating and drafting player and football related contracts, the football operations budgets and labor relations issues while also maintaining and cultivating the team's relationship with the NFL and its member clubs. In addition, Aponte serves as the team's liaison on league affairs.

A veteran football executive, Aponte was named to USA Football's Board of Directors on October 17, 2013. As a member of the independent non-profit's board of directors, she helps guide the sport's national governing body in leading the game's development for youth, high school and other amateur football players. USA Football is the official youth football development partner of the NFL, partnering with leading medical organizations and collaborating with football stakeholders for a better, safer game through coaching education and player skill advancement.

Aponte also was selected by the NFL to make a presentation in 2013 at the league's Career Development Symposium at the University of Pennsylvania Wharton School of Business.

Aponte joined the Dolphins after spending the 2009 season as vice president of football administration for the Cleveland Browns. In her role with the Browns, Aponte's primary responsibilities included player contract negotiations, salary cap management, player cost budgeting, league compliance and assisting in other legal matters.

Aponte joined the Browns organization after spending the previous three years at the NFL office, where she served on the league's Management Council as the vice president of labor finance. In her position at the NFL Management Council, Aponte represented the 32 clubs in dealings with the NFL Players Association and Class Counsel on salary cap and other labor related matters. She also dealt with the clubs on Collective Bargaining Agreement, salary cap and player contract matters. Aponte served on the Management Council Working Club Executive Committee and worked with the ten-member owner committee (Management Council Executive Committee) on collective bargaining issues and labor related matters.

Prior to joining the league office, Aponte worked for the New York Jets for nearly 15 years in various capacities, most recently as the club's senior director of football administration. In that role, she worked closely with the assistant general manager on matters pertaining to the NFL's CBA, player contract negotiations and salary cap management. Aponte graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting from the University of Delaware in 1993 and passed the C.P.A. exam shortly thereafter. She went on to receive her Master's degree in Finance and Management from Wagner College in 1999, then continued on to earn her Juris Doctorate from New York Law School and is a member of the New York State Bar.

TODD BOYAN

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF OPERATIONS - SUN LIFE STADIUM

COLLEGE: GEORGETOWN // NFL: 21ST SEASON // DOLPHINS: 12TH SEASON

Todd Boyan is senior vice president of operations at Sun Life Stadium and has been in the NFL for more than 20 years. Sun Life Stadium is the home of the Miami Dolphins (NFL), Orange Bowl (CFP), University of Miami Hurricanes (NCAA) and other world-class events. Boyan is responsible for all aspects of stadium operations and oversees engineering, grounds, guest services, housekeeping, operations, parking and security, and coordinating event logistics with various local, state and federal governmental agencies.

During Boyan's tenure, Sun Life Stadium has hosted numerous national and international sporting events including Super Bowl XLI in 2007, the BCS National Championship game in 2009 and 2013, the 2010 Pro Bowl and Super Bowl XLIV in 2010. The stadium had the distinction of being the first to host the Pro Bowl before the Super Bowl was played, and the first to host the Pro Bowl on the U.S. mainland in 30 years. Sun Life Stadium is recognized throughout the industry as one of the busiest multi-purpose facilities in the world due in large part to the stadium's expertise in hosting big events.

Since Boyan joined Sun Life Stadium in 2006, he has played an integral role in securing some of the biggest musical artists to perform at the venue, including The Police (2007), Madonna (Sticky and Sweet Tour in 2008), Paul McCartney, U2 (360 Tour in 2011), Black Eyed Peas (2011), Cirque du Soleil (2013, 2014), JAY Z and Justin Timberlake (2013) and JAY Z and Beyoncé (2014). In addition to these high profile concerts, the stadium hosts other special events that include Wrestle Mania 28, Monster Jam, Jazz in the Gardens and international soccer that includes powerhouse clubs FC Barcelona, Chelsea, AC Milan and the 2010 World Cup champion Spain, Brazil, Colombia and Mexican national teams, as well as more than 200 other events that are held on stadium grounds.

Boyan and his team were integral in Sun Life Stadium breaking attendance records three times for the largest crowds to watch a soccer game in the state of Florida. Under Boyan's leadership, Sun Life Stadium hosted a match between Barcelona and Chivas de Guadalajara on Aug. 3, 2011 that drew 70,080. That record was broken on Nov. 16, 2013 when Sun Life Stadium hosted Honduras played Brazil in front of a crowd of 71,124. Then the record was broken for a third time when Brazil and Colombia competed on Sept. 5, 2014 in front of 73,429 enthusiastic fans.

During Boyan's tenure, Sun Life Stadium has twice broken its attendance records for entertainment events. First, the venue hosted a U2 concert in 2011 in front of a crowd of 75,529. The record was broken as Boyan collaborated to host Sun Life Stadium's largest ever crowd for an entertainment event when 78,363 attended Wrestlemania on April 1, 2012. At the time, that figured marked record attendance for the WWE. Boyan also was instrumental in Sun Life Stadium hosting the largest attendance in the stadium's history where Alabama defeated Notre Dame in the 2013 BCS National Championship game in front of a record crowd of 81,120.

Boyan came to Sun Life Stadium after a nine-year career as the vice president of operations for the Washington Redskins. He joined FedExField in Washington upon its opening in 1997. Boyan was responsible for stadium operations for Redskins games, college football games, security, team travel arrangements and training camp. He also assisted NFL Transportation with the development and implementation of traffic plans with Super Bowl XXIX through Super Bowl XXXVII.

Prior to his role with the Redskins, Boyan worked for the Florida Marlins Baseball Club from 1992-1995 in ticketing. He also managed ticket operations for the former Marlins Spring Training site, Space Coast Stadium in Melbourne, when it first opened.

Boyan graduated in 1992 with a Bachelors of Arts degree from Georgetown University, where he also played varsity baseball. Boyan and his wife, Christine, live in Plantation with their two children – Rachel and Jack.

Tery Howard is in her 17th season with the Miami Dolphins and Sun Life Stadium as senior vice president and chief technology officer. In her role, Howard is responsible for managing and directing the technology initiatives and strategic direction of business operations at the Miami Dolphins and Sun Life Stadium. Her primary focus includes infrastructure, telecommunications, business systems and broadcast media, in converging the technologies and services to position Sun Life Stadium and the Miami Dolphins at the forefront of the industry.

Respected throughout the industry, Howard is frequently called upon to contribute to IT presentations, panel discussions and workshops. Under her leadership, Sun Life Stadium and the Miami Dolphins are transforming the technologies to offer an innovative, connected venue, through the activation of digital mediums to drive consumer and fan engagement value. The Miami Dolphins were recognized by InfoWorld as one of the "Top 100" companies who have made the best use of technology to enhance their business, and also recognized by PC Magazine as one of the "Top 10" companies using technology in intelligent ways to improve their business. Howard also was recognized by SportsBusiness Journal in 2011 as a Game Changer in Sports for her innovation and impact to the industry. In addition, Howard was a finalist for the Technology Leader of the Year Award at the Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce in 2007.

With Howard at the helm, her team was recognized by ComputerWorld as leaders in "Best Practices in Mobile & Wireless." In addition to her responsibilities within the Dolphins' organization, Howard also is actively involved in various community initiatives and advisory boards, providing guidance and a leadership role in the community and beyond. In 2010, Howard was recognized by the FBI Cyber Division for her vision and support of the FBI-SOS (Safe Online Surfing) Internet Challenge. The following year, Howard was tapped as the recipient of the "Glass Ceiling Award" from Florida Diversity Council. She now serves as an advisor to eMerge Americas, Florida CIO Executive Council, Sports and Entertainment Alliance and Technology and Beacon Council of South Florida. Additionally, she serves on the St. Thomas University's Dean's Advisory Council, as well as engaging in speaking and panel member invitations throughout the U.S. and abroad on a variety of technology topics.

Howard joined the Dolphins after 16 years with Carnival Cruise Lines, where she gained experience managing all of Carnival's shipboard technologies. She earned a Bachelor of Science and a Masters in Business Administration from Florida International University (FIU), and resides in Miami Beach with her husband Eric and three children – Natalie, Charlie and Monica.

JASON JENKINS

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF COMMUNICATIONS & COMMUNITY AFFAIRS

COLLEGE: TEXAS TECH // NFL: 15TH SEASON // DOLPHINS: SEVENTH SEASON

Jason Jenkins is in his seventh season with the Miami Dolphins and was named senior vice president of communications and community affairs in January 2015. Jenkins oversees the organization's front-facing brands, including media outreach, public relations, digital media and community efforts. He directs the communications department in managing the strategic planning and implementation of projects, including Sun Life Stadium and its allied events and programs. Additionally, he leads the organization's community affairs, including the Miami Dolphins Foundation, related events and fundraising.

Jenkins previously served as the team's vice president of communications, being named to that position in May 2013. Jenkins also served as the team's senior director of media relations and originally started with the Dolphins in 2009 as director of media relations. Prior to joining the Dolphins, Jenkins worked in the media relations department for the San Francisco 49ers as the director of public relations, operations and assistant public relations director. Jenkins has been selected by the NFL to coordinate public relations for the Pro Bowl seven times (2003, 2004, 2007, 2008, 2010, 2011 and 2012) and one time for the NFC Championship Game (2006). He also has conducted seminars at the Rookie Symposium and NFL Business Summit on media relations.

Prior to his move to the 49ers, Jenkins served as the associate athletic director at Texas Southern University from 1999-2002 and as athletic sales and promotion manager and sports communications assistant at Lehigh University from 1997-99.

A native of Houston, Texas, Jenkins earned his bachelor's degree in 1997 in broadcast journalism from Texas Tech University, where he played defensive back for the Red Raiders. Upon graduation, Jenkins worked in various positions within the athletics department at Texas Tech.

He resides in Coral Springs with his wife Elizabeth, and two children – Liya and Aiden.

TODD KLINE

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF COMMERCIAL OFFICER

COLLEGE: MARYLAND // NFL: FIRST SEASON // DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Todd Kline begins his first season with the Miami Dolphins as senior vice president and chief commercial officer. In this new role, Kline oversees all sponsor revenue for the Dolphins, including corporate partnerships and events.

A well-rounded and results-driven executive with domestic and international experience in sponsorship sales, media sales and partnership activation, Kline comes to the Dolphins after serving as the senior vice president of partnership and media sales for AEG Global Partnerships, the worldwide sponsorship and premium seating sales division of AEG. In this role, Kline oversaw sales and client activation for the cable television network, AXS TV, as well as AXS Ticketing and the AXS.com Digital Network.

Kline also served as the day-to-day interface for AEG with Farmers Insurance on all elements associated with returning the NFL to Los Angeles and the building of Farmers Field. During his tenure at AEG, Kline launched the "Partnership Innovation" group providing consulting services and industry leading best practices to the worldwide AEG Global Partnerships Sales and Activation teams, as well as created award winning partnerships and activations at signature AEG assets such as Staples Center, L.A. LIVE and the 02 London.

Prior to his time with AEG, Kline served as the senior corporate marketing manager for the NFL Players Association and an account director at GroupM ESP.

He received his Bachelors of Science in business management from the University of Maryland and a Masters of Science in marketing at Johns Hopkins University. He resides in Miami with his wife, Megan Mildrew.

Longtime Miami Dolphins player and executive Nat Moore is entering his fourth season as senior vice president of special projects and alumni relations, after being named to the position on April 1, 2012. Moore oversees the Dolphins alumni activities and, in an expanded senior advisory role, works closely with Dolphins President and Chief Executive Officer Tom Garfinkel on a variety of special projects.

Moore in his role directs one of the NFL's largest fan bases in South Florida and incorporates the team's legends in various activities the franchise hosts. During the 2015 season, he will collaborate closely with the historical affairs department, as well as several areas within the organization, to commemorate the Miami Dolphins' 50th season, including a special marquee celebration during the Dec. 14 home game against the New York Giants.

In addition, Moore has represented the Dolphins franchise at countless charitable and civic activities. He handled alumni, youth and special projects for the team starting in 2006, serving as a key organizational liaison to former Dolphins players and coaches nationwide. He represents the alumni on the team's Honor Roll selection committee and is a major contributor to all of the organization's activities honoring the great teams and individuals in Dolphins history.

One of the most celebrated players in Dolphins history, Moore was drafted in the third round of the 1974 draft (78th overall) out of the University of Florida. Moore spent his entire 13-year NFL career as one of the most productive offensive players in Dolphins' history. Moore ranks among the top three players in seven major career statistical categories. He is second in career touchdowns (75), receiving touchdowns (74) and combined yardage (8,950) and third in receptions (510), receiving yards (7,547), total yards from scrimmage (7,795) and receiving touchdowns (12) in a season. He also played in Super Bowls XVII and XIX.

Moore earned All-Pro recognition and was a Pro Bowl selection in 1977. He was named the team's Most Outstanding Receiver for six straight years (1974-79). On December 5, 1999, the Dolphins organization honored Moore as the 12th honoree and second receiver to be inducted into the Dolphins Honor Roll. He also is one of 15 former Dolphins to be inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame.

Establishing a positive reputation on and off the field led Moore to be named the Dolphins' 1984 NFL "Man of the Year," an honor bestowed on the player who gives outstanding service to his community, and earned him the 1985 Byron White Humanitarian Award for his service to his team, community and country. In recognition of Moore's impact in South Florida, Dolphins Founder Joe Robbie in 1987 renamed the Dolphins' community service award to The Nat Moore Community Service Award. This award is given each year to a Miami Dolphins player recognized for his involvement in the South Florida community.

Moore is a broadcast analyst during Miami Dolphins preseason games on team partner WFOR-CBS with former Dolphins quarterback and Pro Hall of Fame inductee Bob Griese. In addition, Moore serves on a number of boards across South Florida, including Sun Trust Bank NA, Orange Bowl Committee and the AvMed Community Advisory Board.

Moore graduated from the University of Florida with a degree in education. He resides in Miami with his wife, Pat.

MYLES

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL COUNSEL

COLLEGE: RUTGERS // NFL: FIRST SEASON // DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Myles Pistorius is in his first season with the Miami Dolphins after being named senior vice president and general counsel on June 18, 2015. In his role, Pistorius is responsible for all legal affairs of the Miami Dolphins and Sun Life Stadium.

Pistorius joins the Dolphins after fifteen years at the National Basketball Association where he served as senior vice president of content and business affairs and was responsible for the business affairs and strategic planning of NBA events and experiences on a global basis, including the NBA All-Star Game, NBA Draft and NBA Global Games.

Pistorius also spent time as senior vice president, legal and business affairs at the NBA, serving for 13 years as legal and business affairs counsel for the NBA's events, marketing, production, broadcasting, content distribution and communications groups.

Before joining the NBA, Pistorius was a corporate associate with the law firm of Simpson Thatcher & Bartlett in New York City. He received his juris doctorate from Columbia University School of Law, and a bachelors of arts in political science from Rutgers College.

A PERFECT MOMENT IN TIME

On January 31, 2010, prior to kickoff of the Pro Bowl game played at Sun Life Stadium, the Miami Dolphins unveiled the "Perfect Moment In Time" statue in honor of Hall of Fame Coach Don Shula. The 10-foot tall bronze sculpture of Shula riding on the shoulders of Hall-of-Fame linebacker Nick Buoniconti and reserve offensive lineman Al Jenkins after winning Super Bowl VII to complete the Perfect Season was unveiled in front of the team's new corporate headquarters at Gate E at Sun Life Stadium. The event marked the return of the Dolphins front office to Miami-Dade County after 16 years. Additionally on that day, the stadium's new address was announced as 347 Don Shula Drive in honor of the head coach's career victory total.

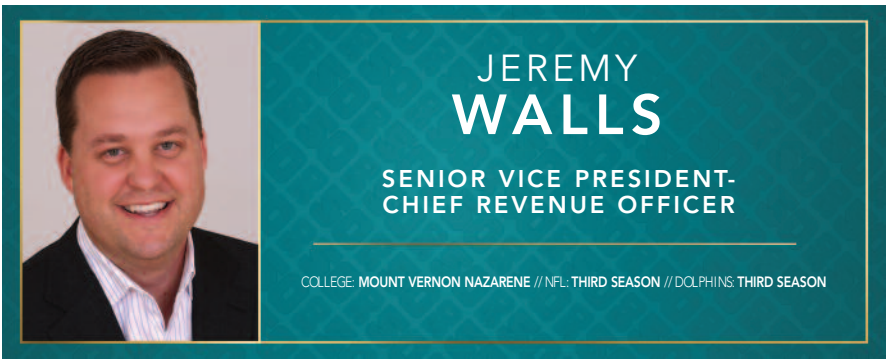
Bill Senn enters his first full season with the Miami Dolphins after being named senior vice president of stadium renovations in November 2014. Senn oversees the overall construction development process, including contractual commitments with vendors, contractors and consultants to make sure the Dolphins requirements are properly adhered to.

In his role, Senn works closely with HOK Architects and a host of specialty consultants on design development and with Hunt Construction Group, the project's construction manager to ensure that the building is constructed in accordance with the necessary design, quality standards, code compliance, budget and schedule requirements.

Senn is a veteran in the construction industry, bringing more than 35 years of experience to his role as well as over two decades specialized within the sports construction field. He has worked in both the NBA and NFL, constructing new facilities and overhauling facilities to make them modern for an enhanced fan experience. Prior to his role with the Dolphins, Senn oversaw the upgrades to Lincoln Financial Field for the Philadelphia Eagles.

He previously served as senior vice president of infrastructure for the Toronto 2015 Pan and ParaPan Games, owner's representative consultant for the Eagles, as well as with the New York Jets as senior vice president of design and construction participating in the early design and contract stages of MetLife Stadium and overseeing the building of the team's training facility, the Atlantic Health Jets Training Center.

Senn is a graduate of Ryerson University, formerly Ryerson Polytechnical Institute, in Toronto with a Bachelors of Technology in architectural sciences specializing in project management. He resides in Cooper City, Fla., with his wife, Laurie.



Jeremy Walls is in his third season with the Miami Dolphins and his first as the team's senior vice president and chief marketing officer having been named to the position in January of 2015. For the previous two years, he served as the Dolphins Chief Revenue Officer. In his new role, Walls takes his considerable experience and success in sales and service to lead the team's marketing, creative, ticket sales/operations and entertainment efforts.

Under Walls' leadership in 2014, the Miami Dolphins had the highest season ticket member renewal percentage in five years and set an all-time NFL record in group sales. As a result, the Miami Dolphins had the largest percent increase in the NFL in home attendance, leading to a 20 percent increase in overall ticket sales versus 2012.

In May 2015, the Dolphins launched their 50th Season Marketing Campaign entitled "Since," coined so as the moment the Miami Dolphins became the fabric of their fandom. The impact was immediate, with the campaign in its first month generating millions of impressions, thousands of fan submissions and national recognition.

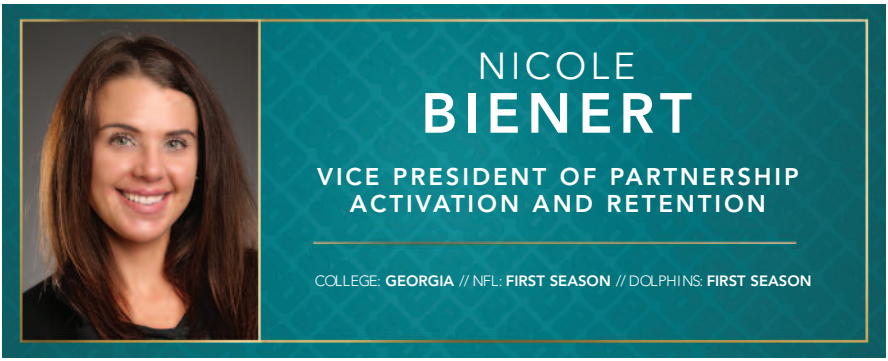
Walls joined the Dolphins from the San Diego Padres where he served as vice president of ticket sales, service and operations. At San Diego, he oversaw the Padres ticket sales department which included season tickets, groups, suites, services, operations and CRM/strategy. Under Walls' direction, the Padres increased overall ticket sales revenue and tickets sold each season, including the largest group sales revenue year in Petco Park history. In addition, the team was recognized in a SportsBusiness Journal survey for having the number one ticket sales and service team in baseball in both 2011 and 2012.

Prior to his time with the Padres, Walls was the director of team marketing and business operations for the National Basketball Association. As a member of the TMBO group, he supported the business efforts of NBA, WNBA and D-League teams, by spending time in market consulting with a different team, and its executives each week. Walls had a specific emphasis on ticket sales, sponsorship and marketing functions. He also was responsible for presenting, training and teaching best practices to the teams' business staffs at 5+ league meetings & workshops annually.

In addition, Walls served as director of groups, suites and inside sales for the Arizona Diamondbacks, where he helped create a proactive sales culture by developing and implementing the department's overall strategic plan. With the Diamondbacks, he increased group sales revenue and group tickets sold. Walls also set the organization's single-season record for group sales revenue.

Prior to working with the Diamondbacks, he served as a group sales manager and account executive with the NBA's Phoenix Suns, where he finished #2 in the entire NBA in sales.

Walls is a graduate of Mount Vernon Nazarene University, where he received his degree in Sports Management. Walls and his wife, Maile, live in Weston, Fla. with their daughter, Kaelin, and son, Kostner.

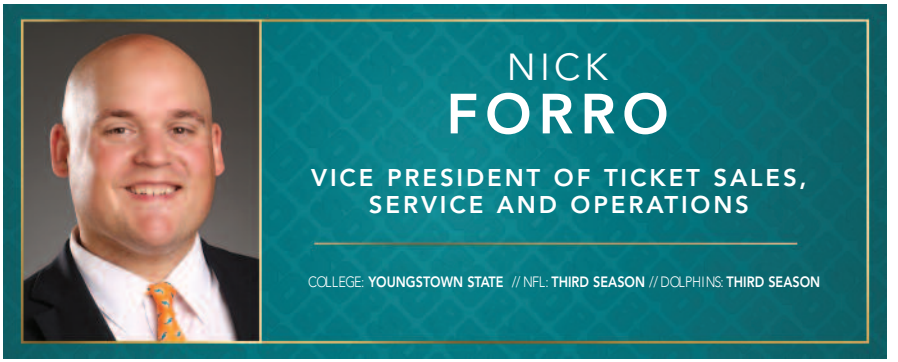


Nicole Bienert enters her first season with the Miami Dolphins as vice president of partnership activation and retention. In her new role, Bienert is responsible for implementing various partnership initiatives, developing activation plans for existing corporate partners, event booking for stadium events, sponsorship analytics, managing an activation and retention staff and overseeing the day to day relationships in the Dolphins' client portfolio.

Bienert joins the Dolphins with an extensive background in marketing, sponsorship sales and corporate partnerships. Bienert most recently served as senior director of team marketing and business operations with the National Basketball Association. She was responsible for the day-to-day league business relationships of the WNBA Atlanta Dream and Seattle Storm. Bienert also served as a sponsorship consultant for the NBA, WNBA and D-League senior team management.

Prior to her role with the NBA, Bienert worked as senior director of sponsorship sales for Proxy Partners in Denver, CO. She formerly served as corporate partnerships senior account executive for the Denver Broncos, as well as with Kroenke Sports Enterprises in the same role.

Bienert is a graduate of the University of Georgia, where she attained her Bachelors in Business Administration.



Nick Forro is entering his third season with the Miami Dolphins as vice president of ticket sales, service and operations. In his role, he is responsible for overseeing all aspects of the Dolphins membership sales and service.

Under Senior Vice President and Chief Marketing Officer Jeremy Walls' and Forro's leadership in 2014, the Dolphins implemented a membership program based on four lifestyle categories for fans: family, social, fanatic and business alliance with immediate results. The Dolphins had the highest season ticket member renewal percentage in five years and set an all-time NFL record in group sales. Additionally, the Dolphins during the 2014 season led the NFL in home ticket sales growth.

Forro joined the Dolphins from MLB's New York Yankees, where he previously served as ticket sales and service director. In his time with the team, he directed a $42 million new business campaign that resulted in a 19 percent increase over the 2012 season. Forro also helped strategize and execute the build out of the company's first dedicated group sales and retention departments.

Prior to the Yankees, Forro got his start with the NBA's Phoenix Suns serving as season sales director. In that capacity, he was responsible for all new sales strategy, tracking and projecting for the Suns and WNBA Phoenix Mercury ticket plan campaigns. In addition, Forro was instrumental in the development, e-marketing, lead generation and execution of more than 50 sales events for the Suns and Mercury during the 2010-11 season as well as the 2011-12 campaigns. Forro started his sports career with the Suns, working his way up from an inside sales consultant, to an account executive in season ticket sales to new business development manager.

Forro attained a Bachelors of Science in business administration from Youngstown State University in Ohio, where he lettered in football. He resides in Weston, Fla. with his wife, Erin, and their three children – Carter, Nicholas and Paige.

DOLPHINS HOLD NFL RECORD FOR CONSECUTIVE HOME WINS

The Dolphins own the NFL record for consecutive home games won. Over a four-year stretch from 1971-74, the team compiled 27 straight regular season wins at the Orange Bowl. The streak began in the second home game of 1971, a 41-3 decision over New England on October 17, and ended in the 1975 season-opener, a 31-21 loss to Oakland on September 22. The most recent team to threaten this mark was the Green Bay Packers, who won 25 consecutive regular season contests at Lambeau Field between 1995-98 before dropping a 37-24 decision to Minnesota on October 5, 1998. The Denver Broncos won 24 straight home games from 1996-98.

HARVEY GREENE

VICE PRESIDENT OF HISTORICAL AFFAIRS

COLLEGE: PENNSYLVANIA // NFL: 27TH SEASON // DOLPHINS: 27TH SEASON

Harvey Greene is in his 27th season with the Miami Dolphins and his second as the team's vice president of historical affairs. For the previous 25 years, he headed the team's media relations department, including the last 12 of those seasons as the club's senior vice president of media relations. In his current role with the Dolphins, he and his staff are responsible for making the team's unparalleled tradition and heritage even more relevant to its current fan base, through the use of historical displays, exhibits, multi-media presentations, alumni interaction, the many activities surrounding the club's 50th season celebration this year and other platforms. They also are responsible for maintenance and modernization of the team's historical records, library, artifacts and memorabilia dating from the club's inception in 1966 through the current season.

During his tenure with the Dolphins, Greene and his staff twice were recipients of the Pete Rozelle Award, an annual honor awarded by the Professional Football Writers of America to the NFL's best public relations department, and were finalists three other times. In addition, Greene also has worked on the NFL public relations staff at 24 Super Bowls and at two Pro Bowls.

Before joining the Dolphins, Greene spent almost four seasons as the director of media relations for the New York Yankees (1986-89), where he served as the main spokesperson for principal owner George Steinbrenner. Prior to that, he spent three years as director of public relations and broadcasting for the Cleveland Cavaliers (1983-86), twice winning the McHugh/Splaver Award as the outstanding public relations director in the NBA. During his tenure with the Yankees, he was part of Major League Baseball's public relations staff for the World Series and served in a similar capacity at the NBA Finals when he was with the Cavs. He also worked for three years (1980-83) as the public relations director for the Madison Square Garden Network, the country's largest regional sports television network.

Internationally, Greene has worked three Olympic Games in a media relations role. He served as an assistant venue press chief for the men's and women's basketball competition at the 1984 Olympics in Los Angeles and supervised media center operations for figure skating and short-track speed skating at the 2002 Winter Olympics in Salt Lake City and for the men's ice hockey competition at the 2010 Winter Olympics in Vancouver. He also was an assistant venue press chief for the 1994 Soccer World Cup and for the World Baseball Classic in 2006 and 2009.

On a civic level, Greene was a press officer at the 2004 Democratic Convention in Boston and the 2013 Presidential Inauguration in Washington, D.C. He also was a press advance lead for President Bill Clinton and then-Senator Hillary Clinton during portions of her 2007-08 presidential campaign. Since then, he has continued to serve periodically in an advance capacity for President Clinton (including his trip to Vietnam in 2015) and for Secretary Clinton. He also has served as an advance associate on White House trips for Vice President Joe Biden, including his visit to the U.S. Sixth Fleet headquarters in Italy in 2011, his bilateral meetings in 2013 and 2015 in Germany with German Chancellor Angela Merkel, Ukrainian President Petro Poroshenko, and other heads of state, and his trip to Brazil in 2014 to support the United States World Cup team.

Greene received his Bachelors of Arts with honors in chemistry from the University of Pennsylvania and a Masters of Science in sports administration from the University of Massachusetts. He resides in Parkland with his wife, Cathy.

DAN MARINO

SPECIAL ADVISOR TO THE PRESIDENT AND CEO

COLLEGE: PITTSBURGH // NFL: 19TH SEASON // DOLPHINS: 19TH SEASON

Dan Marino is entering his second season in a front office capacity with the Dolphins after Chairman of the Board and Managing General Partner Stephen Ross named him the team's special advisor on August 24, 2014. In his role, Marino works in a variety of different capacities throughout all facets of the organization.

The most decorated player in team history, Marino spent his entire 17-year playing career with the Dolphins. He played in 242 games (240 starts) and was 4,967-8,358 (59.4 percent) passing for 61,361 yards, 420 touchdowns and 252 interceptions for an 86.4 passing efficiency rating. Marino holds 30 Dolphins regular season team records (42 overall, including playoffs) and is tied for two others (six, including playoffs). Marino also holds five NFL regular season records and is tied for six others. He was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Feb. 5, 2005 and enshrined on Aug. 7, 2005. Marino's No. 13 jersey became the second Dolphins uniform number to be retired, on Sunday, Sept. 17, 2000, at halftime of the Dolphins-Baltimore Ravens game at Sun Life Stadium, where he was inducted into the Dolphins Honor Roll. He was also a charter inductee in the Dolphins Walk of Fame on Dec. 4, 2011.

Marino remains active in the South Florida community. In 1992, he established and continues as chairman of The Dan Marino Foundation, which has raised more than $50 million focusing on children and young adults with autism. He founded "first-of-its-kind" initiatives including: the MCH Dan Marino Center in Weston, Fla. which has over 50,000 visits annually, nationally developed the Marino Autism Research Institute, and in 2014 opened Marino Campus, a unique post-secondary educational program for young adults with autism and other developmental disabilities. He also hosts the annual DMF WalkAbout Autism at Sun Life Stadium, attended by more than 18,000 children and families. The event has raised more than $2 million to support autism programs in South Florida.

A native of Pittsburgh, Marino graduated from the University of Pittsburgh with his degree in communications. He received an Honorary Doctorate Degree in broadcast journalism from Pitt in 2008.

Marino and his wife, Claire, have six children, Daniel Charles, Michael Joseph, Joseph Donald, Alexandra Claire, Niki Lin, and Lia, and reside in Weston, Fla.

A complete bio of Marino can be found in the Hall of Fame section of the media guide.

THREE DOLPHINS NAMED NFL MAN OF THE YEAR

The NFL's Man of the Year award is the highest off-the-field honor attainable by an NFL player. It recognizes players for their excellence both on the field and in their communities.

Dwight Stephenson

Dan Marino

Jason Taylor

Center Dwight Stephenson (1985), quarterback Dan Marino (1998) and defensive end Jason Taylor (2007) have each won the award while playing for the Dolphins. Miami is one of only six teams to have three or more of its players receive the honor since it was instituted by the league in 1970. Kansas City has had five players win the award, Chicago, Pittsburgh and San Diego have each had four players recognized as the NFL Man of the Year, while Miami and Cincinnati both boast three award winners.

COACHING STAFF

JOE PHILBIN

HEAD COACH

COLLEGE: WASHINGTON & JEFFERSON // NFL: 13TH SEASON // DOLPHINS: FOURTH SEASON

Joe Philbin was named the 10th head coach in Miami Dolphins history on January 20, 2012.

The Dolphins' second straight 8-8 mark in 2014 included improvements in all three phases of the game. Miami joined elite company with its first six wins of the season being by at least 13 points. Only three other teams since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger recorded their first six (or more) wins in a season by margins of 13 or more points: the 2007 New England Patriots, the 1999 St. Louis Rams and the 1984 Washington Redskins.

In 2014, the Dolphins were the third least penalized team in the league. In fact, in Philbin's three years at the helm of the team, Miami has recorded 233 penalties for 1,957 yards, both of which were the lowest figures in the NFL during that span.

Miami's offense experienced a dramatic improvement under the guidance of Philbin and first-year Offensive Coordinator Bill Lazor in 2014. Not only did the unit average 24.3 points per game, tied for the eighth-highest season average in team history and most since the team averaged 24.9 in 1995, but its 4.5-point increase from 2013 (19.8 points per game) was the fourth-highest increase in the NFL from 2013 to '14. Quarterback Ryan Tannehill made significant strides in his third season, finishing with 4,045 passing yards, establishing a new career high. He joined Dan Marino as the only quarterbacks in franchise history to surpass 4,000 yards in a season. His 27 touchdowns were a career high and the sixth most in Dolphins history, and the most since Marino threw 30 in 1994. Additionally, Tannehill's 92.8 passer rating was the fifth highest in a season in Dolphins history and his 66.4 completion percentage was the second-best all-time. In his three years playing under Philbin, Tannehill has thrown for a total of 11,252 yards, the sixth-highest total by an NFL quarterback in his first three seasons in league history. Running back Lamar Miller rushed for 1,099 yards in 2014 and became the first Dolphins 1,000-yard rusher since Reggie Bush in 2011 (1,086 yards). Tannehill and Miller combined to become the first duo in team history to throw for 4,000 yards and rush for 1,000 yards in the same season. Wide receiver Jarvis Landry recorded 84 receptions, the most by a rookie in team history and the fourth-highest total overall in a season in franchise history. It was the sixth-most receptions by a rookie in NFL history. Mike Pouncey was tabbed to his second-straight Pro Bowl, being honored as a guard after making the team at center following the 2013 season.

Led by Pro Bowl selections Brent Grimes and Cameron Wake, the Dolphins' defense contributed three defensive touchdowns on the season and had a four-game stretch where they forced 11 takeaways (most since 2003). Jelani Jenkins emerged in his second NFL season and led the team with 108 tackles. Miami's pass defense finished sixth in the NFL, allowing 222.3 passing yards per game. One of the highlights during the season came when the team defeated the San Diego Chargers 37-0 to start the month of November. It was the Dolphins' first shutout victory since Dec. 10, 2006 when they defeated the New England Patriots 21-0 in Miami.

The 2014 Dolphins set the franchise record with three blocked punts in a season. They added two blocked field goals, giving Miami five blocked kicks on the season, the most since the team blocked seven in 1977. Explosive plays weren't limited to the block units as Landry won AFC Special Teams Player of the Month for October when he returned five kickoffs for 178 yards (35.6 average), with a long of 54 yards.

His 8-8 record in 2013 marked the second straight season the Dolphins improved their win total under Philbin, and he became the Dolphins' first coach to improve the team's record two consecutive years since the 1997 and 1998 campaigns. In addition, the Dolphins were one of only four teams in the NFL in 2013 (along with Seattle, Cincinnati, and Carolina) to improve their record for a second straight season.

The Dolphins got off to a 3-0 start, which was the first time since 2002 they won their first three games. Philbin rallied the team through a variety of challenges in the middle of the campaign, winning five times in a seven-game stretch in November and December and keeping the team in playoff contention the entire season.

Along the way, the Dolphins improved in a number of key areas. Philbin emphasized the importance of takeaways throughout the year and the defense responded by recording a takeaway in 15 of their 16 games, one of only five NFL teams to accomplish that feat in 2013. In addition, the Dolphins improved their turnover ratio by a plus-8 margin from the previous season, the eighth best turnover improvement in the league.

The Dolphins finished third in the AFC in scoring defense, while limiting opponents to a 77.3 passer rating, the third lowest total in the AFC and the fifth lowest total in the NFL. The Dolphins also had the best two-minute offense in the NFL, producing a league-high 36 points in drives that began with two minutes or less left in the half or the game.

Individually, Tannehill continued his development under Philbin's direction, becoming only the second Dolphins QB in team history (along with Marino) to throw for 24-or-more touchdowns in a season. Brian Hartline notched his second consecutive 1,000-yard receiving season, only the fifth time that has been accomplished in Dolphins' annals. In addition, center Pouncey was named to his first Pro Bowl team.

Defensively, two Dolphins – Wake and Grimes – were named to the Pro Bowl as a result of their outstanding season-long play. Three players – linebacker Philip Wheeler, safety Reshad Jones, and linebacker Dannell Ellerbe – each registered 100 or more tackles, and Olivier Vernon blossomed into one of the best pass-rushing defensive linemen in the league with his 11.5 sacks.

On special teams, punter Brandon Fields earned his first Pro Bowl selection while finishing second in the NFL in punting with an average of 48.8 yards per kick, while kicker Caleb Sturgis notched 111 points, the second-highest point total by a Dolphins rookie in club history.

In 2012, in Philbin's first year as an NFL head coach, the Dolphins finished in second place in the AFC East with a 7-9 record. Working with one of the youngest rosters in the NFL, Philbin had the Dolphins in playoff contention until the penultimate week of the season while improving the team's record from the previous year.

Under Philbin's leadership, the team finished tied for first in the AFC in touchdowns allowed on defense (32), and its 42.6 percent of red zone touchdowns allowed was the lowest figure in the NFL. Defensively, the team ranked third overall in the AFC in points allowed per game (19.8), and the team's 36.6 percent third down conversion rate against was the sixth best in the AFC and the tenth best mark in franchise history. In addition, the Dolphins had the third fewest penalties in the NFL in 2012.

Also under Philbin's guidance, Tannehill set franchise rookie records in several offensive categories and became the first quarterback in Dolphins history to start in all of the team's games in his first year in the league. In addition, Wake recorded 15 sacks to finish fourth in the NFL in that category while earning a starting role on the AFC's Pro Bowl team. For the third time in team history, the Dolphins had four players with 95 or more tackles.

The special teams unit also excelled under Philbin's direction, as Marcus Thigpen became the first Dolphin to return a punt and a kickoff for a touchdown in the same season. Fields' average of 50.2 yards per punt not only led the NFL, but was the highest single-season punting average in team history.

As a measure of the respect Philbin earned in his first year as the team's head coach, he was named to the Coaches Subcommittee of the NFL Competition Committee by Commissioner Roger Goodell on April 15, 2013. He also was chosen by the league to make a presentation at the NFL Career Development Symposium at the Wharton School of Business that May.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Philbin served as the Green Bay Packers offensive coordinator from 2007-11. He originally joined the Packers on February 10, 2003 as assistant offensive line coach. He was elevated to tight ends/assistant offensive line coach on February 27, 2004. Packers Head Coach Mike McCarthy promoted Philbin to offensive line coach on January 17, 2006, and then to offensive coordinator on January 15, 2007.

From 2007-11, Philbin directed an offensive unit which ranked in the top 10 in both total yards and total points, one of only two teams in the league (New England) to accomplish that feat during that period. Green Bay's point total (2,263) was third in the league over that five-year span, trailing only New England (2,457) and New Orleans (2,283).

Green Bay reached the playoffs in four of Philbin's five seasons as offensive coordinator. In three of those appearances, the Packers set team postseason records for most points in a game, with 42 vs. Seattle in 2007, 45 at Arizona in 2009, and 48 at Atlanta in 2010. Additionally, during his five seasons as offensive coordinator, a total of 12 Packers were selected to the Pro Bowl.

In 2011, the Packers set single-season franchise records for regular-season games won (15), total points (560), average points per game (35.0), total points at home (321), average points per game at home (40.1), touchdowns (64), net passing yards (4,924) and fewest giveaways (14). The 2011 season marked the third straight campaign (2009-11) that the Packers averaged at least 250.0 net passing yards. Prior to that three-year span, Green Bay had never accomplished that feat in consecutive seasons.

Rodgers established himself as one of the league's elite passers in 2011 as he posted a 122.5 passer rating, the best single-season mark in NFL history. He set an NFL single-season record with 13 games with a 100-plus quarterback rating and 12 games with a 110-plus rating. He also set franchise marks with 4,643 passing yards and 45 TDs while becoming the only quarterback in NFL history to pass for 4,000+ yards and have six or fewer INTs.

Green Bay's 6,482 total net yards in 2011 ranks first in franchise history, besting the 2004 total of 6,357 yards. The Packers' 560 points for the 2011 season ranks third in NFL single-season annals behind only the 2007 New England Patriots (589) and the 2013 Denver Broncos (606). With 70 total touchdowns in 2011, Green Bay tied the 1984 Miami Dolphins for the third-most TDs in a season in NFL history, behind only the 2007 New England Patriots (75 TDs) and the 2013 Denver Broncos (76). The Packers' turnover differential of plus-24 in 2011 tied for the second-best in franchise history behind only the plus-26 margin in 1943.

In 2010, en route to the franchise's 13th world championship, the Packers finished with the NFL's fifth-ranked passing offense at 257.8 yards per contest. It was the first time in franchise history that the Packers averaged 250.0 net passing yards in back-to-back seasons. Rodgers finished in the top 10 in nearly every passing category, falling just 78 yards short of his third straight 4,000-yard season despite missing one-and-half games due to a concussion. The Packers also posted two 45-point games during the regular season, the first time Green Bay had accomplished that feat since 1983.

From 2008-09, the Packers became the first team in league history to have a 4,000-yard passer (Rodgers), a 1,200-yard rusher (Ryan Grant) and two 1,000-yard receivers (Jennings, Donald Driver) in back-to-back seasons. The 2009 unit was particularly prolific, compiling a then-franchise-record 461 points and gaining 6,065 total net yards, which at the time was the third-most in team history. The 2009 offense also led the league in time of possession (33:03) and in fewest turnovers (16), both franchise bests.

In 2007, behind quarterback Brett Favre's MVP-caliber season, the offense ranked second in the NFL in total yards. That ranking was Green Bay's highest since 1983, while the 5,931 net yards and 435 total points both rank fourth on the franchise's single-season list. Favre's 4,155 yards passing that year combined with Rodgers' 4,038 yards in 2008 marked the first time in league history a team had different 4,000-yard passers in consecutive years.

Philbin's move from offensive line coach to offensive coordinator helped maintain continuity with the young offensive line and its zone-blocking scheme. In 2006, Philbin oversaw a line that had three rookies (Daryn Colledge, Jason Spitz and Tony Moll) combine for 38 starts. Despite injuries that led to five different starting combinations, the Packers allowed only 24 sacks and improved their run production by a half-yard per carry.

In 2005, Philbin's tight ends contributed to a passing game hampered by injuries. Green Bay joined Tennessee as one of only two NFL teams to have three tight ends record at least 25 receptions each that season, as Philbin effectively blended Donald Lee into the offense despite the tight end's late-preseason arrival.

Philbin's group in 2004 contributed to an offense that racked up more total yards (6,357) and passing yards (4,449) than any team in franchise history to that point. As proved in 2003, the line played an integral role in the NFL's third-ranked offense, including team marks for first downs (354), completions (382) and fewest sacks (14). In 2003, Philbin's teaching played a role in a rushing offense that improved from 12th the year before to third in the NFL, proving to be one of the best lines in team history.

Philbin came to Green Bay after four seasons as offensive line coach at the University of Iowa (1999-2002). Under Philbin's stewardship, Iowa fielded one of college football's finest offensive lines in 2002, helping the Hawkeyes finish second in the Big Ten Conference in rushing (214.2 yards per game). Philbin pupils Eric Steinbach, Robert Gallery and Bruce Nelson earned three of the five first-team All-Big Ten linemen spots, while Steinbach earned consensus All-America honors. Over the next two years, all three were selected in the first two rounds of the NFL draft.

Prior to coaching at Iowa, Philbin served as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Harvard University (1997-98). Under his direction in 1997, the Crimson established 15 offensive records. Five members of his offensive squad earned All-Ivy League honors, including Matt Birk, a 1998 draft choice and six-time Pro Bowl selection.

Philbin was offensive coordinator/offensive line coach at Northeastern University (1995-96) and offensive line coach at Ohio University (1994). He also spent four seasons (1990-93) at Allegheny College, highlighted by two undefeated regular seasons and an NCAA Division III national championship in 1990.

Born in Springfield, Mass., Philbin is a 1984 graduate of Washington & Jefferson College (Pa.), where he played tight end (1980). He also possesses a master's degree in education from Tulane University (1986). He is married to Diane, and the couple has five children, Matthew, John, Kevin, Tim, Colleen and a deceased son, Michael. The Philbins have participated in the Miami Dolphins "All-Community Team" program under the group name "Philbin's Phinatics." As part of the program, the Philbins purchased tickets, food vouchers, T-shirts and parking to each of the team's regular season home games and donated them to a charitable organization.

Blue Adams enters his fourth season with the Dolphins after being named assistant defensive backs coach on February 10, 2012.

In 2014, working with Defensive Back Coach Lou Anarumo, the Dolphins defensive backfield allowed only 223.3 passing yards per game, as they finished the season ranked sixth in the NFL in that category. It marked the third-straight season that the unit has improved its ranking. Cornerback Brent Grimes recorded a team-leading five interceptions en route to his second Pro Bowl in as many years since joining the team. Along with Grimes, safety Reshad Jones impacted and was one of three players in the NFL to record 70-or-more tackles, one sack and three interceptions in 2014.

In 2013, Adams helped guide a secondary that saw marked improvement in his second season at the helm, going from being ranked 27th in the NFL in passing yards allowed per game in 2012 to being ranked 16th in 2013. The defense also nearly doubled its interception output, from 10 in 2012 to 18 in 2013. Further, the defense allowed only four touchdown passes to receivers all season and the team's 35 touchdown passes allowed over the 2012-13 seasons were the second-fewest in the NFL to the Seattle Seahawks. The defensive backfield was highlighted by the play of free-agent acquisition cornerback Grimes who earned a Pro Bowl trip after tying for the team lead with four interceptions and pacing the unit with 17 passes defensed.

In 2012, Adams also assisted Anarumo with the secondary, which started five different players at cornerback during the season (Nolan Carroll, Richard Marshall, Dimitri Patterson, Sean Smith and Jimmy Wilson), while safeties Chris Clemons and Reshad Jones started all 16 games. Clemons set a career high with 96 tackles (69 solo), while Jones recorded 95 tackles (74 solo), one sack, two forced fumbles and a career-high four interceptions.

Adams joined the Dolphins after spending the 2011 season at the University of Northern Iowa working with the school's defensive backs. In 2010, he was a defensive graduate assistant at Purdue University, working with the defensive secondary.

A seventh-round selection of the Detroit Lions in the 2003 NFL draft, Adams played for the Lions and the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2003. In 2004, he played for NFL Europe's Rhein Fire. From 2005-08, Adams returned to the NFL and played with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Cincinnati Bengals and Atlanta Falcons. Adams tallied 51 tackles in his 50 career NFL games.

He rounded out his professional playing career in 2009 as a defensive back for the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football League.

Adams played four years as a defensive back at the University of Cincinnati, recording a school-record 12 interceptions in his career. He was also a second-team All-Conference USA selection as a senior. Adams is a 1997 graduate of Miami (Fla.) Senior High School, where he lettered in football. As a senior, he earned honorable mention All-State and first-team All-County honors. He finished the year with four interceptions, four sacks, 69 tackles, two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.

Lou Anarumo enters his fourth season with the Dolphins after being named defensive backs coach on February 4, 2012.

In 2014, Anarumo led a secondary that allowed only 222.3 passing yards per game, good for sixth best in the NFL and the third-straight season improving in this category. His group scored three defensive touchdowns (cornerback Cortland Finnegan on a fumble return at Oakland and safety Louis Delmas and cornerback Brent Grimes on interception returns at Jacksonville), marking the first season since 2003 when the Dolphins had three different players score defensive touchdowns. Grimes recorded a team-leading five interceptions en route to his second Pro Bowl in as many years since joining the team. Safety Reshad Jones was one of three players in the NFL in 2014 to record 70-or-more tackles, one sack and three interceptions.

In 2013, Anarumo guided a secondary that saw marked improvement in his second season at the helm, going from being ranked 27th in the NFL in passing yards allowed per game in 2012 to being ranked 16th in 2013. The defense also nearly doubled its interception output, from 10 in 2012 to 18 in 2013. Further, the defense allowed only four touchdown passes to receivers all season and the team's 35 touchdown passes allowed over the 2012-13 seasons were the second-fewest in the NFL to the Seattle Seahawks. The unit was fifth in the NFL in passer rating against, limiting opponents to a 77.3 rating. The defensive backfield was highlighted by the play of Grimes who earned a Pro Bowl trip after tying for the team lead with four interceptions and pacing the unit with 17 passes defensed.

In Anarumo's first season with the Dolphins in 2012, he coached a secondary which started five different players at cornerback during the season (Nolan Carroll, Richard Marshall, Dimitri Patterson, Sean Smith and Jimmy Wilson). In addition, safeties Chris Clemons and Reshad Jones both had the best seasons of their NFL career. Starting all 16 games, Clemons set a career high with 96 tackles (69 solo), while Jones recorded 95 tackles (74 solo), one sack, two forced fumbles and a career-high four interceptions.

Anarumo joined the Dolphins after spending eight seasons (2004-11) as defensive backs coach at Purdue University. With four new starters in 2010, the Boilermaker secondary featured true freshman cornerback Ricardo Allen, who finished with three interceptions, returning two of them for touchdowns, and led the Big Ten in interception return yardage en route to earning freshman All-America honors. Cornerbacks Brandon King and David Pender were named second team All-Big Ten in 2009, while safety Torri Williams was an honorable mention selection. Pender finished his career ranked tied for second in school history with 33 pass breakups. From 2005 to 2006, the Boilermakers rebuilt their secondary and improved from 287.3 passing yards allowed per game to 241.2 yards. In 2008, they ranked third overall in the Big Ten, surrendering just 183.2 yards per game. That figure dropped to 152.5 yards in conference games and was tops in the Big Ten. Safety Bernard Pollard was selected by the Kansas City Chiefs in the second round (54th overall pick) of the 2006 NFL draft, becoming the highest-drafted Purdue defensive player since linebacker Fred Strickland (47th overall) by the Los Angeles Rams in 1988.

Anarumo came to the Boilermakers from Marshall, where he coached the defensive backs from 2001-03. He also served as special teams coordinator in 2003. The Thundering Herd ranked 10th in the nation in passing defense in 2003, allowing 177.4 yards per game. They were sixth in 2002 at 161.5 yards after ranking 37th in 2001 at 198.7 yards. Marshall compiled a 30-8 record over the three seasons and won the GMAC Bowl in 2001 and 2002. Strong safety Chris Crocker was a third-round selection of the Cleveland Browns in the 2003 Draft.

Prior to his stint at Marshall, Anarumo was assistant head coach at Harvard from 1995-2000, working with the defensive backs and coordinating the special teams. During his tenure, he helped build a pass defense regarded among the finest in the Ivy League. The Crimson led the league in pass efficiency defense in 1999 and ranked second in interceptions in 2000.

From 1992-94, Anarumo was defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy. He also served as the admissions liaison to the athletics department.

Anarumo was a graduate assistant coach at Syracuse during the 1990-91 seasons. He was assistant defensive backs coach under Phil Elmassian – whom Anarumo replaced on the Boilermaker staff – and was responsible for film breakdown and organization of the scout teams.

From January to June 1990, Anarumo was a part-time running backs coach at Wagner College. He filled that same role at the United States Merchant Marine Academy from September 1989 to January 1990.

Anarumo and his wife, Fran, have three children: Madison, Louis and Christopher.

FLIPPER

From 1966-68, a live dolphin was situated in a water tank in the open (east) end of the Orange Bowl. He would jump in the tank to celebrate touchdowns and field goals. Flipper was removed from the Orange Bowl after 1968.

In the 1994 feature film, "Ace Ventura", starring Jim Carrey, the plot involved Snowflake, a fictional live dolphin who did tricks after the Dolphins score a touchdown and was the basis of the film after he was kidnapped as part of a revenge plot against Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino.

JOHN BENTON

OFFENSIVE LINE

COLLEGE: COLORADO STATE // NFL: 12TH SEASON // DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

John Benton enters his second season with the Dolphins after first being named assistant offensive line coach on January 29, 2014 and then being promoted to offensive line coach on March 1, 2014.

In Benton's first season with the Dolphins, his offensive line helped produce 361 first downs, tied for the second-most in franchise history and most since 1985 when the team had the same amount. The line opened up holes for running back Lamar Miller who surpassed the 1,000-yard rushing mark (1,099) for the first time in his career and helped protect quarterback Ryan Tannehill on his way to throwing for 4,045 passing yards (most since Dan Marino's 4,453 in 1994). Miller and Tannehill combined to become the first duo in franchise history to produce a 1,000-yard rusher and 4,000-yard passer in a season. Additionally, in Week 17 vs. the New York Jets, the offensive line sprung Miller for a 97-yard touchdown run, setting a new franchise record and the third-longest run in NFL history.

Despite missing the first four games of the season due to injury and making the switch to guard, Mike Pouncey was tabbed to his second-straight Pro Bowl in 2014. He became the first offensive player in Dolphins history to make the Pro Bowl at multiple positions after being selected at center in 2013. Tackle Ja'Wuan James became the eighth offensive lineman in Dolphins history to start all 16 games as a rookie, showing his versatility by starting nine games at right tackle and seven at left tackle en route to earning PFWA All-Rookie Team honors. Before suffering a knee injury, tackle Branden Albert was acknowledged as a member of the CBSSports.com Midseason All-Pro team.

Benton's 28 years of coaching experience includes 17 years in the college ranks and 11 seasons as an NFL assistant, including eight seasons (2006-13) as the Houston Texans offensive line coach. While with the Texans, Benton's offensive line was instrumental in establishing one of the NFL's top ranked offensive attacks, setting franchise marks for rushing yards (2,448) in 2011 and passing yards (4,654) and total offense (6,129 yards) in 2009. Behind All-Pro left tackle Duane Brown and All-Pro center Chris Myers, Houston's offensive line paved the way for the emergence of All-Pro running back Arian Foster, who became the 13th fastest player in NFL history to reach 5,000 career rushing yards. En route to 5,000 yards, Foster registered three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (2010-12), a franchise-record 25 career 100-yard regular season rushing games and, entering the 2014 season, he leads the AFC at 90.7 rushing yards per game since 2010.

Prior to joining the Texans in 2006, Benton spent two seasons (2004-05) with the St. Louis Rams, coaching an offensive line which was anchored by All-Pro left tackle Orlando Pace. In 2005, the Rams offensive line helped All-Pro running back Stephen Jackson rush for 1,046, the first 1,000 rushing season of his career.

Benton began his coaching career at Colorado State as a graduate assistant (1987-90) prior to accepting the position of offensive line coach at California University (Pa.) while also serving as the school's recruiting coordinator (1990-94). Benton returned to Colorado State as the offensive line coach in 1995, a position he held until 2000, when he was named the school's co-offensive coordinator from 2000-03.

Benton was a four-year starter as an offensive lineman at Colorado State (1983-86), and earned honorable mention All-WAC honors during his junior and senior seasons. He was named to the WAC's All-Academic team as a senior in 1986. A native of Durango, Colorado, he and his wife, Nicole, have two daughters, Gabrielle and Paige.

Jack Bicknell Jr. enters his second season with the Dolphins after first being named assistant offensive line coach on March 1, 2014.

Working with Offensive Line Coach John Benton in his first season with the Dolphins, Bicknell assisted to guide an offensive line that helped produce 361 first downs, tied for the second-most in franchise history and most since 1985 when the team had the same amount. The line opened up holes for running back Lamar Miller who surpassed the 1,000-yard rushing mark (1,099) for the first time in his career and helped protect quarterback Ryan Tannehill on his way to throwing for 4,045 passing yards (most since Dan Marino's 4,453 in 1994). It was the first time in franchise history that the team has produced a 1,000-yard rusher and 4,000-yard passer in a season. Additionally, in Week 17 vs. the New York Jets, the offensive line sprung Miller for a 97-yard touchdown run, setting a new franchise record and the third-longest run in NFL history.

Despite missing the first four games of the season due to injury and making the switch to guard, Mike Pouncey was tabbed to his second-straight Pro Bowl in 2014. He became the first offensive player in Dolphins history to make the Pro Bowl at multiple positions after being selected at center in 2013. Tackle Ja'Wuan James became the eighth offensive lineman in Dolphins history to start all 16 games as a rookie, showing his versatility by starting nine games at right tackle and seven at left tackle en route to earning PFWA All-Rookie Team honors. Before suffering a knee injury, tackle Branden Albert was acknowledged as a member of the CBSSports.com MidSeason All-Pro Team.

Bicknell came to Miami after spending the 2013 season as the offensive line coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers. While in Pittsburgh, Bicknell's unit paved the way for running back Le'Veon Bell, who amassed 1,259 yards from scrimmage, the most by a Steelers rookie, surpassing Franco Harris (1,235) and became just the third Pittsburgh rookie to amass over 1,000 yards from scrimmage. Bell also became the first Steelers rookie to rush for more than 100 yards in a regular season game since the 2004 season when he compiled 124 yards on 26 carries and one touchdown in a Week 16 victory at Green Bay.

Prior to joining the Steelers, Bicknell served as the offensive line coach for the Kansas City Chiefs in 2012 where he directed a unit that was instrumental in helping running back Jamaal Charles return to All-Pro form after an ACL injury cut short his 2011 season. Charles returned in 2012 and set career highs in carries (285) and rushing yards (1,509) en route to his second Pro Bowl selection at the conclusion of the season.

Bicknell began his NFL coaching career with the New York Giants in 2009 and was a member of a coaching staff that helped lead the franchise to its fourth Super Bowl title with a 21-17 victory over the New England Patriots on February 5, 2012. During the 2011 season, the Giants' line anchored an offense that finished fifth in the NFL in passing while only allowing 28 sacks. During his tenure as the Giants offensive line coach, guards Chris Snee and Shaun O'Hara were selected to three straight Pro Bowls each (2009-11). Following his first season with New York, three offensive linemen (Snee, O'Hara and tackle David Diehl) were selected to the 2010 Pro Bowl, marking the first time since 1962 that three Giants from the same position group were selected to the Pro Bowl.

Before entering the NFL coaching ranks, Bicknell spent 24 seasons (1985-2008) coaching on the collegiate level, of which eight seasons were spent as the head coach at Louisiana Tech (1999-2006), where his 43 victories are still the third-most in school history. Following the 2001 season, he was named WAC Coach of the Year after leading the Bulldogs to a conference championship in its first year of membership. Bicknell also served as the Bulldogs' offensive line coach from 1997-98.

Bicknell began his coaching career at his alma mater, Boston College, as a graduate assistant from 1985-86. Following his two seasons with the Eagles, Bicknell joined the staff at the University of New Hampshire in 1987 and spent 10 seasons with the Wildcats coaching the defensive line (1987-92) before moving to the offensive line (1993-96). Bicknell returned to Boston College in 2007 as the Eagles' assistant head coach/offensive line coach for two seasons (2007-08) before joining the Giants in the NFL.

A three-year letter winner as an offensive lineman, Bicknell played collegiately for his father at Boston College from 1981-85 where he was the center for 1984 Heisman Trophy winning quarterback Doug Flutie. It was Bicknell who snapped the ball to Flutie on the final play of the Boston College/Miami game which led to one of the most memorable conclusions to a game in college football history. The Flutie "Hail Mary" game-winning touchdown pass to wide receiver Gerald Phelan propelled the Eagles over the Miami Hurricanes in the Orange Bowl in 1984. In Bicknell's final season at Boston College, he was honored with the Scanlon Award, the highest honor bestowed upon a Boston College football player, the Scarminach Award for athletic and academic excellence and the Dean's Award in the school of education.

Bicknell comes from a family of coaches. His father, Jack, was the head coach at Boston College (1981-90) prior to becoming the head coach of the Barcelona Dragons (1991-03) of NFL Europe. His brother, Bob, has been an assistant coach at the collegiate and professional level since 1993 and in the NFL since 2007 where he been with three different teams, including, Kansas City (2007-09), Buffalo (2010-12) and currently is the wide receiver coach in Philadelphia (2013-). Born in North Plainfield, New Jersey, Bicknell attended Orono (Maine) High School. He and his wife, Helen, have three children, John, Katelyn and Alyse.

1972 DOLPHINS BOAST PAIR OF 1,000-YARD RUSHERS

The 1972 Miami Dolphins led the NFL by averaging 211.4 yards rushing per game that year. They were led by running backs Larry Csonka and Mercury Morris, who rushed for 1,117 and 1,000 yards, respectively. The '72 Dolphins are one of only four teams in NFL history to have two 1,000-yard rushers in the same season. They are joined by the 1976 Pittsburgh Steelers (Franco Harris – 1,128; Rocky Bleier – 1,036), the 1985 Cleveland Browns (Kevin Mack – 1,104; Earnest Byner – 1,002) and the 2006 Atlanta Falcons (Warrick Dunn – 1,140; Michael Vick – 1,039).

CHARLIE BULLEN

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE LINE

COLLEGE: IOWA // NFL: FOURTH SEASON // DOLPHINS: FOURTH SEASON

Charlie Bullen enters his fourth season with the Dolphins and his third as the team's assistant defensive line coach, having been named to the position on January 30, 2013. Bullen originally joined the organization as the team's defensive assistant on February 10, 2012.

In Bullen's three seasons (2012-14) working with the defensive line, Miami has recorded 123 sacks, the fifth-highest total in the AFC and ninth-most in the NFL over that time span.

In 2014, Bullen assisted with a defensive line that accounted for 30.5 of the team's 39 sacks by the defense. Leading the pass rush was defensive end Cameron Wake, who finished the season with 11.5 sacks and earned his fourth trip to the Pro Bowl. Along with Wake, fellow defensive end Olivier Vernon added 6.5 sacks, bringing his career total to 21.5 sacks, tied for the second-most sacks by a player in their first three NFL seasons with the Dolphins.

In 2013, Bullen helped guide a unit that contributed 34 of the defense's 42 sacks which was the third consecutive season that the defense had recorded 40-plus sacks and marked the first time in team history the team had accomplished this feat in three straight seasons. Additionally, the Dolphins were one of only four NFL teams to record 40-or-more sacks in each of the 2011-13 seasons. Wake earned his third Pro Bowl nod in 2013 with 8.5 sacks and Vernon notched a team-high 11.5 sacks.

In 2012, Bullen assisted a defense that finished seventh in the NFL and third in the AFC in points allowed per game (19.8). The defense's 42.6 percent of red zone touchdowns allowed was the lowest figure in the NFL. Bullen spent a lot of time helping the defensive line, which featured two players who were selected to the Pro Bowl, Wake and Randy Starks. Wake ranked third in the AFC and fourth in the NFL with 15 sacks and that total also tied for the sixth-highest single-season sack total in Dolphins history.

Bullen joined the Dolphins after spending the 2009-11 seasons as a graduate assistant coach working with the defense at the University of Iowa. Bullen also served as a student assistant for two seasons, working with then offensive coordinator and current Dolphins wide receivers coach Ken O'Keefe and the Hawkeye quarterbacks while completing work towards his bachelor's degree.

Bullen served as a volunteer assistant coach at Iowa City High School in 2006, working with the quarterbacks. City High posted a 9-2 record in 2006 and reached the state quarterfinals.

Prior to attending Iowa, Bullen played quarterback at Harper College in Palatine, Illinois. Bullen earned his bachelor's degree in finance in 2008 and a master's degree in sports management from the University of Iowa in 2011.

Bullen, along with the team's defensive linemen, participated in the Miami Dolphins "All-Community Team" program under the group name "First Line of Defense." As part of the program, Bullen and the defensive line purchased tickets, food vouchers, T-shirts and parking to each of the team's regular season home games and donated them to a charitable organization.

A member of the American Football Coaches Association, Bullen is a native of Palatine, Illinois. He and his wife, Megan, reside in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

JEFF BURRIS

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

COLLEGE: NOTRE DAME // NFL: 13TH SEASON // DOLPHINS: THIRD SEASON

Jeff Burris enters his third season with the Dolphins after being named as the club's defensive assistant prior to the 2013 season.

In 2014, Burris assisted a Dolphins defensive backfield that finished the season ranked sixth in the NFL by allowing only 223.3 passing yards per game. It marked the third-straight season that the unit has improved its ranking. Cornerback Brent Grimes recorded a team-leading five interceptions en route to his second Pro Bowl in as many years since joining the team. Along with Grimes, safety Reshad Jones impacted the defense and was one of three players in the NFL to record 70-or-more tackles, one sack and three interceptions in 2014.

In 2013, Burris helped guide a secondary that saw marked improvement, going from being ranked 27th in the NFL in passing yards allowed per game in 2012 to being ranked 16th in 2013. The defense also nearly doubled its interception output, from 10 in 2012 to 18 in 2013. Further, the defense allowed only four touchdown passes to receivers all season and the team's 35 touchdown passes allowed over the last two seasons are the second-fewest in the NFL to the Seattle Seahawks. The unit was fifth in the NFL in passer rating against, limiting opponents to a 77.3 rating. The defensive backfield was highlighted by the play of Grimes, who earned his second Pro Bowl trip after tying for the team lead with four interceptions and pacing the unit with 17 passes defensed.

Burris joined the Dolphins after spending the 2012 season as the cornerbacks coach at the University of Massachusetts. He also served as the program's community outreach liaison and had responsibilities in recruiting. Prior to joining the Minutemen, Burris served as the defensive backs coach of the United Football League's Sacramento Mountain Lions in 2011. He served a coaching internship with the Buffalo Bills in September of 2008. Burris began his coaching career in 2007 at Fishers (Ind.) High School, where he worked with the defensive backfield and assisted in the implementation of the school's defensive scheme.

A first-round selection of the Bills in the 1994 NFL draft, he played cornerback for 10 seasons in the league with the Bills (1994-97), Indianapolis Colts (1998-2001) and Cincinnati Bengals (2002-03). Burris earned a spot on the NFL's All-Rookie team in 1994. Overall, he played in 144 regular season games, started 119 of them, and posted career statistics of 529 tackles and 19 interceptions, which he returned for 302 yards and scored two touchdowns.

Burris played safety at the University of Notre Dame, where he was a consensus All-America pick and senior tri-captain. He helped lead the Irish to an 11-1 record as a senior in 1993 as the school ranked second in the final national polls that season.

A native of Rock Hill, S.C., Burris graduated from that city's Northwestern High School.

DAN CAMPBELL

TIGHT ENDS

COLLEGE: TEXAS A&M // NFL: 16TH SEASON // DOLPHINS: FIFTH SEASON

Dan Campbell enters his fifth season as Miami's tight ends coach in 2015. He originally joined the Dolphins prior to the 2010 season as a coaching intern/offense.

In 2014, Campbell's tight end unit was led by Charles Clay who posted 58 receptions for 605 yards and three touchdowns in 2014. Fellow tight end Dion Sims recorded career highs in receptions (24), receiving yards (284) and touchdowns (two). The tight ends also played a pivotal role in blocking for running back Lamar Miller en route to his first 1,000-yard rushing season. The unit helped quarterback Ryan Tannehill throw for 4,045 passing yards (most since Dan Marino's 4,453 in 1994). Miller and Tannehill combined to become the first duo in franchise history to produce a 1,000-yard rusher and 4,000-yard passer in a season.

In 2013, Campbell guided a tight ends group that featured a breakout season by Clay, who finished with the second-most receptions (69) and receiving yards (759) and tied for the third-most receiving touchdowns (six) in a season in team history by a tight end. In 2012, Campbell's unit was paced by Anthony Fasano, who posted a team-leading five touchdown receptions.

Campbell joined the Dolphins after 11 years of playing experience with the New York Giants (1999-2002), Dallas Cowboys (2003-05), Detroit Lions (2006-08) and New Orleans Saints (2009). A third-round selection of the Giants in the 1999 NFL draft, the former tight end appeared in a total of 114 games with 75 starts and caught 91 passes for 934 yards and 11 touchdowns.

Campbell attended Texas A&M where he was a four-year letterwinner and agricultural development major. A native of Clifton, Texas, Campbell and his wife, Holly, have a son, Cody and a daughter, Piper.

DAVID CORRAO

ASSISTANT LINEBACKERS

COLLEGE: ARIZONA // NFL: EIGHTH SEASON // DOLPHINS: EIGHTH SEASON

David Corrao is in his eighth season as a member of the Dolphins' coaching staff. In his current role, Corrao works as the assistant linebackers coach.

Working with Linebackers Coach Mark Duffner in 2014, Corrao assisted with the development of Jelani Jenkins. Jenkins, who was mainly a special teams contributor in 2013, stepped into the starting lineup in Week 2 and did not relinquish the spot, leading the team with 108 tackles. He was one of just three players in the NFL to record 100-or-more total tackles, 3.5-or-more sacks and two-or-more forced fumbles.

Since joining the Dolphins in 2008, Corrao has helped guide a linebacking corps that has experienced success in several areas. In 2010, Cameron Wake earned his first career Pro Bowl appearance as an outside linebacker, while Kevin Burnett (110 tackles in 2012), Karlos Dansby (134 tackles in 2012) and Dannell Ellerbe (101 tackles in 2013) all notched career-high single-season tackles totals. Additionally, from 2010-11, the squad's linebackers accounted for 45.5 of the team's 80 sacks.

Corrao joined the Dolphins after coaching the linebackers at the University of Mississippi in 2007. He served as a defensive graduate assistant coach at Ole Miss the previous two years (2005-06), when he worked with linebacker Patrick Willis, a first-round draft choice of the San Francisco 49ers and the 2007 Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year.

Prior to joining the Ole Miss staff, Corrao tutored the tight ends at Northeastern University in 2004. After several years coaching in the high school ranks, he served as a graduate assistant at Syracuse University from 2000-03.

Corrao attended the University of San Diego, where he was a member of the football team as a freshman in 1992. He earned his bachelor's degree in creative writing from the University of Arizona in 1997 and a masters in instructional design development and evaluation from Syracuse in 2003. He is a graduate of Trabuco Hills High School in Mission Viejo, Calif.

Corrao lives in South Florida with his wife, Trisha, and daughter, Landry. They are expecting a second daughter, Shaye.

DAVID CORRAO'S COACHING CAREER

2000-03	Syracuse – Graduate Assistant
2004	Northeastern – Tight Ends Coach
2005-07	Mississippi – Graduate Assistant (2005-06) – Linebackers Coach (2007)
2008-	Miami Dolphins – Defensive Quality Control Coach (2008-09) – Defensive Quality Control Coach/Assistant Linebackers Coach (2010) – Assistant Linebackers Coach (2011-)

Entering his 38th season as a coach, Kevin Coyle begins his fourth season with the Dolphins after being named defensive coordinator on January 27, 2012.

In 2014, Coyle led a defense that once again featured two Pro Bowl selections in cornerback Brent Grimes and defensive end Cameron Wake. In November, the Dolphins recorded their first shutout since 2006 by blanking the San Diego Chargers in a 37-0 victory. Along the way, the Dolphins defense contributed three defensive touchdowns (cornerback Cortland Finnegan at Oakland and safety Louis Delmas and Grimes at Jacksonville), marking the first season since 2003 when the Dolphins had three different players score defensive touchdowns. The unit also recorded a four-game stretch where they forced 11 takeaways, the most since 2003. The secondary also improved for the third-straight year in 2014, finishing sixth in the NFL, allowing 222.3 passing yards per game. Linebacker Jelani Jenkins led the defense with 108 tackles and was one of just three players in the NFL to record 100-or-more total tackles, 3.5-or-more sacks and two-or-more forced fumbles in 2014. Safety Reshad Jones was one of three players in the NFL in 2014 to record 70-or-more tackles, one sack and three interceptions.

In 2013, Coyle guided a defense that finished eighth in the NFL in points allowed per game (20.9), marking the second-consecutive season the Dolphins defense had finished in the top eight and one of only four teams to accomplish that feat. The defense also finished third in the AFC in points allowed for two-straight seasons. Similarly, Coyle's unit totaled 42 sacks, the third-consecutive season that the defense recorded 40-or-more sacks and the first time in team history that the team accomplished the feat in three-straight seasons. Further, the defense allowed only four touchdown passes to receivers all season and the team's 35 touchdown passes allowed over the 2012-13 seasons were the second-fewest in the NFL. The unit was fifth in the NFL in passer rating against, limiting opponents to a 77.3 rating and the defense's 46.4 percent of red zone touchdowns allowed was fifth-best in the NFL. Coyle's defense once again included two Pro Bowl selections in Grimes, who made his second trip (tied for the team lead with four interceptions and led the team with 17 passes defensed), and Cameron Wake, who earned his third appearance with 8.5 sacks.

In 2012, Coyle oversaw a defense which ranked seventh in the NFL and third in the AFC in points allowed per game (19.8). The defense's 42.6 percent of red zone touchdowns allowed was the lowest figure in the NFL and the team's 36.6 percent third down conversion rate against was the sixth best in the AFC and 14th best mark in club history. Coyle's defense featured two Pro Bowl selections in Wake, who established a career-high 15 sacks, and Randy Starks, who added 4.5 sacks of his own. Additionally, for the third time in team history, the Dolphins had four players with 95 or more tackles.

Coyle joined Miami from the Cincinnati Bengals, where he served the previous nine seasons (2003-11) as defensive backs coach after serving as cornerbacks coach from 2001-02.

In 2011, the Bengals ranked seventh in the NFL in total defense, which included a pass defense that finished ninth by allowing just 211.6 passing yards per game. Coyle's secondary helped Cincinnati score a defensive touchdown in three-straight games, with each of the scores initiated through a turnover created by a member of the defensive backfield. That feat had not been accomplished by the Bengals in nearly 30 years.

The 2010 season presented a challenge for Coyle as five veteran defensive backs due for starting jobs or significant reserve roles wound up being placed on the Reserve/Injured list and missed a combined total of 46 games. Cornerbacks Leon Hall and Johnathan Joseph were standouts on this unit and combined for seven interceptions. Also during the 2010 season, Coyle helped guide a productive return to the NFL for cornerback Adam Jones, prior to Jones' season-ending injury after five games. Jones proved to be an explosive force and a solid team influence after sitting out the 2009 season. Additionally, he helped revive the careers of safeties Chris Crocker and Reggie Nelson.

In 2009, working with a healthier unit, Coyle directed a group that helped fuel the team's capture of the AFC North Division title. The Bengals finished sixth in the NFL in net pass defense and fourth in overall defense.

In 2005, Coyle oversaw a Bengals defensive back unit that had 23 of Cincinnati's NFL-leading 31 interceptions on the year. He helped guide a 10-interception season by Pro Bowl cornerback Deltha O'Neal, the highest individual total in Bengals history. O'Neal was the second defensive back under Coyle to make the Pro Bowl, as cornerback Tory James earned the honor in 2004, when he had eight interceptions.

Prior to joining the Bengals, Coyle served as defensive coordinator at Fresno State from 1997-2000, where his defenses produced three first-team All-Western Athletic Conference players in both '99 and '00, best in the league both years. Six players from Coyle's Fresno State defenses went on to play in the NFL, including three defensive backs.

As Maryland's defensive coordinator from 1994-96, Coyle oversaw a dramatic improvement in the Terrapins defense, steadily guiding a program that had struggled prior to his arrival and coaching future NFL cornerbacks Chad Scott and Lewis Sanders.

Serving as defensive coordinator at Syracuse from 1991-93, Coyle's 1992 defense led the nation in interceptions (24) and set a school record for fewest rushing yards allowed (1,007) in an 11-game season. During his time there, the Orange posted victories over Ohio State and Colorado in consecutive seasons. He also coached future NFL standout safety Donovin Darius.

Coyle was at Holy Cross from 1982-90. During his five years as defensive coordinator (1986-90), the school was the winningest Division I-AA team in the nation (49-5-1). In 1980, he was a coaching assistant at Arkansas under College Football Hall of Famer Lou Holtz.

He began his college tenure in 1978 as a graduate assistant at the University of Cincinnati.

Coyle is involved with numerous local and national charities. He has participated in the Miami Dolphins "All-Community Team" program under the group name "Coyle's Champions."

As part of the program, he purchased tickets, food vouchers, T-shirts and parking to each of the team's regular season home games and donated them to a charitable organization.

Coyle was born in Staten Island, N.Y. where he attended Monsignor Farrell High School and was inducted into the school's hall of fame in 2010. He was also inducted into the Staten Island Sports Hall of Fame in January of 2012. He received his undergraduate degree in physical education from Massachusetts in 1978 and earned a master's degree in education from Cincinnati in 1979.

He and his wife, Louise, have a daughter, Jenlain, who is attending Georgetown Law School.

Mark Duffner enters his second season with the Dolphins after being named linebackers coach on January 21, 2014. He has 40 years of coaching experience, which includes the past 18 seasons as an NFL assistant and 22 years in the college ranks, of which 11 seasons were spent as a head coach.

In his first season directing Miami's linebackers, Duffner helped develop Jelani Jenkins, who was mainly a special teams contributor in 2013. Jenkins stepped into the starting lineup in Week 2 and did not relinquish the spot, leading the team with 108 tackles. He was one of just three players in the NFL to record 100-or-more total tackles, 3.5-or-more sacks and two-or-more forced fumbles. Veteran Koa Misi moved to middle linebacker in 2014 and made a career-high 64 stops with one sack in 11 starts.

Duffner joined Miami from the Jacksonville Jaguars where he spent eight seasons (2006-13) as linebackers coach. He was named the Jaguars' 20th anniversary top assistant coach by The Florida Times-Union. In 2013 with the Jaguars, Duffner's unit was highlighted with the selection of veteran Paul Posluszny to the 2014 Pro Bowl. He became the first Jacksonville linebacker selected since 1999. In 2012, the duo of Posluszny, who broke the Jaguars franchise single-season record with a career-high 231 tackles, while adding three interceptions and two sacks, and first-year starter Russell Allen, who posted a career-best 201 tackles, became the first tandem in Jaguars history to each make 200 or more tackles in a season. To date, three of the franchise's top four seasons in terms of individual tackles were made by Duffner-coached linebackers.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, Duffner held the same position with the Green Bay Packers for three seasons (2003-05). During his time with the Packers, Duffner was instrumental in the development of 2003 first-round draft pick Nick Barnett, who set a franchise record with 194 tackles and became the first Packer to lead the team in tackles for three consecutive seasons (2003-05). Also while in Green Bay, the Packers defense concluded the 2005 season as the NFL's top ranked defense against the pass, and as the seventh ranked defense overall in the NFL.

Duffner entered the NFL coaching ranks with the Cincinnati Bengals, where he spent six seasons as linebackers coach (1997-2000) and defensive coordinator (2001-02). In his first year as coordinator in 2001, the Bengals defense allowed the unit's fewest points (309) since 1989 and fewest yards per game (302) since 1983. In addition, the defense set a franchise single-season record for sacks that year with 48, a mark that stood for 11 seasons.

As well as being an accomplished assistant coach in the NFL, Duffner has an 80-40-1 record as a head coach at the collegiate level. As head coach at the University of Maryland (1992-96), Duffner led the Terrapins to their best record over two seasons in over a decade in his final two seasons, as well as a return to the national rankings in 1995 for the first time in nine seasons. Duffner was also the head coach at The College of the Holy Cross for six seasons (1986-91). While Duffner was head coach of the Crusaders, Holy Cross won five Patriot League championships, four Lambert Cups and four ECAC Team of the Year awards. Duffner also led his team to the No. 1 ranking in the final 1987 NCAA Division I-AA poll. He was named the Patriot League Coach of the Year four times, while also being named National Coach of the Year honors in 1987 and 1991. Duffner's .917 winning percentage (60-5-1) was the best in school and Patriot League history when he left the program. He was inducted into The College of the Holy Cross Hall of Fame in 2008.

Duffner's coaching career began as a graduate assistant under Woody Hayes at Ohio State (1975-76) where he earned a master's degree before serving as defensive coordinator at the University of Cincinnati (1977-80).

A native of Annandale, Virginia, Duffner played defensive line at William & Mary (1972-74) and was later inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 1990. He and his wife, Kathy, have three children, daughters, Christina and Carolyn, and son, John, and a granddaughter, Camilla.

Ben Johnson enters his fourth season with the Dolphins and his third as the team's assistant quarterbacks coach, having been named to the position on January 30, 2013. Johnson originally joined the organization as the team's offensive assistant on February 10, 2012.

Working with Quarterbacks Coach Zac Taylor and Offensive Coordinator Bill Lazor, Johnson helped Ryan Tannehill experience significant progress in his development in the 2014 campaign. Tannehill finished with 4,045 passing yards, establishing a new career high and he joined Dan Marino as the only quarterbacks in franchise history to surpass 4,000 yards in a season. Tannehill's 11,252 passing yards in his first three seasons are the sixth-most by any quarterback in NFL history over the course of their first three seasons. Tannehill has thrown for more than 3,000 yards in each of his three seasons, becoming the first to do so in his first three seasons with the team. His 27 touchdowns in 2014 were also a career high, the sixth most in Dolphins history, and the most since Marino threw 30 in 1994. Tannehill also set career highs with a completion percentage of 66.4 and a passer rating of 92.8. Additionally, Tannehill set a franchise record with his 392 completions, surpassing Marino's 385 in 1994.

In 2013, Johnson helped guide quarterback Tannehill to throw for 3,912 passing yards. His 7,207 passing yards through his first two seasons were the fifth-most by any quarterback over the course of their first two seasons in NFL history.

In 2012, Johnson assisted with an offensive unit which finished fourth in the AFC in rushing touchdowns (15) and tied for third in the NFL in fewest offensive penalties (39). In addition, quarterback Tannehill set franchise rookie records in several offensive categories and became the first quarterback in Dolphins history to start in all the team's games in his first year in the league.

Johnson joined the Dolphins after spending three years (2009-11) at Boston College. He spent his final season as tight ends coach after spending his first two seasons as a graduate assistant.

Johnson played four seasons as a quarterback for UNC after walking on to the team in 2004. He graduated from North Carolina in 2008 with a B.S. in mathematics and a B.S. in computer science.

BEN JOHNSON'S COACHING CAREER

2009-11	Boston College – Graduate Assistant (2009-10) Tight Ends Coach (2011)
2012-	Miami Dolphins – Offensive Assistant Coach (2012) Assistant Quarterbacks Coach (2013-)

Darren Krein enters his fifth season with the Dolphins after being named the head strength and conditioning coach on January 20, 2011. He was retained by Head Coach Joe Philbin on January 30, 2012.

In 2013, Krein was recognized by his peers with their highest honor as he named the NFL Strength Coach of the Year at the league's annual Strength and Conditioning Coaches banquet in Indianapolis.

Prior to his arrival in Miami, Krein spent 11 years in the NFL in various strength and conditioning capacities, having been a part of the Seattle Seahawks staff on two different occasions (1997-98 and 2001-09). He originally joined the Seahawks as a member of Dennis Erickson's staff on March 1, 1997, for two seasons and re-joined the team in 2001 in the same capacity under Mike Holmgren. Krein holds the distinction of being the first-ever assistant strength and conditioning coach hired by the Seattle Seahawks.

While in Seattle he assisted in the coordination of the players' weight training, along with the team's offseason conditioning program. He also played an integral role in the designing and implementation of the rehabilitation process, working with players that were previously injured to help build strength and flexibility to become game ready. A notable Krein achievement was the physical development of Pro Bowl quarterback Matt Hasselbeck, who after injuries cut short his first season in Seattle (2001) and serving as the primary backup in 2002, Hasselbeck's offseason training, under the supervision of Krein, allowed him in 2003, 2005 and 2007 to become the first Seahawks quarterback since Rick Mirer in 1993 to start all 16 games as well as being named a member of the NFC Pro Bowl squad.

Prior to joining the Seahawks, Krein was a 1994 fifth-round (150th overall) draft choice of the San Diego Chargers. He missed his rookie season due to a knee injury. Claimed off waivers by the Green Bay Packers on June 17, 1995, he did not see game action. Krein played the entire 1996 World League season with the Barcelona Dragons, but re-injured his knee which required surgery at the end of the season and retired.

A four-year letterman as a defensive end at the University of Miami (1989-93), Krein was named unanimous first-team All-Big East selection and second-team Associated Press All-American as a senior. He left the Hurricanes with 190 career tackles and 17.5 sacks after beginning his career as a middle linebacker. Krein earned his degree in business management from the University of Miami.

A native of Aurora, Colorado, where he attended Smoky Hill High School, Krein and his wife, Jennifer, have a daughter Ella and two sons Aiden and Kellen.

DARREN KREIN'S COACHING CAREER

Bill Lazor enters his second season with the Dolphins after being named offensive coordinator on January 15, 2014.

In his first season with the Dolphins in 2014, Miami's offense experienced a dramatic improvement. Lazor's debut season saw the Dolphins score 24.3 points per game, tied for the eighth-highest season average in team history and most since the team averaged 24.9 in 1995. The 4.5-point increase from 2013 (19.8 PPG) was the fourth highest average points per game increase in the NFL from 2013 to '14. Miami's 350.1 yards per game on offense in 2014 were the 10th-highest average in franchise history and most since the team averaged 357.3 in 1995. The Dolphins offense set a new franchise record with 36 first downs in a game in Miami's 37-35 come-from-behind victory over Minnesota in Week 16. The run game excelled with 399 rushing attempts for 1,872 yards in 2014. The unit's 4.69 rushing average was the second highest in the NFL and fifth-best mark in franchise history.

One of the biggest improvements on offense was the progress of third-year quarterback Ryan Tannehill, who established a new career high with 4,045 passing yards. He joined Dan Marino as the only quarterbacks in franchise history to surpass 4,000 yards in a season. His 27 touchdowns were also a career high, the sixth most in Dolphins history, and the most since Marino threw 30 in 1994. Tannehill also set career highs with a completion percentage of 66.4 and a passer rating of 92.8. Additionally, Tannehill set a franchise record with his 392 completions, surpassing Marino's 385 in 1994. Tannehill's 11,252 passing yards in his first three seasons are the sixth-most by any quarterback in NFL history in their first three seasons.

Running back Lamar Miller rushed for 1,099 yards and became the first Dolphins 1,000-yard rusher since Reggie Bush in 2011 (1,086 yards). Miller and Tannehill combined to become the first duo in franchise history to produce a 1,000-yard rusher and 4,000-yard passer in a season. Rookie Jarvis Landry recorded 84 receptions, the fourth most in a season in franchise history and the most in a season by a rookie. It was the sixth-most receptions by a rookie in NFL history. Rookie tackle Ja'Wuan James also put forth an outstanding first season, starting every game - nine at right tackle and seven at left tackle, and becoming the eighth offensive linemen in Dolphins history to start all 16 games as a rookie. Despite missing the first four games of the season due to injury and making the switch to guard in 2014, Mike Pouncey was tabbed to his second-straight Pro Bowl, becoming the first offensive player in Dolphins history to make the Pro Bowl at multiple positions after being selected at center the year prior.

Lazor joined Miami after spending the 2013 season with the Philadelphia Eagles as the team's quarterbacks coach. While with the Eagles, Lazor played a central role in the development of second-year quarterback Nick Foles, who completed the season as the NFL's highest rated passer with a 119.2 rating. The 119.2 rating was the third-highest single-season mark in NFL history behind only Green Bay's Aaron Rodgers (122.5 in 2011) and then Indianapolis' Peyton Manning (121.1 in 2004). During the 2013 campaign, Foles' accomplishments also included nine games of a passer rating over 100-plus and throwing for 27 touchdowns with only two interceptions. He also led the NFL in yards per pass attempt (9.1), and touchdown percentage (8.5).

Prior to his year with the Eagles, Lazor spent three seasons (2010-12) as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Virginia. Under his guidance, the Cavaliers offense completed a dramatic turnaround, from a unit that ranked last in the ACC in 2009, to third in 2010 averaging more than 400 yards per game. That trend continued in 2011, as the Virginia offense averaged over 399 yards per game en route to the school's first bowl game appearance in four seasons.

Lazor began his NFL coaching career in 2003 with the Atlanta Falcons under Dan Reeves as an offensive quality control coach and later joined Hall of Fame coach Joe Gibbs as an offensive assistant with the Washington Redskins in 2004. He spent the next three seasons with the Redskins, including the final two years as the team's quarterbacks coach. Following his time with the Redskins, Lazor moved on to the Pacific Northwest and joined Mike Holmgren's staff with the Seattle Seahawks as quarterbacks coach, a position that he held through the 2009 season.

Following a decorated playing career at Cornell University, Lazor began his coaching career with a variety of positions on the Big Red staff. From 1994-2000, Lazor coached running backs, wide receivers, quarterbacks and tight ends as well as serving as the school's junior varsity head coach. Lazor's final two seasons at Cornell (1999-2000) were spent as the school's passing game coordinator and recruiting coordinator. Following his tenure at Cornell, he accepted the role of offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Buffalo.

A graduate of Cornell, Lazor completed his undergraduate studies with a Bachelor of Science degree in human development and family studies. He was a three-year starter at quarterback for the Big Red and completed his playing career with 26 passing and total offensive program records. An All-Ivy League performer, Lazor was captain and the team's most valuable player as a senior in 1993. A native of Scranton, Pa., he and his wife, Nicole, have a son, Nolan, and two daughters, Marin and Charlotte.

BILL LAZOR'S COACHING CAREER

MIAMI SCORES IN 2014

Miami's 24.3 points per game in 2014 were tied for the eighth-highest season average in team history and most since the team averaged 24.9 in 1995. Further, Miami scored 24-or-more points in six out of their first eight games for the third time in team history (1975 and 1984) and first time since 1984. In addition, the 4.5-point increase from 2013 (19.8 PPG) was the fourth highest average points per game increase in the NFL from 2013-14.

MARWAN MAALOUF

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

COLLEGE: BALDWIN-WALLACE // NFL: 11TH SEASON // DOLPHINS: THIRD SEASON

Marwan Maalouf enters his third season with the Dolphins after being named assistant special teams coach on January 30, 2013.

Working with Special Teams Coach Darren Rizzi, Maalouf assisted with a unit which set a franchise record with three blocked punts in a season in 2014. They also added two blocked field goals, giving Miami five blocked kicks on the year, the most since the team blocked seven in 1977. Explosive plays weren't limited to the block units as rookie Jarvis Landry won AFC Special Teams Player of the Month for October when he returned five kickoffs for 178 yards (35.6), with a long of 54 yards. The 35.6 average kickoff return was the second-highest in the NFL in October and was the highest October average in franchise history. Landry finished the season with a 28.1 kick return average, the fourth-highest in the NFL and tops among rookies.

In 2013, Maalouf assisted with a unit that was rated among the top eight in the NFL based on the annual Dallas Morning News Special Teams rankings. The 2013 special teams units were highlighted by the play of punter Brandon Fields, who earned his first Pro Bowl berth. Fields ranked second in the NFL in punt average (48.8 yards per punt), second in net average (42.4, which is the eight best in NFL history), tied for third with 33 punts inside the 20-yard line and also recorded the third-longest punt (74 yards) during the season. Fields is one of only two Dolphins punters to be selected to the Pro Bowl, joining Reggie Roby (1984, 1989).

Maalouf joined the Dolphins after spending the 2012 season as the special teams coordinator with the Indianapolis Colts. Under his direction, the Colts special teams as a unit significantly improved in 2012, aided in part by returning a punt and a kickoff for a touchdown in the same season for the just the sixth time in franchise history and first since 2001. The kick return unit recorded its first touchdown since 2009. The Colts also posted an 11.1-yard average per punt return which ranked as the fourth-highest punt return average in franchise history. Individually the Colts special teams saw returner Deji Karim return a kickoff 101-yards for a touchdown in the final week of the regular season against the Houston Texans. Karim's return was the longest return in franchise history in 39 years. In 2012, Pat McAfee was among the elite kickoff specialists and punters in the NFL, finishing third in the AFC and fifth in the NFL in punting average with a 47.9 per punt average. McAffee, who also handled the kickoff duties for Indianapolis, finished fourth in the AFC and eighth in the NFL with 43 touchback kicks. McAfee also made his mark in the Colts history books as his 2012 season set franchise single-season records for kickoff touchbacks (43), punting average (47.9), net punting average (40.3), 50.0-yard average games (five) and tied the franchise record for punts inside the 20 (26). Rounding out Maalouf's unit in 2012 was the reliable future Hall of Fame kicker Adam Vinatieri. The 17-year veteran's 53-yard game winning field goal against the Minnesota Vikings was the longest game-winning field goal Vinatieri has made in his career in the last minute of the fourth quarter or in overtime. Also in 2012, Vinatieri surpassed 100 points scored for the season for the 15th time in his career, which currently ranks him second for most 100-point seasons in NFL history.

Prior to joining the Colts, Maalouf spent four seasons (2008-11) as the assistant special teams coach for the Baltimore Ravens. In 2010, Maalouf helped then rookie kickoff returner David Reed lead the NFL in kickoff return average (29.2) and coached a unit which finished third in the league in opponent average starting position (27.2-yard line). Kicker Billy Cundiff also earned his first Pro Bowl after tying an NFL mark with 40 touchbacks (since kickoffs moved back to the 30-yard line).

In 2009, Baltimore ranked second in the NFL in both kickoff return average (26.3) and opponents' average starting field position (26.9). Maalouf joined the Ravens in 2008 and that season coached punter Sam Koch, who had the NFL's fifth-best net punting average (39.9). Koch also led the league with 18 punts inside the 10-yard line and was second in the league with 34 kicks inside the 20-yard line. Maalouf also helped guide special teams ace Brendon Ayanbadejo to his third Pro Bowl selection.

Prior to coming to Baltimore, Maalouf spent the 2007 season working for Scouts Inc., writing weekly scouting reports and game reviews for ESPN.com and worked as a volunteer coach for Baldwin-Wallace.

From 2004-06, Maalouf was the special teams quality control coach for the Cleveland Browns. During his final season, he coached Josh Cribbs, who ranked third in the NFL with 1,545 total return yards. The Browns' punt return average of 10.3 yards also ranked seventh in the NFL.

Maalouf spent two seasons (2002-03) as an assistant offensive line coach/graduate assistant at Rutgers following a brief stint at Eastern Michigan as a graduate assistant. He also held positions as an assistant offensive line coach for Fordham (2001) and Baldwin-Wallace College (2000).

Collegiately, Maalouf earned three letters while playing guard for Baldwin-Wallace (1997-1999) and was a two-time All-Ohio Athletic Conference selection. He was Baldwin-Wallace's Outstanding Offensive Lineman and was elected as a team captain his senior season.

Maalouf is a graduate of Strongsville (Ohio) High School, where he lettered in football and track and field. He grew up in the Cleveland area where he met his wife, Dana.

Ben Martin enters his second season as offensive assistant in 2015.

In 2014, Martin worked with several phases of the offense, with his primary focus on the offensive line. Working with Offensive Line Coach John Benton and Assistant Offensive Line Coach Jack Bicknell Jr., Martin assisted with an offensive line that helped produce 361 first downs, tied for the second-most in franchise history and most since 1985 when the team had the same amount. The line opened up holes for running back Lamar Miller who surpassed the 1,000-yard rushing mark (1,099) for the first time in his career and helped protect quarterback Ryan Tannehill on his way to throwing for 4,045 passing yards (most since Dan Marino's 4,453 in 1994). It was the first time in franchise history that the team had a 1,000-yard rusher and 4,000-yard passer in a season. Additionally, in Week 17 vs. the New York Jets, the offensive line sprung Miller for a 97-yard touchdown run, setting a new franchise record and the third-longest run in NFL history.

Despite missing the first four games of the season due to injury and making the switch to guard in 2014, Mike Pouncey was tabbed to his second-straight Pro Bowl, becoming the first offensive player in Dolphins history to make the Pro Bowl at multiple positions after being selected at center the year prior. Tackle Ja'Wuan James became the eighth offensive lineman in Dolphins history to start all 16 games as a rookie, showing his versatility by starting nine games at right tackle and seven at left tackle en route to earning PFWA All-Rookie Team honors. Before his injury, tackle Branden Albert was acknowledged as a member of the CBSSports.com MidSeason All-Pro Team.

Martin joined Miami after spending the 2013 season at Wagner College as the Seahawks offensive line coach. Prior to joining the staff at Wagner, Martin spent the 2012 season as the running backs coach for the Princeton Tigers. While with Princeton, he was a part of a staff that directed one of the biggest turnarounds in school history, as the team posted a 5-5 record in 2012 following a 2011 season which the Tigers went 1-9. The four-win improvement was in part due to a ground attack that saw the Tigers rush for more than 100-yards in nine of their ten games, highlighted by a 262-yard performance vs. Lafayette, as well as efforts of 194 yards vs. Brown and 184 yards vs. Yale.

Martin spent the 2010-11 seasons as offensive quality control coach at Texas A&M, where he worked with current Dolphins quarterbacks coach Zac Taylor and quarterback Ryan Tannehill. While at A&M, he helped guide the Aggies to a Big 12 South Division title in 2010. He joined the Aggies' staff after spending two seasons (2008-09) at Merrimack College (MA) as the run-game/recruiting coordinator. While at Merrimack, the Warriors' offense developed into one of the top units in all of Division II football. In 2009, the Warriors led the Northeast-10 Conference in scoring (349 points), total offense (482.6 yards per game), rushing offense (251.6 yards per game), first downs (226) and fewest sacks allowed (11). The 482.6 yards of total offense and 251.6 yards of rushing offense per game ranked the Warriors' offense among the top-five nationally in Division II. An experienced on-field teacher, Martin began his coaching in 2007 at Curry College (MA) as the school's offensive line/tight ends coach. Curry, which won a conference title in 2007 and earned its first playoff victory in school history, led the conference in scoring (36.5), rushing (206.4) and total offense (416.9) that season.

Before entering the coaching ranks, Martin was a standout offensive lineman at Trinity College (CT), where he helped the Bantams compile a 31-1 record while winning three conference titles prior to his 2005 graduation. Martin attended St. John's Preparatory School in Danvers, Mass., where the school won the high school state title in 1997 and he served as a team captain as a senior in 2001. Martin is single and resides in Weston, Fla.

BEN MARTIN'S COACHING CAREER

2007	Curry College (MA) – Offensive Line/Tight Ends Coach
2008-09	Merrimack College (MA) – Run-Game/Recruiting Coordinator
2010-11	Texas A&M – Offensive Quality Control
2012	Princeton – Running Backs Coach
2013	Wagner College – Offensive Line Coach
2014-	Miami Dolphins – Offensive Assistant

JOE ROBBIE ALUMNI PLAZA

On Sept. 12, 2011, just hours before the season opener against the New England Patriots, Dolphins Chairman of the Board/Managing General Partner Stephen Ross was accompanied by Tim Robbie and Hall of Famers Dan Marino, Bob Griese, Larry Little and Dwight Stephenson as Ross re-dedicated a statue of team founder Joe Robbie on the newly named Joe Robbie Alumni Plaza, located at Gate C of Sun Life Stadium.

Later during the 2011 season on Dec. 4, a little more than an hour before the Dolphins and Oakland Raiders game at Sun Life Stadium, the Dolphins unveiled the newly minted Walk of Fame. The Walk of Fame surrounds the statue of the late Robbie as the centerpiece of the Joe Robbie Alumni Plaza. Hall of Famers Don Shula, Marino, Griese, Nick Buoniconti, Jim Langer, Little, Larry Csonka, Stephenson and Paul Warfield joined Robbie in having their names immortalized in bronze as the inaugural inductees into the Walk. The second class of the Walk of Fame was inducted on Dec. 16, 2012 and included Tim Bowens, A.J. Duhe, Manny Fernandez, Nat Moore, Earl Morrall and Don Strock. On Dec. 29, 2013, Kim Bokamper, O.J. McDuffie, Eugene "Mercury" Morris and Keith Sims were officially inducted as the third Walk of Fame class. On Sept. 21, 2014, the Dolphins inducted the fourth class to the Walk of Fame, which included Jeff Cross, Sam Madison, Tony Nathan and Ed Newman.

PHIL McGEOGHAN

ASSISTANT WIDE RECEIVERS

COLLEGE: MAINE // NFL: EIGHTH SEASON // DOLPHINS: FOURTH SEASON

Phil McGeoghan enters his fourth season with the Dolphins after being named assistant wide receivers coach on February 4, 2012.

In 2014, along with Wide Receivers Coach Ken O'Keefe, McGeoghan helped guide a unit anchored by the stellar play from rookie Jarvis Landry. Landry recorded 84 receptions, the fourth-most in a season in franchise history. His 84 catches set a franchise record for most in a season by a rookie and were the sixth-most receptions by a rookie in NFL history. McGeoghan helped Landry hit his stride in December as he caught 35 passes in the month, the second-most receptions in any month in Dolphins history and the most receptions by a Dolphins rookie in a month.

In 2013, McGeoghan helped guide a receiving corps that featured a pair of players with 70-plus receptions in Brian Hartline (76 for 1,016 yards) and Mike Wallace (73 for 930 yards), becoming the fifth duo in team history to record 70-or-more catches in a season. Additionally, Hartline became the fifth receiver in team history to tally consecutive 1,000-yard seasons, while Wallace finished third in both receptions and receiving yards for a Dolphins player in his first season with the team.

In 2012, McGeoghan helped coach a young group of wide receivers that included a breakout performance from Hartline, who set career highs at the time in receptions (74), reception yards (1,083) and 100-yard receiving games (three). Hartline also had one of the most prolific games for a wide receiver in Dolphins' history, when he tallied 12 receptions for 253 yards and one touchdown at the Arizona Cardinals on September 30, 2012. The 12 receptions are second-highest single-game total in franchise history, and the 253 yards are the most by any receiver in team history.

McGeoghan joined Miami after spending three seasons (2009-11) as the wide receivers coach at the University of South Florida. In 2011, three Bulls' receivers, Sterling Griffin (43), Victor Marc (33) and Deonte Welch (31) each tallied more than 30 receptions. In 2010, senior Dontavia Bogan produced one of the best seasons in USF history with 685 yards (second on the Bulls' single-season list) and six touchdowns (tied for second) on 47 receptions (fifth). In his first season with the Bulls, USF wide receivers were constant big play threats, as both Carlton Mitchell and A.J. Love each averaged more than 17 yards per catch, with Love's 18.8 clip ranking third all-time at USF.

In 2008, McGeoghan worked as the offensive coordinator for the Naval Academy Prep School, which oversees the professional and athletic development of midshipmen and cadet candidates. McGeoghan returned to his alma-mater, Maine, in 2007 as an assistant coach with responsibilities over the tight ends and wide receivers.

McGeoghan (pronounced muh-GAY-gehn) played in the NFL for four seasons with the New Orleans Saints, Denver Broncos, Oakland Raiders and the New York Jets, in addition to playing in NFL Europe for the Berlin Thunder after a successful career as a wide receiver at the University of Maine (1998-2000).

PHIL McGEOGHAN'S COACHING CAREER

2007	Maine – Tight Ends/Wide Receivers Coach
2008	Naval Academy Prep School – Offensive Coordinator
2009-11	University of South Florida – Wide Receivers Coach
2012-	Miami Dolphins – Assistant Wide Receivers Coach

JEFF NIXON

RUNNING BACKS

COLLEGE: PENN STATE // NFL: NINTH SEASON // DOLPHINS: FIFTH SEASON

Jeff Nixon returns for his fifth season with the Dolphins after being named running backs coach on January 20, 2011.

Under the guidance of Nixon, Lamar Miller eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark for the first time in his career, ending the season with 1,099 yards. He punctuated the year with a 178-yard performance against the New York Jets in Week 17 that featured a 97-yard touchdown run, a franchise record and the third-longest run in NFL history.

In 2013, Nixon oversaw a running backs corps led by Miller, who paced the unit with 709 rushing yards, a 459-yard improvement from the previous season. Daniel Thomas set a career high with six total touchdowns (four rushing and two receiving). In 2012, Nixon guided a unit that finished eighth in the AFC in rushing yards per game (112.6) and fourth in rushing touchdowns (15). In his first season with the team in 2011, Reggie Bush rushed for a career-high 1,086 yards and fellow back Thomas led all AFC rookie rushers with 581 yards.

Nixon came to the Dolphins after spending four seasons (2007-10) with the Philadelphia Eagles coaching staff. Nixon was an assistant coach with the Eagles working with the special teams and the offense, along with a focus on the running back position. During his tenure with the Eagles, Nixon helped coach All-Pro tailbacks Brian Westbrook and LeSean McCoy, as well as All-Pro fullback Leonard Weaver.

Nixon joined the Eagles coaching staff after serving as the running backs coach at Temple University in 2006. Following the season, he was named wide receivers coach at Temple before accepting his new post with the Eagles. From 2003-05, Nixon coached at Tennessee-Chattanooga, where he worked with the running backs, tight ends, and as a special teams coordinator and recruiting coordinator. From 1999-2002, he coached the running backs at Shippensburg. Nixon coached at Princeton in 1998 as the school's running backs coach. Nixon began his coaching career in 1997 as a student assistant coach at Penn State.

Nixon played running back for West Virginia from 1993-94 before transferring to Penn State, where he earned spots on both the Dean's List and the Big Ten Conference All-Academic Team.

Born in Rochester, Penn., and a product of State College (Penn.) High School, Nixon earned a degree in elementary education from Penn State in 1998 before receiving his master's degree in education administration from Shippensburg in 2003.

Nixon and his wife, Laura, have four children: William, twin daughters Faith and Hope, and Jasmine.

KEN O'KEEFE

WIDE RECEIVERS

COLLEGE: JOHN CARROLL // NFL: FOURTH SEASON // DOLPHINS: FOURTH SEASON

Ken O'Keefe enters his fourth season with the Dolphins after being named wide receivers coach on February 4, 2012.

In 2014, O'Keefe guided a unit anchored by the stellar play of rookie Jarvis Landry. Landry recorded 84 receptions, the fourth-most in a season in franchise history. His 84 catches set a franchise record for most in a season by a rookie and were the sixth-most receptions by a rookie in NFL history. Landry hit his stride in December as he caught 35 passes in the month, the second-most receptions in any month in Dolphins history and the most receptions by a Dolphins rookie in a month.

Additionally, Hartline became the fifth receiver in team history to tally consecutive 1,000-yard seasons, while Wallace finished third in both receptions and receiving yards for a Dolphins player in his first season with the team.

In 2012, O'Keefe led a young group of wide receivers which included a breakout performance from Hartline, who set career highs at the time in receptions (74), reception yards (1,083) and 100-yard receiving games (three). Hartline also had one of the most prolific games for a wide receiver in Dolphins' history, when he tallied 12 receptions for 253 yards and one touchdown at the Arizona Cardinals on September 30, 2012. The 12 receptions are second-highest single-game total in franchise history, and the 253 yards are the most by any receiver in team history.

O'Keefe joined the Dolphins after spending the previous 13 seasons (1999-2011) as offensive coordinator at the University of Iowa. During O'Keefe's tenure, the school had four top-ten finishes, won two Big 10 championships and had Bowl wins over Georgia Tech (Orange), Florida (Outback), Louisiana State (Capitol One), South Carolina (Outback), Missouri (Insight) and Texas Tech (Alamo).

In 2011, Iowa's offense was led by senior wide receiver Marvin McNutt, Jr. and junior quarterback James Vandenberg. McNutt set single-season and career records for receiving yards (1,315 and 2,861) and touchdowns (12 and 28). His 82 receptions tied the single-season record. Vandenberg threw for 3,022 yards and 25 touchdowns, completing 58.7-percent of his pass attempts. Under O'Keefe's direction, Vandenberg passed for more than 3,000 yards and had 25 touchdown passes in his first year as a starter.

In 2002, Iowa quarterback Brad Banks finished second in the Heisman Trophy voting while leading the nation in passing efficiency.

O'Keefe was the head coach at Fordham University in 1998. He served as head coach at Allegheny College for eight seasons (1990-97). His career head coaching record of 83-17-1 included a 79-10-1 mark at Allegheny, where his team won five North Coast Athletic Conference titles and the 1990 NCAA Division III national title. O'Keefe led Allegheny to four undefeated regular seasons (1990, 1991, 1994 and 1996) and six NCAA playoff appearances. For his outstanding first year at Allegheny in 1990, O'Keefe was named NCAA Division III Coach of the Year. He was also named conference Coach of the Year four times (1990, 1991, 1993 and 1996) while at Allegheny. All eight of his teams ranked among the nation's top 12 at the end of the season and he coached 38 All-Americans. Prior to becoming head coach at Allegheny, O'Keefe served as offensive line coach (1986-87) and offensive coordinator (1988-89) there.

In 1985, O'Keefe coached Fort Worth (Texas) Country Day School. From 1978-84, he led Worcester (Mass.) Academy to a 37-11 record and three New England Class A prep championships. O'Keefe started his coaching career as an assistant coach at the University of New Haven from 1976-77.

DAVE PULOKA

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

COLLEGE: HOLY CROSS // NFL: NINTH SEASON // DOLPHINS: EIGHTH SEASON

Dave Puloka begins his eighth season as a member of the Dolphins' coaching staff, having been named to his current post on January 28, 2008 and then being retained by Head Coach Joe Philbin on February 2, 2012.

Puloka came to the club after spending the 2007 season as the assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Atlanta Falcons, his first year in the NFL. Prior to embarking on his NFL stint, Puloka served as graduate assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Virginia from 2005-06.

Puloka went to training camp with the Cincinnati Bengals as an undrafted college free agent in 2001. He lettered in football and track at Holy Cross College (1997-2000), where he played defensive end. His career totals in football included 19 sacks. He served as a team captain on the football team each of his final two years while he was also a first-team All-Patriot League and All-New England performer. Puloka earned his degree in psychology from Holy Cross College and his master's degree in exercise physiology from the University of Virginia.

A product of Arlington (Mass.) High School, Puloka first started his coaching career as an assistant track coach at Stevens Institute of Technology in Hoboken, N.J. and as a strength and conditioning coach in the Austrian Football League. He is a former high school state record holder in the discus. For several years growing up, Puloka lived on the island of Tonga in the South Pacific. Puloka and his wife, Sela, live in Fort Lauderdale.

DOLPHINS AT HOME AGAINST DOMED TEAMS

In their history, the Dolphins own a 36-14 (.720) record at home in regular season games against teams who play their home games indoors. The last time they faced a team who plays its home game indoors in South Florida was Sept. 22, 2013 when they defeated the Atlanta Falcons, 27-13. The Dolphins are not scheduled to play a home game against a team which plays their home games inside a dome in 2015.

DAVID REGAN

SPORTS SCIENCE ANALYST

COLLEGE: AUSTRALIAN CATHOLIC // NFL: SECOND SEASON // DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

David Regan is entering his second season with the team as a sports science analyst. In his role, he helps support the strength and conditioning department through examining player performance.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Regan worked in the training room department for Port Adelaide Football Club from 2010-14, which plays in the Australian Football League. While working for Port Adelaide, he attended Edith Cowan University (Perth, Australia) and earned a master's degree in exercise science in 2014. Additionally, from 2008-14, he taught at Mazenod College and was the director of sport from 2012-14.

A native of Melbourne, Australia, Regan graduated from Australian Catholic University in 2006 with a degree in exercise science. While there, he was a member of the Australian Rules football team and cricket team. Regan resides in Weston.

DAVID REGAN'S COACHING CAREER

2014-	Miami Dolphins – Sports Science Analyst

DARREN RIZZI

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

COLLEGE: RHODE ISLAND // NFL: SEVENTH SEASON // DOLPHINS: SEVENTH SEASON

Darren Rizzi enters his seventh season as both an NFL assistant and as a member of the Dolphins' coaching staff and fourth as special teams coordinator. He joined the Dolphins as assistant special teams coach in 2009.

In his tenure at Miami, three members of the special teams (long snapper John Denney [two times], punter Brandon Fields and kicker Dan Carpenter) have been named to the Pro Bowl.

In 2014, Rizzi guided a special teams unit that set the franchise record with three blocked punts in a season. They also added two blocked field goals, giving Miami five blocked kicks on the year, the most since the team blocked seven in 1977. Explosive plays weren't limited to the block units as Jarvis Landry won AFC Special Teams Player of the Month for October when he returned five kickoffs for 178 yards (35.6), with a long of 54 yards. The 35.6 average kickoff return was the second-highest in the NFL in October and was the highest October average in franchise history. Landry finished the season with a 28.1 kick return average, the fourth-highest in the NFL and tops among rookies.

In 2013, for the third consecutive season, the Dolphins' special teams under the direction of Rizzi were rated among the top eight units in the NFL based on the annual Dallas Morning News Special Teams rankings. Miami was one of three teams to remain in the top ten (along with Baltimore and Seattle) in both the 2013 and 2012 rankings. Additionally, from 2011-13, only Miami and Seattle were ranked by the Dallas Morning News in the top ten.

Rizzi's 2013 special teams units were highlighted by the play of Fields, who earned his first Pro Bowl berth. Fields ranked second in the NFL in punt average (48.8 yards per punt), second in net average (42.4, which is the eight best in NFL history), tied for third with 33 punts inside the 20-yard line and also recorded the third-longest punt (74 yards) during the season. Fields is one of only two Dolphins punters to be selected to the Pro Bowl, joining Reggie Roby (1984, 1989).

The 2012 campaign built off a strong 2011 season for Rizzi and the Dolphins special teams. Rick Gosselin of the Dallas Morning News ranked Miami as one of the top five special teams units in the NFL for the second consecutive year, making the Dolphins the only team in the NFL to rank in the top five during both the 2012 and 2011 seasons, following a second place finish in '11.

In 2012, Fields continued to establish himself as one of the most productive punters in NFL history, leading the NFL with a 50.2 average, while moving into first place in team history for highest career punting average (46.4), highest career net punting average (38.7) and second place in NFL history for highest career punting average (46.4). Newcomer Marcus Thigpen became the first player in team history to return a kickoff (96 yards at Buffalo on November 5, 2012) and a punt (72 yards at Houston on September 9, 2012) for touchdowns in the same season. Thigpen also stood alone as the only player in the NFL to rank in the top five in kickoff return average (27.4) and punt return average (12.2) in 2012. Additionally, Miami became the first NFL team in the last 20 years to block a field goal, block a punt and recover their own onside kick in the same game when the unit accomplished that feat at the New York Jets on October 28, 2012.

Rizzi led an impressive 2011 season by the Dolphins special teams. The units showed the biggest improvement of any NFL special teams unit in the NFL from 2010 to 2011 according the annual special teams report compiled by Gosselin. The improvement saw the Dolphins jump from their 2010 ranking of 24th in the NFL to second in 2011. The 22 place advancement was aided by Carpenter's 13 of 16 in field goals from 40 yards and beyond and Fields' net punting average of 41.1 yards, finishing just behind the special teams units of the San Francisco 49ers.

After Rizzi took over the special teams in week five, the Dolphins improved in almost every major statistical special teams category, including net and gross punt average, punt and kick return average, average drive start and opponent's gross and net punt average.

Rizzi joined the Dolphins with four years of experience as a college head coach, including the 2008 season at the University of Rhode Island. Prior to taking over the program at URI, Rizzi was an assistant at Rutgers for the previous six seasons (2002-07), where he headed up the Scarlet Knights' special teams unit. He also tutored the team's running backs his first three years there and the linebackers for his final three. In addition, he held the title of assistant head coach from 2004-06 and associate head coach in 2007. In Rizzi's six years at RU, he coached three players who earned first-team All-Big East honors in special teams including kick returner Nate Jones (2002), kick/punt returner Willie Foster (2005) and punter Joe Radigan (2006). Jones also was named the conference's co-Special Teams Player of the Year in 2002 while Foster was the Big East Special Teams Player of the Year in 2005.

Before his stint at Rutgers, Rizzi was the head coach at the University of New Haven, where he guided the Chargers to a three-year record of 15-14 from 1999-2001. Rizzi was the special teams and linebackers coach at Northeastern University in 1998. He coached at New Haven from 1994-97, where he was UNH's defensive coordinator in his final year there, after overseeing the special teams and defensive line his first three. Rizzi began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Colgate in 1993.

Rizzi played tight end at Rhode Island, where he first walked on in 1988. He went on to tally 160 receptions for 2,426 yards and 15 touchdowns in his collegiate career and was a consensus All America selection in 1992. Following his time at Rhode Island, Rizzi was signed as a free agent by the Philadelphia Eagles prior to beginning his coaching career. A native of Hillsdale, N.J. and a graduate of Bergen Catholic High School in New Jersey, Rizzi earned a degree in speech communications from URI in 1992. During the spring of 2013, Rizzi was inducted into the Bergen Catholic High School Hall of Fame. A two sport high school star, he concluded his prep football career with 69 receptions, a school record which stood for 22 years, while also excelling as an All-League outfielder for the baseball team.

He and his wife, Tracey, have two daughters, Mackenzie and Alexandra, and three sons, Christian, Casey and Cameron.

Zac Taylor enters his fourth season with the Dolphins and his third as the team's quarterbacks coach, having been named to that position on January 30, 2013. Taylor originally joined the organization as the team's assistant quarterbacks coach on January 30, 2012.

Taylor helped Ryan Tannehill experience significant progress in his development in the 2014 campaign. Tannehill finished with 4,045 passing yards, establishing a new career high as he joined Dan Marino as the only quarterbacks in franchise history to surpass 4,000 yards in a season. Tannehill has thrown for more than 3,000 yards in each of his three seasons, joining Marino as the only quarterbacks in team history to have multiple seasons with 3,000-or-more yards. Tannehill also became the first to do so in his first three seasons with the team. Tannehill's 27 touchdowns were also a career high and the sixth-most in Dolphins history, the most since Marino threw 30 in 1994. Tannehill also set career highs with a completion percentage of 66.4 and a passer rating of 92.8. Additionally, Tannehill set a franchise record with his 392 completions, surpassing Marino's 385 in 1994. Tannehill's 11,252 passing yards in his first three seasons are the sixth-most among all quarterbacks in NFL history in their first three seasons.

In 2013, under Taylor's guidance, Tannehill threw for 3,912 passing yards. His 7,207 passing yards through his first two seasons were the fifth-most by any quarterback over the course of their first two seasons in NFL history.

In 2012, Tannehill set team rookie records in passing yards (3,294), attempts (484), and completions (282) and he became the first quarterback in Dolphins history to start all of the team's games in his first year in the league.

Taylor joined the Dolphins from Texas A&M University, where he served as the offensive graduate assistant and tight ends coach.

Taylor spent time with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers after being signed as an undrafted college free agent on April 29, 2007, but was waived prior to the start of training camp. He then joined the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League in the fall of 2007.

The 2006 Big 12 Player of the Year as a quarterback at Nebraska, Taylor passed for more than 2,700 yards on the season and led the Cornhuskers to a 9-3 record and an appearance in the Big 12 Championship Game.

A native of Norman, Oklahoma, he and his wife, Sarah, have two boys, Brooks and Luke.

Terrell Williams enters his first season with the Dolphins after being named defensive line coach on February 6, 2015.

Williams joins the Dolphins from the University of Florida, having been named the school's defensive line coach on January 3, 2015. Prior to Florida, Williams spent three seasons as the defensive line coach for the Oakland Raiders (2012-14). In 2014, Williams' unit helped the defense rank eighth in the NFL in fewest rushing yards allowed per play (3.97) and finished second in the NFL in stuffs (tackles recorded at or behind the line of scrimmage) with 54. In 2013, the Raiders ranked 13th in the NFL and sixth in the AFC in rushing yards allowed per game (107.9), while limiting three opponents to less than 40 yards on the ground. Additionally that season, the Raiders held opponents to only five rushes of 20-or-more yards, tied for the fewest allowed in the league.

Prior to joining the Raiders, Williams spent two seasons (2010-11) as defensive line coach at Texas A&M. During his tenure, the Aggies advanced to a pair of bowl games, including a win over Northwestern in the Meineke Car Care Bowl of Texas in 2011. The Aggies led the nation with 51 sacks in 2011 and finished third nationally with an average of eight tackles for loss per game. In 2010, Williams helped lead the Aggies to a share of the program's first Big-12 South crown in more than a decade and a berth in the Cotton Bowl. Texas A&M allowed just 101.9 rushing yards per game, ranking 12th in the nation. In his first season, A&M improved from 90th to 30th nationally in rushing defense, allowing 130.2 yards per contest.

Williams came to A&M after four years (2006-09) as the defensive line coach at Purdue. During his time with the Boilermakers, Williams coached the entire line each year with the exception of 2008, when he focused solely on the defensive end position. During his time at Purdue, Williams tutored future NFL lineman Anthony Spencer, who led the NCAA in tackles for loss and was a first-team All-American before becoming a first-round pick of the Dallas Cowboys. He also coached future NFL players Cliff Avril, Alex McGee, Mike Neal, Ryan Kerrigan and Kawann Short.

Prior to his tenure at Purdue, Williams coached the defensive line at Akron from 2004-05. During his time at Akron, the Zips won the Mid-American Conference championship game (2005) and played in the Motor City Bowl, both marking firsts in program history. Williams spent two years (2002-03) as the defensive line coach at Youngstown State and served on the coaching staff at North Carolina A&T from 1999-2001. He helped North Carolina A&T rank third in total defense among NCAA Division I-AA schools in 1999, allowing 259.4 yards per game, and fifth in 2000 with 261.2 yards per game. Williams got his start in coaching working with the defensive line at Fort Scott Community College during the 1998 season.

In 2007, Williams served an internship with the Seattle Seahawks, assisting the defensive line during training camp. During the summer of 1999, Williams interned with the Jacksonville Jaguars, assisting with the defensive line, and with the Dallas Cowboys in 2008.

A native of Los Angeles, Calif., Williams played nose guard at East Carolina and helped the Pirates to a Liberty Bowl victory over Stanford in 1995. He transferred to East Carolina from West Los Angeles College and earned a bachelor's degree in communications with a minor in history. He and his wife, Tifini, have two sons, Tahj and Tyson, who passed away in 2012.

Jay Kaiser enters his fourth season as assistant to the head coach with the Dolphins. He is responsible for assisting Head Coach Joe Philbin in organizing football operations for the club. Kaiser manages several elements of Philbin's off-field agenda, involving the day-to-day schedule, player and staff communications and the football calendar, including the offseason programs, minicamps and training camp.

In the three years (2009-11) before coming to the Dolphins, Kaiser served in a similar capacity for Raheem Morris, the head coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, including the Bucs' 10-6 season in 2010.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Kaiser spent seven seasons (2002-08) on the Kansas State football staff. In 2008, he served as the director of recruiting operations for the Wildcats. In addition to organizing Kansas State's recruiting efforts, he assisted with day-to-day operations and oversaw the Powercat Pride program.

Kaiser served as a graduate assistant at Toledo before working for Kansas State, where he spent one year as the Rockets' assistant quarterbacks and receivers coach. He also coached tight ends and special teams at Northern Iowa as an assistant coach in 1999 following a two-year stint as a graduate assistant at Northwest Missouri State. While on staff with the Bearcats, Kaiser helped the program win an NCAA Division II national title.

Kaiser received his start as a student coach at Bethany College from 1993 through 1996. He earned a bachelor's degree from Bethany and later added a master's degree from Northwest Missouri State.

A native of Liberal, Kansas, Kaiser is married to the former Camille Base. The couple has two children, Karson and Payton.

DON SHULA'S COACHING LONGEVITY

Former Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula was one of only five coaches in NFL history to have coached the same team for 20 or more consecutive seasons. Shula (1970-95) completed 26 seasons with the Dolphins. Green Bay's Curley Lambeau (1921-49) and Dallas' Tom Landry (1960-88) share the record with 29 seasons each, while Pittsburgh's Chuck Noll (1969-91) and the N.Y. Giants' Steve Owen (1931-53) coached 23 years with their teams.

ERIC STOKES

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

COLLEGE: NEBRASKA // NFL: 18TH SEASON // DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

Eric Stokes is entering his second season with the Dolphins after being named assistant general manager on May 15, 2014. He has 17 years of experience as a player and at various levels of NFL personnel departments, including the two seasons prior to joining Miami as director of college scouting with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, where he worked with Dolphins General Manager Dennis Hickey.

In his role, Stokes assists in all aspects of player evaluation and acquisitions at the professional and collegiate levels, including the daily management and makeup of the Dolphins roster, as well as guiding the team's preparation of all aspects of the annual NFL draft. He works with all levels of the organization in the day-to-day management of football operations while supervising the player personnel department.

During his time with the Buccaneers, Stokes was responsible for coordinating and compiling the evaluations of all draft-eligible players, while overseeing the entire college scouting staff. He also assisted the personnel and coaching staff regarding the NFL draft and college free agency. In Tampa Bay, Stokes directed a college scouting staff that played a key role in the acquisition of many significant contributors to the Buccaneers roster. Stokes played a pivotal role during the 2014 NFL draft as the Buccaneers used their top three picks to add a trio of playmakers to their offense, highlighted with the selection of consensus All-America wide receiver Mike Evans from Texas A&M in the first round. Along with the addition of Evans, the team also added Washington tight end Austin Sefarian Jenkins in the second round and West Virginia running back Charles Sims in the third round.

In 2013 with no first round selection, having sent the pick to the New York Jets in exchange for cornerback Darrelle Revis, the Buccaneers still added players who made significant contributions to the team as rookies. Highlighting the rookie class was third-round pick, quarterback Mike Glennon, who went on to start 13 games and was named to the PFW/PFWA 2013 All-Rookie team. The 2013 draft also saw the addition of second-round pick Johnthan Banks, who tied for second on the team with three interceptions while registering 55 tackles, and a pair of fourth round selections in defensive tackle Akeem Spence, who contributed 29 tackles and one sack, and defensive end William Gholston, who recorded 31 tackles and two sacks.

Stokes joined Tampa Bay from the Seattle Seahawks where he worked as the Seahawks' assistant director of college scouting (2010-11), during which time he was key in bringing in the likes of perennial All-Pro safety Earl Thomas (first-round, 2010), three-time Pro Bowl selection safety Kam Chancellor (fifth-round, 2010), All-Pro cornerback Richard Sherman (fifth-round, 2011), PFW/PFWA 2012 All-Rookie selection linebacker Bobby Wagner (second-round, 2012) and Super Bowl XLVIII MVP linebacker Malcom Smith (seventh-round, 2011). Stokes also played an instrumental role in bringing undrafted free agents who made contributions to the Seahawks including wide receiver Doug Baldwin (2011) and wide receiver Jermaine Kearse (2012).

Prior to being named the Seahawks assistant director of college scouting, Stokes spent seven seasons with Seattle as an area scout (2000-01, 2005-09) and three seasons as an assistant in the pro personnel department (2002-04). While serving in the pro personnel department, he was responsible for the weekly advance of upcoming opponents, as well as assisting in the evaluation and writing of player reports on potential talent in free agency, NFL Europe, the Canadian Football League and the Arena Football League.

Stokes also played two seasons as a safety for the Seahawks after being selected in the fifth-round (121st overall) of the 1997 NFL draft. Following the 1998 season, he was selected by the Cleveland Browns in the 1999 expansion draft before an injury cut his career short.

A native of Lincoln, Nebraska, Stokes received an undergraduate degree in sociology from the University of Nebraska in 1997. He and his wife, Tisa, live in Parkland, Fla., with their three daughters, Erisa, Payton and Madison.

Joe Schoen begins his eighth season as a part of the Dolphins' scouting staff and second in his role as director of player personnel after being named to the position by General Manager Dennis Hickey on May 19, 2014. Schoen spent the 2013 season as the assistant director of college scouting after serving the first five years with Miami as one of the team's national scouts.

In his role as director of player personnel, Schoen serves as a primary advisor to General Manager Dennis Hickey and Assistant General Manager Eric Stokes on all personnel matters. His responsibilities will include assisting in building and managing the Dolphins roster, as well as overseeing both the college and pro scouting departments. Schoen also assists in spearheading the team's preparation, assessment and acquisition of potential professional and collegiate free agents as well as all aspects of the annual NFL draft including preparation, evaluation and draft board construction while also serving as a key liaison between the coaching staff and personnel staff.

Schoen came to Miami in 2008 after spending his first seven years in the NFL with the Carolina Panthers. He joined the Panthers in May 2001 as a scouting assistant and was promoted to the club's National Football Scouting scout covering the Southeast one year later. In 2003, Schoen was again promoted by the Panthers to scout the Southwest in the team's system. Prior to joining the Panthers on a full-time basis, he interned in the team's ticket office in January of 2000 while also having worked in the club's training camp later that same year in football operations.

Schoen was a three-year letterman at DePauw University (1997-2000), where he played quarterback as a freshman and wide receiver his final three years. As a senior, he was named the Thomas Mount Offensive Player of the Year while also being selected as a first-team All-Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference choice as he set the school single-season record for receptions with 80 (now third). Overall in his collegiate career he amassed 153 receptions for 1,861 yards and 14 touchdowns. He ranks eighth in school history in receptions and receiving yards. Schoen, who earned his degree in communications from the Greencastle, Indiana school, also was named to the SCAC Academic Honor Roll his senior year.

A graduate of Elkhart (Ind.) Memorial High School, Schoen and his wife, Marie, have a daughter, Sydney, and a son, Carson.

ROOKIES MAKE THEIR MARK IN 2014

Miami had 13 rookies on its Week 1 roster in 2014, the highest total by the Dolphins since the team joined the NFL in 1970. The Dolphins featured 12 rookies on its Week 1 roster in four seasons - 1966, 1968, 1979 and 1996.

CHRIS GRIER

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

COLLEGE: MASSACHUSETTS // NFL: 21ST SEASON // DOLPHINS: 16TH SEASON

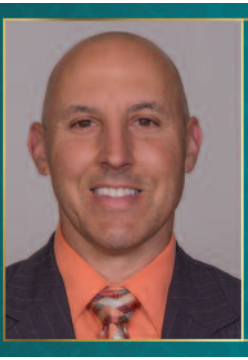
Chris Grier begins his 16th season with the Dolphins and his ninth as the team's director of college scouting. He served as an area scout with the club from 2000-02 before being promoted to national scout/assistant director of college scouting in 2003. He joined the club after spending the previous five years in the personnel department with the New England Patriots.

Grier started with the Patriots as an intern in 1994. He joined the club on a full-time basis the following year, and served as a regional scout until joining the Dolphins in 2000.

Grier attended the University of Massachusetts-Amherst where he majored in journalism and played football for two years before injuries ended his career. He spent his final two years there as an undergraduate assistant.

Grier is the son of Bobby Grier, the former vice president-player personnel with the New England Patriots who currently is the associate director of pro scouting with the Houston Texans. Chris' brother, Michael, played for the Edmonton Oilers, Washington Capitals, San Jose Sharks and Buffalo Sabres of the National Hockey League. He currently scouts for the Chicago Blackhawks.

A native of Holliston, Mass., Grier resides in Weston, Fla. with his wife, Paige, and their two sons, Landon and Jackson.



ANTHONY HUNT

DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

COLLEGE: ST. THOMAS // NFL: 22ND SEASON // DOLPHINS: 22ND SEASON

Anthony Hunt is in his 22nd season with the Dolphins and his third as the director of pro personnel. Hunt was promoted to his current position in May 2013 and is responsible for managing departmental procedures including roster evaluations, player acquisitions, workouts, advance scouting, free agency and monitoring transactions around the NFL.

Hunt previously served as a National Scout for the Dolphins where he oversaw the Eastern half of the United States in the team's college scouting system. Hunt has covered the Southeast, Southwest, Northeast and parts of the Midwest as a regional scout in prior years. He was also the club's BLESTO representative during his first few seasons as a college scout.

Hunt joined the Dolphins as a scouting assistant in 1994 following his graduation from St. Thomas University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in sports administration.

A Miami native, Hunt attended Archbishop Curley-Notre Dame High School. He and his wife, Suzy, have two sons, Keaton and Marshall, and a daughter, Jolie.

RYAN HERMAN

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

COLLEGE: CORNELL // NFL: EIGHTH SEASON // DOLPHINS: SIXTH SEASON

Ryan Herman is entering his eighth season in the NFL and sixth with the Dolphins. In July 2014, Herman was promoted to the role of director of football administration after serving as the club's manager of football administration for the 2012-13 seasons. He began his tenure with the team as the club's football administration coordinator in 2010.

Herman's primary responsibilities include draft choice negotiations, assisting with the club's salary cap planning and management, and assisting in all veteran player contract negotiations. Herman also has daily interaction with the coaching and personnel staffs on a variety of collaborative projects. In addition, he is responsible for NFL player contract and marketplace analysis, assisting with the club's player payroll management, conducting various statistical and salary cap related studies, providing strategic legal insight and analysis, and coordinating with the league regarding CBA compliance, player contracts and grievances.

While attending Cornell University's School of Industrial and Labor Relations, Herman served as a legal intern in the labor law department of Proskauer Rose, L.L.P., where he provided litigation support to numerous Major League Baseball clubs during player salary arbitration hearings. Upon graduating from Cornell in 2004, Herman enrolled at Hofstra University School of Law, where he focused on labor and employment law, and served as a law clerk for the NFL Management Council from 2006 to 2007. During his tenure at the NFLMC, Herman assisted league attorneys in all aspects of the grievance process, drafted various legal pleadings and memoranda, conducted numerous league-wide analyses and legal studies, and provided litigation support to league attorneys during arbitration hearings. Prior to joining the Dolphins, Herman was as an attorney with the firm Solferino & Solferino, L.L.P., and practiced commercial litigation in Mineola, New York.

Herman was born and raised in Northport, N.Y., where his mother (Kate) and two brothers (Taylor and Kyle) currently reside. He received a B.S. in industrial and labor relations from Cornell University, and earned his J.D., cum laude, from Hofstra University School of Law in 2007. He became a member of the New York State Bar in November 2008.

TERRY BRADWAY

SENIOR SCOUT

COLLEGE: ROWAN // NFL: 30TH SEASON // DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Terry Bradway is entering his first season as a member of the Dolphins' scouting staff.

Bradway spent the previous 14 seasons (2001-14) in various roles with the New York Jets, with his last two as senior director of college scouting. Following the 2012 NFL draft, Bradway added the responsibility of overseeing all team efforts surrounding the draft, a role he had from 2006-08. During that time span, he also oversaw the Jets pro scouting operations. For five seasons (2001-05), he served as the Jets' general manager and executive vice president. During that time, the Jets appeared in the postseason three times in four years (2001, '02, '04), earning Bradway Executive of the Year honors in 2002 by the New Jersey Sportswriters Association.

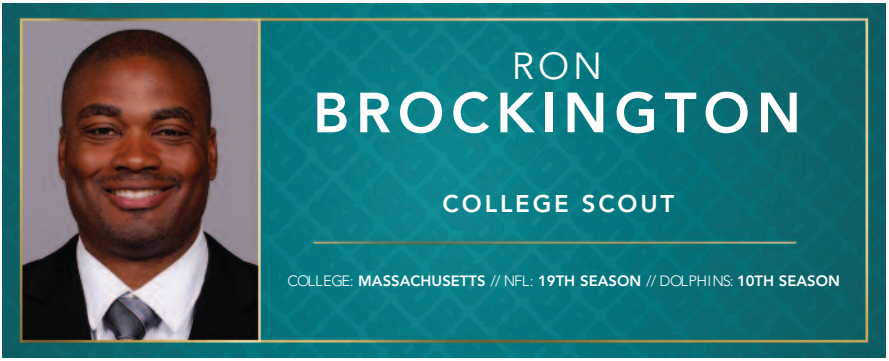
Bradway originally joined the Jets in 2001 after having worked for the Kansas City Chiefs for nine seasons in the team's player personnel department. He held several positions in Kansas City, including vice president of player personnel (2000), director of player personnel (1997-99) and director of college scouting (1992-96). The Chiefs had seven winning seasons and five postseason appearances in his nine years.

Prior to the Chiefs, he spent six years (1986-91) as a scout with the New York Giants, participating in two Super Bowl runs (XXI and XXV). Bradway also spent three seasons (1983-85) as assistant director of player personnel for the USFL's Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars, highlighted by three championship game appearances and two USFL titles. Bradway started his football career as a graduate assistant coaching the receivers at the University of Cincinnati in 1978 and as running backs coach at the United States Merchant Marine Academy in 1979.

The former defensive back at Trenton State (now the College of New Jersey) earned three letters there before transferring and graduating from Glassboro State (now Rowan University) with a bachelor's degree in health/physical education in 1978. He earned his master's degree in health and physical education from Glassboro/Rowan in 1982. Born in Atlantic City, N.J., he was inducted into the Holy Spirit High School (Absecon, N.J.) Hall of Fame in October 2004.

Bradway and his wife, Kathy, have two sons, Mike and Tom and a daughter, Jen. Jen played lacrosse at The University of Delaware before graduating in December 2011. Mike, who played tight end and graduated from Villanova, is currently the southwest area scout for the Philadelphia Eagles and Tom, a junior, plays football at Temple.



Ron Brockington is entering his 10th season as a member of the Dolphins' scouting staff after spending the previous nine years in the player personnel department of the New York Jets, including the last seven as a scout. In his role with the Dolphins, Brockington is responsible for scouting the Mid-States portion of the United States.

Brockington started full-time with the Jets in 1997 when he worked in the team's personnel department. After two years as an assistant in player personnel, he was elevated to a scout for the 1999 season.

Brockington is a 1997 graduate of the University of Massachusetts-Amherst where he lettered as a running back for three seasons (1994-96). He had his best year as a senior when he led the team with 776 yards rushing and six touchdowns on 123 attempts. Brockington earned his bachelor's degree in sports management. During the summers while he was in college (1993-96), Brockington worked in the Jets' operations department where he served in a myriad of roles. From 1991-93, he worked in the club's equipment room as a student assistant. As a high school student, he also helped in the team's marketing department in the summer of 1990.

Brockington is a native of Hempstead, N.Y., where he was a two-time All-Long Island linebacker (1990-91) at Hempstead High School. He resides in Indianapolis, Ind., with his wife, Aixa, daughters, Dajanae and Savaya, and son, Christopher.

CHRIS BUFORD

COLLEGE SCOUT

COLLEGE: BAYLOR // NFL: FOURTH SEASON // DOLPHINS: FOURTH SEASON

Chris Buford is entering his fourth season with the team and second as a college scout. Buford will focus on the Midwest region of the country in the team's scouting system this season after covering the Northeast region in 2014.

Buford joined the Dolphins in 2012 as an assistant in the team's scouting department. Over the past two seasons, he has provided support to all levels of the department while focusing on overall evaluation and preparation for the NFL draft.

Prior to his tenure with the Dolphins, Buford was a four-year letterwinner for the Baylor football team (2007-10). He appeared in 30 games in his career and, as a senior, he was a part of a Bears football team that made its first bowl appearance since 1994. Buford was a four-time member of the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll and earned a degree in education with a minor in corporate communications. He also received a master's degree from Baylor in sports management in 2012.

A native of Arlington, Texas, Buford attended Bowie High School and earned honorable mention all-district honors as a senior football player. Buford currently resides in Weston, Fla.

ADAM ENGROFF

COLLEGE SCOUT

COLLEGE: KANSAS STATE // NFL: 17TH SEASON // DOLPHINS: 17TH SEASON

Adam Engroff is entering his 17th season with the team and his third as national scout after spending the previous nine seasons as a regional scout covering the western portion of the country in the team's scouting system. Engroff, in his current role as a national scout, is responsible for scouting the entire country.

Engroff first joined the Dolphins in 1999 in the team's college scouting department. During that time, he performed a myriad of functions, including college scouting and draft preparation. Prior to his tenure with the Dolphins, Engroff worked in football operations for the Orange Bowl Committee from 1998-99. He also worked for the Prep Recruiting Network from 1997-98, where he scouted high school football players.

A native of Topeka, Kansas, Engroff received his undergraduate degree from Kansas State in 1997. He went on to earn his master's degree in sports administration from Lynn University in Boca Raton, Fla., in 2000.

Engroff and his wife, Beth, reside in Boise, Idaho, with their sons, Austin and Brody.

LENNY McGILL

COLLEGE SCOUT

COLLEGE: ARIZONA STATE // NFL: 16TH SEASON // DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Lenny McGill enters his first season with the Dolphins after spending the previous six seasons (2009-14) with the Denver Broncos. In his current role, he will be responsible for scouting the West Coast region of the Dolphins scouting system.

McGill scouted the Southwest region for the Broncos in 2014 after spending his first five years with the team as assistant director of college scouting. His scouting efforts helped Denver capture three consecutive AFC West division titles from 2011-13 with a young nucleus of talent that played major roles for the club.

McGill joined the Broncos after nine years (2000-08) as a college scout for the Green Bay Packers following the conclusion of his five-year NFL playing career. As a college scout with the Packers, McGill was responsible for scouting the Central Plains region. Hired by Green Bay on Feb. 2, 2000, he was part of five playoff berths and four division titles.

Before beginning his scouting career, McGill played cornerback in the NFL and saw time in 62 career regular-season games (nine starts) and three postseason contests with Green Bay (1994-95), Atlanta (1996-97) and Carolina (1998). He totaled 104 tackles (84 solo), four interceptions (29 yds.), 16 pass breakups, one sack (five yds.), two fumble recoveries and one forced fumble for his NFL career.

McGill played at Arizona State University from 1990-93 and was a two-year starter for the Sun Devils, earning honorable mention All-Pacific-10 Conference honors as a senior. He also lettered for three seasons on the Sun Devils' track and field team, finishing second in the conference in the triple jump as a sophomore.

A graduate of Arizona State with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice, McGill was born on May 31, 1971, in Long Beach, Calif.

MATT WINSTON

COLLEGE SCOUT

COLLEGE: TEXAS A&M // NFL: NINTH SEASON // DOLPHINS: EIGHTH SEASON

Matt Winston enters his eighth season with the Dolphins and fifth in his current role as a college scout. Winston focuses on the Southwest region of the country under the Dolphins scouting system.

In 2010, he served as a pro scout and spent his first two seasons in Miami working in the player personnel department as a scouting assistant, where he performed a variety of functions to aid in the day-to-day operations of the department.

Prior to joining the Dolphins in 2008, Winston was the Director of Football Operations at Florida International University in 2007 and worked as a college scouting intern for the Houston Texans in 2006.

He is a graduate of Texas A&M and earned his MBA at Florida Atlantic University.

A native of Midland, Texas, Winston resides in Frisco, Texas, with his wife, Nicole, and their two daughters, Avery and Gracyn, and son, Walker.

Max Gruder is entering his third season with the team and his second as a pro scout after spending 2013 as the club's scouting assistant. In his current role, he monitors personnel moves throughout the NFL, evaluates professional players and manages player databases. Gruder also performs team advancing for future opponents.

Gruder joined the Dolphins in 2013 as an assistant in the team's scouting department. In that role, he provided support to all levels of the department while focusing on overall evaluation and preparation for the NFL draft.

Prior to his tenure with the Dolphins, Gruder was a four-year letterwinner at linebacker with the University of Pittsburgh football team. He signed with the Atlanta Falcons as an undrafted free agent following the 2012 NFL draft before being released at the end of training camp.

At Pittsburgh, Gruder appeared in 52 games with 39 starts and totaled 296 tackles (159 solo), 13.5 tackles for loss, one sack and one interception. As a senior, he recorded a career and team-high 116 total tackles, 8.5 tackles for loss, 0.5 sacks and was named All-Big East Conference Second Team. Additionally, he was a two-time honoree on the Big East All-Academic team who majored in business.

A native of Charlotte, N.C., Gruder attended Charlotte Country Day School where he played linebacker and was selected to the first-team All-North Carolina Independent School Association as a senior.

Gruder currently resides in Weston, Fla.

Chase Leshin is entering his sixth season with the team and his third as player personnel coordinator after being the college scouting coordinator for the two years prior (2011-12). He is responsible for managing college data, including compiling and distributing scouting reports, and organizing and planning the yearly player personnel calendar. Additionally, he assists with all levels of the department, professional and college, and scouts the state of Florida along with schools in South Carolina, North Carolina and Virginia.

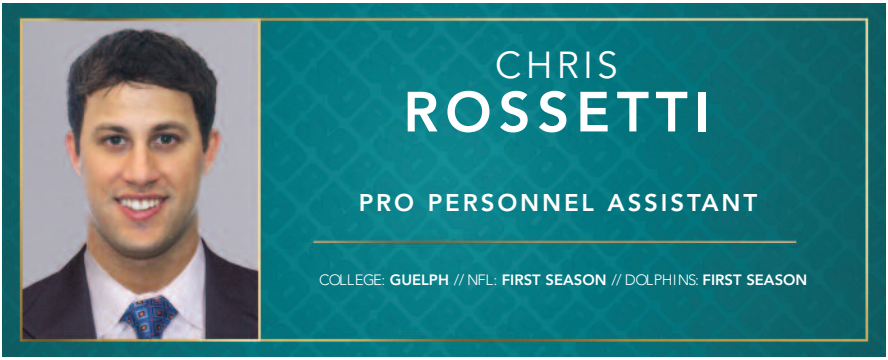
Leshin joined the Dolphins in 2009 in the equipment department as a staff assistant and worked as an operations assistant in 2010 before transitioning to the player personnel department in 2011.

A native of Corpus Christi, Texas, Leshin received a Bachelor of Arts degree in marketing from Texas. In his senior year at Texas, he worked for the Longhorn football team in the equipment department where he received the Darrell K. Royal Memorial Scholarship. Leshin resides with his wife, Krysten, in Fort Lauderdale.



Chris Rossetti is entering his first season with the Dolphins as a pro personnel assistant in the scouting department. In his role, he monitors personnel moves throughout the NFL, evaluates professional players in the NFL, Canadian Football League and Arena Football League, and manages player databases.

Rossetti joins the Dolphins after spending the previous three seasons (2012-14) in the CFL with the Toronto Argonauts' player personnel department. He initially began as an intern in the scouting department in 2012 before being promoted to player personnel assistant the following year and most recently serving as director of player personnel. His duties included recruitment strategies in both Canada and the U.S., hosting free agent camps, scouting NFL camps, contract negotiations and coordinating CFL draft preparation.

A four-year letterman and three-year starter at the University of Guelph (Ontario), Rossetti was named OUA Player of the Week in 2010 and was an Academic All-Canadian in 2011. He graduated in 2012 with an honors degree in history. Rossetti is a Mississauga, Ontario native and attended St. Michael's College School in Toronto where he played quarterback. His team lost only one game in four seasons and captured three Metro Bowl championships. In 2007, he played summer football for the Mississauga Warriors in the OVFL where he led the team to an undefeated season and went on to win the Ontario Championship.

Rossetti currently resides in Davie, Fla.

DOLPHINS POST THREE PLAYOFF SHUTOUTS

Since the 1970 merger of the American and National Football Leagues, the Miami Dolphins have recorded three of the seven shutouts registered by AFC teams in the playoffs. The Dolphins recorded a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers on January 10, 1993, a 14-0 win over the N.Y. Jets on January 23, 1983, and a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on January 2, 1972. The only other AFC playoff shutouts were by the New York Jets (41-0 over the Indianapolis Colts on January 4, 2003), Oakland Raiders (27-0 over the Dolphins on January 6, 2001), the San Diego Chargers (17-0 over the Kansas City Chiefs on January 2, 1993) and the Baltimore Colts (17-0 over the Cincinnati Bengals on December 26, 1970).

J.P. McGOWAN

SCOUTING ASSISTANT

COLLEGE: TEXAS A&M // NFL: THIRD SEASON // DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

J.P. McGowan is entering his second season as a member of the Dolphins as a scouting assistant and third full-time season in the NFL. In his role, he provides support to all levels of the department while focusing on overall evaluation and preparation for the NFL draft.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, McGowan spent three seasons in the scouting department of other NFL teams, first as a scouting intern for both the Houston Texans (2009-10) and the Tennessee Titans (2012-13), and most recently as a scouting assistant with the Philadelphia Eagles (2013-14).

A native of Houston, Texas, McGowan graduated from Texas A&M in 2010 where he worked in the recruiting department during his time there (2006-10). McGowan also received a master's degree in sports business from University of Washington in 2011.

TOM PASQUALI

FOOTBALL ANALYST

COLLEGE: ST. LAWRENCE // NFL: SECOND SEASON // DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

Tom Pasquali enters his second season with the Miami Dolphins as a football analyst. As part of the football analytics group headed by Director of Analytics Dennis Lock, Pasquali supports the department in the gathering and interpretation of statistics.

Pasquali earned his master's degree in applied statistics from Villanova University where he completed his regression course project: "Predicting Hitting Success," by using batted ball and pitch f/x data from Fangraphs.com to predict MLB hitting success.

A Voorheesville, N.Y. native, Pasquali also interned for the New York Yankees and Turnkey Sports & Entertainment before joining the Dolphins. He resides in Davie.

SPORTS PERFORMANCE

WAYNE DIESEL

SPORTS PERFORMANCE DIRECTOR

COLLEGE: WITWATERSRAND // NFL: FIRST SEASON // DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Wayne Diesel enters his first season with the Miami Dolphins as the sports performance director. In his role, he will oversee all of the team's sports science initiatives and work closely with the training and strength and conditioning departments. His focus will include player injury prevention and rehabilitation in an effort to reach optimal performance.

Diesel joins the Dolphins after spending the previous eight years (2007-15) as head of medical services with the Tottenham Hotspur Football Club of the English Premier League. With Tottenham, he oversaw the efforts of doctors, physiotherapists, sports scientists, podiatrists, nutritionists and chiropractors, and helped coordinate the medical service department's work to optimize player recovery and prevent injuries. During his tenure with the Spurs, they defeated Chelsea FC in 2008 to win the Carling Cup and then achieved Champions League status in 2009-10 for the first time in the club's history.

Before his arrival at Tottenham, Diesel held the same title of Head of Medical Services from 2003-07 at Charlton Athletic Football Club. He arrived in the United Kingdom in 2002 to work for Gloucester Rugby Football Club, holding the same title again, and helped them win the PowerGen Trophy and finish first in the league before losing in the playoff final.

Diesel has 12 years of experience running private physiotherapy practices, including setting up the first physiotherapy practice at the Sports Science Institute of South Africa based in Cape Town. While in South Africa, he worked as head physiotherapist for a range of different sports, including national women's gymnastics, men's hockey, swimming, football and rugby as well as provincial cricket and football. Additionally, Diesel was appointed as the head physiotherapist for South African teams at the All African (1992), Olympics (1996) and Commonwealth Games (1998). He also held the position of president of South African Transplant Games Association and Western Province Chairman of South African Sports Medicine Association.

A native of South Africa, Diesel graduated as a physiotherapist from the University of Witwatersrand in 1986 and then gained a first class pass in sports science in 1988 allowing him to proceed directly to a PhD in exercise physiology, which was completed in 1994. Wayne and his wife, Jean, have one son, Nicholas, and one daughter, Christine.

Mary Ellen Bingham enters her second season as the Miami Dolphins' team nutritionist as part of the organization's efforts to improve player performance and health. Bingham joined the team on December 5, 2014.

Bingham came to the Dolphins after serving as the head sports nutritionist at the University of North Carolina from 2011-14 and staff sports nutritionist in 2010. In that role, she worked closely with UNC's varsity athletic program, providing sports nutrition education, menu planning, supplement review and individual nutrition counseling. Bingham holds a BS in nutrition from Boston University, where she was a member of its varsity women's track and field team.

Bingham earned her master's degree in clinical nutrition from New York University and completed her clinical training at the James J. Peters VA Medical Center in Bronx, N.Y. Bingham is credentialed as a registered dietitian (RD) and certified specialist in sports dietetics (CSSD). Prior to working at UNC, she served as the campus dietitian and sports nutritionist at St. John's University in Queens, N.Y. where she collaborated with dining services and the Department of Student Wellness as well as worked closely with its varsity Division I athletics programs. Additionally, she is a member of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics; Sports Cardiovascular, and Wellness Nutrition (SCAN) dietetics practice group; and the Collegiate & Professional Sports Dietitians Association (CPSDA).

A native of Boston, Mass., Bingham resides in Ft. Lauderdale.

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON

In 2005, DT Randy Crowder (1974-76) and LB Channing Crowder (2005-10) became the third father-son combination to play for the Dolphins in franchise history. They joined the Barbers, which included linebacker Rudy (1968) and fullback Kantroy (1999), and the Grieses, which consisted of Bob (1967-80) and Brian (2003), both quarterbacks. The Crowders were the first father-son tandem to both be drafted by the Dolphins, as Randy was taken in the sixth round in 1974 and Channing was selected in the third round in 2005. In addition, quarterback George Wilson, Jr., played with the Dolphins in 1966 under his father, George, Sr., who was the team's head coach. Also, there have been two father-son coaching tandems in franchise history, as both Dave Shula (1982-88) and Mike Shula (1991-92, 2000-02) coached under their father, Don.

ATHLETIC TRAINING

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

COLLEGE: PITTSBURGH // NFL: 16TH SEASON // DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

Ryan Grove is entering his second season as head athletic trainer with the Dolphins after spending 18 seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers. Along with Troy Mauer, Noahisa Inoue and Jonathan Gress, Grove is responsible for the day-to-day treatment and rehabilitation of Dolphins players in coordination with the club's medical staff.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Grove was the Steelers assistant athletic trainer for 15 years (1999-2013). He was a part of a staff named the 2008 Professional Football Athletic Training Staff of the Year by the Professional Football Athletic Training Society. He initially served as an intern athletic trainer for the Steelers for the 1992-93 seasons and a graduate assistant athletic trainer for the team from 1994-96.

Grove graduated magna cum laude, receiving his bachelor of science degree in athletic training from the University of Pittsburgh in 1993, and a master's degree in athletic training/exercise physiology in 1996. He previously served as an assistant athletic trainer at East Tennessee State University, where he was the head athletic trainer for the school's men's basketball, baseball and tennis teams.

An Indiana, Pennsylvania native, Grove is a member of the Association of Florida Athletic Trainers, the American College of Sports Medicine and National Athletic Trainers' Association. Grove and his wife, AnnMarie, have one daughter, Samantha Ann, and one son, Tyler Ryan.

TROY MAURER

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

COLLEGE: PURDUE // NFL: 24TH SEASON // DOLPHINS: 24TH SEASON

Troy Maurer is entering his 24th season as assistant athletic trainer with the Dolphins, having joined the organization in 1992. Along with Naohisa Inoue, Jonathan Gress and under the direction of Head Athletic Trainer Ryan Grove, he assists with the day-to-day training room operation and the rehabilitation of injured Dolphins players.

Following the 2011 season, Maurer was awarded the AFC Tim Davey Assistant Athletic Trainer of the Year by the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society. Maurer was the second recipient of the honor, which recognizes one assistant athletic trainer from each conference. As voted by the members of the PFATS, this award is emblematic of the commitment, dedication and high level of integrity that Tim Davey brought to the field of Athletic Training and is representative of his level of service which he dedicated to his surrounding community.

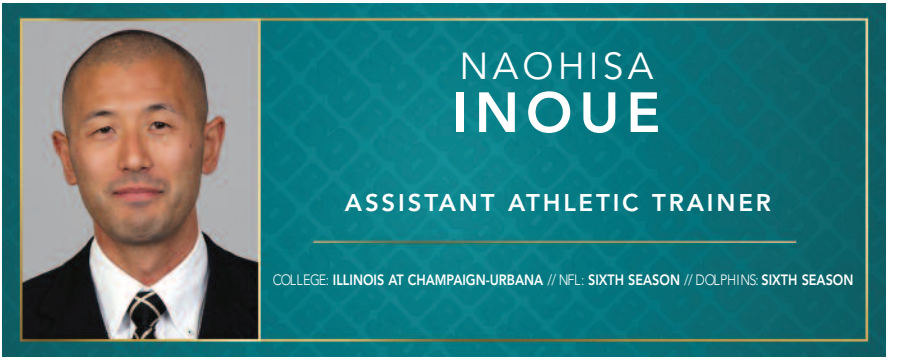
In 2006, Maurer was part of the staff that was recognized by their peers as the "Athletic Training Staff of the Year" by the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society.

A graduate of Purdue University, Maurer began his NFL career by serving undergraduate internships with both the Indianapolis Colts and New York Jets. Upon graduation from Purdue, he accepted a seasonal athletic trainer position with the Colts in 1989 before being hired by Doctors' Hospital in Coral Gables as an athletic trainer in the physical therapy department in 1990. Prior to joining the Dolphins, Maurer was head basketball athletic trainer and assistant football athletic trainer at Kansas State University during 1990-92 seasons.

A native of Lafayette, Indiana, Maurer and his wife, Jill, live in Coral Springs with their son, Luke, and daughter, Laura.

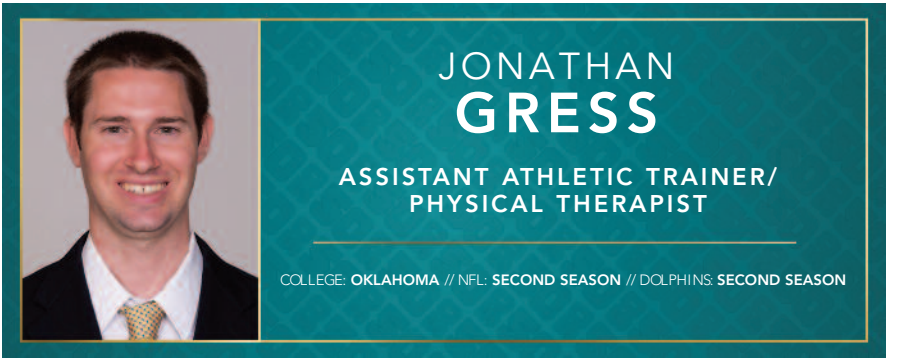


Naohisa Inoue (NOW-HE-SA, IN-EW-WAY) is entering his sixth season with the Dolphins, and fourth as an assistant athletic trainer having joined the organization for the 2010 season. Along with Troy Maurer, Jonathan Gress and under the direction of Head Athletic Trainer Ryan Grove, he assists with the day-to-day training room operation and the rehabilitation of injured Dolphins players.

Inoue is a 2001 graduate of Fuji University in Hanamaki, Iwate, Japan, where he earned a degree in economics. He is also a graduate of the University of Illinois where he earned a degree in Athletic Training.

Inoue was a student assistant for the Illini baseball and football teams during his time in Champaign-Urbana. Upon graduation from Illinois, he was accepted into the graduate program at the University of Kentucky where he worked with the Wildcats football program. Inoue began his NFL career by serving as a graduate intern with the Dolphins during the 2007 season.

A native of Toyonaka in Osaka, Japan, Inoue is single and lives in Davie.



Jonathan Gress is entering his second season as an assistant trainer/physical therapist. Along with Troy Maurer, Naohisa Inoue and under the direction of Head Athletic Trainer Ryan Grove, he assists with the day-to-day training room operation and the rehabilitation of injured Dolphins players.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Gress spent four years (2010-14) at the University of Arizona as an assistant trainer/physical therapist. He received a master's degree in physical therapy at Oklahoma in 2008 and another master's degree in athletic training at Texas Tech in 2010.

A native of Norman, Okla., Gress is married to wife, Gina.

practice duties as well as assisting with the transport of all equipment to and from each road site. Thiele has been a certified equipment manager for the past 18 years.

A native of Connecticut, he graduated from Springfield College in Massachusetts with a degree in general studies.

Steve Guida is in his third season with the Miami Dolphins as an equipment assistant. His responsibilities include game day uniforms, apparel inventory as well as assisting defensive coaches during practice. He started as an intern with the team during the 2012 season.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Guida served as a training camp intern for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2009. In addition, he served as head equipment manager for the Arena Football League's Tampa Bay Storm in 2008. Previously he was a student equipment manager at the University of South Florida for the football team from 2004-08.

Jon Swede is in his seventh season with the Miami Dolphins as an equipment assistant. In his role, Swede helps special teams coaches set up appropriate equipment during practice as well as keeping inventory of the team's Nike apparel. He started as an intern with the team during the 2008 season.

The New Jersey native graduated from William Paterson University with a degree in sociology.

1972 DOLPHINS LEAD NFL IN POINTS SCORED AND ALLOWED

En route to their perfect 17-0 season, the 1972 Miami Dolphins led the NFL that year in both points scored and points allowed. During the regular season, they averaged 27.5 points per contest while yielding an average of only 12.2. They are one of only 12 teams in NFL history to achieve this feat, and of the other 11, only the 1996 Green Bay Packers went on to win the Super Bowl.

VIDEO

VIDEO DIRECTOR

COLLEGE: WESTERN ILLINOIS // NFL: FIRST SEASON // DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Mike Nobler enters his first season with the Miami Dolphins as video director. In his role, he oversees the department's efforts to support all of the coaching and football operations video needs. Additionally, he helps maintain a full NFL and college video library on the XOS system, and coordinates all practice and game filming and editing.

Nobler joins Miami after spending the previous six seasons (2008-14) as football video coordinator at the University of Nebraska. His primary responsibilities included managing Nebraska's 45-client XOS coaching video network and, along with a video staff of eight, he helped implement the video system for the day-to-day use by coaches, including the taping and editing of practice and games as well as opponent video breakdowns. Nebraska was one of the first two schools to begin shooting, editing and distributing practice video in HD in the spring of 2011.

Prior to joining Nebraska, Nobler spent two years as a field representative for XOS Digital. He provided on-site support, installations of all software and hardware as well as staff training on the video system in college football and basketball, and NFL video departments.

Before his time at XOS Digital, Nobler spent four years as assistant video director at Oklahoma. He handled video of practice and games while working alongside the Sooner coaching staff as a video editor, and was a co-network administrator supporting the Oklahoma video setup. Nobler also spent one year in a similar video position at Illinois and began his career as a video intern with the St. Louis Rams.

A native of Lake Villa, Ill., Nobler graduated from Western Illinois University in 2001 with a degree in communications. Mike and his wife, Heather, have one daughter, Madeline.

DANE CHESTER

ASSISTANT VIDEO DIRECTOR

COLLEGE: BALDWIN-WALLACE // NFL: FIRST SEASON // DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Dane Chester enters his first season with the Dolphins as assistant video director. In his role, he will support the department's efforts to assist in the video needs of the coaching and football operations staffs as well as the players. He will also film and edit practice and game video and provide technical support.

Chester joins Miami after spending the 2014 season as director of football game analysis at the University of Illinois. Prior to joining the Fighting Illini, Chester worked as a support manager at DVSport Software, where he provided technical support to NFL, NCAA and Replay clients, and tested future products. He also served as replay conference coordinator for the Big Ten, ACC and Mid-American Conferences. Chester spent the 2012 season as a video intern with the Cleveland Browns, where he videotaped practices and entered practice data, managed video needs in meeting rooms and created weekly highlight packages. He was assistant director of football video at Ohio State in 2011, where he videotaped practices and games, oversaw OSU's student video staff and managed the program's video database for recruiting, practice and games. In 2010, Chester was the video coordinator for the Arena Football League's Cleveland Gladiators.

A 2010 graduate of Baldwin-Wallace College with a degree in sports management and minors in business management and marketing, he served as assistant equipment manager for school's football team for two seasons and also worked as the football video coordinator. He supplemented his video experience while in college by working as an instant replay field technician for Browns games from 2006-10, while also serving an internship with the NFL team's new media department.

Chester was a four-year golfer at Buckeye Local High School in his hometown of Medina, Ohio. He is married to Mary Wilson-Chester.

Ninno DePatrick is entering his third season with the Dolphins as a video assistant. In his role, he films and edits all games and practices as well as additional content for coaches, scouts and players, including technical support, weekly highlights and administering team meetings.

DePatrick has a B.A. degree in theatre from SUNY Stony Brook and an M.A. in sport management from University of San Francisco. He also is a member of the Screen Actors Guild and has several hobbies, including guitar and photography.

Chris Plaster is entering his fifth season with the Dolphins as a video assistant. In his role, he films coaches video for practices and games, formats and edits video for computer and iPad use by coaches, scouts and players and produces weekly teach tapes for use by players and coaches. Additionally, he provides technical support for coaches, scouts and players.

Plaster is from Martinsville, Va. and currently resides in Weston, Fla.

MATT SHULA

VIDEO ASSISTANT

COLLEGE: LAFAYETTE COLLEGE // NFL: FIRST SEASON // DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Matt Shula enters his first fulltime season with the Dolphins as a video assistant. In this role, Shula is responsible for practice and game video for the coaches. In 2014, he served as a staff assistant for the video department.

After completing his undergraduate degree at Lafayette College in Pennsylvania, Shula was part of Charlie Weis' Kansas football staff as quality control coach, focusing on recruiting before being promoted to graduate assistant.

A native of Cooper City, Fla., Shula is the grandson of Hall of Fame Head Coach Don Shula and the son of David and Leslie Shula. He resides in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

FOOTBALL SUPPORT

STUART WEINSTEIN

DIRECTOR OF TEAM SECURITY

COLLEGE: FLORIDA ATLANTIC // NFL: 31ST SEASON // DOLPHINS: 31ST SEASON

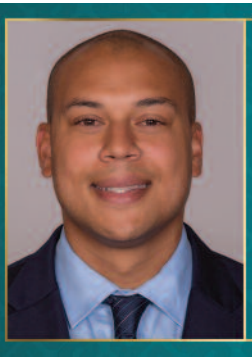
Stuart Weinstein is entering his 31st season as director of team security with the Dolphins, having joined the organization in 1985. In his role, Weinstein helps facilitate the day-to-day functioning of team security, primarily providing off-the-field support for coaches, players and staff on civil, criminal and traffic legal matters. His additional duties include helping to obtain passports, Florida drivers licenses and tags. In 1987, he began conducting background checks on players eligible for the NFL draft and the same service has expanded to include veteran NFL free agents, totaling 651 people interviewed and researched. Weinstein also is responsible for team travel security, including airport screening, team hotel and at the stadium on game day. Similarly, he oversees the team hotel and stadium security for home games and is on the field for all practices.

Weinstein works closely with the Director of Player Engagement Kaleb Thornhill to help players off the field while playing and with their careers following retirement. He attends the NFL Rookie Symposium annually and also works with the community relations department to assist with player appearances.

Weinstein was initially hired by the Miami Dolphins as a security consultant before becoming a security investigator and then director of security in 1990. Prior to working for the Dolphins, he was a contract investigator with the NFL as well as working as a private investigator.

A native of Miami, Weinstein attended Miami Norland High School followed by Miami Dade Junior College before graduating from Florida Atlantic University. He is married to his wife, Renee, and they have two children, Brian and Julie, along with three grandchildren.



KALEB THORNHILL

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER ENGAGEMENT

COLLEGE: MICHIGAN STATE // NFL: SEVENTH SEASON // DOLPHINS: SIXTH SEASON

Kaleb Thornhill enters his sixth season with the Dolphins as the organization's director of player engagement. In his role, Thornhill engages, educates and empowers individuals to reach their full potential both on and off the field. He also helps players in the transition process both into and out of the NFL through continuing education, financial education and providing assistance in dealing with family matters through player programs.

Since joining the Dolphins, Thornhill has been selected to participate and completed the NFL Athlete Develop Professional Certification Program conducted by the Wharton School Executive Education program at the University of Pennsylvania. Since 2013, he has served as a member of the NFL's Steering Committee for NFL Player Engagement, which provides advice and opinions in matters related to off-field support of players and their families. Additionally, Thornhill has fostered a holistic approach to the overall development of Dolphins players built upon Gratitude, Respect, Integrity, and Trust (G.R.I.T) and the creation of the Veteran Executive Education Program (VEEP), which aims to continue to develop the veterans and families in all areas of their lives.

Thornhill joined the Dolphins from the Detroit Lions where he worked in the team's football operation and player development departments. Prior to his time in Detroit, Thornhill served as graduate assistant to the athletics director at Michigan State University while earning his master's degree. During his time, he created player development/mentor presentations that were shown to the athletics director and head director of student athlete support services and helped to develop a transition program for student-athletes.

A four-year letterman with the MSU Spartan football team, Thornhill started three years at middle linebacker. He was also named a four-time All-Academic Big Ten selection and was elected team captain in 2007. Thornhill recorded 227 career tackles with 20.5 tackles for losses in his collegiate career. He was named Michigan State's Potsy Ross Scholar/Athlete Award in 2007, given to the team's top senior scholar-athlete.

A native of Lansing, Michigan, Thornhill received his bachelor's degree from Michigan State in inner disciplinary studies in human resources in 2007 and earned his master's degree from the university in kinesiology, with a concentration in sports administration in 2009. He also earned his MBA at Nova Southeastern University in June 2013. Thornhill's late father, Charlie, played on Michigan State's back-to-back Big Ten championship teams in 1965-66, while his brother, Josh, was a four year starter at linebacker for the Spartans from 1998-2001.

2014 MARGIN OF VICTORY

Miami's first six wins of the season were by at least 13 points. Only three other teams since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger recorded their first six (or more) wins in a season by margins of 13 or more points: the 2007 New England Patriots (first eight, on their way to a 16-0 record), 1999 St. Louis Rams (first 13; they won the Super Bowl that season) and 1984 Washington Redskins (first nine).

SCOTT BULLIS

DIRECTOR OF TEAM OPERATIONS

COLLEGE: WESTERN NEW ENGLAND // NFL: SIXTH SEASON // DOLPHINS: SIXTH SEASON

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL COMMUNICATIONS

COLLEGE: VIRGINIA TECH // NFL: FIFTH SEASON // DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Matt Taylor is entering his first season as director of football communications with the Miami Dolphins. Taylor oversees the day-to-day football communications and serves as the primary media contact for Head Coach Joe Philbin.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Taylor spent the past three seasons (2012-14) at the University of Maryland, where he served as assistant athletics director/football communications, directing media relations for the football program and Head Coach Randy Edsall.

Taylor arrived at Maryland after spending the 2011 season as assistant director of communications for the Indianapolis Colts, where he was responsible for facilitating interviews of players and coaches for media members, as well as preparing members of the organization for media appearances. He worked to publicize the success of the team on the field, as well as handling the publicity effort for business initiatives.

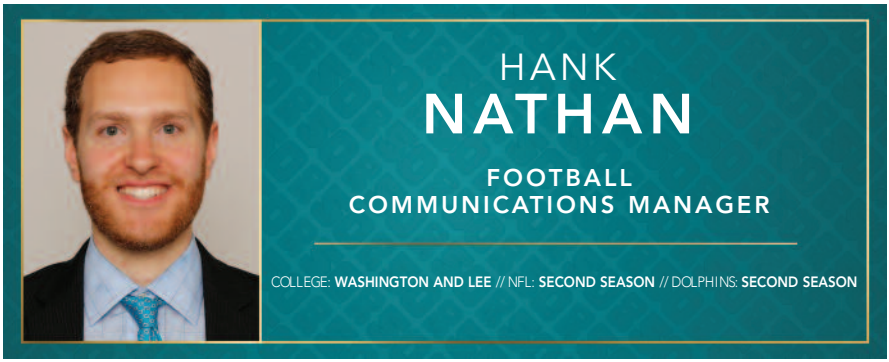
Prior to coming to Indianapolis, Taylor spent three seasons (2008-2010) with the Washington Redskins, where he worked as a media relations assistant and served as a liaison between the team and local and national media members. He also handled publicity for all community relations events. Taylor worked on the NFL's public relations team during Super Bowls XLIV, XLV and XLVI and assisted with publicity campaigns that helped two Colts and nine Redskins earn Pro Bowl selections.

Taylor holds a communications degree from Virginia Tech and a Masters of Business Administration from The George Washington University. He currently resides in Plantation, Fla.

Theresa Manahan is in her second season with the Dolphins, having been named communications manager on May 5, 2014. In her role, she is responsible for the club's corporate communications. Manahan also creates publicity plans to generate coverage for off-field events at Sun Life Stadium as well as all organizational community and business events.

Manahan joined the Dolphins after working as a sports business writer in Boston, MA. Her articles were published in ESPN The Magazine, ESPN.com and the Boston Business Journal. Prior to that, she worked for the SportsBusiness Journal/Daily in Charlotte, NC.

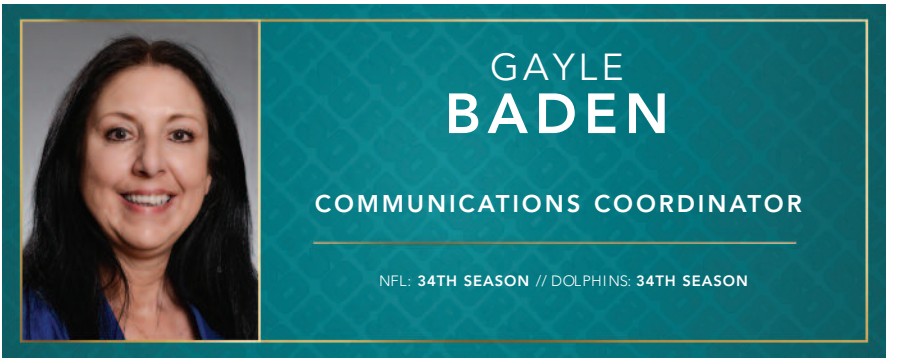
Manahan holds a degree in broadcast journalism from the University of Central Florida in Orlando, where she also attained master's in both business administration and sports business management.



Hank Nathan is entering his second season with the Dolphins. In April 2015, Nathan was promoted to football communications manager after serving as communications coordinator the previous year. In his role, he helps facilitate and manage the day-to-day functioning of media relations with coaches, players and football staff. Nathan previously worked within the organization as a staff assistant in the media relations department in 2012.

Prior to joining the Dolphins in a full-time capacity in 2014, Nathan interned in the media relations department of the Washington Redskins (2011) and the communications department of the Houston Texans (2013).

A native of Baltimore, Md., Nathan received a Bachelor of Arts degree in journalism and mass communications from Washington and Lee University in 2010. He currently resides in Plantation, Fla.



Gayle Baden enters her 34th season with the Miami Dolphins and first as a communications coordinator. In her expanded role, she will help facilitate media interview requests, manage daily site updates and maintenance to Dolphins.com and work on select off-field publicity projects. Baden will continue to assemble and distribute release packets to network personnel and media of opposing teams, along with managing credential requests. For the past 33 years, Baden served as the communications executive assistant.

She resides in Pembroke Pines.

Michael Farnham is entering his first season with the Dolphins as a communications coordinator. In his role, he helps facilitate the day-to-day functioning of player and media relations as well as generating media coverage for the organization in football and publicity campaigns in the Hispanic community. Farnham had previously worked within the organization as a staff assistant in the communications department during the 2014 season.

Prior to joining the Dolphins in a full-time capacity in 2015, Farnham interned in the media relations department of the San Francisco 49ers during their Super Bowl XLVII season of 2012 and was part of a staff that was runner up for the Pete Rozelle Award. He also interned with the Jacksonville Jaguars' media relations department in 2013.

A native of Washington D.C., Farnham received a Bachelor of Arts degree in English from Old Dominion University in 2012. He currently resides in Plantation, Fla. with his fiancé, Paula.

MIAMI DOLPHINS CHEERLEADERS

The Miami Dolphins Cheerleaders have been a fundamental aspect of the Dolphins' football history since the franchise's inaugural season in 1966. As the face of the Dolphins, these internationally known ambassadors for South Florida diligently rehearse every week to bring spirit and excitement to every game day and community event appearance. An ethnically diverse group of glamorous women, the cheerleaders wholeheartedly encompass what it means to be both beauty and brains, as they are all also well-respected professionals in their community. The Miami Dolphins Cheerleaders, just as the team they represent, exemplify teamwork, performance, the pursuit of perfection and an unrivaled passion for football.

T.D., the official mascot of the Miami Dolphins, has been a fixture at Dolphins games since his introduction at the Miami Dolphins' Draft Party on April 19, 1997. His charming personality, outstanding sense of humor, and ability to relate to young and old alike make him a "Fin"-tastic ambassador for the Dolphins.

T.D. performs at every Dolphins home game, but his job isn't done when the season is over. He can be found throughout South Florida, making appearances at schools, parades, hospitals, and various other functions.

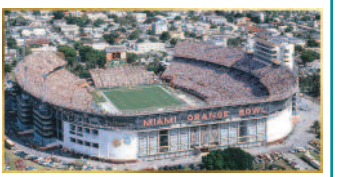
An nine-time Pro Bowl mascot, T.D. has also performed at the Chinese New Year's Day Parade in Hong Kong, and he was the first mascot to participate in the Hall of Fame Game in Canton, Ohio.

When T.D. originally debuted, he had not yet been named. The Dolphins' "Name the Mascot Contest" drew more than 13,000 entries from all 50 states and more than 22 countries. Sara Fernandez of Miami was the first to submit the name "T.D.," and she won two tickets to Super Bowl XXXII when the name was selected at the annual Dolphins Awards Banquet on June 4, 1997.

Prior to T.D., the club had a live dolphin named "Flipper," who was situated in a fish tank in the open end of the Orange Bowl. The club also had "Dolfan Denny" patrol the sidelines for several seasons. However, with the debut of T.D., the Dolphins finally had an official mascot.

If you'd like to score a "T.D." at your next event, please email CBonk@dolphins.com.

THE ORANGE BOWL



The 1986 season marked the end of an era for the Miami Dolphins as the team played its final season in the Orange Bowl.

In 21 years at the venue, the Dolphins posted a 110-38-3 (.738) regular-season record. In the playoffs, Miami was 10-4 at the 75,206-seat Orange Bowl, giving the team a 120-43-3 (.736) mark in all games played there.

Miami played in the Orange Bowl from the team's initial season in 1966 through the 1986 campaign. From 1966 to 1969, the Orange Bowl had a grass playing field. The playing surface was changed to Poly-Turf in 1970, was replaced in 1972 and finally removed in March 1976, so that Prescription Athletic Turf could be installed.

The Orange Bowl was the site of many great sporting events, including five Super Bowls, the annual Orange Bowl Classic, Olympic soccer matches and championship boxing matches.

The 2007 season was the final one for the Orange Bowl. The University of Miami, who called the OB home from 1937-2007, played its final game there on November 10, 2007, when they dropped a 48-0 decision to the University of Virginia. The final collegiate game at the Orange Bowl occurred on December 1, 2007 when Florida International defeated North Texas, 38-19. The final organized game took place on January 4, 2008 in "The O-D All-American Bowl," a high school all-star game. A "Farewell To The Orange Bowl" celebration was held on January 26, 2008. Approximately 15,000 people watched a team of ex-Miami Hurricanes beat a team of ex-Dolphins, 65-51, in a flag-football exhibition. Demolition began in March of 2008 and was completed in May.

MIAMI DOLPHINS FOUNDATION

MIAMI DOLPHINS FOUNDATION

Established in 1996 as the fundraising arm of the Miami Dolphins Football Team, the Miami Dolphins Foundation is committed to making a year-round difference in the South Florida community. Since Chairman of the Board and Managing General Partner Stephen Ross assumed the leadership of the organization, the Foundation refocused its philanthropic efforts to provide support in the South Florida communities under education, health and volunteerism initiatives. Signature programs under these three pillars are:

Special Teams Driven By Chevy

– EDUCATION –

The Miami Dolphins, through their educational pillar of its foundation, officially announced the public launch of a four-year $1 million partnership with City Year Miami, an education-focused nonprofit organization that partners with public schools to help keep students in school and on track to graduate. In 2015, the foundation sponsored City Year programs at Miami Carol City and Miami Norland Senior High Schools through funds raised from Fins Weekend. The three-day event is the foundation's largest annual event featuring current players, alumni, coaches and cheerleaders.

– HEALTH –

Started in 2010 by the Miami Dolphins as the signature initiative of the Miami Dolphins Foundation's health pillar, the Dolphins Cancer Challenge is dedicated to improving people's lives through the financial support of innovative cancer research. DCC funds are used to promote truly innovative programs, by recruiting and retaining the best physicians and scientists and making certain cutting edge treatments and technologies are available to treat cancer patients. In just five years, more than $11.5 million dollars has gone to fund research that leads to more effective targeted therapies for each patient's cancer.

– VOLUNTEERISM –

The Miami Dolphins through their Special Teams Driven by Chevy Volunteer program partner with AARP Foundation to pack ONE MILLION MEALS for individuals 50+ in South Florida and support Feeding South Florida with the donation. In 2015, volunteers worked an assembly line, combining ingredients and vitamins, to make one million nutritious meals of rice and beans. More than 4,000 volunteers, including mascot T.D., Dolphins staff, 26 alumni and current players teamed to pack 3,472 boxes of food which totaled 1,071,360 meals. In the two years the program, the Dolphins and AARP have packed more than 2 million meals.

DOLPHINS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Miami Dolphins take great pride in playing an active role in the South Florida community. By lending support to both civic and community based charitable causes, the Dolphins are able to make an impact in the lives of those who need it the most. The assistance that the Dolphins are able to provide comes from the teamwork of coaches, players, alumni, cheerleaders, T.D. (the Dolphins' mascot), staff and members of the Miami Dolphins Women's Organization working together toward the common goals of helping those in need and supporting the community that has always been there to support the Dolphins.

– IMPACTING THE COMMUNITY –

- BACKPACK AND SCHOOL SUPPLY GIVEAWAY: Children from our Miami-Dade, Broward and Palm Beach partner schools are invited to the Dolphins indoor practice field for a party to receive backpacks and school supplies. The event also includes dance contests for the kids judged by the players for prizes.
- HOSPITAL VISITS: Dolphins players, cheerleaders and mascot, T.D., visit area hospitals to brighten the spirits of sick children and military veterans who are not able to go home for the holidays. While at the hospitals, the players, cheerleaders and mascot visit with the children and veterans, take pictures with them, sign autographs and give out Dolphins souvenirs. The Miami Dolphins Women's Organization visited kids at the hospital on Christmas Day.
- HOLIDAY TOY EVENT: Dolphins players, coaches, cheerleaders and staff make toy donations during the holidays to various organizations in the community that are in need. Children from our Miami-Dade, Broward and Palm Beach partner schools are invited to a holiday celebration at the Miami Dolphins Training Facility.
- SHOP WITH A FIN: Dolphins players are paired with families in need selected by Neighbors 4 Neighbors, whom they take on a shopping spree at a local Publix Super Market. The families also attend a Dolphins home game.
- KIDS AND FINS PUBLIX SHOPPING SPREE: Kids are given the opportunity to shop with a player, alumnus, cheerleader or military personnel with a $100 Publix gift certificate for a Thanksgiving meal. The event includes a party prior to their shopping experience.
- NFL COMMUNITY DAYS: Miami Dolphins players have just one day off each week during the season, but many players use the day off from football to go to work in our community. Hospital visits, speaking to high school football teams or reading books to children are just a few of the activities Dolphins players participate in on their day off.

– YOUTH PROGRAMS –

The Miami Dolphins Youth message is DOL-FIT. DOL-FIT has three parts: education, physical fitness and positive choices. The principles are taught through Dolphins Academy, Gatorade Junior Training Camp, Girls' Flag Football, High School Player Development 7on7 program, Summer Football Camp and various other Dolphins Academy programs.

- JUNIOR TRAINING CAMPS: The Gatorade Junior Training Camp is a free service to the South Florida community. Started in 1997, the Junior Training Camp travels to elementary schools in South Florida bringing a fun, fitness-oriented clinic teaching children the benefits of hydration, staying physically active while teaching the game of football. An average of 500 kids are impacted at each school.

- HIGH SCHOOL COACH OF THE WEEK AND YEAR: At each home game, the Dolphins and Under Armour honor the Coach of the Week in high school football. The Dolphins through a NFL Youth Football grant donates $1,000 to the Coach of the Week and upwards to $3,000 to the High School Football Coach of the Year.
- HIGH SCHOOL PLAYER OF THE WEEK: Under Armour and the Miami Dolphins honor the High School Player of the Week during the end of the third quarter at every Dolphins home game. The player is selected from Miami-Dade, Broward or Palm Beach County and is presented with a plaque.
- DOLPHINS ACADEMY: Dolphins Academy trains athletes year round in football technique, running and core strength. What makes this different from every other training program is that only NFL alumni do the coaching. Twice a week kids ages five to 18 can get the best instruction by NFL alumni.
- DOLPHINS ACADEMY 7ON7 TOURNAMENT PRESENTED BY UNDER ARMOUR: The HSPD program (High School Player Development) helps high school football players transition and get ready for college. HSPD helps high school football players, both on and off the field, balance a hectic schedule including academic qualifying, test preparation and recruiting. Athletes participate in a one-day seminar where they learn life skills from current and former players and coaches. The seminar has been followed by a 7on7 tournament that hosts 64 South Florida High School teams and an estimated 1,200 athletes.
- GIRLS HIGH SCHOOL FLAG SKILLS CLINIC AND JAMBOREE: Girls High School Flag Skills Clinic is a two-day program available to young women in South Florida and teaches them the basic fundamentals of football. The camp is broken into offense and defense. At each station the coaches demonstrate the proper stances and mechanics for that position or drill. More than 450 ladies from South Florida attended the clinic and over 1,000 female student-athletes representing over 25 high schools played in a flag football tournament on the second day.
- DOLPHINS CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES: The Dolphins Championship Service is the championship of all championships. The seven major youth football leagues in South Florida as well as teams from as far as Orlando, compete to see which teams are the best in the State of Florida.
- FINS FRIDAY: Fins Friday is a fun, upbeat program that emphasizes education, physical fitness and positive choices. The assembly is performed by a Miami Dolphins alumnus who is accompanied by none other than T.D., the Dolphins mascot. The Dolphins alumnus highlights the importance of education, physical fitness and positive choices (Dol-fit), while T.D. entertains the kids with his unique mannerisms and fun personality. In an effort to reach as many children as possible, the Fins Friday is intended for all ages of elementary students. An average of 1,000 kids are reached each session.

SUN LIFE STADIUM

With 27 years as one of the nation's premier sports facilities, Sun Life Stadium is South Florida's home to the Miami Dolphins, University of Miami Hurricanes, Orange Bowl game, the Guinness International Champions Cup, Monster Jam, Jazz in the Gardens, Life in Color Music Festival and other world-class events. This multi-purpose, open-air complex hosted its first football game in August 1987 and its first regular season Major League Baseball game in April 1993. It has been home to five Super Bowls, four BCS National Championships and was the first stadium to host the NFL Pro Bowl after 30 years of the game being held in Hawaii.

On June 17, 2014, the Miami-Dade County Commission approved by a 7-4 vote a Performance-Based Marquee Event Grant Agreement, which moved forward the Sun Life Stadium modernization plan. The agreement gives bonus payments to the Miami Dolphins for hosting major events in exchange for Dolphins owner Stephen Ross being financially responsible for the renovation of the stadium without county assistance. The agreement, which is designed to help bring marquee events such as Super Bowls, college football championships, college football semifinals, World Cup soccer matches as well as other international soccer events, is for a period of 20 years. The modernization, funded by Stephen Ross at an estimated cost of $425 million, started in January 2015. When complete, in August 2016, the stadium will have a canopy to protect fans from rain and sun, more seats closer to the field, a reduced capacity of approximately 65,000, new HD lighting, an upgraded sound system, four new video boards and other modern amenities.

In 2007, the stadium underwent $250 million in improvements and innovations, adding 360,000 square feet of programmable space, and other general enhancements. In 2010, new corporate offices were built on the east side of the Stadium in order to consolidate the business offices of the Miami Dolphins. "A Perfect Moment In Time" statue honoring Don Shula and the team's perfect moment in time immediately after the Dolphins completed their undefeated season in 1972, was unveiled and proudly adorns the entrance of the new offices.

HISTORY

Now in its 28th year of operation, the facility was the first of its kind to be constructed entirely with private funds, costing $115 million when it was completed in 1987. The late Joe Robbie led the financing campaign to build "Joe Robbie Stadium" for the Miami Dolphins of the NFL. JRS revolutionized the economics of professional sports when it opened that year. Inclusion of a Club Level, along with Executive Suites, helped to finance the construction of the stadium. Season ticket holders committed to long-term agreements and in return they received first-class amenities in a state-of-the-art facility, which is still used as a model for new facilities across the country.

On March 7, 1990, H. Wayne Huizenga, then Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Blockbuster Video and Huizenga Holdings Inc., agreed to purchase fifty percent of Joe Robbie Stadium and became the point man in the drive to bring Major League Baseball to South Florida. That effort was rewarded in July of 1991, when South Florida was awarded a National League expansion franchise. On January 24, 1994, Huizenga acquired the remaining fifty percent of the stadium to give him 100 percent ownership.

On August 26, 1996, Pro Player, the sports apparel division of Fruit of the Loom, sponsored the renaming of Joe Robbie Stadium as Pro Player Stadium. They became the first sports marketing and products company to entitle a stadium or arena.

The first football game in Joe Robbie Stadium was held on August 16, 1987, when the Miami Dolphins met the Chicago Bears in a preseason battle. The game also marked the 22nd anniversary of the Dolphins franchise. The stadium hosted the National Football League's premier game, Super Bowl XXIII, on January 22, 1989. It marked the return of the Super Bowl to South Florida after a ten-year absence. Subsequent Super Bowls include Super Bowl XXIX (January 29, 1995), Super Bowl XXIII (January 31, 1999), Super Bowl XLI (February 4, 2007) and Super Bowl XLIV (February 1, 2010).

Major League Baseball officially began in South Florida in the spring of 1993 as the Florida Marlins opened their inaugural campaign as a National League team. On April 5, 1993, the "new" look of Joe Robbie Stadium as a baseball facility was unveiled to the public for the first time as the Florida Marlins hosted the Los Angeles Dodgers. The Marlins began their existence by finishing the first day in first place with a 6-3 win over the Dodgers. On September 28, 2011, the Marlins played their final game at Sun Life Stadium. A crowd of 34,615 watched as the Marlins dropped a 3-1 decision to the Washington Nationals. In all, the Marlins played 1,504 games in the stadium and posted a record of 781-723.

In 1997, the stadium hosted four World Series games between the Marlins and the Cleveland Indians, including Game One on October 18, 1997, the first Series game ever played at the stadium, and Game Seven on October 26, 1997, which the Marlins won, 3-2 in 11 innings, to capture their first World Championship.

Before the arrival of the Marlins, the stadium had played host to 13 spring training games that attracted 370,000 fans and paved the way for baseball in South Florida.

Sun Life Stadium is equipped with a Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT) system which provides draining for its natural grass, and during February and March of 1995, the old PAT system was removed, and a new advanced mechanical drainage system was installed. At a cost of $1 million, the new system provides three times the drainage capacity of the old system and ensures a firm, dry playing surface within half an hour's time after as much as a three inch per hour rainfall.

The stadium was renamed Dolphins Stadium in January 2005, as part of a major plan renovation initiated by Huizenga. In April 2006, two hi-definition video boards, the largest and second largest in professional sports, were unveiled. A new fascia LED ribbon-board was installed in July 2006.

In 2007, working with HOK Sport and Stiles Construction, both renowned in their respective fields of venue design and construction, the stadium completed a $250 million improvements and innovations project that included the addition of 360,000 square feet of enclosed space, new casual sitting and gathering areas throughout the stadium, an all-new Club Level, refurbished luxury suites, new team merchandise store and other amenities.

In 2008, Huizenga sold 50 percent of the team, stadium and surrounding developable land to Stephen M. Ross, Chairman of the Related Companies, an international real estate development company. Huizenga remained the managing general partner of the franchise until he sold another 45 percent of the team and stadium to Ross in January 2009. Ross became general managing partner with 95 percent ownership of the Dolphins and the stadium while Huizenga retained a five percent share of both and remained a 50 percent partner in the land.

In one of his first moves to improve the fan experience at the stadium, in May, 2009, Ross and celebrated singer songwriter Jimmy Buffett announced that Dolphin Stadium would be renamed Land Shark Stadium. The unique branding brought Buffett's Margaritaville and Land Shark themes to enhance the game-day experience. To mark the announcement, Buffett performed three songs and unveiled the new lyrics to his iconic song "FINS", written expressly for the team.

On January 20, 2010, the stadium's name was changed to Sun Life Stadium as the leading international financial services organization made Miami and South Florida a major part of a multi-city philanthropic endeavor through a comprehensive marketing partnership with the Miami Dolphins and the Miami Dolphins Foundation.

LOCATION

The stadium is located at 347 Don Shula Drive in Miami Gardens, only one mile south of the Miami-Dade Broward County Line. The 160-acre site stands midway between downtown Miami (16 miles) and downtown Fort Lauderdale (18 miles).

WORLD-CLASS EVENTS

Sun Life Stadium displays its versatility every year by hosting a wide variety of events. Along with Miami Dolphins football, the stadium is home to University of Miami college football and the Orange Bowl game. The stadium has hosted five Super Bowls (XXIII, XXIX, XXXIII, XLI and XLIV), the 2010 NFL Pro Bowl and four BCS National Championship Games (2001, 2005, 2009, 2013). Major League Baseball's premier event, the World Series, was played at the stadium in 1997 and 2003.

Sun Life Stadium has hosted numerous world class international soccer matches including the Guinness International Champions Cup Finals in 2013 and 2014. The stadium has hosted the sports most recognizable clubs including Manchester United, FC Barcelona, Chelsea FC, and AC Milan. National teams matches have included international powerhouses Brazil, Spain, Colombia, England, USA, and Honduras. The Brazil vs. Colombia match on September 5, 2014 established the attendance record (73,429) for a soccer match held in the State of Florida.

The stadium also hosted the Florida high school class 3A, 4A, 5A and 6A state championship football games in 2005, 2006 and 2007, international soccer, Monster Jam, lacrosse competitions as well as various festivals and trade shows.

Numerous concerts have also been performed at the stadium, featuring entertainers such as Pink Floyd, Elton John/Billy Joel, the Rolling Stones, Chicago, Genesis, Gloria Estefan, Guns & Roses, The Who, Hall & Oates, Rod Stewart, Paul McCartney, New Kids on the Block, the Three Tenors World Tour, U2, 'N Sync, The Police, the Black Eyed Peas, Madonna and Jay Z and Beyonce. U2's 360 Tour broke the record for highest concert attendance in the stadium's history when over 70,000 attended on the rocking show on June 29, 2011.

NEW SEATING PRODUCTS

Sun Life Stadium's modernization included doubling the unique seating experiences from 8 to 16. Whether you come to games with your family, enjoy socializing with friends or entertaining important business clients, there is a seating product that will enhance your gameday experience. Some of the newest seating products include:

THE 72 CLUB

The 598 seats in the 72 Club take the premium seating experience to another level. It's the most luxurious seating experience in all of South Florida sports and entertainment. Seats are double-padded, have 11 inches more legroom and are located at midfield. At any point in-game, guests are able to walk on the field on their way to a private club designed by the Rockwell Group.

LIVING ROOM BOXES

As seen on ESPN, Sun Life Stadium has created private four-person boxes known as Living Room Boxes. Located on the 35-yard line and endzones, Living Room Boxes are the biggest, most comfortable seats in the stadium. These boxes give guests the ability to watch replays and highlights on their own private screens.

NORTH SIDELINE CLUB

The North Sideline Club is a new club located between the 30-yard lines on the North side that offers wider, padded seats. The club is designed by the Rockwell Group.

CORNER TERRACES

The 100 Level Corner Terraces provide a unique social experience where guests can watch the game from a high-top table and comfortable swivel chairs. Corner Terraces provide guests the enjoyment of sitting with family or friends without being confined to a row of seats.

THE NINES

The Nines are open-air suites between the 30s that connect to a private club designed by the Rockwell Group. The Nines offer the best view of the field with the convenience of a private club.

EXECUTIVE SUITES

Sun Life Stadium's 172 suites offer luxury and comfort in the ultimate setting to watch any event. Executive suites vary in size from 10 seats up to 70 seats offering air conditioning and DirecTV access with NFL Sunday Ticket, multi-feed sound systems, refrigerators, ice-makers and private telephone services. Suite attendants provide personal service in each suite during the games. Centerplate caters the suites with a delectable, wide-variety of food and beverages from which to choose.

LIV SUN LIFE STADIUM

The South Beach experience made its way to Sun Life Stadium and Dolphins football games in 2010. More than 400 seats and 17 suites in the 300 and 200 levels of the stadium were cleared out to create the 10,000 square foot LIV Sun Life Stadium that has the look and feel of the LIV nightclub at the Fontainebleau Miami Beach hotel. Complete with a pair of bars, private cabanas and tables, dance floor and DJ booth, the space overlooks the west end zone and created a nightclub experience for the fan before, during and after the game.

BOKAMPERS MVP CLUB

Located in the east end zone area of the Club Level, the Bokampers MVP Club allows groups of 50 to 150 to experience a Miami Dolphins football game or other event in style. In addition to Club Level amenities and entertainment, the Bokampers MVP Club offers luxurious oversized seats, an exquisite buffet, a full bar with bartender, a private elevator, 21 televisions and many other exclusive privileges.

DINING

Full service concession facilities, managed by Centerplate, are available on all levels and include favorites such as BurgerFi and Papa Johns, as well as flavors of South Florida like Café Versailles and Sloppy Joe's. On the Club Level, premium food stations feature delicacies such as sushi, freshly-baked pizza, hand-carved sandwiches, sauté dishes, delicious desserts and much more.

DOCTORS HOSPITAL TRAINING FACILITY AT NOVA SOUTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY

On July 11, 1993, the Miami Dolphins officially moved into their brand new training facility at Nova Southeastern University in Davie, Florida, from their long-time base at St. Thomas University in Miami. On August 8, 2012, the Dolphins announced a comprehensive marketing and community partnership agreement with Doctors Hospital Center for Orthopedics & Sports Medicine, a division of Baptist Health South Florida. The partnership includes the naming rights to the team's training facility. As a result of the partnership, the complex will be officially known as the Doctors Hospital Training Facility at Nova Southeastern University.

The ten million dollar state-of-the-art facility covers 98,452 square feet and incorporates the latest technology and advances that were utilized in the design of other NFL training facilities.

The Dolphins' training center not only houses the team's football operation personnel, but it also serves as the site of the club's preseason training camp and all off-season conditioning programs.

The facility includes a large locker room area, sauna and steam rooms, a full size 18-by-40 foot cold plunge pool, whirlpools, a state-of-the-art weight training room and a sports science lab.

In addition to the physical training needs, modern support facilities also were constructed. Those include a full-size kitchen and dining lounge, player lounge, conference rooms, equipment rooms, laundry areas, video editing labs, an auditorium that functions as a site for major press conferences as well as for full team and staff meetings and the Dolphins Pro Shop, which sells official team merchandise.

Administrative offices, located on the second floor, include the head coach's office with an adjacent conference room overlooking the practice fields. Offensive and defensive coaches' offices flank these areas. Other office space exists for personnel and administrative staff members.

At the rear of the facility are two full-sized grass football fields, which were constructed utilizing the Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT) system that also is used for the field at Sun Life Stadium. That system incorporates underground pipes and electronic pumps to remove water from the fields when natural drainage is not adequate.

The Dolphins also now have their own indoor practice field, which was completed in July 2006. The 96,000-square foot structure sits on a three-acre tract adjacent to the two outdoor fields. The 100-yard field is made of a "Twenty-Four/Seven" grass-like synthetic turf, manufactured by The Motz Group.

With a primary emphasis to design the complex in a "fan-friendly" manner, a bleacher structure adjacent to the fields was constructed, utilizing elements of Sun Life Stadium itself.

When the stadium was revised to accommodate baseball, large sections of seats from the stadium were removed. Those sections were relocated to the Nova Southeastern facility as part of the new complex. As a result, the bleacher facility at Nova Southeastern can accommodate 2,000 spectators, including 600 in chair-back seats, for open practice sessions and other special events. The structure also provides fans permanent amenities such as concession areas, a merchandise pro shop and rest rooms.

MIAMI DOLPHINS LOGO HISTORY

On April 25, 2013, the Miami Dolphins unveiled the fifth team logo in the organization's history. The new logo was developed during a creative process spanning more than a year and a half and incorporated input from ownership, members of the organization, former players and the franchise's loyal fans.

Highlighting the evolution is the return to the original aqua and orange color scheme that has come to embody the team and the surrounding Miami area. The iconic elements, the sun and the dolphin, remain prominent and allow the redesigned logo to remain connected throughout the team's history while representing the constant influence of the South Florida environment and community.

Within the logo, the aqua, along with the marine blue, first introduced in 1997 and now finessed through this process, are inspired by the color of South Florida's Atlantic Ocean; while the orange is representative of the bright South Florida sun. The dolphins' positioning has been refined and now features the moment of most power in the marine mammal's trajectory, right before it breaks the plane of the water. The sun has also been refined to incorporate more rays as well as an overall enhancement to a more bright and vibrant color.

The original logo featured the dolphin jumping in front of a sunburst using the team's base colors (aqua, coral and white). In 1974, the dolphin was repositioned in front of the sunburst and the aqua color was strengthened. In 1989, there was a further strengthening of the aqua color and the dolphin's tail was elongated. In 1997, the traditional logo and colors were kept as a base, while the sunburst on the logo was accentuated and the dolphin was strengthened with a stronger definition of its shape. In addition, the sunburst was more prominently displayed with the elimination of the hashmarks around the sun's perimeter, while the dolphin's features were accentuated by navy highlights.

TRADING PLACES

When the National Football League rescheduled the Dolphins' home game against the Kansas City Chiefs in 2005 to Friday, October 21 because of the impending arrival of Hurricane Wilma, it was not the first time the club had to change a contest's date or venue for a variety of reasons. In fact, that marked the third straight year and fourth time in five seasons this occurred.

Since 1990, the Dolphins have had to alter the date or venue of a game six times, and the Dolphins are 3-3 in such games. The following are games in which the Dolphins have either had to change a date or site on short notice since 1990:

Original Date, Venue	Opp.	New Date, Venue	Reason	Result
9/7/92, Joe Robbie Stadium	N.E.	10/18/92, JRS	Hurricane Andrew	Dolphins, 38-17
10/26/97, Pro Player Stadium	Chi.	10/27/97, PPS	World Series	Bears, 36-33, OT

LEAGUE LEADERS IN FEWEST SACKS ALLOWED

The Dolphins hold NFL records for most seasons leading the league in fewest sacks allowed (10 – 1973, 1982-90) and most consecutive seasons leading the league in the same category (1982-90). In addition, during the 1988 and 1989 seasons the Dolphins set an NFL record by not allowing a quarterback sack in 19 consecutive games. The streak far outdistanced the previous NFL mark of five straight games, which was accomplished on many occasions. In 1988, Miami set the NFL's single-season sack record by allowing only seven sacks in the 16-game season.

4,000 YARDS PASSING AND 300 YARDS RUSHING: In 2014, Tannehill (4,045 yards passing and 311 yards rushing) became just the eighth quarterback (ninth time overall) in NFL history to throw for 4,000-or-more yards and rush for 300-or-more yards in a single season ... The other quarterbacks to accomplish this feat are San Francisco's Steve Young (twice; 4,023/407 in 1993 and 4,170/454 in 1998), Green Bay's Don Majkowski (4,318/358 in 1989), Jacksonville's Mark Brunell (4,367/396 in 1996); San Francisco's Jeff Garcia (4,278/414 in 2000), Minnesota's Daunte Culpepper (4,717/406 in 2004), Green Bay's Aaron Rodgers (4,434/316 in 2009) and Carolina's Cam Newton (4,051/706 in 2011) ...

GAME HIGHLIGHTS - VS. NEW ENGLAND (SEPT. 7): Completed 18 passes (32 attempts) for 178 yards and two touchdowns in victory...

AT BUFFALO (SEPT. 14): Completed 31-of-49 passes for 241 yards, one touchdown and one interception at Buffalo ... His completions were the second most in a game in his career and the attempts were a career high ...

VS. KANSAS CITY (SEPT. 21): Completed 21-of-43 passes for 205 yards and one touchdown ...

AT OAKLAND IN LONDON (SEPT. 28): Was 23-for-31 for 278 yards with one touchdown and one interception in win ... Completed 14-straight passes, spanning the first and second quarter, which was tied for fourth-most in a game in franchise history ...

VS. GREEN BAY (OCT. 12): Completed 20-of-31 passes for 231 yards and two touchdowns vs. Green Bay ... Had a 40-yard rush, the second-longest run by a Miami QB in franchise history ...

AT CHICAGO (OCT. 19): Completed 25-of-32 passes for 277 yards and two touchdowns, good for the second highest passer rating in his career - 123.6 ... His 78.1 completion percentage against the Bears was the second-highest of his career and his 155.1 first half passer rating was the third-highest first half passer rating in franchise history since 1991 ... He began the game by completing his first 14 passes and 15 consecutive passes dating back to the previous week's game vs. Green Bay ... His 15-consecutive completions are tied for the third-most consecutive completions in a game in franchise history ... His third quarter fourth-and-1 30-yard run was the second-longest gain by a Dolphins player in a fourth-and-1 or fourth-and-2 situation since 1991, trailing only a 39-yard run by Larry Izzo off of a fake punt against Green Bay in 2000 ... Additionally, it was the longest run by a Dolphins quarterback on a fourth-and-1 or fourth-and-2, topping the previous high of three yards shared by Jay Fiedler in 2003 and Joey Harrington in 2006 ... The 30-yard gain also was the longest run on fourth-and-1 or fourth-and-2 by an NFL quarterback since 2006 when Tennessee's Vince Young went 36 yards on fourth-and-2 in the second quarter against the Buffalo Bills ...

AT JACKSONVILLE (OCT. 19): Completed 16-of-29 passes for 196 yards, one touchdown and one interception ... Added five carries for 48 yards, including a 30-yard scamper in the fourth quarter ... With his 30-yard rush against the Jaguars, he became just the second NFL quarterback, joining Michael Vick in 2004, to post runs of 30 or more yards in three consecutive games ...

VS. SAN DIEGO (NOV. 2): Completed 24-of-34 passes for 288 yards and three touchdowns, good for a career-high 125.6 passer rating in the 37-0 win vs. San Diego ... His three touchdown passes were tied for the second-most in a game in his career ... Completed 6-of-6 passes for 63 yards and a touchdown in the team's opening drive for a touchdown ... Further, those were his numbers at the conclusion of the first quarter, his third first quarter of the season completing 100 percent of his passes (10/19/14 at Chi., 6-of-6 for 84 yards and a touchdown; 9/7/14 vs. NE, 5-of-5 for 40 yards and a touchdown) ... With his 22-yard run vs. San Diego, Tannehill joined Steve Young and Michael Vick as the only QBs with a 20-plus yard run in at least 4 consecutive games in the past 25 years ...

AT DETROIT (NOV. 9): Finished the game by completing 27-of-38 passes for 201 yards, one touchdown and one interception ... His 71.1 completion percentage was the sixth-highest in a game in his career...

VS. BUFFALO (NOV. 13): Completed 26-of-34 passes for 240 yards and two touchdowns, good for a 114.8 passer rating ... His 114.8 passer rating was the sixth-highest in a game in his career, making three of his six highest passer ratings in the last five weeks ... His 76.5 completion percentage vs. Buffalo was the third-highest in a game in his career ... 2013 - Played in all 16 games with 15 starts ... Recorded 57 tackles (46 solo) and led the Dolphins with 11.5 sacks ... Ranked tied for third in the AFC and tied for seventh in the NFL in sacks ... With 11.5 sacks he has recorded the most sacks in a season by a Dolphins player other than Cameron Wake since 2008, when Joey Porter had 17.5 sacks ... Led the Dolphins in tackles twice in 2013 .... Had a half-sack at Indianapolis (9/15) ... Posted five tackles, including one sack, at New Orleans (9/30) ... Registered a sack among his three tackles vs. Baltimore (10/6) ... Had three tackles, including one sack, vs. Buffalo (10/20) ... Recorded a sack in fourth consecutive game among his six tackles at New England (10/27) ... Tied for the team lead with six tackles, including one sack, vs. San Diego (11/17) ... The sack came on a third-and-five on the Miami 29-yard line with 4:36 left in the game and the Dolphins protecting a 20-16 lead ... It forced the Chargers to punt on the next play, instead of attempting a field goal which proved critical in the Chargers' final drive of the game, needing a touchdown to win instead of just a field goal ... Had four tackles, including two sacks, vs. Carolina (11/24) for his first multi-sack game of the season and the second of his career ... Was named as AFC Defensive Player of the Week for his efforts at N.Y. Jets (12/1) as he led the Dolphins with ten tackles and had three sacks in that contest ... Had two tackles and one sack at Pittsburgh (12/8) ...

FOUR-GAME SACK TOTAL: Vernon had a total of seven sacks over a span of four consecutive games (Nov. 17 vs. San Diego, Nov. 24 vs. Carolina, Dec. 1 at N.Y. Jets, and Dec. 8 at Pittsburgh) ... His seven sacks in that period is the fifth-best four-game sack total for a Dolphins player since 1982 when sacks became an official NFL statistic:

MOST SACKS OVER A FOUR-GAME SPAN IN DOLPHINS HISTORY

	PLAYER	YEAR	GM 1	GM 2	GM3	GM 4	TOTAL

4.	Bill Stanfill	1969-70	8.0	6.0	14.0
	Jason Taylor	1997-98	5.0	9.0	14.0

HONORS: Was named as the AFC Defensive Player of the Week for Week 13, following his performance at N.Y. Jets (12/1) ... In that contest, he led the Dolphins with ten tackles ... Had three sacks in that contest for a total of 25 yards, sacking Jets quarterback Geno Smith for an eight-yard loss and tackling Jets QB Matt Simms twice for a total of 17 yards in losses ... It marked the first time that Vernon has been selected as the AFC Defensive Player of the Week ... Vernon also was honored in 2012 as the AFC Special Teams Player of the Week for Week 8 of that season ... He became the first player in Dolphins history to win both AFC Defensive and Special Teams weekly honors.

2012 - Played in all 16 games ... Recorded 22 tackles (17 solo), 3.5 sacks, and three passes defensed ... Finished tied for second on the team with seven special teams tackles ... Also blocked two field goals and had a blocked punt recovery for a touchdown ... Made NFL debut at Houston (9/9) ... Had three tackles, including a half sack for three yards in losses, vs. N.Y. Jets (9/23) ... Had four tackles and first career multi-sack game with two quarterback hits vs. St. Louis (10/14) ... His second sack came on a third-and-four on the Miami 45-yard line with 37 seconds left in the game which forced the Rams to attempt a potential game-tying 66-yard field goal attempt, which was missed to secure Miami's 17-14 win ... Scored first career NFL touchdown, recovering a Robert Malone punt in the end zone that was blocked by Jimmy Wilson, at N.Y. Jets (10/28) ... It was the sixth time in Dolphins history that a blocked punt was returned for a touchdown and the first since Lex Hilliard scored a TD from a Brian Moorman blocked punt on Nov. 20, 2011 vs. Buffalo ... Vernon also had a blocked field goal, blocking a 35-yard field goal by the Jets' Nick Folk right before halftime ... For his special teams efforts he was named as the AFC Special Teams Player of the Week for the games of October 25-29 ... Blocked a 54-yard field goal attempt by Adam Vinatieri at Indianapolis (11/4) ... It was his second straight game with a blocked field goal attempt ... Had two tackles including one sack vs. Buffalo (12/23) ...

MULTI-SACK GAMES: His two sacks vs. St. Louis (10/14) are tied (with 11 others) for the third-highest single-game sack total by a rookie in Dolphins history, behind the three-sack games by A.J. Duhe (on Nov. 6, 1977 at the N.Y. Jets) and Marco Coleman (on Oct. 25, 1992 vs. Indianapolis) ... The last time a Dolphins rookie had two or more sacks in a game was Lorenzo Bromell, who had two sacks on Nov. 29, 1998 vs. New Orleans ...

HONORS: Named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week for the games of October 25-29 after scoring a touchdown on a blocked punt recovery and also blocking a field goal ... He joined punt returners Nate Jacquet (1999) and Wes Welker (2004) and kick returner Ted Ginn (2009) as the only Dolphins non-kickers to win that award ... It was his first weekly or monthly AFC weekly honor ... It also is the first time a Dolphins rookie won that award since Week 14 of the 2008 season when Dan Carpenter won the award as a rookie following his performance vs. Buffalo on Dec. 7, 2008.

THREE DOLPHINS NAMED PRO BOWL MVP

Three Dolphins have been named Most Valuable Player in the Pro Bowl. The first to do it was kicker Garo Yepremian, who accomplished the feat in the 1974 game, when he kicked five field goals, including a 42-yarder with 21 seconds remaining, lifting the AFC to a 15-13 victory over the NFC. Almost 30 years later, running back Ricky Williams duplicated the achievement, when he rushed for 56 yards and two touchdowns, and forced a fumble on special teams, en route to the AFC's 45-20 triumph in the 2003 contest, following the 2002 season. The most recent Dolphins player named Pro Bowl MVP was wide receiver Brandon Marshall, as he caught six passes for 176 yards and a Pro Bowl-record four touchdowns as the AFC used a second-half surge to beat the NFC, 59-41, in the 2012 Pro Bowl.

GALLERY OF LEGENDS

On Wednesday, Nov. 2, 2005, the "Gallery of Legends" made its public debut at Sun Life Stadium. Located at Gate D on the Club Level of the stadium, the Gallery is a tribute to the history of Miami Dolphins football. Special exhibits were created to track the team's history, from its inception in 1966 to the present. Features include Dolphins memorabilia and photographs, as well as elements of life in South Florida and a Dan Marino timeline through those years. It also consists of such artifacts as the office desk utilized by Hall of Fame Head Coach Don Shula.

DOLPHINS REGULAR SEASON WIN STREAKS AMONG NFL BEST

Since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger, the Dolphins and New England Patriots are the only teams to have two regular season winning streaks of 16 or more games. Miami won 16 consecutive games from 1971-73 (1 in 1971, 14 in 1972, 1 in 1973) and another 16-game streak from 1983-84 (5 in 1983, 11 in 1984). New England had a 21-game streak from 2006-08 (3 in 2006, 16 in 2007, 2 in 2008) and an 18-game streak from 2003-04 (12 in 2003, 6 in 2004). Teams that had one streak of 16 or more consecutive wins since 1970 include Indianapolis' NFL-record 23 consecutive regular season wins from 2008-09 (9 in 2008, 14 in 2009) and Pittsburgh's 16-game streak from 2004-05 (14 in 2004, 2 in 2005).

THE LONGEST YARDS

Miami's 21-play, 92-yard drive vs. the New York Jets on January 1, 2012 was the longest scoring drive in terms of plays in franchise history. The previous team-long for a scoring drive was 18 plays, which happened three times (December 11, 2007 vs. Buffalo, September 17, 2008 at Arizona and December 27, 2009 vs. Houston). The drive against the Jets was also the longest scoring drive in team history in terms of time possession with 12 minutes and 29 seconds. The previous high was 10 minutes and 30 seconds vs. the Los Angeles Raiders on October 16, 1994.

DOLPHINS ARE TRUE GLOBETROTTERS

The Miami Dolphins have been the NFL's globetrotters in their history, having played regular season games in London (twice) and Toronto as well as preseason contests in London, Berlin, Tokyo and Mexico City. Miami will make its third regular season appearance in London when the team battles the New York Jets later this season on Oct. 4 at Wembley Stadium.

The Dolphins and Bills took part in the NFL's first-ever regular season game staged in Canada on Dec. 7, 2008 as Miami recorded a 16-3 victory at the Rogers Centre in Toronto. On Oct. 28, 2007, the Dolphins battled the New York Giants at London's Wembley Stadium before a crowd of 81,176 in the first-ever NFL regular season game that was staged outside of North America. Miami returned to Wembley on Sept. 28, 2014, and earned 38-14 win against Oakland before a crowd of 83,436

From 1986-2003, the NFL held American Bowl games and the Dolphins made four appearances in the preseason series. Miami was 4-0 in those games played on foreign soil, with wins in London (1988), Tokyo (1991), Berlin (1992) and Mexico City (1997). The Dolphins became the first NFL team to win four American Bowl contests, and they also became the first team to win an American Bowl matchup in each of the three continents in which the games have been played.

A PLAYERS COACH

When Bryan Cox was named the team's pass rush coach in 2011, he became the ninth person to have both played and coached with the Dolphins. Cox was chosen by Miami in the fifth round of the 1991 draft and played the first five years of his career with the Dolphins at linebacker (1991-95). The first to have achieved this was Bob Matheson, who was a linebacker from 1971-79 before going on to serve with the staff from 1983-86. The others who followed Matheson and preceded Cox are Larry Seiple (P/RB/TE, 1967-77; Coach, 1988-99), Tony Nathan (RB, 1979-87; Coach, 1989-95), Dwight Stephenson (C, 1980-87; Coach, 1992), Bernie Parmalee (RB, 1992-98; Coach, 2002-04), Jeff Dellenbach (T/C, 1985-94; Coach, 2004), Terry Robiskie (FB, 1980-81; Coach, 2007) and James Saxon (RB, 1992-94; Coach, 2008-10). In addition, while not seeing action in a game, Jason Garrett served as the team's 3rd quarterback for five games in 2004 before joining the coaching staff from 2005-06 as the team's quarterbacks coach.

2014 GAME SUMMARIES

DOLPHINS 33, PATRIOTS 20
September 7, 2014

Miami Gardens, FL

The Dolphins didn't make it easy on themselves in their season opener against the New England Patriots at Sun Life Stadium, but they still found a way to come up with a big victory after a tremendous second-half performance. The Dolphins won their second consecutive season opener, scoring 23 unanswered points in the second half to beat the Patriots 33-20. Miami beat Cleveland in its 2013 opener on its way to a 3-0 start on the season. It was the second consecutive Dolphins victory against New England, following their 24-20 thriller at Sun Life Stadium the previous December. On this Sunday, the Dolphins won thanks to a 13-point third quarter that included a 14-yard touchdown pass from Ryan Tannehill to Mike Wallace and a pair of short field goals by Caleb Sturgis. The Dolphins got an insurance touchdown with 3:29 left in the fourth quarter when Knowshon Moreno put the finishing touches on a memorable Dolphins debut with a 4-yard run to cap an 85-yard drive. Moreno finished with 134 yards, thanks to some strong blocking from the new-look Dolphins offensive line and his ability to see the hole and break tackles. The defense also came up big for Miami, particularly with a dominating second-half performance. The Dolphins shut down the high-powered New England offense despite playing without its three starting linebackers — Philip Wheeler, who was inactive, and Dannell Ellerbe and Koa Misi, who both left the game with injuries in the first quarter. After allowing the Patriots to rack up 248 yards in the first half, the Dolphins defense stiffened in the second half. The Dolphins sacked Tom Brady on all four of New England's first four possessions of the second half, with Cameron Wake, rookie Chris McCain, Olivier Vernon and Wake again taking down the Patriots quarterback. Wake forced a fumble on his first sack, setting up the Wallace touchdown that tied the game at 20. The Dolphins defense held New England to a mere two first downs in the second half before the Patriots' last possession. The Dolphins trailed by 10 at halftime despite a start they couldn't have scripted any better. The defense held New England to a three-and-out, punter Ryan Allen then dropped the snap on fourth down and McCain came in to block the punt to give the Dolphins the ball at the Patriots 15-yard line. Four plays later, Tannehill hit Lamar Miller in the flat for a 4-yard touchdown and quick 7-0 lead. But the Dolphins turned the ball over on their next three possessions, fumbles by Wallace and Miller sandwiched around an interception by Tannehill. The interception, with the game tied 7-7, really hurt because it came on an underthrow when Wallace was wide open behind the New England secondary. The turnovers helped the Patriots score 17 unanswered points before the Dolphins cut the deficit to 17-10 with a 38-yard field goal by Sturgis on the last play before the two-minute warning. Sturgis added a fourth field goal, from 27 yards out, with 2:44 left in the fourth quarter. New England answered Sturgis' first field goal with a field goal drive before halftime, with Stephen Gostkowski connecting from 46 yards out with 6 seconds left. That set the stage for the second half when the Dolphins took over the game and completely manhandled their AFC East opponents.

GAME 2

September 14, 2014 Orchard Park, N.Y.

Like they did in their season opener against the New England Patriots, the Dolphins faced a halftime deficit at Ralph Wilson Stadium. But they weren't able to pull off a second consecutive comeback, falling 29-10 to the Buffalo Bills in their road opener. Big plays and special teams were the biggest factors in this game. Brandon Fields had a punt blocked; the Dolphins allowed a 102-yard kickoff return for a touchdown by C.J. Spiller; and rookie Jarvis Landry muffed a punt in the fourth quarter. The punt block and the muffed punt set up two of the five field goals by former Dolphins kicker Dan Carpenter. Buffalo's offense also produced four plays of 28 yards or more, led by a 47-yard run by Spiller that set up a Bills touchdown. The Dolphins offense suffered a big blow in the first quarter when running back Knowshon Moreno left the game with an elbow injury. Moreno, who rushed for 134 yards against New England, was injured at the end of a 4-yard run. It was his only rushing attempt of the day. Against a Buffalo defense featuring one of the best defensive lines in the NFL, the Dolphins were able to produce only three offensive plays of at least 15 yards and none longer than 18 yards. Quarterback Ryan Tannehill ended up setting career highs in attempts (31) and completions (49), but he wasn't satisfied with his performance. The Dolphins' only touchdown did come on a spectacular play as Mike Wallace reached behind him to make a one-handed snag of a Tannehill pass in the corner of the end zone. The touchdown cut the Dolphins' deficit to 16-10 in the third quarter, but Buffalo answered with the drive that featured Spiller's long run and the Dolphins weren't able to score again. The Dolphins threatened early in the fourth quarter when they faced a fourth-and-4 from the Buffalo 48-yard line trailing 23-10. Tannehill kept the ball on an option, but was dropped for a 4-yard loss by safety Da'Norris Searcy. After a disappointing first half that ended with Buffalo leading 9-0, the Dolphins offense got things moving after receiving the second-half kickoff. The Dolphins picked up five first downs on that opening drive, only one less than they managed in the entire first half. The drive stalled at the Buffalo 16-yard line and the Dolphins had to settle for a 34-yard field goal by Caleb Sturgis to cut the Bills lead to 9-3. But Buffalo immediately regained the momentum with Spiller's kickoff return for touchdown. On the next-to-last play of the game, cornerback Leodis McKelvin intercepted Tannehill to put the finishing touches on a disappointing day for the Dolphins.

September 21, 2014 Miami Gardens, FL

The Dolphins' nasty habit of falling behind in the first half cost them again in this contest at Sun Life Stadium. Similar to what happened the previous Sunday at Buffalo, the Dolphins mounted a valiant comeback effort in the second half, but ultimately came up short and dropped a 34-15 decision against the Kansas City Chiefs. The loss put a damper on some impressive individual performances, most notably by running back Lamar Miller, linebacker Jelani Jenkins and rookie wide receiver Jarvis Landry. Miller, getting extended action in the absence of Knowshon Moreno, finished with a career-high 108 yards. Jenkins had 1.5 sacks, a forced fumble and he combined with Randy Starks for a safety when they sacked Alex Smith in the end zone in the third quarter. Landry had kickoff returns of 40 and 74 yards. The Dolphins trailed 14-3 at halftime against Kansas City, this coming after they had deficits at the half of 10 points against the New England Patriots in the season opener and nine points against Buffalo the following week. Kansas City got the ball to start the second half, but the Dolphins defense changed the momentum quickly when Jared Odrick sacked Smith on third down and forced a fumble that was recovered by Derrick Shelby. After a 10-yard run by Miller gave Miami a first-and-goal at the 4, the Dolphins cashed in on the turnover when Ryan Tannehill hit Brian Hartline with a 1-yard touchdown pass on third down. The Chiefs answered with a 66-yard touchdown drive that was capped by an 11-yard pass from Smith to running back Joe McKnight. Landry's ensuing 74-yard kickoff return to the Chiefs 33-yard line set up Caleb Sturgis' 51-yard field goal, which cut the Dolphins deficit to 21-13. Because of penalties, Kansas City began its next two possessions at its 7 and then its 1, and on first down of the second drive Jenkins and Starks combined for the safety that made the score 21-15. Trailing by six, the Dolphins had a promising drive going early in the fourth quarter after a 9-yard run by Miller made it second-and-1 at the Kansas City 47, but Tannehill threw incomplete deep on second down and then was sacked on third down. The field position then flipped when Frankie Hammond Jr. returned Brandon Fields' punt 47 yards to set the Chiefs up at the Dolphins 44-yard line. Nine plays later, McKnight scored his second touchdown of the game, on a 4-yard pass, to make it 27-15 with 4:35 left after a two-point conversion failed. After Landry's long return of the opening kickoff, the Dolphins found themselves with a first down at the Chiefs 45-yard line, but the drive stalled. The Dolphins reached Kansas City territory on the first drive of the second quarter, but Sturgis missed a 48-yard field goal attempt. Sturgis would connect from 22 yards out on the last play of the first half, but that was after the Chiefs had followed his miss with two touchdowns, a 21-yard run by Knile Davis and a 25-yard pass from Smith to tight end Travis Kelce.

September 28, 2014 London, England

The Dolphins were facing a long trip back home after their game against the Oakland Raiders at Wembley Stadium in London. But at least they could spend a lot of the time on the plane reliving everything that went right in their most dominating performance in years. Behind a near-flawless performance from quarterback Ryan Tannehill and a defense that not only came up with its first three interceptions of the season but also its first score, the Dolphins turned the first of three London games into their showcase. After disappointing losses against Buffalo and Kansas City, the Dolphins got a much-needed victory that gave them a 2-2 record heading into their bye. For all intents and purposes, the game was decided by halftime and only a meaningless fourth-quarter touchdown by the Raiders kept the Dolphins from recording their largest margin of victory in 13 years. As it was, the 38-14 final represented the Dolphins' most lopsided victory since Nov. 20, 2011 when they beat the Buffalo Bills 35-8. Lamar Miller scored two touchdowns for the Dolphins, who also got TDs from tight end Dion Sims, Mike Wallace and cornerback Cortland Finnegan. Before he went to the sideline to watch Matt Moore wrap up the blowout, Tannehill put together one of the best performances of his three-year NFL career, completing 23 of 31 passes for 278 yards with two touchdowns and a passer rating of 109.3. The only blemish on Tannehill's stat line was a third-quarter interception on a pass that was tipped by Sims after it was thrown slightly behind him. The running game continued its strong work, with the Dolphins rushing for 157 yards and a solid 4.5 yards per carry. Tannehill completed his last 14 passes of the first half, matching the fourth-longest streak in Dolphins history, and he had a passer rating at the half at 146.5. Tannehill's last incompletion of the first half came on the Dolphins' first drive when Brian Hartline couldn't stay in bounds after leaping to catch the pass. The incompletion forced the Dolphins to settle for a Caleb Sturgis field goal that cut Oakland's lead to 7-3. The Dolphins were flawless offensively the rest of the half and ended up with 284 total yards and 15 first downs in the first two quarters. The Dolphins took the lead on the second play of the second quarter when Mike Wallace took a Tannehill swing pass and fought through three tackle attempts for a 13-yard touchdown. After the defense forced a three-and-out, the Dolphins came right back with a 63-yard touchdown that was capped by Miller's 9-yard run. The score came after Head Coach Joe Philbin decided to go for the first down on fourth-and-1. With Tannehill in the shotgun, Miller took a pitch and ran through a gaping hole on the left side of the offensive line. The defense forced another three-and-out and did it yet again after Jarvis Landry fumbled on a punt return. Tannehill then went 5-for-5 on a 90-yard touchdown drive, throwing in three runs for 18 yards for good measure. The touchdown came on a beautiful 18-yard pass to Sims after he rolled out to make it 24-7. It was more of the same in the third quarter. Actually, it could have been worse. Miller fumbled into the end zone on the first possession of the second half, but got a quick chance to redeem himself after Brent Grimes intercepted rookie Derek Carr and returned the pick to the Oakland 2-yard line. After Miller scored on a 1-yard run, the next Oakland possession ended when a shotgun snap zipped by Oakland quarterback Matt McGloin — in for the injured Carr — and Finnegan beat McGloin to the loose ball at midfield and raced into the end zone for his sixth career touchdown. At that point, all that was left to determine was the final score.

PACKERS 27, DOLPHINS 24
October 12, 2014

Miami Gardens, FL

The Miami Dolphins had to play catch-up throughout the afternoon against one of the hottest teams in the NFL, and in the end fell just short against the Green Bay Packers. The Dolphins rallied from three different seven-point deficits — 7-0, 10-3 and 17-10 — but dropped a 27-24 decision when Aaron Rodgers connected with tight end Andrew Quarless in the corner of the end zone for a 3-yard touchdown with 3 seconds left. The touchdown came six plays after Green Bay converted a fourth-and-8 when Rodgers hit Jordy Nelson on an 18-yard pass. The touchdown capped a 60-yard touchdown drive that began with 2:04 left in regulation. The Dolphins had a chance to clinch the victory after holding Green Bay to a field goal on the previous drive but couldn't kill the last 4:09 off the clock. Miami took its first lead of the game with 9:13 left in regulation when Ryan Tannehill hit Mike Wallace with a 5-yard touchdown pass. It was the third consecutive touchdown drive for the Dolphins at the start of the second half, as Tannehill got hot after a difficult first half and the running game got going after being held to only 10 yards in the first two quarters. The running game played a key role in the second touchdown drive of the second half, as Lamar Miller rushed for 48 yards and finished things off with a 5-yard TD run up the middle. After trailing 10-3 at halftime, the Dolphins tied the score with an 80-yard touchdown drive highlighted by Tannehill's 40-yard run on a quarterback keeper. It was the longest offensive play of the season for the Dolphins at that time, and the second-longest run by a quarterback in franchise history, behind Tannehill's 48-yard scamper at Pittsburgh on Dec. 8, 2013. Green Bay responded with an 80-yard drive of its down that consumed 8:04 and ended when Rodgers ran around in the pocket to avoid a sack and eventually found Randall Cobb in the end zone for a 5-yard touchdown. The Dolphins defense turned in a solid performance in the first half after watching Rodgers march the Packers 80 yards for a touchdown on the opening drive of the game. Cameron Wake, who had three sacks when the Dolphins won in overtime at Green Bay in 2010, was a constant presence in the Packers backfield. He had a sack and also forced an illegal grounding penalty on Rodgers. Olivier Vernon also had a sack in the first half. Wake and Vernon also combined for a sack in the second half. The special teams came up with two big plays in the first quarter, with Jarvis Landry returning the kickoff after Green Bay's first touchdown 54 yards to the Packers 49-yard line. The play set up Caleb Sturgis' 48-yard field goal, which cut the Packers lead to 7-3. Jonathan Freeny blocked a Tim Masthay punt on the ensuing possession and Chris McCain recovered the loose ball at the Green Bay 16-yard line, but the Dolphins could not capitalize on that big play. A 9-yard completion to Jarvis Landry on third down gave the Dolphins a first-and-goal at the 4 and Knowshon Moreno, back in the lineup after missing two games with an elbow injury, gained 3 yards to make it second-and-goal at the 1. But after Moreno was stopped for no gain and Tannehill's pass in the end zone to Brian Hartline was knocked away, Moreno was stuffed for a 3-yard loss on fourth down on a draw play up the middle. Tannehill was intercepted twice in the second quarter, the first pick by cornerback Casey Hayward setting up a 43-yard field goal by Mason Crosby that made it 10-3. The stage was set for an exciting, but ultimately disappointing, second half.

October 19, 2014 Chicago, IL

This is what is called rebounding in style. One week after suffering a last-second loss against the Green Bay Packers, the Dolphins bounced back by dominating another NFC North team, beating the Chicago Bears 27-14 at Soldier Field. The Dolphins controlled the action in every phase, with Ryan Tannehill leading a balanced offense that amassed 393 total yards and the defense forcing three Chicago turnovers. Tannehill threw two touchdown passes in the first half and also rushed for 50 yards as the Dolphins evened their record to 3-3. Many players had a hand in the defensive effort, starting with Cameron Wake, who recorded the triple play of sack, forced fumble and fumble recovery in the fourth quarter. Randy Starks also had a fumble recovery and safety Reshad Jones had a first-half interception that he returned 50 yards to set up a touchdown. Cornerback Cortland Finnegan also had a strong outing. He forced the fumble that Starks recovered and clinched the Dolphins victory when he knocked a Jay Cutler pass away from former Miami wide receiver Brandon Marshall in the end zone on fourth down in the final minute. The Dolphins responded to every challenge on Sunday, the perfect example coming after Chicago opened the second half with a long touchdown drive to cut into their 14-0 lead. The Dolphins answered the Chicago score with an 83-yard touchdown drive highlighted by Tannehill's 30-yard run on an option run on fourth-and- 1 from the Bears 39-yard line. The Dolphins increased their lead to 24-7 before Chicago scored its second touchdown, but Miami responded again by killing 5:22 off the clock with a drive that ended with Caleb Sturgis' 19-yard field goal. The Dolphins' 14-0 lead at the half easily could have been bigger given their dominance in the first two quarters. Miami ended the half with advantages of 209-54 in total yardage and 14-2 in first downs. Furthermore, the Bears took one snap inside the Dolphins 40-yard line in the first two quarters and the play ended with a Reshad Jones interception that he returned 50 yards to give the Dolphins a first down at the Chicago 23-yard line. Three plays after that play, Tannehill hit Mike Wallace for a 10-yard touchdown to make it 14-0. It was the fifth touchdown in six games for Wallace. The touchdown was part of a tremendous first half for Tannehill, who picked up where he left off in the second half of the Green Bay game. Tannehill ended the half 14-of-15 for 176 yards and two touchdowns for a passer rating of 155.1, the best first-half total of his career. Tannehill's previous best came in the game in London against the Oakland Raiders three weeks earlier. Tannehill completed his first 14 passes until he threw an incompletion on the Dolphins' last drive of the first half. After a three-and-out to start the game, the Dolphins offense got rolling with a well-balanced 81-yard drive that began with Tannehill's 14-yard run off the read option and ended with a 13-yard touchdown pass to tight end Charles Clay, who was left wide open in the left corner of the end zone. Clay had the longest play in the drive, a 25-yard reception on second-and-9. The Dolphins' two other drives in the first half ended when Caleb Sturgis was wide right on a 50-yard field goal and when Tannehill was sacked on third down to push Miami out of field goal territory. It was one of the few things that didn't go Tannehill's way on this day.

GAME 7

October 26, 2014 Jacksonville, FL

The new-look Dolphins offense received a lot of attention for most of the season, but it was the defense that stole the show on this day at Jacksonville. Thanks to touchdowns by Louis Delmas and Brent Grimes on interception returns, the Dolphins left EverBank Field with a 27-13 victory. This marked the fifth time in franchise history the Dolphins had two interception returns for touchdowns in the same game, and the first time since 1998 when they did it against the Oakland Raiders. It also happened in 1983 against the New York Jets, in 1982 also against the Jets, and in 1973 against the Pittsburgh Steelers. In addition to the two scores, the defense also came up with a fumble recovery to stop a Jacksonville scoring threat. Linebacker Jelani Jenkins forced the fumble by rookie quarterback Blake Bortles and it was recovered by Delmas, who became the first Dolphins player since safety Reshad Jones in 2012 to have both a fumble recovery and an interception in the same game. The Dolphins' one offensive touchdown came on a 3-yard pass from Ryan Tannehill to Rishard Matthews to cap a 95-yard third-quarter drive that all but sealed the outcome. The drive featured a 50-yard completion from Tannehill to Mike Wallace on third-and-7 from the Dolphins 8-yard line. It was the longest offensive play of the season for the Dolphins at the time. Three plays later, on third-and-1 from the Jacksonville 33-yard line, Lamar Miller burst through a hole in the middle of the offensive line and sprinted 30 yards to set up the Matthews touchdown. Jacksonville's only touchdown, a 48-yard pass from Bortles to fellow rookie Allen Robinson, came with 2:19 left in the fourth quarter when the Dolphins were leading 27-6. The Dolphins' only offensive points of the first half came on a 43-yard field goal by Caleb Sturgis late in the second quarter that increased their lead to 10-3 heading into halftime. It was not, however, a memorable first half for the offense, which went three-and-out on each of their first three possessions. Jacksonville had success moving the ball in the first half, but was held to only three points because of its own mistakes or big plays by the Dolphins. As a result, the Dolphins led 10-3 at halftime despite Jacksonville having an advantage of 219-56 in total yards. After a 41-yard run by Denard Robinson on the second play of the game put Jacksonville in Miami territory, the drive stalled and Olivier Vernon then blocked a 48-yard field goal attempt by Josh Scobee to keep the game scoreless. Jacksonville appeared to have taken the lead with a 46-yard field goal on its second drive, but a holding penalty negated the play and the Jaguars elected to punt from the Miami 38-yard line. Delmas opened the scoring on the first play of the second quarter when Bortles, rolling to his left, threw the ball right to him. Delmas had an easy path to the end zone for the eighth-longest interception return in Dolphins history. Grimes' touchdown came on the Jaguars' first offensive snap of the second half on a first-and-10 from the Jacksonville 7-yard line. Grimes kept his eyes on Bortles while staying step for step with Cecil Shorts and simply stepped in front of the wide receiver for the easy interception. It was the second touchdown in two seasons with Miami for Grimes, who also had a 93-yard score in the Halloween night game against the Cincinnati Bengals in 2013. The Dolphins offense was much more productive in the second half, adding a 68-yard field goal drive in the fourth quarter. Tannehill then closed out the game with a 30-yard run on the first play after the two-minute warning, his third consecutive game with a run of 30 yards or more. The story on this day, though, was the Dolphins defense and its big plays.

GAME 8

November 2, 2014 Miami Gardens, FL

The Dolphins made it yet another painful trip to South Florida for the San Diego Chargers. With their most impressive performance of the first half of the 2014 season, the Dolphins made it eight in a row at home against the Chargers with a 37-0 victory at Sun Life Stadium. It was the Dolphins' first shutout victory since Dec. 10, 2006 when they beat the New England Patriots 21-0 in Miami. It also was the Dolphins' most lopsided shutout victory since 1987 when they beat the Kansas City Chiefs 42-0 in a strike replacement game. The Dolphins arrived at the halfway mark with a 5-3 record, the first time since 2003 they had a winning record after eight games. The Dophins haven't lost at home against San Diego since Jan. 2, 1982 when they dropped a 41-38 overtime decision in one of the greatest playoff games in NFL history. The Dolphins have had some dominating performances against the Chargers during their streak, but few like the one they put together on this day. The offense moved the ball at will, compiling 282 yards in the first half and scoring on seven of Miami's first eight possessions — the only exception coming when Caleb Sturgis missed a 45-yard field goal attempt. Quarterback Ryan Tannehill was effective throwing the ball and running it. He threw three touchdown passes: to tight end Charles Clay in the first quarter, wide receiver Rishard Matthews in the second; and rookie wide receiver Jarvis Landry in the third after the Dolphins successfully challenged the on-field ruling that he had stepped out of bounds at the 1-yard line. Tannehill finished with a career-high 125.6 passer rating after completing 24 of 34 passes for 288 yards with the three touchdowns and no interceptions. Lamar Miller added a touchdown run in the second quarter. The defense harassed quarterback Philip Rivers all afternoon and came up with three interceptions, one by safety Reshad Jones and two by cornerback Brent Grimes. Grimes easily could have had a third interception on a badly overthrown pass, but Jones tipped the ball away when he reached back to try to get the pick himself. For good measure, the defense added a fumble recovery when Olivier Vernon sacked Rivers from behind and Jared Odrick recovered the loose ball at the San Diego 14-yard line to set up Landry's touchdown, which made the score 37-0. It would be the last play of the game for Rivers, who was pulled in favor of backup Kellen Clemens with two minutes left in the third quarter. After Clemens was sacked by Cameron Wake on third down to end his first drive, Matt Moore came in at quarterback for the Dolphins and Tannehill got the rest of the game off after a job well done. The turning point, if there is such a thing in a blowout like this, came on the very first drive after the Chargers moved from their 20-yard line to the Dolphins 22. Instead of attempting a 40-yard field goal, the Chargers elected to go for the first down and Jones broke through the line to trip Oliver and help drop him for a 1-yard loss. The Dolphins never looked back. They marched 77 yards on their first drive as Tannehill completed all six of his pass attempts, the last a 6-yard touchdown to Clay. It was the second time in two years Clay scored against the Chargers — he had a spectacular 39-yard score in Miami's 20-16 victory the previous November. After forcing a three-and-out, the Dolphins went 61 yards for a second touchdown that made it 14-0. The big play on the drive was a 22-yard run by Tannehill off the read option. While the Chargers never took a snap beyond their 40-yard line the rest of the first half, the Dolphins added two field goals by Sturgis to take a 20-0 lead into halftime. The Dolphins made sure to squash any Chargers hopes of a comeback early in the second half, taking the opening kickoff and marching 72 yards for a touchdown, a 21-yard pass from Tannehill to Matthews. It was the second touchdown in two games for Matthews, who also scored in the 27-13 victory against the Jacksonville Jaguars. The Dolphins forced turnovers on San Diego's first three drives of the second half and tacked on 10 more points — on a third Sturgis field and Landry's touchdown — to make it 37-0.

LIONS 20, DOLPHINS 16 Ford Field
November 9, 2014 Detroit, MI

After overcoming a tough start and the loss of one of their top players, the Dolphins came within seconds of extending their winning streak to four games before suffering a second painful loss against an NFC North opponent. The Dolphins lost a 20-16 decision against the Detroit Lions at Ford Field after Theo

Riddick caught an 11-yard touchdown pass from Matthew Stafford with 29 seconds left in the fourth quarter. The touchdown came on a third-and-4 and capped a 74-yard drive that earlier featured a third-and-10 conversion in Miami territory. The loss left the Dolphins with a 5-4 record heading into their Thursday night game against the Buffalo Bills at Sun Life Stadium. The Dolphins came into the game after victories against the Chicago Bears, Jacksonville Jaguars and San Diego Chargers that followed a 27-24 loss against the Green Bay Packers. As was the case against Green Bay, the Dolphins missed a chance to clinch the game against Detroit on offense. After Caleb Sturgis' 20-yard field goal gave Miami a 16-13 lead with 4:19 left, the defense forced a three-and out and the Dolphins took over with 3:47 left. But the Dolphins were unable to get a first down and had to give Detroit the ball back. The loss overshadowed a gutsy performance by the defense, which had to face a Detroit team welcoming the return of star wide receiver Calvin Johnson. Cornerback Brent Grimes had the assignment of trying to contain Johnson and overall turned in a strong performance, the highlight being a spectacular interception in the second quarter. The Dolphins also put themselves in position to win the game with a huge play on special teams, as Earl Mitchell blocked a 42-yard field goal attempt and Dion Jordan ran 58 yards with the loose ball to give the Dolphins a first-and-goal at the 3-yard line. That set up Miami's only touchdown, a 3-yard pass from Ryan Tannehill to Mike Wallace. The touchdown gave the Dolphins a 13-10 lead. In a battle of two of the top defenses in the NFL, both teams showed how they achieved those rankings. In addition to the Grimes interception, the Dolphins recorded three sacks, two by Cameron Wake and one by Jelani Jenkins. The Dolphins trailed 10-3 at halftime, but could consider themselves fortunate their deficit wasn't bigger. And perhaps the biggest Tannehill play made all game came after he threw an interception in the second quarter. He hustled back on the return and prevented safety James Ihedigbo from taking it all the way back for a touchdown that would have given the Lions a 17-0 lead. On the very next play, Grimes made a spectacular interception when he got way off the ground and made a one-handed grab at the top of his jump. The Dolphins then put together a 14-yard play drive at the end of the first half and the Sturgis field goal cut their deficit to seven points. After taking the opening kickoff, Detroit took an early 3-0 lead after a 15-play drive that was kept alive by a pass from punter Sam Martin to fullback Jed Collins on fourth-and-6 from the Detroit 45-yard line. The Lions' second drive lasted one play, a 49-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to Johnson despite close coverage by Grimes. On the other side of the ball, the Dolphins had problems at the start of the game controlling the Lions defensive line and four of their first six offensive plays resulted in losses, two on running plays and two on sacks. Making the offense's job more difficult, tackle Branden Albert was carted off the field with an apparent leg injury on the play after Grimes' interception. The Dolphins juggled their offensive line in his absence, moving rookie Ja'Wuan James from right to left tackle, Dallas Thomas from left guard to right tackle, and inserting Shelley Smith into the lineup at left guard. The new-look offensive line did a good enough job against a very good Detroit pass rush that the Dolphins were in position to pull out their fourth consecutive road victory, but they just came up a play short in the end.

DOLPHINS 22, BILLS 9 Sun Life Stadium
November 13, 2014 Miami Gardens, FL

The Dolphins cashed in on their second-half scoring opportunities in a Thursday night game and in the process found a way to solve the Buffalo Bills. Ryan Tannehill threw a pair of touchdown passes in the second half as the Dolphins rallied from a 9-3 third-quarter deficit to beat the Bills 22-9 before a sellout crowd at Sun Life Stadium. The victory snapped a three-game losing streak against Buffalo. Tannehill connected on TD passes of 7 yards to Brandon Gibson in the third quarter and 8 yards to rookie Jarvis Landry early in the fourth. The Miami defense did some bending on the night, but kept the Bills out of the end zone with big plays at key times. The defense also set up Caleb Sturgis' late field goal after stopping Buffalo on downs. Cornerback Brent Grimes saw his streak of consecutive games with an interception end at three, but he played a big role nonetheless in the victory. Matched up against wide receiver Sammy Watkins for most of the game, Grimes helped make the standout rookie a non-factor. Second-year player Jamar Taylor made his first career start opposite Grimes with veteran Cortland Finnegan missing the game with an ankle injury and also turned in a strong performance, the highlight being a tackle for loss on a third-down running play. Trailing 9-3 in the third quarter, the Dolphins took the lead when Gibson's touchdown capped an 80-yard drive. Tannehill rolled to his right on a second-and-1 and eventually spotted Gibson wide open in the middle of the end zone. The Dolphins increased the lead to 12-9 with a safety on the ensuing possession. One play after Jared Odrick dropped running back Bryce Brown for a 4-yard loss on a screen pass, quarterback Kyle Orton was called for intentional grounding when he was pressured by Olivier Vernon. Landry fumbled on the return of the ensuing free kick and Buffalo recovered at the Dolphins 39-yard line. The Dolphins defense held and former Miami kicker Dan Carpenter, who earlier had kicked three field goals, missed wide left on a 47-yard attempt on the second play of the fourth quarter. The Dolphins then drove 63 yards for the touchdown that increased their lead to 19-9, the biggest play being a 24-yard pass-interference penalty on cornerback Stephon Gilmore against wide receiver Mike Wallace. The teams traded long drives throughout the first half, but managed to combine for only three field goals. The Dolphins began the game with a promising 14-play drive that consumed 8:20 of the first quarter and reached the Buffalo 9-yard line. But on second-and-4 guard Shelley Smith was flagged for holding and the drive stalled, bringing on Sturgis for a 38-yard field goal. The big play in the drive was a 32-yard completion to running back Damien Williams on third-and-24. The Dolphins' second possession was highlighted by a 34-yard run by Lamar Miller and reached the Buffalo 14-yard line. But on first down Tannehill was hit from behind after he scrambled out of the pocket and he fumbled, with safety Duke Williams recovering for Buffalo. Because of all the time-consuming drives, the Dolphins had only three possessions in the first half. The third one reached the Buffalo 41, but the Dolphins couldn't convert on third down and they punted on the next-to-last play before halftime. Like the Dolphins, Buffalo reached the red zone twice in the first half. The Bills were forced to settle for two field goals, even after having a first-and-goal from the 6-yard line. Buffalo increased its lead to 9-3 on its second drive of the second half, but the Dolphins took command of the game after that.

GAME 11

BRONCOS 39, DOLPHINS 36 Sports Authority Field At Mile High
November 23, 2014 Denver, CO

Despite having to deal with a couple of significant injuries, the Dolphins had the lead most of the game at Sports Authority Field at Mile High. Unfortunately, they couldn't close things out and as a result left Denver with a disappointing 39-36 loss. The Dolphins saw their record fall to 6-5 after squandering leads of 14-3, 21-10 and 28-17 against Peyton Manning and company. Denver took its first lead of the game with 5:05 left in the fourth quarter and extended its margin to 39-28 after an interception set up Manning's fourth touchdown pass of the game, a 2-yarder to former Dolphins wide receiver Wes Welker. The Dolphins refused to give up, though, and scored a late touchdown before Denver recovered an onside kick to all but clinch the victory. The Denver interception, which was returned 37 yards by safety T.J. Ward after bouncing off the left hand of Jarvis Landry, came on a day when quarterback Ryan Tannehill overall had a strong performance, tying his career high with three touchdown passes and adding a rushing touchdown. Landry caught two of Tannehill's TD passes, with the other going to Mike Wallace. Daniel Thomas scored the other Dolphins touchdown on a 3-yard run in the first quarter. The Dolphins played the entire second half without starting left tackle Ja'Wuan James, who sustained a stinger, and then also lost cornerback Jamar Taylor to a shoulder injury in the second half. Taylor was starting in the absence of veteran Cortland Finnegan, who missed his second consecutive game because of an ankle injury. Despite the setbacks, the Dolphins led 28-17 before being outscored 22-8 in the fourth quarter. One of the biggest plays of the game came when the Broncos went for the first down on fourth-and-2 from the Miami 41-yard line late in the third quarter and C.J. Anderson burst through a hole for a 20-yard gain. Anderson rushed for 167 yards and the fourth-quarter touchdown for Denver, and also recovered the late onside kick. On the third play of the fourth quarter, Manning connected with Demaryius Thomas for a 4-yard touchdown and then hit Emmanuel Sanders for a two-point conversion to make the score 28-25. The Dolphins snapped Thomas' streak of 100-yard receiving games at seven, one shy of the NFL record, but Thomas still was a major factor as he scored three touchdowns. The Dolphins took a 21-17 lead into halftime, but Denver had the momentum after Thomas scored his second touchdown with 12 seconds left to cap an 80-yard drive that took only 1:42. But the Dolphins regained control of the game after long-snapper John Denney recovered a fumble on a punt return, setting up Landry's first touchdown, which gave Miami a 28-17 lead. The Dolphins opened the game with a flawless drive, marching 80 yards on seven plays. With the exception of Thomas' touchdown run, all plays gained at least 5 yards. All but two of the plays on the opening drive were runs, including a 22-yard gain by Lamar Miller that took the ball to the Denver 37-yard line. After Denver kicked a field goal to make it 7-3, each team scored two touchdowns in the second quarter. Tannehill made it 14-3 on the fifth play of the second quarter with a 1-yard run, his first rushing touchdown of the season. Denver came back with a touchdown drive that included three third down conversions, including Manning's 5-yard touchdown pass to Thomas. The Dolphins made it 21-10 with an interesting drive that saw them survive three fumbles. Brandon Gibson fumbled out of bounds twice after catching passes from Tannehill, but that wasn't the most significant. After Tannehill made a terrific throw to Rishard Matthews with DeMarcus Ware bearing down on him, Matthews was stripped of the ball, but Miller hustled downfield to fall on the fumble at the Denver 10-yard line. On the very next play, Tannehill threw a perfect pass low and outside for a 10-yard touchdown to Wallace. Denver would respond with touchdowns on four of its last five possessions, the only exception coming when Brandon McManus clanked a short field goal attempt off the right upright early in the third quarter. Other than that, the Dolphins defense had no answer for Manning and the Broncos.

DOLPHINS 16, JETS 13 MetLife Stadium
December 1, 2014 East Rutherford, NJ

The Dolphins may not have scored many style points on a Monday night against the struggling New York Jets, but they accomplished the goal of leaving MetLife Stadium with an important victory. By beating the Jets, 16-13, on Caleb Sturgis' 26-yard field goal with 1:57 left, the Dolphins improved to 7-5 on the season. The game-winning score came at the end of a 57-yard drive that featured two big completions from quarterback Ryan Tannehill to tight end Dion Sims, starting his second consecutive game in place of injured starter Charles Clay. The Dolphins clinched the victory when safety Reshad Jones intercepted a Geno Smith pass intended for tight end Jeff Cumberland after it bounced off the back of linebacker Jelani Jenkins with 34 seconds left. According to ESPN, this marked the Dolphins' second victory on the road when trailing in the fourth quarter in the past 50 such occurrences. The other came in December of 2013 against the Pittsburgh Steelers. The Dolphins won despite being outgained 326-291 and allowing 277 rushing yards.

More importantly, they won a close game for the first time all season after suffering close losses against Green Bay, Detroit and Denver. Against a Jets team that came in with a 2-9 record and switched back to Smith at quarterback, the Dolphins trailed most of the game before tying the score at 13-13 when Lamar Miller scored on a 4-yard run early in the fourth quarter. The Dolphins took advantage of a short field after a punt and a Jets penalty gave them a first down at the New York 39-yard line. The score came five plays after Tannehill hit Jarvis Landry for a 25-yard completion. The defense came up with some big plays in the second half, the biggest a Cameron Wake sack that knocked the Jets out of field goal range. The sack kept the Jets from getting any points after Darrin Walls picked off a Tannehill pass that bounced up after Lamar Miller tried to make a low catch. Walls returned the interception to the Dolphins 30-yard line. The Dolphins could have had another huge play after a botched handoff between Smith and Chris Ivory, but Ivory was able to recover the fumble at the Jets 5-yard line. The game-winning drive came after Jets kicker Nick Folk missed a 45-yard field goal attempt, his second miss on the night. The Dolphins trailed 10-3 at halftime, but the truth is they were fortunate that the margin wasn't larger. While each team missed a field goal attempt, the Jets also dropped two potential interceptions that hit defenders right in the hands and Smith also overthrew Percy Harvin after he got open behind the Dolphins secondary. As it was, the Dolphins allowed more than 200 yards rushing in the first half, including a 47-yard gain by Chris Johnson and a 20-yard touchdown by wide receiver Greg Salas on an end-around. The 47-yard run tied for longest against the Dolphins in 2014, matching the run by Buffalo's C.J. Spiller in Week 2. Johnson's long run was the key play in an 85-yard touchdown drive and was followed immediately by the touchdown run by Salas, who suffered a hamstring injury on the play. The Dolphins missed a chance to cut into the Jets' lead on their next possession when Sturgis was wide left on a 43-yard field goal attempt. The Jets increased the lead to 10-0 after a 10-play drive that featured nothing but running plays and ended with Folk's 40-yard field goal. Folk later missed a 48-yard attempt on the play after Smith missed Harvin, and the Dolphins took advantage by driving into position for a 43-yard field goal by Sturgis on the last play of the half. The big play on the 38-yard drive was a 21-yard completion from Tannehill to Sims. In addition to being without Clay, the offense also had to do without wide receiver Brian Hartline after he sustained a knee injury in the first half.

RAVENS 28, DOLPHINS 13
December 7, 2014

Miami Gardens, FL

The Dolphins got the start they wanted, but it pretty much was all downhill from there against the Baltimore Ravens. After jumping out to a 10-0 lead in the first quarter, the Dolphins were outscored 28-3 the rest of the way and dropped a 28-13 decision in a key AFC matchup at Sun Life Stadium. Ryan Tannehill hit Brian Hartline with a 4-yard touchdown with 1:41 left in the first quarter to give the Dolphins their 10-0 point lead, but they could manage only a Caleb Sturgis field goal the rest of the game. Tannehill again completed a high percentage of his passes (69.7), but he also was sacked six times. Baltimore quarterback Joe Flacco, meanwhile, threw for two touchdowns and ran for another. The Ravens took the lead for good in the third quarter when Flacco delivered a 13-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Kamar Aiken. The Ravens extended their lead to 21-13 midway through the fourth quarter after a Flacco fumble caused by Cameron Wake and recovered by Earl Mitchell was reversed after it was reviewed. Trailing by eight, the Dolphins offense went three-and-out and Baltimore put the game away with an 81-yard drive that featured runs of 44 yards by Justin Forsett and 23 yards by Bernard Pierce. Before the Ravens pulled away, the Dolphins had opportunities in the second half, but they failed to take full advantage because of untimely mistakes and some damaging sacks. A drive late in the third quarter that reached Baltimore territory ended when Tannehill was sacked on third down. The Dolphins then had to settle for a field goal after getting a first-and-goal from the 4-yard line early in the fourth quarter after guard Shelley Smith was penalized for a false start on second down and Tannehill was sacked again on third down. The Dolphins defense opened the game by forcing a three-and-out by stuffing Lorenzo Taliaferro for no gain on third-and-1 and then put together a 36-yard drive that netted a 46-yard field goal by Sturgis. The end of the drive was disappointing, though, because the Dolphins were stopped for no gain on second-and-1 and third-and-1 from the Baltimore 28-yard line. After the defense forced another three-and-out, the Dolphins marched 66 yards for a touchdown that gave them a 10-0 lead. The score came when Tannehill fired a bullet to Hartline through a couple of Ravens defenders on third-and-goal. The defense stopped Baltimore's first scoring threat in the second quarter when cornerback R.J. Stanford, starting because of the injuries to Cortland Finnegan and Jamar Taylor, intercepted Flacco in the end zone when pressure from Reshad Jones on a blitz hurried the throw. What overall was a good first half ended on a bad note when Baltimore drove 97 yards in the final 3:08 to cut the Dolphins lead to 10-7. The drive, which featured five plays of 10 or longer, ended when Flacco hit Steve Smith with a 1-yard touchdown pass in the corner of the end zone with two seconds left in the half.

GAME 14

PATRIOTS 41, DOLPHINS 13 Gillette Stadium
December 14, 2014 Foxborough, MA

The Dolphins had tremendous success in the third quarter in their first 13 games, but after trailing 14-13 at halftime, the Dolphins were outscored 24-0 in the third quarter in what became a 41-13 loss against the New England Patriots. While New England clinched another AFC East title with the victory, the Dolphins saw their record drop to 7-7. The Dolphins had the momentum going into halftime after scoring 10 points in the last 4:26 of the second quarter, including a 32-yard touchdown pass from Ryan Tannehill to Mike Wallace, to cut into their 14-3 deficit. But the second half was a reversal of the season opener at Sun Life Stadium when the Dolphins outscored New England 23-0 on their way to a 33-20 victory. The Dolphins were shut out in the second half for the first time all season, and the 24 points allowed in the third quarter represented their worst defensive scoring quarter since the 2012 opener against the Houston Texans. The Dolphins shut out Pro Bowl tight end Rob Gronkowski in the first half, but had no answers for him in the third quarter. Gronkowski caught a 34-yard pass on the first snap of the quarter on a drive that ended with a touchdown; he caught a 27-yard touchdown on the first play after safety Patrick Chung intercepted a deflected pass; and he had a 35-yard reception on New England's third touchdown drive of the third quarter. The Dolphins offense, meanwhile, couldn't put any points on the board in the second half. Miami did reach New England territory twice in the fourth quarter, including getting a first-and-goal, but turned the ball over on downs both times. Even with the late 10-point burst in the second quarter, the halftime score was disappointing because of the way the Dolphins outplayed New England in the first two quarters. The evidence comes in the Dolphins' big edge in total yards, 271-102. But all it took was two plays to make the difference. The first came at the end of the Dolphins' opening drive when Jamie Collins blocked a 41-yard field goal attempt by Caleb Sturgis and Kyle Arrington returned the block 62 yards for a touchdown and an early 7-0 New England lead. The second big play came on the Dolphins' first drive of the second quarter when safety Duron Harmon picked off a Tannehill pass and returned it 60 yards to the Dolphins 8-yard line, setting up Shane Vereen's 3-yard touchdown run to make it 14-3. The Dolphins opened the game by going for — and connecting on — a deep ball, with Tannehill hitting Wallace for 50 yards to the New England 30-yard line. But the drive stalled, leading to the blocked field goal attempt. The Dolphins had another scoring threat in the first quarter, but had to settle for Sturgis' 24-yard field goal after having a first-and-goal at the 10-yard line. Sturgis added a 53-yard field goal in the second quarter on a drive where the biggest play was a 25-yard pass interference penalty against cornerback Brandon Browner on a pass intended for Jarvis Landry. Landry ended up with 99 receiving yards on the day, while Wallace finished with 104 for the first 100-yard receving game for a Dolphins player this season. Wallace's touchdown with five seconds left in the second quarter came after the initial ruling of an incomplete pass was overturned after being reviewed. The replay showed Wallace coming down in bounds in the end zone after he cradled the ball in with only his left hand. Unfortunately for the Dolphins, that would be their last highlight of the day.

GAME 15

December 21, 2014 Miami Gardens, FL

The Dolphins refused to give up and in the end were rewarded in one of the wildest games at Sun Life Stadium in a long time. Terrence Fede blocked a punt through the end zone for a safety with 41 seconds left to give the Dolphins a 37-35 victory in a game that had a little bit of everything. The safety, coming on the Dolphins' team-record third blocked punt of the season, came shortly after Ryan Tannehill threw a 3-yard touchdown pass to Damien Williams to tie the score 35-35. It was Tannehill's fourth touchdown pass of the game, the most by a Dolphins quarterback since Dan Marino did it in 1998. Williams' score came after Minnesota had scored two touchdowns in six seconds to turn a 28-20 Dolphins lead into a 35-28 deficit. The game featured several outstanding individual offensive performances for the Dolphins, incliuding Tannehill passing for 396 yards. In addition, Mike Wallace had two touchdown passes to give him 10 on the season; Charles Clay had six catches for a career-high 114 yards; and Jarvis Landry had six catches to set a Dolphins rookie record for receptions in a season with his eight catches. Landry finished the contest with 79 receptions on the season, surpassing the mark of 75 set by running back Terry Kirby in 1993. The game-winning safety followed a three-and-out series by Minnesota that featured Cameron Wake getting a sack, his second of the game, on third down. Matt Asiata gave Minnesota the 35-28 lead one play after Minnesota recovered a Jarvis Landry fumble on the kickoff that followed another touchdown and two-point conversion that had tied the game 28-28. On the two-point conversion, Dolphins defensive end Olivier Vernon was flagged for roughing to put the ensuing kickoff at midfield. Landry fielded the kick at the goal line but lost it when he lost his balance and stumbled. The Dolphins took the lead for the first time at 21-17 on the first play of the fourth quarter when Miller went in practically untouched on a 1-yard run on third-and-goal. It started a crazy fourth quarter where the Dolphins outscored Minnesota 23-18. The Dolphins (8-7) began their second-half comeback after holding Minnesota to a three-and-out. The offense then drove 80 yards on six plays, the big one a 41-yard completion from Tannehill to Clay. On second-and-goal from the 16, Wallace added another spectacular touchdown to his collection this season when he caught a deflected pass near the sideline at the 2, then spun around and dove into the end zone while reaching out with the ball in his right hand. The touchdown was upheld after review and made the score 17-14. Wallace's second touchdown came on a 7-yard pass on third-and-goal and gave the Dolphins a 28-20 lead after Blair Walsh had cut into their 21-17 lead with a 33-yard field goal. The first half overall was pretty forgettable for the Dolphins, although it did feature an impressive 92-yard drive capped by a 14-yard touchdown pass from Tannehill to tight end Dion Sims. The big play of the drive was a 33-yard completion to Clay from the Dolphins 22 to the Vikings 45. The Dolphins moved into Minnesota territory on their first two offensive possessions, but mistakes at key times kept them from putting any points on the board. The second drive ended at the Minnesota 44-yard line when Tannehill's third-down pass fell incomplete after there seemed to be some confusion on the route. On third-and-4 from the Minnesota 32 on the first drive of the game, there seemed to be some confusion after Tannehill took a shotgun snap and the result was a sack that left the Dolphins to try to a 56-yard field goal attempt, which fell short. Starting at its own 46 following the missed field goal, Minnesota scored after a 54-yard drive that ended with five consecutive runs by Asiata, including a 1-yard touchdown on third-and-goal. Minnesota increased its lead to 14-0 early in the second quarter, three plays after safety Harrison Smith intercepted Tannehill after smothering a screen pass attempt while coming on a blitz. The touchdown came on a 21-yard pass from Bridgewater to veteran wide receiver Greg Jennings. The 17-7 halftime deficit actually could have been bigger had the Dolphins not stopped two Minnesota plays from the 1-yard line in the final seconds of the first half, forcing Minnesota to settle for a short field goal. That set the stage for what would become a wild second half.

JETS 37, DOLPHINS 24

Miami Gardens, FL

The Dolphins came up short in their attempt to finish the season with a winning record, but there still were plenty of memorable moments in the regular season finale at Sun Life Stadium. Running back Lamar Miller highlighted a game of big plays in the 37-24 loss against the New York Jets with an electrifying 97-yard touchdown run that set a franchise record and put him over 1,000 yards for the season. With the loss, the Dolphins ended the season with an 8-8 record and in third place in the AFC East, and they also missed out on a chance to sweep the Jets for the first time since 2009. Miller's run, which came one play after the Dolphins stopped the Jets on fourth-and-1, was the third-longest in NFL history behind a 99-yard run by Dallas' Tony Dorsett in 1982 and a 98-yard run by Green Bay's Ahmad Green in 2003. Miller easily topped the previous Dolphins record of 77 yards, first set by Leroy Harris in 1977 and matched by Keith Byars on Thanksgiving Day 1993. The 97-yard run helped Miller finish with a career-high 178 yards, the sixth-highest total in Dolphins history. Quarterback Ryan Tannehill also reached 4,000 passing yards on the season and broke Dan Marino's single-season record for completions when he hit rookie Jarvis Landry for an 11-yard gain late in the third quarter. Tannehill also hooked up with Landry when he passed 4,000 yards, a 17-yard completion on the Dolphins' first offensive play of the fourth quarter. It marks the first time in franchise history the Dolphins have a 4,000-yard passer and a 1,000-yard rusher in the same season. The Jets won with 13 unanswered points in the fourth quarter, including a field goal with 31 seconds left. The biggest play, though, was a 38-yard completion from Ryan Quigley to Zach Sudfeld off a fake punt that set up a 23-yard touchdown pass from Geno Smith to tight end Jeff Cumberland. Smith, the former Miramar High School star, passed for a career-high 358 yards and three touchdowns for the Jets. The first half Sunday ended with the Dolphins leading 17-14 after Tannehill threw a 23-yard touchdown pass to tight end Charles Clay with 43 seconds left in the second quarter, but things really got wild in the second half. It began with an 87-yard kickoff return by the Jets' Chris Owusu, and also included Miller's 97-yard run, a 74-yard Jets touchdown pass from Smith to Eric Decker, a 33-yard completion from Tannehill to Brian Hartline, a 50-yard reception by Decker and a 33-yard completion from Smith to Jeremy Kerley. Decker finished the game with 221 receiving yards, the highest regular season total ever by a Dolphins opponent. Owusu, who was promoted from the Jets practice squad earlier this month, gave New York a 7-3 lead in the first quarter by starting a drive with a 36-yard completion and ending it with a 23-yard touchdown run on an endaround. The Dolphins regained the lead early in the second quarter after Jason Trusnik recovered a Smith fumble at the Jets 21-yard line. Five plays after the turnover, Daniel Thomas scored on a 1-yard run. A 40-yard completion from Smith to Decker set up an 8-yard touchdown catch by running back Chris Ivory that gave the Jets a 17-14 lead. Clay's touchdown at the end of the first half capped a 93-yard touchdown that featured six completions by Tannehill, including a 16-yard hook-up with Hartline on third-and-15 from midfield.

WAKE FOUR TIMES NAMED ONE OF NFL'S TOP 100 PLAYERS

During the past five offseasons, the NFL Network has aired a series called "The Top 100: Players", which featured a listing of the top 100 players currently in the NFL as voted on by the players themselves. Dolphins four-time Pro Bowl defensive end Cameron Wake ranked in top 100 in four of the seasons, finishing 39th in 2015; 66th in 2014, 89th in 2013 and 63rd in 2011. Other Dolphins who have appeared on the list include cornerback Brent Grimes, finishing 38th in 2015 and 95th in 2014; tight and Charles Clay, ranked 89th in 2014; tackle Jake Long, finishing 59th in 2012 and 28th overall in 2011; and former wide receiver Brandon Marshall, ranked 61st on the 2011 list.

2014 PRESEASON GAME SUMMARIES

FALCONS 16, DOLPHINS 10 Georgia Dome
August 8, 2014 Atlanta, GA

The Dolphins preseason schedule kicked off, and things couldn't have gotten off to a better start. With a lot of anticipation as to how the new offense would function against an opponent, the Dolphins answered the call by marching 73 yards for a touchdown and a 7-0 lead just 4:59 into the game. To put it into perspective, the Dolphins hadn't scored a touchdown on their opening drive of the preseason since 1988 when their quarterback was a fellow by the name of Marino. The Miami touchdown came on a 6-yard pass from Ryan Tannehill to wide receiver Brandon Gibson, who provided more proof he was back from the knee injury that cut short his 2013 season. Tannehill was flawless on that drive, completing all six of his passes for 62 yards. Among his completions was a 36-yard hook-up with Rishard Matthews, the longest preseason completion of Tannehill's NFL career. His previous long had been a 33-yard pass to Mike Wallace at Houston last August. Along with Tannehill's passing, the rest of the drive consisted of four Lamar Miller runs good for 11 yards, including a 4-yard gain to convert a third-and-1 from the Miami 48-yard line. Making it all possible was the new-look offensive line, which provided Tannehill with great pass protection, although the quarterback helped his cause with nice play fakes. Making that first drive more impressive was the fact it was accomplished with Mike Wallace, Brian Hartline and Charles Clay all watching the game from the sidelines. The Dolphins ended up losing 16-10 in a penalty-filled game after a fumble by rookie quarterback Seth Lobato ended a late Miami drive that had reached the Atlanta 5-yard line. The Dolphins had one last shot after getting the ball at midfield at the two-minute warning, but their final drive ended on downs. The first drive was all the action Tannehill saw against Atlanta as he gave way to Lobato while both Matt Moore and Pat Devlin sat out the game with minor injuries. Left tackle Branden Albert, Miller and Gibson also were done after the first drive, but the rest of the starting offensive line — left guard Daryn Colledge, center Samson Satele, right guard Dallas Thomas and right tackle Ja'Wuan James — continued to see action throughout the first half and James even got snaps in the third quarter. While clearly the highlight of the evening for the Dolphins, the performance of Tannehill and the first-team offense was far from the only noteworthy performances. Rookie wide receiver Jarvis Landry, who has attracted a lot of attention with his strong performance in training camp set up a 42-yard field goal by Daniel Hrapmann — kicking just two days after being signed — with an electrifying 48-yard punt return. Landry began the return with a quick move to elude the first defender and later broke a tackle to gain an additional 20 yards. The return was the longest for the Dolphins in a preseason game since Phillip Livas had a 75-yard touchdown in 2011, also at the Georgia Dome. Landry's punt return came after Marcus Thigpen had brought back a punt 28 yards. On defense, second-year cornerback Will Davis broke up a handful of passes, although he did get flagged for pass interference late in the second quarter. Early in the second half, rookie defensive tackles Anthony Johnson and Garrison Smith both dropped Atlanta running backs for significant losses. Tight end Brett Brackett, re-signed this week days after being released, had two long receptions, a 22-yard gain in the first half and a 30-yard gain in the fourth quarter. Brackett also had a 5-yard catch on the Dolphins' last possession. In the end, though, the Dolphins left the Georgia Dome knowing they still have plenty of work to do in the weeks leading up to the start of the regular season. That includes the defense, a group that wasn't happy about a fairly significant number of missed tackles.

August 16, 2014 Tampa, FL

Quarterback Matt Moore, who sat out the preseason opener against the Atlanta Falcons while nursing a minor shoulder injury, led touchdown drives at the end of the second quarter and the start of the third to lead the Dolphins to a 20-14 victory against the Buccaneers at Raymond James Stadium. In five series of action after replacing starter Ryan Tannehill against Tampa Bay, Moore completed an impressive 13 of 19 passes for 158 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions. Moore was especially impressive at the end of the first half when he directed a drive that covered 71 yards on eight plays and took only 1:33. Moore had completions of 19 yards to Rishard Matthews and 18 yards to Damian Williams before capping the drive with a perfectly thrown fade pass to Matthews for a 9-yard touchdown. On the Dolphins' second touchdown drive, which ended with a 1-yard run by rookie free agent running back Damien Williams, Moore had a pair of 21-yard completions, to Kevin Cone and to Armon Binns. The two touchdowns turned a 7-3 deficit into a 17-7 Dolphins lead that became 20-7 when new kicker John Potter kicked a 51-yard field goal. That came five plays after Terrence Fede recovered a fumble by Tampa Bay quarterback Mike Glennon after a strip/sack by defensive end Dion Jordan. Fede, the rookie seventh-round pick from Marist College, continued his strong showing as he also had a sack in the fourth quarter. All told, the Dolphins ended up with five sacks. The first two were group efforts, but one was credited to Jared Odrick and the other to Olivier Vernon, while rookie defensive tackle Kamal Johnson recorded one late in the fourth quarter. Before allowing a touchdown with only 15 seconds left and the outcome no longer in doubt, the Dolphins defense dominated in the second half. Miami held Tampa Bay to 103 yards after halftime, and 55 of those came on that final drive. While Tannehill wasn't able to get the Dolphins into the end zone the way he did in his only drive of action in the preseason opener against Atlanta, he still had his moments against the Buccaneers. Tannehill finished a highly respectable 9-for-14 for 110 yards in three series of action. His best throw was a slant to rookie Jarvis Landry for a 27-yard gain that set up Potter's first field goal, a 48-yarder in the first quarter. Tannehill also had completions of 12 and 16 yards to Brandon Gibson. None of the Dolphins quarterbacks on this night — Tannehill, Moore and Brady Quinn — got much help from the running game, as Miami was held to only 46 yards on 28 attempts (a 1.8 average). Tannehill's only blemish came on his last play of the game, which was the first snap of the second quarter. Tannehill fumbled when he was hit by defensive tackle Gerald McCoy and the Buccaneers recovered the loose ball at the Dolphins 25-yard line. Tampa Bay took advantage of the turnover, scoring four plays later when Josh McCown hit Vincent Jackson with a perfectly thrown 7-yard touchdown pass in the back of the end zone with Brent Grimesin tight coverage. Grimes came up with the biggest defensive play of the game later in the first half when he knocked the ball loose from Tampa Bay rookie wide receiver Mike Evans as he prepared to cross the goal line and complete a 42-yard touchdown. Officials initially ruled the play a touchdown, but after review it was determined that Evans had lost control of the ball before crossing the goal line and since the ball had gone out of bounds in the end zone, it became a touchback.

August 23, 2014 Miami Gardens, FL

Running back Knowshon Moreno made his long-awaited debut in a Dolphins uniform, and he didn't disappoint. Actually, nothing about the Dolphins running game was a disappointment against the Dallas Cowboys. The Dolphins ended up with 200 yards rushing in their 25-20 victory, which was more than double their total for their first two preseason games of the summer and also their highest total in a preseason game since at least 2000. In his one half of action, the offseason free agent acquisition showed how he wound up rushing for more than 1,000 yards the previous season. Moreno gained 64 yards on 10 rushing attempts, starting with a 19-yard scamper on his very first carry of the preseason. Moreno, who began training camp on the Physically Unable to Perform list before being activated Aug. 6, also had runs of 11, 9 and 8 yards. As impressive as Moreno was, he wasn't the Dolphins' leading rusher on this night. That distinction went to rookie free agent Orleans Darkwa, who finished with 70 yards, including the game-winning 1-yard touchdown with 1:45 left. Darkwa, who also had a two-point conversion before his touchdown, jump-started the Dolphins' comeback from a 20-11 deficit with a 53-yard run. That was the longest in the preseason for a Dolphins running back since 2008 when Jalen Parmele went 80 yards against the Kansas City Chiefs. Despite missing starting linebacker Koa Misi, the first-team Dolphins defense also had a good night, holding the explosive Dallas offense to 110 total yards and two field goals in the first half. Defensive end Cameron Wake looked in midseason form, tipping a pass at the line on the first play from scrimmage and bringing down Tony Romo for two sacks. Olivier Vernon also had a sack in the first half. Offensively, wide receiver Mike Wallace had a productive game with six catches for 67 yards. Wallace and most of the first-team offense played into the third quarter, but the Dolphins managed only three points during that time. Quarterback Ryan Tannehill completed 13 of 21 passes for 119 yards, but his night ended with an interception at the Dallas 6-yard line. Matt Moore followed Tannehill and on his first drive led the Dolphins to a touchdown, thanks largely to his 54-yard completion to wide receiver Damian Williams. The drive ended with a 1-yard touchdown run by Damien Williams, who added a two-point conversion on a run after a great spin move helped him elude a Dallas defender in the offensive backfield. Damien Williams, a rookie free agent making a strong push for a roster spot, later had a 35-yard kickoff return where he broke a couple of tackles. Damian Williams set up the game-winning touchdown with a 26-yard punt return. Moore suffered an interception in the fourth quarter that was returned 9 yards for a touchdown by cornerback Tyler Patmon to make it 20-11 for the Cowboys. It also was Patmon who intercepted Tannehill in the first half. Moore rebounded with a 27-yard touchdown pass to rookie tight end Harold Hoskins and followed that up with the two-point conversion pass to Darkwa. The Dolphins' most productive drive of the first half was their first, as they marched 75 yards in 12 plays to take a 3-0 lead on John Potter's 26-yard field goal. In addition to Moreno's 19-yard run, the drive featured an 11-yard run by Lamar Miller on third-and-3 and an 18-yard completion from Tannehill to tight end Charles Clay, who like Moreno was making his preseason debut, for another third-down conversion. Potter, kicking with Caleb Sturgis sidelined by a groin injury, sustained a hip injury on his field goal, so punter Brandon Fields handled kickoff duties the rest of the way and the Dolphins went for two-point conversions after each of their three touchdowns, going 2-for-3 in that department. The Dolphins had two other first-half drives that reached Dallas territory, but one of them ended when tight end Dion Sims fumbled after catching a short Tannehill pass on third-and-3 and the other ended when Tannehill was hurried into throwing the ball away on third-and-10. This night, though, was about Moreno's debut and about the offensive line. Tannehill and Moore were sacked only once all game, and that came when Moore scrambled out of the pocket and ran out of bounds. The offense was able to generate 490 total yards, also the Dolphins' highest total in a preseason game since at least 2000.

PRESEASON GAME 4

August 28, 2014 Miami Gardens, FL

The preseason finale usually is reserved for young players trying to make an impression, and that's just what rookie wide receiver Matt Hazel did against the St. Louis Rams. Hazel scored the game-winning touchdown in the 14-13 victory at Sun Life Stadium with a 22-yard reception with 6:15 left in the fourth quarter, capping a big night for the sixth-round pick out of Coastal Carolina. After coming in with only two catches in the preseason, Hazel finished with four receptions for 79 yards against the Rams. His first three catches all were good for 19 yards. The preseason finale also was important for fourth-year running back Daniel Thomas, who was making his first preseason appearance of the summer and was getting one final chance to convince Dolphins coaches he deserves to keep his spot on the roster. Thomas, a second-round pick in the 2011 NFL draft, started slowly but he finished strong, scoring the Dolphins' first touchdown early in the fourth quarter and starting their comeback from a 13-0 deficit. Thomas scored on a 5-yard run on fourth-and-1 after taking an inside handoff from quarterback Seth Lobato out of shotgun formation. Earlier in the drive, Thomas had a 9-yard run to convert a third-and-3 and he followed that up with a 6-yard run. The late flurry helped Thomas finish with 38 yards on 13 carries. The game also marked the preseason debut of kicker Caleb Sturgis, who battled a groin injury early in camp and aggravated it warming up before the game against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers earlier in the preseason. Sturgis' first kick was a 56-yard field goal attempt that had the distance but missed wide left. Sturgis later kicked two extra points. Running back/wide receiver/kick returner Marcus Thigpen was another established player looking to secure his roster spot, and he had his ups and downs against the Rams. He muffed a punt in the first half and wound up losing about 10 yards going back to recover it. But he also caught two passes as a wide receiver and had an impressive 32-yard punt return in the fourth quarter, which gave the Dolphins the ball at midfield and set up Hazel's touchdown. This game, though, was mostly about young players fighting for roster spots. Only one player listed as a starter on the Dolphins depth chart played against the Rams, that being right guard Dallas Thomas. He was back in the starting lineup after being replaced by Shelley Smith for the game against the Dallas Cowboys last Saturday night. Matt Moore started at quarterback and played two series, finishing 5-for-8 for 38 yards. The Dolphins' first offensive possession showed promise as they moved from their own 17-yard line to the St. Louis 36 primarily on the strength of three completions to rookie second-round pick Jarvis Landry good for 28 yards. But Landry was flagged for holding on a first-down running play and the drive stalled. Still, it was overall a productive night for Landry. Among the young players who made an impact, Rookie defensive tackles Anthony Johnson and Kamal Johnson split a sack. Rookie Garrison Smith had a tackle for a 2-yard loss on a running play and had a sack in the second quarter. Second-year linebacker Jelani Jenkins also had a sack in the first half, and rookie linebacker Chris McCain added two in the fourth quarter. McCain, a rookie free agent, said his first two sacks of the preseason helped make up for a rough start to the game. After taking a 3-0 lead on a 49-yard field goal by Greg Zuerlein early in the second quarter, the Rams scored the first touchdown of the game after cornerback E.J. Gaines intercepted a Lobato pass in Dolphins territory. Austin Pettis scored the St. Louis touchdown on an 11-yard pass from Austin Davis, who spent time on the Dolphins practice squad during the season. Zuerlein expanded the St. Louis lead to 13-0 in the third quarter with a 53-yard field goal.

LIGHTS, CAMERA SUN LIFE STADIUM

Sun Life Stadium has not only been host to championship sporting events, the venue has also served as a backdrop to some of the most popular films of the past quarter century. Those motion pictures shot at Sun Life Stadium include Ace Ventura: Pet Detective, which starred Jim Carrey and Courteney Cox and featured Dolphins great Dan Marino as himself; Marley and Me, starring Owen Wilson and Jennifer Aniston; the Oliver Stone-directed Any Given Sunday starring Al Pacino, Jamie Foxx and Dennis Quaid, and Rock of Ages, in which the scene filmed at the stadium included actors Tom Cruise, Julianna Hough, Russell Brand and Alec Baldwin.

The stadium served as a backdrop to an episode of the television show Seinfeld titled The Label Maker in which Jerry and Newman attend Super Bowl XXIX. Additionally, parts of the opening of the HBO television series Arli$$ were shot on the field during a Dolphins game. The Stadium also played a role in episodes of television shows Man Caves, with former NFL defensive tackle Tony Siragusa and Designing Spaces, the Big Game Bubba Burgers edition.

Commercials for products such as Pepsi, Bud Light, Omega Watches, Just for Men, Margaritaville products, Gatorade, Papa Johns and Equinox, were also filmed at Sun Life Stadium.

THREE DOLPHINS MAKE PRO BOWL AT MULTIPLE POSITIONS

Mike Pouncey was named to the NFL Pro Bowl team for the second straight year following the 2014 season. He was elected to the Pro Bowl as a guard following 2014 after making the roster the previous year at center. He is the first offensive player and one of only three Dolphins overall to earn Pro Bowl recognition at different positions, joining teammates Randy Starks (defensive end following 2010 and defensive tackle after 2012) and Cameron Wake (linebacker following 2010 and defensive end after 2012-14).

DOLPHINS COACHING LONGEVITY

In 2007, former Dolphins secondary coach Mel Phillips wrapped up an impressive 23-year stint as an assistant on the team's coaching staff, a span which began in 1985. Over this time, Phillips served under six of the first seven head coaches in team history. Phillips' 23-year tenure with the club is the second-longest among assistant coaches in team history and third overall, including head coaches.

DOLPHINS NAME

Mariners, Marauders, Mustangs, Missiles, Moons, Sharks, Suns. None of those names suggested to the American Football League expansion franchise in 1965 could raise a fin to the runaway winner.

"Dolphins" was submitted by 622 entrants in a contest which attracted 19,843 entries and more than a 1,000 different names. The dozen finalists were delivered to a seven-member screening committee of local media.

The bottlenose dolphin, an intelligent creature with an irresistible built-in grin, has inspired wonder for centuries. Plutarch observed 1,900 years ago that the dolphin "is the only creature who loves man for his own sake." Every trainer will have a tale of the dolphin's cleverness and ingenuity, and scientists are fascinated by a dolphin's natural equipment which far surpasses the range of Navy sonar equipment.

Mrs. Robert Swanson with Dolphins founder Joe Robbie.

"The dolphin is one of the fastest and smartest creatures of the sea," Joe Robbie said in announcing the team name on October 8, 1965. "Dolphins can attack and kill a shark or a whale. Sailors say bad luck will come to anyone who harms one of them."

Mrs. Robert Swanson of West Miami won two lifetime passes to Dolphins games with her nickname entry. The tiebreaker was picking the winner and score of the 1965 game between the University of Miami and Notre Dame. It ended in a scoreless tie.

OPPONENTS INDIVIDUAL RECORDS

The following individual records relate solely to service against the Miami Dolphins. They include National Football League regular-season statistics only – with the exception of those single-game records marked by "*" or ""

[##] 81,176 saw the Dolphins and Giants play on October 28, 2007 at London's Wembley Stadium, which was designated as a Dolphins home game

BROTHERLY LOVE

In 2006, Renaldo Hill and Ray Hill became the third set of brothers to play for the Dolphins. Ray played with the team from 1998-2000 while Renaldo was a member of the Dolphins from 2006-08. The first set of brothers to play for the Dolphins were the Blackwoods, which included Glenn (1979-87) and Lyle (1981-86), both of whom played safety. In 2003, fullback Obafemi Ayanbadejo and linebacker Brendon Ayanbadejo, each of whom were in their first seasons with the Dolphins, became the second set of brothers to play for the team in franchise history.

The Dolphins also have had two sets of brothers serve on the team's coaching staff. The first set of brothers to have coached with the Dolphins was the Shulas, which included David (1982-88) and his younger brother, Mike (1991-92, 2000-02). In addition, Judd Garrett was an offensive quality control coach with the club from 2000-05, while his brother, Jason, was the team's quarterbacks coach from 2005-06.

Dec. 27 – The Dolphins name 54-year-old Chuck Studley as their Defense Coach to replace Bill Arnsparger. Studley had spent the 1983 season as defensive coordinator and then interim head coach of the Houston Oilers.

March 5 – Miami Dolphin Owner Joseph Robbie announces plans to build a new multi-purpose stadium in north Dade County. Mr. Robbie also announces acquisition of the land and discusses possible stadium funding.

June 24 – Running back David Overstreet is killed in an automobile accident in Winona, Texas.

Oct. 21 – Wide receiver Nat Moore catches a 19-yard TD pass from QB Dan Marino for the 58th touchdown of his Dolphin career, surpassing Larry Csonka's all-time club record of 57.

Nov. 11 – The Dolphins remain the NFL's only unbeaten team as they improve their record to 11-0 (16 straight regular-season wins) with a 24-23 victory over Philadelphia. DE Doug Betters' block of an Eagle PAT with 1:52 remaining in the game seals the win.

Dec. 2 – The Dolphins lose a 45-34 decision to the Raiders, but QB Dan Marino breaks the all-time NFL record for TD passes in a season with his 37th. His record-breaking touchdown pass, which came on a four-yard toss to Jimmy Cefalo in the first quarter, was the first of four on the day for Marino as he reached the 40-touchdown plateau. He also shatters Dolphin single-game records for most yards passing (470), most completions (35) and most attempts (57).

Dec. 17 – Miami ends the regular season with the best record in the AFC (14-2) following a 28-21 victory over Dallas. WR Mark Clayton catches three touchdown passes to give him 18 for the season as he eclipses the all-time NFL mark in that category. Dan Marino becomes the first-ever NFL quarterback to pass for over 5,000 yards in a season as he ends up with 5,084. The most prolific passing season in NFL history also consists of 48 touchdown passes, 564 attempts, 362 completions and only 17 interceptions for a franchise record passer rating of 108.9. Both Clayton (73-1,389) and WR Mark Duper (71-1,306) surpass prior Dolphin records for receptions and reception yardage in one season.

June 3 – Owner Joseph Robbie plants a ceremonial 30-foot Royal Palm tree to begin a million dollar beautification project near Dolphin Stadium.

Sept. 6 – Dan Marino signs a multi-year contract to remain as quarterback of the Dolphins. Two days before, Marino's wife, Claire, had given birth to the couple's first child – Daniel Charles.

Sept. 21 – Miami suffers a heart-breaking 51-45 overtime loss to the N.Y. Jets in the Meadowlands as Dan Marino reaches 1,500 career attempts to qualify as the NFL's top-ranked passer of all-time. Marino finishes the afternoon 30 of 50 for 448 yards and six TDs. The six TDs are a personal high for Marino and tie the team record held by Bob Griese. Mark Duper (154) and Mark Clayton (174) each have over 100 yards receiving in the game.

Oct. 12 – In what was billed as "Marino-Kelly I," the Dolphins and Dan Marino (24 of 41 for 337 yards) defeat the Buffalo Bills and Jim Kelly (20 of 28 for 218 yards, two INTs) 27-14 at the Orange Bowl.

Nov. 24 – The N.Y. Jets enter the Orange Bowl with a nine-game winning streak and the league's best record at 10-1. They leave with a 45-3 loss as Lorenzo Hampton rushes for 148 yards and two TDs on 19 carries (7.8 average) including a 54-yard TD run. Hampton's 100 yards snap a streak of 36 regular-season games (41 overall) for Miami without a 100-yard rusher. Marino completes a personal-high 80.6 percent of his passes (29 of 36) for 288 yards and four TDs.

Nov. 25 – Less than 24 hours after the memorable 45-3 win over the Jets, General Manager Mike Robbie announces at a press conference that Don Shula has signed a multi-year contract to remain as head coach.

Dec. 14 – Dan Marino sets an NFL career record with the seventh 400-yard game of his career as he passes for 403 yards in a thrilling 37-31 overtime win in Anaheim, Calif., over the playoff-bound L.A. Rams. Marino completes 29 of 46 with five TDs, including a 20-yarder to Mark Duper in OT to win the game. Marino is named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for his efforts.

Dec. 22 – The Dolphins play their final game in the Orange Bowl – a 34-27 loss to the New England Patriots. New England captures the AFC East title with the win. The Dolphins finish 21 years in the Orange Bowl with an impressive 110-38-3 (.738) regular-season record. Marino sets NFL single-season records for completions (378) and attempts (623).

Jan. 20 – Tom Olivadotti, an assistant for the Cleveland Browns, is named Defensive Coach for Miami. He is put in charge of the overall defense with the prime responsibility of pass defense. Chuck Studley is re-assigned as Linebacker Coach, with prime responsibility of run defense. Linebacker Coach Bob Matheson resigns.

Jan. 27 – Former Dolphin greats Larry Csonka and Jim Langer are among a group of seven named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. They join Paul Warfield as the only members of the franchise to earn the honor, with induction scheduled for August 8.

Aug. 16 – The Dolphins play host to the Chicago Bears in the first game ever played in Joe Robbie Stadium. The date marks the 22nd anniversary of the Dolphin franchise. The Bears put a damper on the festive evening with a 10-3 preseason victory before 63,451. QB Dan Marino (dislocated ring finger on right hand) and LB John Offerdahl (torn right bicep) suffer injuries. Marino is out for three weeks; Offerdahl will miss the first six regular-season games.

Sept. 22 – NFL Players Association goes on strike; the Dolphins' home contest with New York Giants (first regular-season game in Joe Robbie Stadium) on September 27 is canceled because of strike.

Oct. 4 – The Dolphins' "replacement" team takes the field for the first time, traveling to Seattle to meet the Seahawks. The Dolphins lose, 24-20.

Oct. 11 – Miami's replacement team records a 42-0 shutout victory over the Kansas City Chiefs in the first regular season game played in Joe Robbie Stadium. Safety Liffort Hobley (two interceptions, 55-yard fumble recovery for a TD, four tackles, two passes defensed) is named AFC Defensive Player of the Week for his efforts. Don Shula and Joe Robbie are given game balls by the replacement team following the contest in honor of Miami's first win in the new stadium. The next week (October 18), the replacement team loses its last game, 37-31 in overtime, to the N.Y Jets at the Meadowlands.

Oct. 25 – After four missed weeks of action (one game cancellation, three replacement games), the regular Dolphin players return to action. Miami loses, 34-31, in overtime at home to the Buffalo Bills. The 21-point comeback by Buffalo is the best ever by an opponent against a Dolphins team at the time.

Nov. 1 – Don Shula wins his 250th regular-season game as the Dolphins defeat Pittsburgh 35-24 at Joe Robbie Stadium.

Nov. 29 – The Dolphins suffer their first shutout loss (27-0 at Buffalo) since December 12, 1982 – the famous snowplow game at New England (3-0). The game also sees the end of Dan Marino's streak of 30 straight games with at least one touchdown pass. His string is second all-time to Johnny Unitas' 47.

Dec. 30 – RB Troy Stradford is named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press.

Feb. 29 – Former Dolphin Larry Seiple is named receivers coach. Seiple, who had been out of pro coaching for a year, had been receivers coach at Detroit (1980-84) and Tampa Bay (1985-86).

July 31 – The Dolphins make their first ever trip abroad and take on the San Francisco 49ers at Wembley Stadium in London for the third-annual American Bowl. Miami comes from behind to defeat the 49ers, 27-21, before 70,535 British fans to open the preseason.

Oct. 9 – The Dolphins reverse history by defeating the Raiders, 24-17, at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. It marks Miami's first win ever against the Raiders in their home stadium and the Dolphins' first victory over the Raiders in 10 years. The game is played in 96 degree heat - the warmest game in Dolphins' history.

Oct. 23 – Dan Marino records the second-best single-game passing yardage total in NFL histo – 521 yards (Norm Van Brocklin holds the single-game record of 554 yards) and completes 35 of a team record 60 attempts, all to no avail as the N.Y Jets defeat the Dolphins, 44-30, at Joe Robbie Stadium.

Oct. 30 – Shula Bowl III – Head Coach Don Shula and his assistant head coach and son, David Shula, are on the opposite side of the field of Mike Shula, a coaches' assistant for Tampa Bay, as the Dolphins defeat the Bucs, 17-14, in Tampa Stadium.

Dec. 12 – Dan Marino becomes the first quarterback in NFL history to pass for over 4,000 yards four times in a career in the Dolphins' 37-31 win over Cleveland. He also throws for his 193rd career touchdown, setting a new Dolphin record and surpassing the total of former quarterback Bob Griese, who had previously held the mark. Marino tops the record that took Griese 14 seasons to accomplish in only six-plus seasons. Also, receiver Mark Clayton surpasses Nat Moore in the record books as he catches a pass in his 37th consecutive game.

Jan. 22 – Joe Robbie Stadium hosts Super Bowl XXIII only two-and-a-half years after its initial opening. San Francisco comes back in the final minutes of the game to defeat the Cincinnati Bengals, 20-16. The game marks the first time since Super Bowl XIII (January 21,1979) that the NFL's championship game is played in Miami.

Jan. 23 – Dolphin Linebackers Coach Chuck Studley resigns after five seasons with Miami.

Jan. 25 – Former Miami Hurricanes defensive coordinator Dave Wannstedt joins the Dolphins coaching staff as linebackers coach.

Feb. 27 – David Shula, the Dolphins' assistant head coach and passing game coordinator, and Dave Wannstedt, the team's linebackers coach, resign their respective positions to accept new posts with the Dallas Cowboys.

March 1 – George Hill is named the new linebackers coach for the Dolphins, while John Sandusky, the Dolphins' offensive line coach, is promoted to assistant head coach.

Sept. 9 – Sammie Smith rushes for an opening-day record 159 yards and a touchdown as the Dolphins break a five-year losing streak in season openers with a 27-24 win at the New England Patriots.

Sept. 16 – Team founder Joe Robbie is the first enshrinee on the "Dolphin Honor Roll" at Joe Robbie Stadium. The Dolphins record a 30-7 triumph over the Buffalo Bills, marking Don Shula's 200th career regular season win as the team's head coach.

Oct. 18 – In Miami's 17-10 win over the New England Patriots, Don Shula coaches in his 400th career regular season game as a head coach in the NFL.

Nov. 19 – During halftime of Miami's 13-10 loss to the Los Angeles Raiders, the team's four Hall of Fame enshrinees, Larry Csonka, Bob Griese, Jim Langer and Paul Warfield, are inducted into the "Dolphin Honor Roll."

Nov. 25 – Miami improves its record to 9-2 and clinches the team's first winning season since 1987 with a 30-13 win over the Cleveland Browns. Also, Dan Marino goes over 30,000 yards passing in his career, becoming the 11th player in NFL history to reach the 30,000-yard mark. It is just his 114th career game, and he reaches the 30,000-yard plateau faster than any quarterback in NFL history.

Dec. 9 – The Dolphins earn a 23-20 overtime win over the Philadelphia Eagles and clinch the team's first playoff berth since 1985.

Dec. 16 – In Miami's 24-17 win over the Seattle Seahawks, Dan Marino goes over 3,000 yards passing for the year. It is his seventh season passing for 3,000 yards and he ties Joe Montana's NFL record of seven 3,000-yard seasons.

Dec. 19 – Richmond Webb becomes the first rookie offensive tackle – and second rookie offensive lineman overall – to be selected to the NFL's annual Pro Bowl contest.

Dec. 23 – Dan Marino throws his 20th touchdown pass of the season in Miami's 24-14 loss at the Buffalo Bills. It is his eighth season with 20 or more touchdown passes and he ties Johnny Unitas' NFL record of eight 20-plus touchdown seasons.

Jan. 5 – The Dolphins return to the playoffs after a four-year absence with a 17-16 win over the Kansas City Chiefs at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Pete Stoyanovich sets an NFL playoff record with a 58-yard field goal.

Jan. 12 – Miami drops a 44-34 playoff decision at the Buffalo Bills. The teams combine for 78 points – the highest scoring non-overtime playoff game in history. The only higher scoring playoff game was Miami's 41-38 overtime loss to the San Diego Chargers on Jan. 2, 1982.

Jan. 24 – Monte Clark, the Dolphins director of pro personnel, announces his resignation.

Jan. 27 – Larry Csonka is named to the NFL's all-time Super Bowl Silver Anniversary team.

Feb. 2 – Richmond Webb is named NFL Rookie of the Year by The Sporting News.

March 8 – Mike Shula joins the Dolphins as a Coaches' Assistant.

March 26 – The Robbie Family and Wayne Huizenga purchase 107 acres of land adjacent to Joe Robbie Stadium for additional parking and future development.

May 23 – At the NFL owners meetings in Minneapolis, Joe Robbie Stadium is selected as the site for Super Bowl XXIX (1995).

Aug. 3 – The Dolphins make the longest road trip in team history as they travel 14,912 round-trip miles to Tokyo to battle the Los Angeles Raiders at the Tokyo Dome in American Bowl '91. Miami comes from behind to defeat the Raiders, 19-17, before 51,122 Japanese fans.

Aug. 20 – Dan Marino signs a five-year contract extension to remain as quarterback of the Miami Dolphins.

Sept. 22 – Don Shula captures the 300th win of his coaching career with Miami's 16-13 win over the Green Bay Packers. With career coaching win number 300, Shula joins the immortal George Halas (324 wins) as the only NFL coaches to win 300 or more games.

Nov. 10 – In Miami's 30-20 win over New England, both Mark Duper and Mark Clayton surpass Nat Moore's team record of 7,547 career receiving yards. Duper is the first to move past Moore with a 17-yard reception in the first quarter, while Clayton passes Moore with a 32-yard touchdown catch in the fourth quarter.

Nov. 18 – During halftime of Miami's 41-27 loss to the Buffalo Bills, former Dolphin great middle linebacker Nick Buoniconti is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll.

Dec. 1 – Dan Marino sets an NFL record as he goes over 3,000 yards passing in a season for the eighth time in his career in Miami's 33-14 win over Tampa Bay. Marino entered the 1991 campaign with seven such seasons and was tied with Joe Montana for the record.

Dec. 9 – Miami defeats Cincinnati 37-13 in Shula Bowl V as Don Shula extends his record to 5-0 in Shula vs. Shula contests. This time, Shula teamed with son Mike, a Dolphins coaches assistant, and was opposed by son David, the receivers coach for the Bengals. In the contest, Dan Marino sets an NFL record by throwing his 20th touchdown pass of the season. It is his ninth season with 20 or more touchdown passes. He entered 1991 with eight such seasons and was tied with Johnny Unitas for the record. Also, Mark Clayton breaks Nat Moore's team record for career TDs (75) and career receiving scores (74) with a 16-yard TD reception in the fourth quarter to give Clayton his 76th career score (75 catch, one punt return) and 75th receiving TD.

Dec. 15 – Pete Stoyanovich breaks Garo Yepremian's single-season team record of 28 field goals in Miami's 38-30 loss to the San Diego Chargers. Stoyanovich boots his 29th of the year with a 24-yarder in the first quarter. He would go on to hit on 31 field goals during the 1991 season which tied for the league high with Washington's Chip Lohmiller.

Dec. 22 – The Dolphins drop a 23-20 overtime decision to the New York Jets in a winner-take-all battle for the AFC's final wild card spot. Miami takes a 20-17 lead with just 44 seconds left in regulation on a one-yard scoring toss from Dan Marino to Ferrell Edmunds. However, the Jets move the ball and tie the game at 20-20 on a 44-yard field goal by Raul Allegre with no time left on the clock. New York wins the game in overtime on a 30-yard field goal by Allegre.

Feb. 1 – Former Dolphin All-Pro center Dwight Stephenson rejoins Miami as assistant offensive line coach.

Feb. 3 – Hall of Fame defensive tackle Joe Greene is named as the Dolphins' defensive line coach. Greene replaced Dan Sekanovich, who announced his resignation.

May 20 – Dolphins sign a long-term agreement to build a new training facility at Nova University in Davie, to be ready by the start of the 1993 training camp.

June 1 – Charley Winner announces his retirement as Miami's Director of Player Personnel. Winner, who had served 37 years in the NFL as a coach and administrator, originally joined the Dolphins in 1981.

June 4 – Tom Heckert is named as the Dolphins' Director of Player Personnel. Heckert had worked the previous three years as Miami's Director of College Scouting.

June 12 – Tom Braatz, a 27-year NFL executive with the Atlanta Falcons and Green Bay Packers, is named as Miami's Director of College Scouting.

July 17 – Don Shula signs a two-year contract extension to continue as the Dolphins' Head Coach through the 1994 season. The extension takes effect at the conclusion of Shula's current contract which expires following the 1992 season.

Aug. 16 – The Dolphins travel 9,908 round-trip miles and earn a 31-27 preseason win over the Denver Broncos before a crowd of 60,813 fans at Berlin's Olympic Stadium. The game marks the third time overall and second consecutive season that the Dolphins have travelled abroad to play a preseason contest and the win improves Miami's record to 3-0 in games played on foreign soil.

Aug. 31 – Miami's season opening contest, scheduled for September 6 at Joe Robbie Stadium against the New England Patriots, is rescheduled for October 18, the National Football League announces. The date change is made in the aftermath of Hurricane Andrew, which struck the South Florida area on August 25. Both teams originally were off that weekend, based on the NFL's 16-games-over-17-weeks schedule which allows each team one bye during the season. The Patriots and Dolphins will have their Open Week on September 6, which marks the beginning of the 1992 regular season.

Sept. 29 – The Dolphins dip into the free agent market and sign perennial all-pro tight end Keith Jackson, a week after a federal-court ruling in Minneapolis made a free agent of Jackson, in addition to Garin Veris, Webster Slaughter and D.J. Dozier.

Oct. 4 – In a 37-10 win over the Buffalo Bills at Rich Stadium, safety Louis Oliver records three interceptions and returns one of his INTs for a 103-yard touchdown. Oliver's return ties for the NFL's all-time longest interception return with a 103-yard return by San Diego's Vencie Glenn against Denver on November 29, 1987.

Oct. 18 – Dan Marino throws four touchdown passes as Miami earns a 38-17 win over the Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium in a game that is rescheduled from September 6 due to the effects of Hurricane Andrew. Marino throws four-or-more touchdowns in a game for the 17th time in his career and ties the all-time NFL record for most career games with four or more touchdown passes with Johnny Unitas.

Nov. 16 – During halftime ceremonies of Miami's 26-20 loss to the Buffalo Bills, the 1972 Miami Dolphins team, holders of the only perfect season in NFL history and winners of Super Bowl VII, are honored and inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll.

Dec. 20 – The Dolphins clinch the team's second trip to the playoffs in the last three seasons with a 19-17 come-from-behind win over the New York Jets at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino throws the 290th touchdown pass of his NFL career and ties Johnny Unitas for second place on the NFL's all-time touchdown pass list.

Dec. 23 – Dan Marino is named to his team-record seventh Pro Bowl team. He breaks the former team record of six Pro Bowl appearances which he shared with Bob Griese, Bob Kuechenberg and Jim Langer. In addition, Marino is named as a starter in the NFL's annual all-star game for the fifth time in his career and he ties the team record held by Jim Langer.

Dec. 27 – The Dolphins clinch the AFC East title with a 16-13 overtime win over the New England Patriots at Foxboro Stadium. Miami closes the regular season with an 11-5 record and coupled with Buffalo's 27-3 loss at Houston later in the day, the Dolphins win the team's first division championship since 1985. In addition, the win marks the 300th regular season victory of Dolphins' Head Coach Don Shula's coaching career.

Jan. 10 – The Dolphins earn a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers in the AFC Divisional Playoffs before a crowd of 71,224 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's 31-point margin of victory is the largest by the team in a playoff game. The previous largest margin of victory in the post-season by the Dolphins was three 21-point wins as Miami had a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on Jan. 2, 1972; a 34-13 win over the San Diego Chargers on Jan. 16, 1983; and a 31-10 win over the Seattle Seahawks on Dec. 29, 1984.

Jan. 17 – The 1992 season comes to a close. Miami suffers five turnovers (two interceptions and three fumbles) as the team drops a 29-10 decision to the Buffalo Bills in the AFC Championship contest before a crowd of 72,703 at Joe Robbie Stadium.

Jan. 26 – Kim Helton is named the team's offensive line coach. John Sandusky, who served as assistant head coach/offensive line, remains with the team as assistant head coach and assumes the responsibility of coaching the tight ends. In addition, assistant offensive line coach Dwight Stephenson resigns to pursue his interests in the construction and real estate business.

Jan. 30 – Former Dolphins great Larry Little is among a group of five named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The former Dolphins guard becomes the fifth player in Miami history to earn the honor, joining RB Larry Csonka, QB Bob Griese, C Jim Langer and WR Paul Warfield.

Feb. 7 – The Dolphin coaching staff leads the AFC to a 23-20 overtime win over the NFC in the Pro Bowl contest played in Honolulu, Hawaii.

Feb. 11 – Mike Shula resigns as a coaches assistant and is named as tight ends coach of the Chicago Bears.

Feb. 22 – Tony Nathan, who spent the past five years as a coaches' assistant on the Miami Dolphins coaching staff, is promoted to offensive backs coach. In addition, Carl Taseff, who served as the team's offensive backs coach since joining the Dolphins in 1970, will become more active in other areas of the football operation, including personnel scouting and evaluation, and will maintain a continued involvement in various coaching responsibilities.

May 21 – Kim Helton resigns as offensive line coach to become head coach at the University of Houston. John Sandusky, who served as offensive line coach from 1976-92, resumes his offensive line coaching responsibilities.

June 1 – Rich McGeorge is named as assistant offensive line/tight ends coach of the Dolphins.

June 4 – Dolphins hold last practice session at St. Thomas University, which had served as host to team's training facility since July 12, 1970.

July 11 – Ribbon cutting ceremonies officially open the Dolphins' new training facility on campus of Nova University in Davie, Fla.

Sept. 12 – Dan Marino surpasses the 40,000-yard passing mark during Miami's 24-14 loss to the N.Y. Jets. He joins Fran Tarkenton (47,003), Dan Fouts (43,040) and Johnny Unitas (40,239) as the only quarterbacks to gain 40,000 passing yards. Marino attains the 40,000-yard mark in only 153 regular-season games and accomplishes the feat faster than any QB in league history. The previous record for fastest ascent to 40,000 yards was 168 games by Dan Fouts.

Oct. 10 – Scott Mitchell comes off the bench and replaces an injured Dan Marino (torn right Achilles) and throws a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 24-14 win at the Cleveland Browns. Mitchell enters the game just before halftime and completes 10 of 16 passes for 118 yards with two touchdowns and an interception. Mitchell is named as AFC Offensive Player of the Week for his performance against the Browns. Marino is placed on Injured Reserve on October 13 and misses the remainder of the season.

Oct. 24 – Dan Marino misses his first starting assignment in 145 consecutive non-replacement regular season games as Miami earns a 41-27 win over Indianapolis. The game marks the first career NFL start at quarterback for Scott Mitchell as he hits on 12 of 19 passes for 190 yards with a touchdown. Mitchell becomes the eighth player to start at quarterback for the Dolphins since Don Shula was named head coach in 1970.

Oct. 31 – Don Shula wins the 324th game of his coaching career and ties George Halas for the all-time record for most wins by an NFL head coach as Miami earns a 30-10 win over the Kansas City Chiefs. Shula achieves the coaching milestone in his 31st year (482nd game) of his NFL coaching career as compared to 40 seasons (506 games) for Halas to accomplish the feat. On the field, Scott Mitchell throws for 344 yards and three touchdowns and becomes the first Dolphin quarterback other than Dan Marino to pass for over 300 yards and throw three or more touchdown passes since David Woodley gained 408 yards and threw three scores on October 25, 1981, at the Dallas Cowboys.

Nov. 14 – The Dolphins endure another quarterback injury as Scott Mitchell suffers a separated shoulder during Miami's 19-14 win at Philadelphia. The win enables Don Shula to record the 325th triumph of his coaching career as he becomes the winningest coach in NFL history surpassing George Halas. In the contest, Doug Pederson replaces Mitchell and enters the game in the third quarter with Miami trailing 14-13. He guides the Dolphins to a pair of field goals and the defense holds the Eagles scoreless in the second half to garner the victory.

Nov. 25 – The Dolphins post a come-from-behind 16-14 win over the defending and eventual Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys on Thanksgiving Day on a sleet covered field at Texas Stadium. Miami improves 3-0 on Thanksgiving as the team had posted victories at St. Louis (55-14 on November 24, 1977) and at Dallas (14-7 on November 22, 1973). In the contest, Miami trails 14-13 with just 15 seconds left in regulation and Pete Stoyanovich's 41-yard field goal attempt for the win is blocked by the Cowboys' Jimmie Jones. However, Dallas' Leon Lett attempts to pick up the loose ball and fumbles and Miami's Jeff Dellenbach recovers the ball on the one-yard line with three seconds remaining. Stoyanovich converts on his second chance and boots a 19-yard field goal on the game's final play to win the contest. The win improves Miami's record to an NFL best 9-2, but the team will fail to win another game during the remainder of the season.

Dec. 13 – During halftime ceremonies of Miami's 21-20 loss to Pittsburgh, former Dolphin great and Hall of Famer Larry Little is honored and inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll.

Dec. 14 – Don Shula is named Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year. He is the first professional coach to receive the honor.

Jan. 2 – The Dolphins lose by a 33-27 count in overtime at New England. It is the fifth consecutive loss for the Dolphins and the team is eliminated from the playoffs later in the day as the Raiders rally from a 17-point deficit to win over Denver and qualify for the playoffs.

Jan. 24 – The trustees of the Miami Dolphins sign a definitive agreement with H. Wayne Huizenga to purchase the Robbie family's interests in the Dolphin franchise. The agreement also includes an option for Huizenga to purchase the Robbies' interest in Joe Robbie Stadium.

Feb. 8 – Joel Collier joins the Dolphins as a staff assistant, replacing Carl Taseff.

March 16 – John Gamble is named as the Dolphins' strength coach.

March 23 – The National Football League clubs approve transfer of the majority interests in the Miami Dolphins from the Robbie family to H. Wayne Huizenga at the annual league meetings in Orlando, Fla.

May 6 – Rick Weaver, who had served as play-by-play announcer for the Dolphins since 1970, announces his retirement at the club's annual awards dinner.

June 28 – H. Wayne Huizenga's purchase of the Robbie Family's remaining 85% of the Miami Dolphins as well as their 50% share of the Joe Robbie Stadium is finalized. The closing leaves Huizenga with 100% ownership of both the Dolphins and Stadium.

July 21 – H. Wayne Huizenga announces that he has entered into a new agreement with Head Coach Don Shula that extends through the 1996 season. Under the new contract extension, Shula assumes the position of Vice President/Head Coach, and also adds an ownership interest in the team.

Sept. 4 – After missing the final 11 games of the 1993 season with a torn right Achilles' tendon, Dan Marino returns to action as he throws for 473 yards and five touchdowns to lead the Dolphins to a 39-35 win over the New England Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium. Marino sets an NFL record by throwing for four or more touchdown passes in a game for the 18th time in his career, breaking his tie with Johnny Unitas, and also throws the 300th touchdown pass of his career to join Fran Tarkenton (343 touchdowns) as the only quarterbacks in NFL history with 300-plus career touchdowns.

Oct. 2 – Shula Bowl VI makes sports history as it marks the first time in the history of the four major American professional sports (football, baseball, hockey and basketball) that a father and son battle as head coaches with Don Shula and the Dolphins taking on his son, Head Coach David Shula, and the Cincinnati Bengals. The elder Shula improves to 6-0 when coaching against teams which feature one of his sons as a coach or player as the Dolphins earn a 23-7 win over the Bengals.

Nov. 13 – Chicago's Kevin Butler boots a 40-yard field goal with 54 seconds left in regulation and James Williams deflects a Dolphins field goal attempt with just seven seconds remaining in the game to give the Bears a 17-14 win over the Dolphins in Shula Bowl VII. Miami Head Coach Don Shula battles his son and Bears tight ends coach Mike Shula in the contest and it marks the first time that the elder Shula lost a game in which one of his sons, David or Mike, were either players or assistant coaches on the opposing NFL team.

Nov. 27 – Quarterback Dan Marino makes history once again with his famous "Clock Play". With the Dolphins trailing the Jets by 18 points in the second half at the Meadowlands, Marino orchestrates a 28-point second-half outburst, including 22 straight to close the contest, as Miami claims a 28-24 victory. All four scores in the second half occur on Marino to Mark Ingram touchdown passes. The game winning points come on first-and-goal with just 22 seconds to play, when Marino approaches the line of scrimmage, appearing poised to clock the ball. However, he takes everyone in the stadium by surprise as he receives the snap, drops back and tosses an eight-yard touchdown pass to Ingram, who ties the Paul Warfield's single-game record of four touchdowns and 24 points, which Warfield achieved against Detroit on December 15, 1973.

Dec. 7 – Don Shula suffers a torn Achilles' tendon in his right leg and undergoes surgery on the injury on December 9 by Dr. Peter Indelicato and Dr. Dan Kanell. He misses a regular season practice for the first time in his 25 seasons with the team. Shula returns to practice on December 10 and coaches for the remainder of the season on a golf cart.

Dec. 12 – Bernie Parmalee rushes for 127 yards and scores a pair of touchdowns (one rushing and one receiving) as the Dolphins clinch a playoff spot with a 45-28 win over the Kansas City Chiefs at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula wins his 318th career regular season game and ties George Halas (318 regular season coaching wins) for the all-time record for most career regular season wins by an NFL coach. Center Dwight Stephenson is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll during halftime ceremonies.

Dec. 25 – The Dolphins earn a 27-20 win over the Detroit Lions and clinch the AFC East title. Miami and the New England Patriots both finish with 10-6 records, however the Dolphins win the division title by virtue of a two-game head-to-head sweep over New England during the 1994 season. Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula wins the 319th regular season game of his coaching career and surpasses George Halas (318 regular season coaching wins) for the all-time record for most career regular season wins by an NFL coach. Miami plays on Christmas Day for the second time in team history with the only other Christmas game for the Dolphins being the longest game in NFL history as Miami earned a 27-24 playoff win in double overtime at Kansas City on December 25, 1971.

Dec. 27 – Defensive tackle Tim Bowens is named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press. He becomes the first Dolphins player to win A.P.'s defensive rookie award since A.J. Duhe in 1977.

Dec. 31 – Dan Marino throws a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 27-17 win in a First-Round playoff contest against the Kansas City Chiefs at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game is billed as Marino-Montana III and the duel between the two future Hall of Famers lives up to its pregame hype. Marino completes 22 of 29 passes for 257 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions and Montana counters by hitting on 26 of 37 passes for 314 yards with two scores and an interception. Marino sets an NFL playoff record as he throws for a touchdown pass in his 11th consecutive post-season game and moves past a tie with Montana (San Francisco/ Kansas City) and Ken Stabler (Oakland) for the longest all-time streak in NFL post-season history.

Jan. 9 – Natrone Means rushes for 139 yards and a touchdown to lead the San Diego Chargers to a 22-21 win over the Miami Dolphins in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest at Jack Murphy Stadium. San Diego took a 22-21 lead with just 35 seconds left in regulation as Stan Humphries threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Mark Seay. The Dolphins had one final chance to win the game as Dan Marino drove the team to the Chargers' 30-yard line but Pete Stoyanovich's 48-yard field goal attempt with eight seconds left was wide right.

Jan. 18 – Assistant head coach/offensive line John Sandusky announces his retirement. A veteran of over three decades of NFL coaching (he concluded his 36th season in 1994), Sandusky was one of only two coaches to serve as offensive line coach on a Don Shula coached team. Sandusky was offensive line coach with the Colts (1963-69) and Dolphins (1976-94) under Shula, while Monte Clark coached the offensive line with the Dolphins under Shula from 1970-75.

Feb. 6 – Monte Clark is named as the team's offensive line coach. Clark enters his third tour of duty with the Dolphins, re-joining the team after having served as head offensive line coach at Stanford University during 1993-94.

Feb. 9 – Dolphins Executive Vice President and General Manager Eddie Jones signs a two-year contract to remain in that capacity through the 1996 season.

May 19 – The Miami Dolphins sign a two-year agreement with WCMQ radio (1210 AM) to be the Spanish radio outlet for Dolphins games. WCMQ replaces WQBA radio, which had been the team's Spanish station for the previous 13 seasons.

Sept. 3 – The Dolphins open the season with an explosive offensive display in a 52-15 win over the N.Y. Jets at Joe Robbie Stadium. The 52 points are the second-highest single-game total in team history (behind 55 points at St. Louis on November 24, 1977). In addition, the game is played in 94-degree weather, making it the warmest home game in team history.

Oct. 1 – The Shula coaching family again makes sports history as father and son battle as head coaches with Don Shula and the Dolphins taking on his son, Head Coach David Shula, and the Cincinnati Bengals. The elder Shula improves to 7-1 when coaching against teams which feature one of his sons as a coach or player with a 26-23 win at the Bengals.

Oct. 8 – Dan Marino passes Fran Tarkenton (3,686 completions) to become the NFL's all-time leader in career pass completions with a six-yard toss to fullback Keith Byars during the Dolphins' 27-24 overtime loss at Joe Robbie Stadium.

Nov. 12 – Dan Marino becomes the NFL's all-time career passing yardage leader as he jumps past Fran Tarkenton (47,003 career yards) with a nine-yard pass to Irving Fryar in the first quarter of the Dolphins' 34-17 loss to the New England Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium.

Nov. 26 – Dan Marino tosses a six-yard touchdown pass to fullback Keith Byars with 1:03 remaining in the first half for his 343rd career scoring pass and becomes the NFL's all-time touchdown pass leader (surpassing Fran Tarkenton's 342 TDs) during Miami's 36-28 loss at Indianapolis.

Dec. 11 – Guard/Tackle Bob Kuechenberg is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll during half-time ceremonies of Miami's 13-6 win over Kansas City at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dan Marino breaks the last of Fran Tarkenton's major passing records (6,467 career attempts) with a pass attempt to wide receiver Randal Hill in the fourth quarter.

Dec. 24 – The Dolphins post a 41-22 win at St. Louis to finish the regular season with a 9-7 record. The team clinches a playoff berth for the second consecutive season later in the day as the Denver Broncos come from behind late in the contest to win at Oakland and eliminate the Raiders from playoff consideration. Miami's win marks the 347th and final victory in the illustrious head coaching career of Don Shula.

Dec. 30 – Miami's season ends following a 37-22 loss in an AFC First-Round Playoff Contest in Buffalo. The game is an offensive shootout as the teams combine for an NFL post-season record of 1,038 yards. Dan Marino leads the Dolphins by completing 33 of a career-high 64 pass attempts for 422 yards and a pair of scores, while WR O.J. McDuffie sets team playoff records with 11 catches for 154 yards. The game marks the final contest in Head Coach Don Shula's career.

Jan. 5 – Don Shula, the winningest coach in the history of the NFL, moves from his role as head coach of the team as he assumes another role within the Dolphins organization. He continues to serve as a partner to owner H. Wayne Huizenga and becomes Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors in addition to his status as a part-owner of the team. Shula leaves the sidelines with an overall record 347-173-6 in his 33 years as a head coach, including the last 26 years with the Dolphins (1970-95). He won Super Bowl titles with Miami in 1972 and 1973, posting a combined 32-2 record in those two seasons, and his 1972 team went 17-0, the only undefeated season in NFL annals.

Jan. 11 – Jimmy Johnson signs a four-year contract to become head coach of the Dolphins, becoming the third head coach in club history, joining George Wilson (1966-69) and Don Shula (1970-95). Johnson joins the team with one of the most successful coaching records in football on both the professional and collegiate levels before spending the previous two years as an NFL analyst for FOX Sports. He is the first head coach in football history to win both a Super Bowl title (Dallas, 1992 and 1993) and a national collegiate championship (University of Miami, 1987).

Jan. 16 – Dolphins owner H. Wayne Huizenga announces that Eddie Jones has been named President and Chief Operating Officer of the team, and Jimmy Johnson has been named as the club's General Manager/Head Coach. Jones had spent the last six seasons with the team as the club's Executive Vice President and General Manager.

Jan. 17 – The Dolphins name Cary Godette (defensive line), Pat Jones (tight ends) and Bill Lewis (defense nickel package) to the coaching staff. Prior to joining the Dolphins, Godette, who replaces Joe Greene, had served as defensive line coach for the Carolina Panthers in 1995, Jones was head coach at Oklahoma State University from 1984-94, and Lewis was head coach at Georgia Tech University from 1992-94.

Jan. 19 – Kippy Brown joins the Dolphins coaching staff as running backs coach, replacing Tony Nathan. Brown had served as running backs coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1995) and N.Y. Jets (1990-92).

Jan. 24 – Bob Ackles is named as the Dolphins Director of Football Operations. Ackles joins the team after serving as Director of Football Administration for the Philadelphia Eagles in 1995 and working three years with the Arizona Cardinals as Director of College Scouting (1992-93) and Assistant General Manager (1994).

Feb. 16 – The Dolphins name Larry Beightol as assistant head coach/offensive line, replacing Monte Clark. In addition to his coaching the offensive line, Beightol also assumes additional administrative responsibilities involving the entire football staff. Beightol joins the Dolphins after having served as offensive line coach with the Houston Oilers (1995), N.Y. Jets (1990-94), San Diego Chargers (1989), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1987-88) and Atlanta Falcons (1985-86).

March 1 – The Dolphins name Kevin O'Neill as head athletic trainer and Brad Roll as assistant strength and conditioning coach.

April 23 – Dan Marino, who broke every significant career passing record in NFL history during the 1995 season, signs a three-year contract through the 1998 season to remain as quarterback of the Miami Dolphins.

Aug. 26 – Pro Player, a sports apparel company, enters into a 10-year agreement with Joe Robbie Stadium, home of the Dolphins since 1987, to re-name the stadium Pro Player Park. The deal is worth $2 million annually over the term of the contract.

Sept. 1 – The Dolphins defeat the New England Patriots, 24-10, at Pro Player Park, in Jimmy Johnson's debut as head coach. Of the three head coaches in team history, Johnson is the only one to record a victory in his initial game. Also, rookie running back Karim Abdul-Jabbar rushes for 115 yards and a TD on 26 carries in Miami's victory over the Patriots, the first Dolphin rookie since Sammie Smith on November 5, 1989, against Indianapolis to rush for 100 yards. He also becomes the first player in Dolphins history to rush for 100 yards in his NFL debut.

Sept. 10 – Pro Player Park is re-named Pro Player Stadium.

Sept. 15 – On his 35th birthday, quarterback Dan Marino throws for 257 yards and three touchdowns as the Dolphins defeat the New York Jets, 36-27, at Pro Player Stadium. One of the scoring passes is a 74-yard strike to rookie fullback Stanley Pritchett, the longest completion to a Dolphins running back in team history.

Oct. 27 – Quarterback Dan Marino plays in his 191st regular season game, against Dallas at Pro Player Stadium. In the process, he breaks Bob Kuechenberg's club career record for regular season games played of 190. The game is witnessed by 75,651 fans, the highest attendance figure in Pro Player Stadium history. The previous high was 75,129 for Super Bowl XXIII between San Francisco and Cincinnati on January 22, 1989. The former record for a Dolphins game was 73,080 for a November 20, 1995 contest against San Francisco.

Oct. 29 – WQAM Radio (560 AM) signs a five-year contract for broadcast rights to the Dolphins, Florida Marlins and Florida Panthers. Dolphins football will be aired on WQAM beginning in the 1997 season and through the year 2001. The Dolphins' flagship station had been WIOD Radio since the team's inception in 1966.

Oct. 31 – At the NFL fall meetings in New Orleans, the league awards the 1999 Super Bowl to the city of Miami. The game will be played at Pro Player Stadium.

Nov. 10 – A 36-yard completion to O.J. McDuffie in the second quarter puts quarterback Dan Marino over the 50,000-yard mark for his career, the first quarterback in NFL history to reach that plateau. His eight-yard completion to Fred Barnett in the second quarter is the 4,000th completion of Marino's career, also making him the first quarterback in league history to achieve that feat. These accomplishments occur in a 37-13 victory over Indianapolis at Pro Player Stadium.

Nov. 25 – At halftime of a 24-17 loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers on Monday Night Football at Pro Player Stadium, former Head Coach Don Shula is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll.

Jan. 14 – Miami Dolphins unveil a modified team logo and new uniforms for the 1997 season. The basic logo and team colors remain the same. The sunburst on the logo is more prominently displayed with the elimination of the hashmarks around the sun's perimeters, while the dolphin's features are accentuated by navy highlights. The home and road jerseys added a script "Dolphins" below the collar, and several subtle accents were added to the uniform to highlight and strengthen the team's traditional colors.

Jan. 25 – Former head coach Don Shula (1970-95), the NFL's all-time winningest coach with 347 victories, is selected for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.

March 11 – At the NFL spring meetings in Palm Desert, Calif., the NFL Owners approve limited cross ownership, finalizing H. Wayne Huizenga's ownership of the Dolphins.

March 21 – Eddie Jones signs a two-year contract extension, which runs through 1998, to remain as the team's president and chief operating officer.

April 17 – Les Koenning, wide receivers coach at Texas A&M the previous three seasons, is named as an offensive assistant.

April 18 – The Dolphins unveil the first "official" mascot in team history during a press conference at the team's training facility. He makes his public debut on April 19 at the team's Draft Day party at Pro Player Stadium.

June 3 – Doug Blevins is named as the team's kicking coach.

June 4 – "T.D." is picked as the name of the Dolphins official team mascot, it is announced at the team's annual Awards Banquet. Sarah Fernandez and her two sons, Nelson and Vincent, win the "Name the Mascot" contest, and receive two tickets to Super Bowl XXXII in San Diego.

June 13 – Dan Marino signs a one-year contract extension through the 1999 season.

July 26 – Don Shula becomes the sixth former Dolphin to be enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. He is inducted along with Mike Haynes, Wellington Mara and Mike Webster.

Aug. 4 – The Dolphins travel to Mexico City and earn a 38-19 preseason win over the Denver Broncos before a crowd of 104,629 fans at Estadio Guillermo Canedo. The attendance is the most to ever witness a Dolphins game, surpassing the previous high of 103,667 that saw Miami's 27-17 loss to the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl XVII on January 30, 1983, in the Rose Bowl. The game marks the fourth time overall that the Dolphins have travelled abroad to play a preseason contest and the win improves Miami's record to 4-0 in games played on foreign soil. Miami's previous American Bowl games had been in London (1988), Tokyo (1991) and Berlin (1992). The Dolphins became the first NFL team to win four American Bowl contests, and they also became the first team to win an American Bowl matchup in each of the three continents in which the games have been played.

Aug. 31 – The Dolphins defeat the Indianapolis Colts, 16-10, at Pro Player Stadium in their 1997 season-opener. It's the Dolphins' first-ever regular season game in the month of August. It also marks their sixth consecutive opening-day victory.

Oct. 5 – The Dolphins defeat the Kansas City Chiefs, 17-14, at Pro Player Stadium, marking the 300th victory in franchise history, including playoffs. The Dolphins become the second team from the old AFL to reach the 300-win plateau. The Oakland Raiders were the first.

Oct. 27 – After the Dolphins built a 33-18 fourth-quarter lead, the Chicago Bears storm back for 18 unanswered points, including a Jeff Jaeger 35-yard field goal with 5:35 remaining in overtime, to come away with a 36-33 victory on a Monday night at Pro Player Stadium. It equaled the fourth-largest comeback win ever against Miami. The game originally was scheduled to be played on Sunday, October 26, but was pushed back due to Game 7 of the Marlins-Indians World Series.

Dec. 14 – The Dolphins are shut out, 41-0, by the Indianapolis Colts in the RCA Dome. The shutout snaps a streak of 162 consecutive games - the second longest active streak in the NFL at the time - in which the Dolphins had scored. The last time Miami had been held scoreless was on November 29, 1987, in a 27-0 loss at the Buffalo Bills.

Dec. 22 – In the season finale against New England at Pro Player Stadium, left tackle Richmond Webb starts his 110th consecutive regular season game, a new Dolphins record. His 109 straight starts were tied with Jim Langer. The Patriots win the game, 14-12, giving New England the AFC East title. A win by the Dolphins would have made them AFC East champions, but instead they enter the playoffs as a Wild Card team where they must go on the road to face the Patriots the following week, a 17-3 Dolphins loss on December 28.

Jan. 24 – Former Dolphins center Dwight Stephenson (1980-87) is among a group of five who are elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Feb. 11 – Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson announces changes to the team's coaching staff: Kippy Brown, the Dolphins' running backs coach for the last two years, is named as offensive coordinator, replacing Gary Stevens; Larry Seiple, formerly the club's wide receiver coach, handles the quarterbacks; Joel Collier, a defensive assistant since 1994, coaches the running backs; Robert Ford, tight ends coach with the Dallas Cowboys since 1991, takes over as Miami's wide receivers coach; and Randy Shannon, an assistant at the University of Miami (Fla.), serves as a defensive assistant on the staff.

March 23 – Jimmy Johnson signs a one-year contract extension to remain the Dolphins General Manager and Head Coach through the year 2000. Johnson originally signed a four-year contract with the club on January 21, 1996.

Aug. 1 – Center Dwight Stephenson becomes the seventh former Dolphin to be enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. He is inducted along with Anthony Muñoz, Mike Singletary, Tommy McDonald and Paul Krause.

Nov. 29 – In a 30-10 victory over the New Orleans Saints at Pro Player Stadium, quarterback Dan Marino throws three touchdown passes, all to O.J. McDuffie. The second one, a seven-yard strike in the fourth quarter, the 400th TD pass of Marino's career, the first quarterback in NFL history ever to reach that plateau.

Dec. 21 – The Dolphins record a 31-21 victory over the Denver Broncos at Pro Player Stadium in front of an ABC Monday Night Football audience. The win is Miami's 34th on Monday night, as they surpass Oakland as the winningest team in MNF history.

Dec. 27 – In a season-ending 38-16 loss to the Falcons in Atlanta, wide receiver O.J. McDuffie catches five passes for 82 yards. His second reception of the afternoon, a 28-yard catch in the second quarter, is his 87th of the season, surpassing Mark Clayton (86 in 1988) as the Dolphins' single-season reception leader. McDuffie finishes the year with an NFL-high 90 receptions, the first Dolphin ever to lead the league in this category.

Jan. 2 – The Dolphins defeat the Buffalo Bills, 24-17, in an AFC First-Round Playoff game at Pro Player Stadium. It represents Miami's first playoff win since December 31, 1994, when they posted a 27-17 victory over the Kansas City Chiefs in a First-Round contest at Pro Player Stadium.

Jan. 14 – Dave Wannstedt, head coach with the Chicago Bears from 1993-98, is named the Dolphins' assistant head coach.

Jan. 21 – Paul Boudreau is named offensive line coach.

March 2 – Eddie Jones signs a three-contract to remain as the team's President and Chief Operating Officer.

June 15 – Dan Marino signs a two-year contract extension through 2001.

Sept. 13 – The Dolphins defeat the two-time defending Super Bowl champion Denver Broncos, 38-21, in a season-opening Monday night game at Mile High Stadium. The win was the 300th during the regular season in Dolphins history.

Oct. 10 – The Dolphins set a franchise record by posting 25 fourth-quarter points, and in the process erase a pair of nine-point deficits to earn a 34-31 triumph over the Colts at the RCA Dome. Quarterback Dan Marino throws a pair of touchdowns in the final period, including a two-yard strike to Oronde Gadsden with 27 seconds to play, lifting Miami to victory. It marks the 35th time in Marino's career that he has led the Dolphins back from a fourth-quarter deficit for a win.

Oct. 17 – Dan Marino completes an eight-yard pass to Tony Martin in the first quarter against the New England Patriots at Foxboro Stadium. The completion, the first and only one of the game for Marino, puts him over the 60,000-yard passing plateau for his career, the only quarterback in NFL history to attain that mark. Marino leaves the game following the next series with a shoulder injury, forcing him to miss the next five contests. Damon Huard relieves Marino with the Dolphins trailing 7-0. After his first attempt in picked off and returned for a touchdown by Ty Law, Huard goes on to complete 24 of 42 passes for 240 yards with two touchdowns in leading the Dolphins to a 31-30 victory. The game-winning points occur on a five-yard TD pass to Stanley Pritchett with 23 seconds remaining in the game. The Dolphins become the first team in NFL history to win back-to-back road games when trailing by seven or more points after the third quarter.

Dec. 5 – Former wide receiver Nat Moore becomes the 12th member of the Dolphin Honor Roll during halftime ceremonies against the Indianapolis Colts at Pro Player Stadium.

Dec. 12 – Kicker Olindo Mare accounts for two field goals against the Jets at the Meadowlands. His first field goal of the game, a 24-yarder, was his 32nd of the season, breaking Pete Stoyanovich's club single-season records of 31, which Stoyanovich had set in 1991.

Dec. 21 – Cornerback Sam Madison, kicker Olindo Mare and linebacker Zach Thomas are named to the AFC Pro Bowl squad, the first selection for all three. Madison becomes the first cornerback in team history to be voted to the Pro Bowl squad.

Dec. 27 – Kicker Olindo Mare boots a 37-yard field goal against the Jets in a Monday night gam at Pro Player Stadium. The field goal was his 38th of the season, as he became the NFL's single-season field goal leader, surpassing John Kasay, who had amassed 37 field goals with Carolina in 1996. Mare would finish the season with 39 field goals.

Jan. 9 – The Dolphins defeat the Seattle Seahawks, 20-17, in an AFC First-Round Playoff game at the Kingdome, the final football game at the stadium. The win is Miami's first road playoff victory since they defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 1972 AFC Championship Game at Three Rivers Stadium. Quarterback Dan Marino completes 17 of 30 passes for 196 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions in the victory, in which he guides a late drive that leads to the game-winning touchdown with 4:48 remaining.

Jan. 15 – The Dolphins drop a 62-7 decision to the Jacksonville Jaguars in an AFC Divisional Playoff game at ALLTEL Stadium. The contest is the final one in the playing career of quarterback Dan Marino and coaching career of Jimmy Johnson.

Jan. 24 – Jim Bates is named defensive coordinator, replacing George Hill. Clarence Brooks is named defensive line coach, replacing Cary Godette.

Feb. 1 – Chan Gailey, the Head Coach with the Dallas Cowboys from 1998-99, is named offensive coordinator, replacing Kippy Brown. Randy Shannon, a defensive assistant with the Dolphins from 1998-99, is promoted to linebackers coach.

Feb. 7 – Mike Shula, the offensive coordinator with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 1996-99, re-joins the Dolphins as quarterbacks coach, replacing Larry Seiple. Shula previously had served as an assistant on Miami's coaching staff from 1991-92. Judd Garrett is named as an offensive assistant, and Robert Nunn is named as a defensive assistant.

Feb. 10 – Quarterback Dan Marino, the Dolphins' first-round draft choice in 1983 and the NFL's all-time leading passer, voids the final two years of his contract, thus becoming a free agent.

Mar. 13 – Dan Marino announces his retirement from professional football.

Apr. 14 – The Dolphins unveil Dan Marino's permanent encased locker at the team's Nova Southeastern University training facility, the first of its kind in club history.

May 3 – The Dolphins name Rick Spielman as Vice President-Player Personnel. Spielman had served as Director of Pro Personnel with the Chicago Bears since 1997.

June 12 – Huizenga Holdings, Inc., the private company that represents many of the non-publicly traded business interests of the Huizenga family, announces that it retained the investment banking firm of Morgan Stanley Dean Whitter to explore strategic alternatives regarding the financial structure of the Miami Dolphins and Pro Player Stadium. Alternatives include the potential of additional investors in the team and the stadium, as well as naming rights for the stadium.

Aug. 21 – The portion of N.W. 199 Street in front of Pro Player Stadium is re-named "Dan Marino Boulevard." The new address for the Dolphins' home becomes 2269 Dan Marino Boulevard.

Aug. 23 – More than 50,000 fans show up at Pro Player Stadium for the public tribute to Dan Marino. The night's festivities include appearances by the five other members of the famed quarterback "Class of '83" – John Elway, Jim Kelly, Todd Blackledge, Tony Eason and Ken O'Brien – as well as former Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula and former Steelers quarterback Terry Bradshaw. The band "Hootie and the Blowfish" provide the musical entertainment, while the four-hour event concludes with a gala fireworks display.

Sept. 3 – Jay Fiedler opens at quarterback in the Dolphins' season-opener against Seattle at Pro Player Stadium. Fiedler is the first quarterback to start on opening day for the Dolphins other than Dan Marino since 1983. Fiedler completes 15 of 24 passes for 134 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions in the Dolphins' 23-0 win, the third shutout victory on opening day in franchise history and the first since 1983.

Sept. 17 – The Dolphins defeat the eventual Super Bowl champion Baltimore Ravens, 19-6, in a game that was played through a steady rain at Pro Player Stadium. At halftime of the game, former quarterback Dan Marino has his jersey No. 13 retired, the second Dolphin ever to receive that honor. He also becomes the 13th member of the Dolphin Honor Roll.

Oct. 23 – On a Monday night at the Meadowlands, the Dolphins hold a commanding 30-7 fourth-quarter lead over the New York Jets. The Jets, however, post 30 of the 37 points scored in the fourth quarter to send the game into overtime, where John Hall ends the four hour, ten minute epic with a 40-yard field goal, 6:47 into the extra period. It is the largest comeback win ever against the Dolphins, while it also marks the longest game in the history of Monday Night Football.

Dec. 24 – The Dolphins earn a 27-24 victory over the Patriots on Christmas Eve at Foxboro Stadium to claim the 12th AFC East title in club history and the first since 1994. Thirty-five minutes following the apparent conclusion of the game, both teams are summoned back onto the field after it is determined that three seconds still remain with the Patriots having the ball at their own 40. Michael Bishop's final pass attempt of the game falls incomplete at about the Dolphins' 25.

Dec. 30 – The Dolphins erase a 14-0 third-quarter deficit by scoring 23 of the next 26 points en route to a 23-17 overtime win against the Colts in an AFC First-Round Playoff game at Pro Player Stadium. It marks the second-largest comeback win in Dolphins postseason annals. The winning points are scored on a 17-yard run by running back Lamar Smith with 3:34 to play in the first overtime. It caps a day in which Smith set an NFL playoff record with 40 rushing attempts. His 209 rushing yards is the second-highest figure in NFL playoff history and the most-ever by a Dolphin (regular season or postseason) at the time.

Jan. 6 – The Raiders defeat the Dolphins, 27-0, in a Divisional Playoff game in Oakland. It is the first time that Miami has been shutout in 38 postseason contests.

Jan. 15 – Keith Armstrong is named special teams coach and Tony Wise is hired as offensive line coach.

Jan. 27 – Former linebacker Nick Buoniconti, who anchored Miami's "No-Name" defense, leading the Dolphins to two straight Super Bowl victories, becomes the eighth former Dolphin to be elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, and the first defensive player.

Feb. 2 – Head Coach Dave Wannstedt signs a one-year contract extension through the 2003 season.

Mar. 1 – Bob Sanders is named linebackers coach, replacing Randy Shannon, who became the defensive coordinator at the University of Miami.

May 9 – Vice President of Player Personnel Rick Spielman signs a one-year contract extension through the 2003 season. In addition, Ron Labadie is promoted to Director of College Scouting, after serving as the Dolphins' midwest scout since 1990. Tom Braatz, the team's Director of College Scouting since 1992, is named as a scout, and John Crea is named as the Dolphins' midwest area scout.

June 4 – George Paton is named Director of Pro Personnel, replacing Tom Heckert, Jr., who was named Director of Player Personnel with the Philadelphia Eagles.

Aug. 4 – Former linebacker Nick Buoniconti is inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, the eighth Dolphin and first defensive player to earn that honor.

Sept. 13 – In the wake of the September 11 terrorist attacks, the NFL announces that it will cancel games for the weekend of September 16-17. The Dolphins game against the Buffalo Bills at Pro Player Stadium is re-scheduled for Sunday, January 6.

Dec. 10 – The Dolphins earn a resounding 41-6 victory over the Indianapolis Colts on a Monday night at Pro Player Stadium, the last game that these two teams would play as AFC East opponents, prior to realignment in 2002. For the Dolphins, it is their 36th victory on Monday Night Football, as they surpass San Francisco as the winningest team in MNF history.

Dec. 16 – The Dolphins are handed a 21-0 shutout by the San Francisco 49ers at 3Com Park. Coupled with their 24-0 loss to the Jets at Pro Player Stadium on November 18, it marks just the third time in franchise history and the first time since 1970 that the Dolphins suffer two shutout losses in the same season.

Dec. 22 – Playing their third game in 13 days, the Dolphins drop a 20-13 decision to the New England Patriots in the last regular season game ever played at Foxboro Stadium.

Dec. 30 – With a 21-14 win over Atlanta at Pro Player Stadium, the Dolphins clinch their fifth playoff appearance in a row, as they become the only NFL team to reach the postseason in each of these five years, a span ranging from 1997-01.

Jan. 6 – In a game that was originally scheduled to be played on September 16, but cancelled because of terrorist attacks, the Dolphins clinch a home First-Round Playoff game with a 34-7 season ending win over Buffalo, just the fourth time in team history that the Dolphins have played a regular season game in the month of January. On the game's final play, Brock Marion picks off a Travis Brown pass and races 100 yards for a touchdown, as the Dolphins establish a club single-season record for interception returns for touchdowns (five) and defensive touchdowns (six).

Jan. 28 – Bryan Wiedmeier is promoted to Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer and Rick Spielman is promoted to Senior Vice President – Football Operations/Player Personnel.

Feb. 5 – The Dolphins name Norv Turner as their Assistant Head Coach/Offensive Coordinator, taking over from Chan Gailey, who had been named Head Coach at Georgia Tech. In addition to serving as Head Coach with the Washington Redskins from 1994-00, Turner also was the offensive coordinator with both Dallas (1991-93) and San Diego (2001).

Feb. 13 – Head Coach Dave Wannstedt signs a one-year contract extension through the 2004 season.

March 14 – The Dolphins and WQAM Radio sign a new two-year contract for the station to continue to serve as the team's flagship through 2003.

June 5 – At the team's annual Kickoff Banquet, President Eddie Jones announces that former running back Larry Csonka will have his uniform jersey No. 39 retired during halftime ceremonies of the Dolphins' December 9 game against Chicago at Pro Player Stadium. Csonka will become the third player to receive this honor, joining QB Bob Griese (No. 12 on May 6, 1982) and QB Dan Marino (No. 13 on September 17, 2000).

Sept. 8 – The Dolphins record their 11th consecutive opening day victory with a 49-21 decision over the Detroit Lions at Pro Player Stadium. Making his Dolphins debut, RB Ricky Williams rushes for 111 yards and two touchdowns on 20 carries, the fifth-highest rushing total by a player in his initial appearance as a Dolphin.

Sept. 22 – The Dolphins snap an eight-game losing streak to the Jets with a convincing 30-3 win at Pro Player Stadium. The victory also marks the Dolphins' 17th straight at home during the regular season in the months of August/September. Ricky Williams rushes for 151 yards and a touchdown on 24 attempts, becoming the first player in team history to amass three straight 100-yard rushing games. Coupled with his 132-yard effort the previous week at Indianapolis, his two-game rushing total of 283 yards sets a new Dolphins record, surpassing the old mark of 273, which had been held by Bernie Parmalee since 1994. Williams will go on to break this two-game record three subsequent times during the course of the season.

Oct. 13 – In their first of four prime-time appearances of the year, the Dolphins register a 24-22 win over the Denver Broncos in their first-ever visit to INVESCO Field at Mile High. Jason Elam's 55-yard field goal with 45 seconds to play gives Denver a 22-21 lead. Olindo Mare counters with a 53-yarder with six seconds remaining to lift the Dolphins to the victory. It marks the first time in NFL history that a kicker from each team has accounted for a field goal of 50 yards or longer with less than a minute to play in a game.

Nov. 24 – Ricky Williams establishes a new club single-season standard with his sixth 100-yard rushing game of the season with a 143-yard, two-touchdown effort in a 30-3 victory over San Diego at Pro Player Stadium. He breaks the old mark of five, which was first set by Delvin Williams in 1978.

Dec. 1 – Ricky Williams further etches his name into the Dolphins' record book when he rushes for 228 yards and two touchdowns on 27 carries in a 38-21 loss to the Bills in Buffalo. This single-game total surpasses the previous record of 209 yards, set by Lamar Smith in a 2000 First-Round Playoff victory over Indianapolis. In the process, Williams also surpasses Delvin Williams' club single-season record of 1,258 yards, achieved in 1978. In addition, with Williams overtaking the 1,200-yard rushing mark, the conditional third-round draft choice in 2003 that the Dolphins sent to the Saints in the trade for Williams on March 8, now becomes a second-round pick.

Dec. 9 – In a 27-9 victory over the Chicago Bears in a Monday night game at Pro Player Stadium, Ricky Williams becomes just the third player (fourth time) in NFL history to amass back-to-back 200-yard rushing games, as he runs for 216 yards and two touchdowns on 31 carries. He joins Hall of Famers O.J. Simpson (1973, 1976) and Earl Campbell (1980) as the only players to achieve this feat. His two-game rushing total of 444 yards is the fourth-most in NFL annals, while his 587 yards over the three-game span is third-most in league history. In the process, he breaks his own club record with his fourth consecutive 100-yard rushing performance. It also represents his fourth straight game with a pair of rushing scores. His total for the game gives him 1,500 yards for the season, as the second-round draft choice that the Saints get from the Dolphins as part of the trade now becomes a first-rounder in '03. At halftime of the game, former FB Larry Csonka has his jersey No. 39 retired, just the third Dolphin ever to receive that honor, joining quarterbacks Bob Griese (No. 12) and Dan Marino (No. 13).

Dec. 21 – Jason Taylor is credited with 1.5 sacks as he ties Bill Stanfill's club single-season record for sacks with 18.5, during the game against the Vikings at the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome. Taylor also extends his streak of consecutive games with a sack to eight. That streak will come to an end in the season finale the following week as he is shut out by the Patriots. Taylor's sack total leads the NFL in 2002, as he becomes the first Dolphin ever to achieve that feat.

Dec. 29 – Ricky Williams rushes for 185 yards and two touchdowns on 31 attempts against the Patriots in Miami's first-ever visit to Gillette Stadium. His second score of the game occurs on a 14-yard run in the second quarter, his 16th rushing score of the season and establishes a new Dolphins single-season record for rushing touchdowns, surpassing the previous mark of 15 set by Karim Abdul-Jabbar in 1997. Williams also finishes the year as the team's single-season leader for rushing yards (1,853), attempts (383), 100-yard rushing games (10) and total yards from scrimmage (2,216). His rushing yardage total also leads the NFL in 2002, as he becomes the first Dolphin ever to earn that distinction.

Feb. 2 – Ricky Williams rushes for 56 yards and two touchdowns on 11 attempts, catches three passes for 18 yards while also forcing a fumble on special teams in the AFC's 45-20 victory over the NFC in the Pro Bowl in Honolulu. For his efforts, Williams is named the game's MVP, just the second Dolphin ever to win that honor, joining kicker Garo Yepremian who came away with the award in the 1974 game.

Feb. 13 – The Dolphins name Glenn Pires as assistant defensive line coach, replacing Robert Nunn, who left to become defensive line coach with the Washington Redskins. Pires had spent the previous two seasons as linebackers coach with the Detroit Lions.

May 2 – Tom Braatz, a veteran of 38 seasons as an NFL front office executive, announces his retirement. Braatz had joined the Dolphins in 1992 as Director of College Scouting and spent his final two years with the club as a college scout. Chris Grier, the team's southeast college scout the past three years, is promoted to national scout.

May 4 – Former Dolphin David Woodley (1980-83), an eighth-round draft choice in 1980 who started at quarterback for the Dolphins in Super Bowl XVII against Washington, passes away in his hometown of Shreveport, La.

May 9 – Quarterbacks Coach Mike Shula, who played quarterback at the University of Alabama from 1983-86, is introduced as the school's head coach.

Oct. 27 – The Dolphins record a 26-10 victory over the San Diego Chargers in a Monday night game at Sun Devil Stadium in Tempe, Arizona. The game originally was scheduled to be played at Qualcomm Stadium in San Diego, but is moved because of wildfires that devastate Southern California. After arriving in San Diego Sunday evening, the Dolphins board a flight to Phoenix the morning of the game, at approximately 11:00 a.m. (PT).

Nov. 23 – In a Sunday night game against Washington at Pro Player Stadium, the Dolphins don orange jerseys in a 24-23 win over the Redskins. It is the first time in franchise history that the Dolphins have worn a jersey color other than white or aqua.

Nov. 27 – The Dolphins improve their Thanksgiving Day record to 4-1 with a 40-21 victory over the Dallas Cowboys at Texas Stadium. The Dolphins wear their "throwback" jerseys, commemorating the 30th anniversary of the 1973 team that captured the club's second straight Super Bowl title.

Dec. 15 – At halftime ceremonies against the Philadelphia Eagles at Pro Player Stadium, former wide receivers Mark Duper and Mark Clayton become the 14th and 15th members of the Dolphin Honor Roll.

Dec. 21 – In a 20-3 win over the Buffalo Bills at Ralph Wilson Stadium, DE Jason Taylor registers three sacks, and in the process becomes the Dolphins' all-time sack leader, surpassing Bill Stanfill, whose mark of 67.5 had stood since 1976.

Dec. 29 – Owner H. Wayne Huizenga announces that the Dolphins will restructure their football operations for the 2004 season, including the search for a General Manager who will be responsible for all personnel matters on both the professional and college levels, as well as the makeup of the Dolphins roster. Head Coach Dave Wannstedt is given a two-year contract extension through the 2006 season.

Jan. 12 – Rick Spielman is promoted to General Manager from Senior Vice President-Football Operations/Player Personnel, a position in which he had served since 2002. He first joined the club as Vice President-Player Personnel since 2000. In addition, Dan Marino is named Senior Vice President/Football Operations.

Jan. 26 – Joel Collier is promoted to offensive coordinator from running backs coach. He takes over the spot which became vacant when Norv Turner was named Head Coach with he Oakland Raiders. Marc Trestman, who had been with the Raiders each of the previous three seasons, including the last two as offensive coordinator, is named assistant head coach/quarterbacks. Miami native Jerry Sullivan is appointed wide receivers coach after spending each of the previous three seasons with the Arizona Cardinals, including 2003 as the team's offensive coordinator.

Feb. 2 – Bernie Parmalee is promoted to running backs coach from assistant special teams/offensive assistant, while Chris Foerster is named tight ends coach after handling that same position with the Indianapolis Colts each of the previous two seasons.

Feb. 3 – Dan Marino resigns as Senior Vice President/Football Operations, saying, "I knew it would involve a significant lifestyle change but after further reflection, it became clear that those adjustments were ones that my family and I are not prepared to make at this time. As a result, I have decided that it would not be in the best interests of either my family or the Miami Dolphins to assume the role as the team's Senior Vice President of Football Operations."

May 10 – Head Coach Dave Wannstedt announces several adjustments to the coaching staff for the 2004 season. Chris Foerster, who was hired earlier in the offseason to coach the team's tight ends, was named offensive coordinator. Joel Collier will return to coaching the running backs, a position that he had held since 1998. Bernie Parmalee, who had been named running backs coach in the offseason following two years as an offensive assistant, will tutor the Dolphins' tight ends. These changes were necessitated because of health-related reasons on the part of Collier.

July 25 – Running back Ricky Williams informs the Miami Herald of his intention of retiring from professional football.

July 30 – On the day the Dolphins report for the 39th training camp in franchise history, the club places Ricky Williams on its Reserve/Did Not Report list.

Sept. 9 – Because of the threat of Hurricane Ivan, the Dolphins regular season opener against Tennessee is moved up one day, from September 12 to September 11, at Pro Player Stadium.

Sept. 26 – Kickoff for the Dolphins-Steelers game at Pro Player Stadium is moved from 1:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m., one day after South Florida feels the effects of Hurricane Jeanne.

Oct. 10 – Kicker Olindo Mare aggravates a calf injury during pre-game warm-ups prior to a game against New England at Gillette Stadium. It thrusts return man Wes Welker into kicking duties. Not only did Welker perform his usual punt and kickoff return chores, but he also converted both a 29-yard field goal attempt and a PAT, and kicked off as well, becoming the first player in NFL history to do all five in the same game. Although the Dolphins lost, 24-10, Welker was named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week.

Nov. 9 – Dave Wannstedt steps aside as head coach. Defensive coordinator Jim Bates takes over on an interim basis.

Nov. 21 – In Jim Bates' first game as head coach, the Dolphins suffer a 24-17 loss at Seattle, dropping their record to 1-9, clinching the franchise's first losing season since 1988.

Nov. 28 – After spending the entire week in San Francisco preparing for their game against the 49ers, the Dolphins give Jim Bates his first win as an NFL head coach by virtue of their 24-17 victory at Monster Park.

Dec. 25 – While in Orlando, Fla., preparing for his team's Capital One Bowl game against Iowa, LSU Head Coach Nick Saban announces that he will accept an offer to become the sixth head coach in Dolphins history.

Dec. 27 – Nick Saban signs a five-year contract to become head coach of the Dolphins.

Jan. 10 – Owner H. Wayne Huizenga announces major organizational and stadium changes through the creation of an innovative sports and entertainment company, Dolphins Enterprises, LLC. This company now will serve as an umbrella for all of the Huizenga sports and entertainment entities. In addition, Pro Player Stadium is re-named Dolphins Stadium. Improvements to the stadium include a remodeled club level and luxury suites, improved traffic flow, additional parking and state-of-art scoreboards.

Jan. 10 – Derek Dooley, Will Muschamp and Bobby Williams, all of whom were on Nick Saban's staff at LSU in 2004, are named as assistants on the Dolphins' staff. Scott O'Brien, the special teams coach with Carolina the past six seasons, is named Coordinator of Football Operations. Jim Bates informs Nick Saban that he will not be returning to the Dolphins' coaching staff in 2005.

Jan. 13 – Former Dallas Cowboys and NFL executive Joe Bailey is named Chief Executive Officer of Dolphins Enterprises, LLC.

Jan. 19 – Former Minnesota Vikings offensive coordinator Scott Linehan is named to the same post with the Dolphins. George Edwards, Travis Jones and Dan Quinn all are named assistants on the defensive side of the ball.

Jan. 25 – Charlie Baggett is named wide receivers coach and Hudson Houck is named offensive line coach. Baggett had held the same position with the Minnesota Vikings for the previous five seasons, while Houck had tutored the offensive line of the San Diego Chargers since 2002.

Feb. 2 – Jason Garrett, who concluded his 12-year career as a player by spending the final six games of 2004 with the Dolphins, is named the team's quarterbacks coach.

Feb. 5 – In his first year of eligibility, former quarterback Dan Marino is one of four elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, becoming the ninth former Dolphin to earn this honor.

Feb. 14 – Tim Davis is named assistant offensive line coach and Bert Hill is named associate strength coach.

March 1 – Richard Smith is named defensive coordinator. Smith had been the assistant head coach/linebackers with the Detroit Lions for the past two seasons. In addition, Dolphins Head Coach Nick Saban announces the assignments of several coaches who had previously been hired to the staff; Derek Dooley-tight ends, George Edwards-linebackers, Travis Jones-assistant defensive line, Will Muschamp-assistant head coach/defense, Dan Quinn-defensive line, Bobby Williams-running backs. Among his responsibilities, Muschamp will work with the team's safeties and the nickel package.

March 15 – The Dolphins enter into a multi-year partnership with 790 The Ticket, in which the station will serve as the team's flagship through at least the 2006 season.

June 3 – General Manager Rick Spielman announces that he is leaving the organization.

June 6 – The Dolphins announce the hiring of Randy Mueller as general manager.

June 8 – The Dolphins waive/fail physical DT Tim Bowens, the team's first-round draft choice in 1994, paving the way for him to retire as a Dolphin. Bowens had been the last tie to the Don Shula-era. At the team's annual Awards Banquet, it is announced that the Leadership Award is renamed the "Don Shula Leadership Award." In addition, former team President Eddie Jones is named the first winner of the new "Winning Edge Award."

June 9 – Former tackle Richmond Webb signs a one-day contract with the team, allowing him to retire as a Dolphin.

July 14 – Former wide receiver Nat Moore is added to the Dolphins radio broadcast team on 790 The Ticket as the sideline reporter. He joins fellow former Dolphins Jimmy Cefalo (play-by-play) and Joe Rose (analyst), as the Dolphins become the only NFL team to have three alumni on their game broadcasts.

Aug. 7 – QB Dan Marino becomes the ninth former Dolphin and eighth player to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Game in Canton. More than 20,000 – most of whom are Marino fans – pack Fawcett Stadium. Dolphins owner H. Wayne Huizenga flies team employees and their families to Canton for the ceremonies.

Oct. 6 – Dolphins Stadium is awarded Super Bowl XLIV following the 2009 season, the second time in a matter of four years and the 10th time overall that the Super Bowl will have been staged in South Florida.

Oct. 7 – The Dolphins announce that the busts of their nine Hall of Famers will be on display at Dolphins Stadium from October 22-29 as part of the newly created "Gallery of Legends."

Oct. 20 – The impending arrival of Hurricane Wilma forces the Dolphins to move their Sunday, October 23 home against the Kansas City Chiefs up two days to Friday, October 21 at 7:00 p.m. It is the third time in two years that the Dolphins have had either the date or time of a home game altered because of a hurricane. The opening of the "Gallery of Legends," slated for October 22, also is postponed.

Nov. 2 – The "Gallery of Legends" makes its public debut at Dolphins Stadium.

Nov. 6 – At halftime of the Dolphins' game against the Atlanta Falcons at Dolphins Stadium, Dan Marino is presented with his Hall of Fame ring, an event that originally was scheduled to take place at the October 23 game against Kansas City, but postponed because of Hurricane Wilma.

Dec. 4 – Trailing the Buffalo Bills 21-0 in the second quarter, the Dolphins go on to score 24 of the game's next 26 points, including 21 in the fourth quarter, as they register the second-largest comeback win in team history, 24-23. Chris Chambers highlights the victory as he sets Dolphins single-game records for both receptions (15) and receiving yards (238).

Dec. 11 – The Dolphins earn a 23-21 victory over the San Diego Chargers at Qualcomm Stadium. It marks Miami's second win on the West Coast in a matter of three weeks, as they recorded a 33-21 victory over the Raiders in Oakland on November 27. It is the first time in team history that they have won two road games in the Pacific Time Zone in the same season.

Dec. 21 – WR Chris Chambers, DE Jason Taylor and LB Zach Thomas are named to the AFC Pro Bowl squad. For Thomas, it is the sixth selection of his career, the most of any defender in Dolphins history.

Sept. 22 – Quarterback Ryan Tannehill caps a 75-yard scoring drive with a 1-yard touchdown pass to rookie tight end Dion Sims with 38 seconds left in the game to give the Dolphins a 27-23 comeback win against the Atlanta Falcons. The win against Atlanta has the Dolphins sitting at 3-0 for the first time since 2002.

Oct. 24 – The NFL announces the Dolphins will play the Oakland Raiders at London's Wembley Stadium as a part of the International Series in 2014. The game, which will take place on Sept. 28, will be the second regular season visit by the Dolphins to the United Kingdom since the International Series began in 2007 and the third regular season game played outside the United States in the franchise's 48-year history. The first came on Oct. 28, 2007 when Miami hosted the New York Giants in the inaugural International Series game in front of 81,176 fans at Wembley Stadium. The matchup of the two storied franchises was the first-ever regular season NFL game played in the United Kingdom. In addition to the first-ever International Series game in London in 2007 against the Giants, the Dolphins also participated in the Bills' Toronto Series as they faced the Buffalo Bills on Dec. 7, 2008 in Toronto, Canada.

Oct. 31 – Defensive end Cameron Wake sacks Cincinnati quarterback Andy Dalton in the end zone for a safety to give the Dolphins a 22-20 overtime win on Halloween. This game marks only the third time in league history that a game in overtime ends on a safety. The other two times occurred when the Minnesota Vikings defeated the St. Louis Rams 23-21 (11/5/89) and when the Chicago Bears defeated the Tennessee Titans 19-17 (11/14/04). At halftime, former Dolphins linebacker and five-time Pro Bowl selection John Offerdahl becomes the 26th member of the Dolphins Honor Roll.

Dec. 15 – Signed off the San Francisco 49ers practice squad just five days prior to the game, safety Michael Thomas seals the Dolphins' first victory against the Patriots since Dec. 6, 2009 when he intercepts New England quarterback Tom Brady in the end zone with 2 seconds remaining to preserve the 24-20 victory at Sun Life Stadium. For his efforts, Thomas will be named AFC Defensive Player of the Week.

Jan. 15 – Head Coach Joe Philbin names Bill Lazor as offensive coordinator. Lazor joins the Dolphins after serving as quarterbacks coach of the Philadelphia Eagles in 2013. Sept. 7 – The Dolphins outscore the New England Patriots 23-0 in the second half to pace a 33-20 win at Sun Life Stadium. The last time Miami blanked New England in the second half occurred on Dec. 23, 2007 at New England. Additionally, the last time Miami scored 30-or-more points in a season opener was in a 34-10 victory at home against Denver on September 11, 2005.

Sept. 21 – Prior to kickoff of the Dolphins and Chiefs game at Sun Life Stadium, former defensive end Jeff Cross, cornerback Sam Madison, running back Tony Nathan and guard Ed Newman become the fourth class of Dolphins greats to be inducted into the team's Walk of Fame.

Sept. 28 – The Dolphins make their second regular season trip to London's Wembley Stadium a successful one with a 38-14 triumph against the Oakland Raiders. The final score represents Miami's most lopsided victory since Nov. 20, 2011 when they beat the Buffalo Bills 35-8.

Oct. 26 – Safety Louis Delmas (81 yards) and cornerback Brent Grimes (22 yards) return interceptions for touchdowns to lead Miami to a 27-13 victory against the Jacksonville Jaguars at EverBank Field. This marks the fifth time in franchise history the Dolphins had two interception returns for touchdowns in the same game, and the first time since 1998 when they did it against the Oakland Raiders. It also happened in 1983 against the New York Jets, in 1982 also against the Jets, and in 1973 against the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Nov. 2 – The Dolphins earn a 37-0 win against the San Diego Chargers at Sun Life Stadium. It is the Dolphins' first shutout victory since Dec. 10, 2006 when they beat the New England Patriots 21-0 in Miami. It also is the Dolphins' most lopsided shutout victory since 1987 when they beat the Kansas City Chiefs 42-0 in a strike replacement game. Additionally, it is the widest margin of victory for a shutout in the NFL since the Carolina Panthers defeated the New York Giants 38-0 on Sept. 22, 2013.

Nov. 13 – The Dolphins wear their all aqua uniform combination (aqua pants and jerseys) for the fourth time in franchise history for the team's 22-9 prime-time win against the Buffalo Bills. Miami improves to 3-1 when wearing all aqua. The previous times the Dolphins went with all aqua uniforms were Monday night, Dec. 9, 2002 against the Chicago Bears (27-9 win), Monday night, Dec. 15, 2003 against the Philadelphia Eagles (34-27 loss) and Sunday night, December 26, 2004 against the Cleveland Browns (10-7 win).

Dec. 5 – The Dolphins hire Mary Ellen Bingham as team nutritionist as part of the organization's efforts to improve player performance and health.

Dec. 21 – Rookie defensive end Terrence Fede blocks a punt through the end zone for a safety with 41 seconds left to give the Dolphins a 37-35 victory against the Minnesota Vikings at Sun Life Stadium. Miami becomes the first team in NFL history to produce a go-ahead safety in final minute of a fourth quarter. It is a team-record third blocked punt of the season and the fifth blocked kick for the Dolphins on the season, the most since the team blocked seven in 1977. At halftime, former Dolphins defensive tackle Manny Fernandez became the 27th inductee to the team's Honor Roll. In the post game locker room, Dolphins Chairman of the Board and Managing General Partner Stephen Ross announces that Head Coach Joe Philbin will return as coach of the team in 2015.

Miller records a 97-yard touchdown run in the third quarter of the game, setting the franchise record for longest run as well as the third-longest run in NFL history, behind a 98-yard run by Ahmad Green in 2003 and Tony Dorsett's 99-yard run for the Dallas Cowboys in 1982.

Jan. 6 – Miami Dolphins Owner and Managing General Partner Stephen Ross names long-time NFL executive Mike Tannenbaum as executive vice president of football operations, effective Feb. 1. In his role, Tannenbaum will handle football administration. Tannenbaum had served as a consultant to the team since Aug. 8, 2014.

Jan. 10 – Guard Mike Pouncey is added to the 2015 NFL Pro Bowl squad, replacing San Francisco 49ers guard Mike Iupati, who is unable to participate due to injury. Pouncey joins teammates cornerback Brent Grimes and defensive end Cameron Wake in the game, all three of which make a return trip after being tabbed to the previous year's Pro Bowl. The last time the Dolphins sent the same three players to the Pro Bowl in consecutive seasons was 2003-04 when safety Brock Marion, cornerback Patrick Surtain and linebacker Zach Thomas went in back-to-back years. Pouncey is selected as a guard in 2015 after making the roster the previous year at center. He is the first offensive player and one of only three Dolphins to earn Pro Bowl recognition at different positions, joining teammates Randy Starks (defensive end in 2011 and defensive tackle in 2013) and Wake (linebacker in 2011 and defensive end from 2013-15).

Jan. 13 – Dolphins President and CEO Tom Garfinkel names Todd Kline, formerly of the Anschutz Entertainment Group (AEG), to the newly created position of Senior Vice President and Chief Commercial Officer. In addition, Garfinkel announces Jeremy Walls and Jason Jenkins were promoted to Senior Vice President and Chief Marketing Officer and Senior Vice President of Communications and Community Affairs, respectively.

Feb. 6 – Dolphins Head Coach Joe Philbin announces Terrell Williams as the team's defensive line coach. Williams comes to the Dolphins with 17 years of coaching experience, including three seasons as the defensive line coach for the Oakland Raiders and 14 years in the college ranks, all coaching the defensive line.

Feb. 28 – Dolphins Executive Vice President of Football Operations Mike Tannenbaum announces Wayne Diesel as the team's sports performance director and Dennis Lock promoted to director of analytics after serving as head analyst. In his role, Diesel will oversee all of the team's sports science initiatives and will work closely with the training and strength and conditioning departments. His focus will include player injury prevention and rehabilitation in an effort to reach optimal performance.

April 28 – Dolphins President/CEO Tom Garfinkel announces at a press conference at Miami Norland Senior High School that the team will donate $1 million each of the next four years to City Year Miami, a nonprofit organization that mentors at-risk students in public schools, for its programs at Norland and Carol City High. The donation will come from the Miami Dolphins Foundation's educational pillar through funds raised during Fins Weekend.

May 9 – The Dolphins announce elements for the team's 50th season celebration, including a throwback jersey, commemorative book, voting for the top 50 players and greatest game in Dolphins history as well as themes that will surround each home game at Sun Life Stadium. The organization for the occasion has unveiled a customized 50th season logo. This logo will be displayed on all associated merchandise, campaigns, content on social platforms, video and all media as well as a patch on all player jerseys throughout the 2015 football season. Additionally, the Dolphins unveil the "Since" campaign, chronicling all five decades of the franchise from the fans' perspective and capturing the moments when the Dolphins became part of the fabric of their fandom.

June 17 – The Miami Dolphins name Myles Pistorius senior vice president, general counsel. He will report directly to president and chief executive officer Tom Garfinkel and will be responsible for all legal affairs of the Miami Dolphins and Sun Life Stadium. Pistorius joins the Dolphins after fifteen years at the National Basketball Association where he served as senior vice president of content and business affairs and was responsible for the business affairs and strategic planning of NBA events and experiences on a global basis, including the NBA All-Star Game, NBA Draft and NBA Global Games. Pistorius also spent time as senior vice president, legal and business affairs at the NBA, serving for 13 years as legal and business affairs counsel for the NBA's events, marketing, production, broadcasting, content distribution and communications groups.

RAIDERS 21, DOLPHINS 14 Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
December 27, 1970 Oakland, CA

Oakland quarterback Daryle Lamonica unloaded an 82-yard touchdown pass to Rod Sherman with 9:34 left to play as Oakland spoiled the Dolphins' first appearance in the playoffs, 21-14, on a field oozing with mud. The Dolphins, who had won six consecutive games to finish the season 10-4 and gain a wild-card berth, took a 7-0 lead in the second quarter when Bob Griese fired a 16-yard strike to Paul Warfield in the end zone. Lamonica matched that TD with a 22-yard toss to Fred Biletnikoff only 1:50 before halftime. Raiders right cornerback Willie Brown intercepted a wet and wobbly pass by Griese and fled 50 yards along the sideline for the tie-breaking TD. It came minutes after Jake Scott recovered an Oakland fumble at the Miami 10-yard line. The heave to Sherman was insurance. Only three plays earlier, Dolphins kicker Garo Yepremian missed a 24-yard field goal attempt for the second time in the game. Oakland's George Blanda also missed a 23-yarder.

1971 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 27, CHIEFS 24 (2 OTs) Kansas City Municipal Stadium
December 25, 1971 Kansas City, MO

Garo Yepremian ended 82 minutes and 40 seconds of an epic struggle by booting a 37-yard field goal with 7:40 elapsed in the second overtime, lifting the Dolphins past Kansas City, 27-24, on Christmas Day. The Dolphins battled from behind three times to tie the AFC West champions, the third time on Bob Griese's five-yard pass to tight end Marv Fleming with 96 seconds remaining in regulation. Kansas City running back Ed Podolak, who amassed 350 yards of all-purpose running, returned the ensuing kickoff 78 yards to the Dolphin 22 where Curtis Johnson missed a desperation tackle. With 35 seconds on the clock, Jan Stenerud missed a 32-yard field-goal try. Stenerud had a 42-yarder blocked by Nick Buoniconti in the fifth quarter, and Yepremian was short with a 45-yard effort. But Larry Csonka crashed 29 yards to the Chiefs 36, and that put Yepremian, the NFL's scoring leader, in position to win it. Goal posts were on the goal line; in 1974 the uprights were moved to the end line.

1971 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 21, COLTS 0 Orange Bowl
January 2, 1972 Miami, FL

Three lightning plays and a persistent defense propelled the Dolphins into Super Bowl VI with a 21-0 rout of Baltimore before an all-time Orange Bowl record crowd of 78,939. Strong safety Dick Anderson intercepted a Johnny Unitas pass which was deflected by Curtis Johnson, and behind a wall of six open-field blocks, Anderson weaved 62 yards for a third-quarter touchdown. "My eyes were popping as I ran," Anderson said. "I've never seen so many people land on their heads." Before Anderson's convoy made it 14-0, the Dolphins staggered the defending Super Bowl champions when Bob Griese and Paul Warfield hooked up for a 75-yard TD pass. Warfield applied the clincher when he escaped 50 yards with a Griese pass, setting up a five-yard TD slam by fullback Larry Csonka. The Colts had not been held scoreless for 97 games over seven seasons. They were stopped at the Dolphins' 9 in the second quarter. Jim O'Brien missed two field-goal attempts and had another blocked by Lloyd Mumphord.

SUPER BOWL VI

January 16, 1972 — New Orleans, LA

A 252-yard rushing attack and sharp passing by Roger Staubach spurred the Dallas Cowboys to a 24-3 victory over the Dolphins at Tulane Stadium. Duane Thomas pranced 95 yards on 19 carries, fullback Walt Garrison added 74 yards on 14 carries and Staubach passed twice for touchdowns to Lance Alworth and Mike Ditka. Staubach, who was sacked twice in the first quarter, bounced back to complete 12 of 19 passes, and he scrambled from the Dolphin pass rush five times. The Dolphins were frustrated all day; in the first quarter, Larry Csonka lost a fumble and Bob Griese was chased by tackle Bob Lilly for a 29-yard loss. Griese also fumbled away a snap at the Dallas 16 in the fourth period. Although it was an intriguing 10-3 at halftime, the Cowboys marched 71 yards in eight plays after the kickoff, and Thomas swept three yards for the TD.

1972 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 20, BROWNS 14 — Orange Bowl
December 24, 1972 — Miami, FL

On the ropes in the fourth quarter after an unprecedented 14 victories, the Dolphins responded to a poised Earl Morrall and drove 80 yards for a touchdown with 4:56 to play for a 20-14 victory over the Cleveland Browns. Morrall, the NFL's leading passer after replacing the injured Bob Griese 10 weeks earlier, had completed only four passes for 38 yards. But he threw 15 and 35 yards to Paul Warfield, reaching the Browns 20, and a pass interference call against linebacker Billy Andrews put the ball at the eight. Halfback Jim Kiick then bulled eight yards up the middle on a trap for the winning points. The triumph was sealed with a minute to play when Dolphins linebacker Doug Swift intercepted Cleveland QB Mike Phipps at the Dolphin 20. Despite stealing five of Phipps' passes, the Dolphins were stung by a 27-yard TD pass to Fair Hooker and trailed 14-13 with 8:11 to play.

1972 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 21, STEELERS 17 — Three Rivers Stadium
December 31, 1972 — Pittsburgh, PA

Quarterback Bob Griese, playing 11 weeks after he had broken his right leg, ignited a third-quarter touchdown drive with a 52-yard pass to Paul Warfield, and the Dolphins overtook the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-17, in unusually warm 63-degree weather. Griese was given the nod in the second half after Earl Morrall had flipped a nine-yard touchdown pass to Larry Csonka for a 7-7 halftime deadlock.

Punter Larry Seiple broke loose on a daring 37-yard run on fourth down to set up that TD. Trailing 10-7, Griese directed TD drives of 80 and 49 yards with Jim Kiick blasting two and three yards for the scores. Steeler quarterback Terry Bradshaw, who closed the gap with four straight completions on a 71-yard TD drive, was intercepted by Nick Buoniconti at midfield with 2½ minutes to play. In addition to Seiple's dash, the Dolphins converted fourth-down situations on both Griese-led drives.

SUPER BOWL VII

January 14, 1973 Los Angeles, CA

"This is the ultimate," Coach Don Shula said quietly after his unbeaten Dolphins dominated the Washington Redskins, 14-7, to cap a perfect season. It was Shula's first Super Bowl triumph in three tries. A record Super Bowl paid crowd of 90,182 saw the Dolphins surge to a 14-0 halftime lead even as one touchdown was nullified by an offside penalty. Miami intercepted three of Bill Kilmer's passes, and Manny Fernandez scuttled the Redskin running game with 17 tackles. An original Dolphin, Howard Twilley, eluded cornerback Pat Fischer to snare a 28-yard touchdown pass from Bob Griese in the first quarter. Griese's 57-yard TD bomb to Paul Warfield was erased by the penalty, but a 32-yard interception return by linebacker Nick Buoniconti set up the Dolphins' second score. Safety Jake Scott thwarted Kilmer with an end zone interception and 55-yard runback. The Redskins finally scored on a bizarre 49-yard fumble recovery by Mike Bass after a blocked field goal and attempted pass by kicker Garo Yepremian. Scott was named MVP.

DOLPHINS 34, BENGALS 16 — Orange Bowl
December 23, 1973 — Miami, FL

A defense which had allowed only 15 touchdowns all season kept the Cincinnati Bengals out of the end zone while the Dolphins hammered 241 yards on the ground for a convincing 34-16 victory. Mercury Morris scooted 106 yards on 20 carries and Bob Griese completed 11 of 18 passes, including TDs of 13 yards to Paul Warfield and seven yards to Jim Mandich. Garo Yepremian converted field goals of 50 and 46 yards in the second half to widen the winning margin. The Dolphins led 21-3 when a lapse just before halftime gave life to the Bengals. Safety Neal Craig intercepted Griese and returned it 45 yards for a score, and Horst Muhlmann booted field goals of 46 and 12 yards – the second coming after Morris fumbled a kickoff – to make it 21-16.

1973 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 27, RAIDERS 10 Orange Bowl
December 30, 1973 Miami, FL

A relentless running attack with Larry Csonka and Mercury Morris accounting for 203 of the 266 yards, respectively, powered the Dolphins to a 27-10 triumph over the Oakland Raiders for a third straight American Conference title. Csonka, a 237-pound battering ram who had his third consecutive 1,000-yard season, scored three touchdowns with his 117 yards on 29 carries. The Dolphins covered 64 and 63 yards exclusively on the ground for a 14-0 halftime lead. Then as the Raiders battled to within 17-10, Bob Griese directed ground assaults of 63 yards, culminating in a field goal, and 42 yards, ending in Csonka's third TD. Defensively, safety Dick Anderson forced a fourth-down fumble by Marv Hubbard at midfield, and the Dolphins took possession with a 20-10 lead and six minutes to play. Oakland had stopped Miami's 18-game winning streak, 12-7, three months earlier.

SUPER BOWL VIII

DOLPHINS 24, VIKINGS 7 Rice Stadium
January 13, 1974 Houston, TX

Winning for the 32nd time in 34 games, the Dolphins repeated as Super Bowl champions and proved themselves "Best Ever" with a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings at Rice Stadium. There was no doubt from the beginning. The Dolphins swept 62 yards in 10 plays with the opening kickoff, scoring on Larry Csonka's five-yard smash. Minnesota punted, and the onslaught resumed with a 56-yard, 10-play Dolphin drive capped by Jim Kiick's one-yard plunge. It was 17-0 before the Vikings crossed their 40, and a fourth-down fumble by Minnesota's Oscar Reed was recovered by safety Jake Scott at the Dolphins' six-yard line. A brilliant, diving catch by Paul Warfield netted 27 yards on a third-quarter TD drive that hiked the score to 24-0. Csonka finished with his best-ever total of 145 yards on 33 carries. The Dolphins rushed for 703 yards and outscored opponents 85-33 in the three-game playoff blitz. Csonka's yardage was a Super Bowl record and he was named MVP.

1974 AFC PLAYOFF

December 21, 1974 Oakland, CA

Oakland quarterback Ken Stabler, falling in the clutches of Vern Den Herder, unloaded a wobbly eight-yard pass that Clarence Davis wrestled from three defenders in the end zone, and the Raiders scored a stunning 28-26 victory over the defending champion Dolphins. Stabler, who had spent the last of his timeouts, appeared to have thrown an interception. But running back Davis clutched the football when bodies were untangled with 26 seconds remaining. It was the fourth TD pass for lefthander Stabler and his second "freak" score. Four minutes earlier Cliff Branch fell while catching a pass at the Dolphins' 27, but defender Henry Stuckey also slipped, and Branch got up and escaped for a 72-yard TD. The Dolphins, trailing by two points, went ahead with 2:08 remaining as rookie Benny Malone broke two tackles on a 23-yard touchdown run along the sideline.

1978 AFC WILD-CARD PLAYOFF

OILERS 17, DOLPHINS 9 — Orange Bowl
December 24, 1978 — Miami, FL

The Houston Oilers amassed a 455-209 margin in total yardage, and aided by five Dolphins turnovers, gained a 17-9 victory in a battle of AFC wild-card entries at the Orange Bowl. Toni Fritsch kicked a 35-yard field goal with 7:25 remaining to snap a 7-7 tie that existed since the first quarter. An interception by linebacker Greg Bingham led to a clinching 50-yard touchdown drive capped by Earl Campbell's one-yard dive with 1:55 to go. Campbell, the NFL rushing leader with 1,450 yards as a rookie, had been checked for only 16 yards on 13 carries in the first half. Dolphins quarterback Bob Griese, playing with very sore ribs, connected with tight end Andre Tillman for a 13-yard TD after Earnie Rhone had recovered a fumbled punt at the Houston 21. But Griese completed only 13 of 28 passes. Twice the Dolphins lost the ball inside the Oilers 10-yard line when the game was tied. Houston's Dan Pastorini wore a flak jacket to protect three broken ribs, and he passed for 261 of his 306-yard total in the first half.

STEELERS 34, DOLPHINS 14 — Three Rivers Stadium
December 30, 1979 — Pittsburgh, PA

Launching a drive to their fourth Super Bowl title in six years, the Pittsburgh Steelers scored touchdowns on their first three possessions and coasted to a 34-14 victory at Three Rivers Stadium. Miami managed only 25 yards rushing against the Steel Curtain and was stopped twice in the second quarter after achieving a first down inside the Steelers 10-yard line. The Dolphins got as close as 20-7 with a seven-yard TD pass from Bob Griese to Duriel Harris in the third period, but Pittsburgh responded with a 69-yard TD drive. The Steelers marched 62, 62 and 56 yards for their first-quarter scores when quarterback Terry Bradshaw completed 8 of 10 passes, including touchdowns to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann, who was standing alone in the end zone. Don Strock directed a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive after relieving Griese in the fourth quarter

CHARGERS 41, DOLPHINS 38 (OT) Orange Bowl
January 2, 1982 Miami, FL

A record-setting showcase of the passing game resulted in NFL playoff marks for most points (79), most total yards (1,036) and most drama as the San Diego Chargers outlasted the Dolphins 41-38 in overtime. "The Miracle That Died" was the Miami Herald headline after the Dolphins rallied behind reserve quarterback Don Strock to overcome a 24-point deficit. The Pro Football Hall of Fame voted the contest as the "NFL's Game of the '80s." Strock completed 29 of 43 passes for 403 yards and four touchdowns, spurring the Dolphins to a 38-31 lead. A 12-yard sweep by Tony Nathan on the first play of the fourth quarter put the Dolphins on top. But Chargers quarterback Dan Fouts, who passed for an NFL record 4,802 yards during the season, led an 82-yard drive capped by a 9-yard pass to James Brooks to tie the game with 58 seconds remaining. Five players had more than 100 yards in receptions, topped by Chargers tight end Kellen Winslow with 13 catches for 166 yards. Fouts, who finished with 433 yards on 33 of 53 marksmanship, hooked up with Charlie Joiner for 39 yards to the Dolphins 10-yard line. Rolf Benirschke then kicked a 29-yard field goal to end the struggle after 13:52 of overtime. Benirschke had missed a 27-yard attempt eight minutes earlier, and Miami's Uwe von Schamann had two attempts blocked – a 43-yarder on the last play of regulation and a 35-yarder after 11:27 of overtime. It was the first game in NFL history in which two quarterbacks passed for more than 400 yards.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (first round)

DOLPHINS 28, PATRIOTS 13 — Orange Bowl
January 8, 1983 — Miami, FL

For the first time in nine years, the Miami Dolphins won a playoff game, defeating the New England Patriots 28-13. Dolphins QB David Woodley had one of his finest games, completing 16 of 19 passes for 246 yards and two TDs. He was a perfect 8-8 in the second half. The Dolphins had not experienced a playoff win since January 13, 1974, when they downed Minnesota in Super Bowl VIII. The Dolphins took command in the second quarter, putting together back-to-back TD drives of 76 and 79 yards that turned a 3-0 deficit into a 14-3 halftime advantage. The four Miami TDs came on a pair of two-yard passes from Woodley to tight end Bruce Hardy, a one-yard run by Andra Franklin and Woody Bennett's two-yard burst up the middle. Franklin finished with 112 yards on 26 carries, but lost the ball three times on fumbles. Two of those fumbles resulted in John Smith field goals of 23 and 42 yards for New England.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (second round)

January 16, 1983 Miami, FL

The Dolphins choked off the famed Chargers offense and won 34-13. The Dolphins defense stopped the San Diego offense, holding it to a total of 247 yards – 203 yards below its league-leading average - while holding the Chargers scoreless in the second half. Dolphins defenders intercepted QB Dan Fouts five times, sacked him three times and held the Chargers to 15 completions for 191 yards – their lowest output since a January, 1982, playoff game in the ice at Cincinnati. The Dolphins offense kept Fouts and Company on the sideline by utilizing ball control that produced 80 plays to San Diego's 54 and an overwhelming time of possession advantage; the Dolphins had the ball for 40:46 to the Chargers' 19:14. Dolphins QB David Woodley guided his team to a 214-yard ground attack while connecting on 17-22 passes for 195 yards and two TDs. Woodley opened the scoring with a three-yard pass to Nat Moore in the first quarter and made it 14-0 by directing Miami 89 yards on 13 plays. Chargers kickoff returner Hank Bauer fumbled a kickoff which was recovered by Uwe von Schamann at the Chargers 23-yard line. Seven plays later, Woodley hit tight end Ronnie Lee on a six-yard look-in pass for the score. On the next kickoff, Dolphins rookie Rich Diana recovered a fumble by the Chargers' James Brooks, but this time Miami had to settle for a 29-yard von Schamann field goal. The Chargers scored two late TDs, one on a 28-yard pass from Fouts to Charlie Joiner and the other on Chuck Muncie's one-yard dive that ended the San Diego scoring. Von Schamann added a second field goal shortly before the end of the first half and Woodley scored on a seven-yard QB draw early in the fourth quarter.

1982 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 14, JETS 0 Orange Bowl
January 23, 1983 Miami, FL

For the third time in as many games in 1982, the Miami Dolphins defeated the New York Jets, this time on a rainy, mud-soaked Orange Bowl field. The Dolphins set an AFC Championship Game record by holding the Jets to 139 total yards. A.J. Duhe set an AFC playoff record with three interceptions, including one he returned for a 35-yard TD. The Dolphins set an NFL record by being the first team to have defeated the same team three times in a season – two times during the regular season and once in a playoff game. On nine occasions since the AFL-NFL merger, teams had met three times in a season – but no team had won all three games. Before a crowd of 67,396, the Dolphins' Woody Bennett rumbled seven yards up the middle to score the only points the Dolphins would need. That came in the third quarter after the teams had trudged through a scoreless first half on the soggy Prescription Athletic Turf.

SUPER BOWL XVII

January 30, 1983 Pasadena, CA

The Washington Redskins, behind the power running of John Riggins, came from behind to win Super Bowl XVII in the famed Rose Bowl, beating Miami 27-17. Before the second-largest crowd for a Super Bowl – 103,667 fans – the Redskins took the lead for the first time with a little more than 10 minutes left on the clock. The game was marked by a Super Bowl record performance by Fulton Walker, who returned four kickoffs 190 yards, including a 98-yard TD that gave Miami a 17-10 halftime lead. It was the first kickoff returned for a TD in Super Bowl history and the longest kickoff return in playoff history. Riggins ran up 166 yards on 38 carries, both Super Bowl records. On a short-yardage play – fourth-and-one from the Redskin 43 with 10:01 to play – Riggins broke a tackle and scored on a 43-yard run. Riggins accounted for 181 total yards, five more yards than the entire Miami offense could manage in the game. In the first quarter, Miami jumped to a quick lead with a 76-yard David Woodley to Jimmy Cefalo pass for a TD.

SEAHAWKS 27, DOLPHINS 20 Orange Bowl
December 31, 1983 Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins saw their season end on a sour note as they lost a 27-20 decision to the Seattle Seahawks in the first round of the AFC playoffs. Before 71,032 fans in the Orange Bowl, Dolphins rookie quarterback Dan Marino returned from his December 4 knee injury. On their second possession, the Dolphins launched a 12-play, 80-yard drive ending with a 19-yard TD pass from Marino to tight end Dan Johnson (PAT missed). A 59-yard return by Zachary Dixon on the ensuing kickoff led to a six-yard scoring toss from Seattle's Dave Krieg to Cullen Bryant with the extra point, giving the Seahawks a one point lead. Miami immediately retaliated, using a 17-yard Marino to Mark Duper hook-up to pave the way for a 32-yard circus catch by Duper for the touchdown. Early in the third quarter, a David Overstreet fumble in Seattle territory set the Seahawks up for a 55-yard TD march featuring a 28-yard completion from Krieg to Paul Johns, and culminating in a one-yard run by Curt Warner. Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter gave Seattle a 17-13 lead. The Dolphins managed to regain the lead at 20-17 following a Gerald Small interception (18-yard return) and Woody Bennett's two-yard run with only 3:43 remaining. However, the lead was shortlived as the Seahawks came right back to score on Warner's short run following a pair of Krieg to Steve Largent completions for a total of 56 yards. Miami's Fulton Walker then fumbled the Seattle kickoff, thus leading to a 37-yard Johnson field goal. Another Walker kickoff fumble iced the game for the Seahawks, who were participating in the playoffs for the first time in their eight-year history.

1984 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 31, SEAHAWKS 10 Orange Bowl
December 29, 1984 Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins, led by quarterback Dan Marino's three touchdown passes and a defense that shut out the opposition in three of four quarters, defeated the Seattle Seahawks 31-10 before 73,469 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins moved in front on their second possession and stayed there. Running back Tony Nathan keyed the 68-yard drive by gaining 38 yards on four carries, including the touchdown on a 14-yard run. A 26-yard Marino to Mark Clayton completion was the long play of the scoring march. A 32-yard interception return by Seattle's John Harris and a 25-yard pass from Dave Krieg to Steve Largent paved the way for Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal that cut Miami's lead to 7-3. The Dolphins, however, came right back to score on their next series as a 20-yard reception by Woody Bennett preceded Marino's 34-yard scoring hook-up with Jimmy Cefalo. The Seahawks made it 14-10 at halftime when Largent scored on a 56-yard catch-and-run play. After Miami's defense had stopped Seattle on the Dolphins 24-yard line to open the second half, the Dolphins embarked on a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive that included a Bruce Hardy touchdown catch from three yards out. After the Seahawks' Jeff West managed just a seven-yard punt, Clayton made an acrobatic catch on a tipped ball in the end zone for a 33-yard TD. Miami closed out the scoring on Uwe von Schamann's 37-yard field goal in a drive that featured a 32-yard Marino to Hardy pass.

1984 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 45, STEELERS 28 Orange Bowl
January 6, 1985 Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins, led by Dan Marino's 421 yards passing (four touchdowns) and Mark Duper's 148 yards receiving, advanced to Super Bowl XIX by defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers, 45-28, in the AFC Championship Game before 76,029 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins scored on their first offensive series as they moved 67 yards in four plays following a William Judson interception, with the TD coming on a 40-yard pass from Marino to Mark Clayton. Pittsburgh's first score came on Rich Erenberg's seven-yard run that had been set up by Walter Abercrombie's 38 yards gained in the 66-yard march. A 26-yard Uwe von Schamann field goal preceded a 65-yard toss from the Steelers' Mark Malone to John Stallworth that gave Pittsburgh a 14-10 lead. The Dolphins then scored two TDs in the final 2:52 of the first half, the first score coming on a 41-yard reception by Duper. After Lyle Blackwood's interception, Marino hit TE Joe Rose for a 28-yard gain before Tony Nathan gave the Dolphins a 24-14 lead on a two-yard run. Miami then scored on its first three second-half possessions, leading off with Marino's 36-yard scoring strike to Duper. The Steelers closed the gap to 31-21 on Malone's 19-yarder to Stallworth (33-yarder to Louis Lipps in drive). Completions to Duper (41 yards), Nathan (20 yards) and Nat Moore (28 yards) then led to a one-yard TD dive by Woody Bennett. Moore then caught a six-yard touchdown pass before Wayne Capers closed out the scoring with a 29-yard TD reception.

SUPER BOWL XIX

49ERS 38, DOLPHINS 16 Stanford Stadium
January 20, 1985 Palo Alto, CA

The Miami Dolphins, unable to score in the game's final two quarters, dropped a 38-16 decision to the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl XIX before 84,059 fans in Stanford Stadium. The Dolphins were outgained in the contest by a 537-314 margin with the 49ers maintaining possession for 37:11. Miami opened the scoring on its first possession as Uwe von Schamann converted a 37-yard field goal (key play – Dan Marino's 25-yard completion to Tony Nathan). San Francisco jumped ahead 7-3 when QB Joe Montana led the Niners on an eight-play, 78-yard drive that culminated in a 33-yard TD toss to Carl Monroe. The Dolphins scored their only touchdown of the game on their next series as two Marino completions to Mark Clayton (18, 13 yards) and a 21-yarder to Dan Johnson paved the way for Johnson's two-yard scoring catch. Touchdown runs of eight and two yards by Roger Craig and Montana's six-yard scamper gave San Francisco a 28-10 lead. Von Schamann then connected on field goals of 31 and 30 yards in the final 12 seconds of the first half to close the Dolphins' deficit to 28-16. The 49ers upped their lead on their initial second-half possession on Ray Wersching's 27-yard field goal, before closing out the scoring on Craig's 16-yard scoring reception (key play – 40-yard Montana to Wendell Tyler pass play).

1985 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 24, BROWNS 21 Orange Bowl
January 4, 1986 Miami, FL

Most people had not given them much of a chance to win, but the 8-8 Cleveland Browns nearly upset the 12-4 Dolphins in the Orange Bowl. It would take two Ron Davenport touchdowns in the final 17 minutes to send Miami to a 24-21 victory and the AFC Championship Game against New England the following week. Fuad Reveiz put the Dolphins on the board early with a 51-yard field goal on Miami's first drive of the game. But Cleveland came back to score 21 unanswered points, and held a 21-3 advantage midway through the third quarter. Cleveland rookie quarterback Bernie Kosar, who had played two college seasons in the Orange Bowl for the University of Miami, hit Ozzie Newsome with a 16-yard touchdown pass for the Browns first points of the day. Earnest Byner (16-161) ran in from 21 yards out just before the half, and then he broke a 66-yard touchdown jaunt 3:38 into the second half. Just like that, the improbable began to look possible. Dan Marino connected with Nat Moore for a six-yard touchdown pass just over six minutes later and Miami had closed the margin to 21-10. Then it was time for Davenport (6-48) to show his stuff. First, he hit the hole for a 31-yard touchdown run late in the third period and then he closed the scoring and put Miami up for good, going over from one yard out with just 1:57 remaining in the game.

PATRIOTS 31, DOLPHINS 14 Orange Bowl
January 12, 1986 Miami, FL

The New England Patriots garnered a bid to their first Super Bowl by snapping an 18-game losing streak to the Dolphins in Miami with a 31-14 triumph, in what would be the final NFL postseason game at the Orange Bowl. The Patriots' only previous victory in Miami came in the first meeting between the two teams in 1966. New England backs Craig James (22-105) and Robert Weathers (16-87) combined for 192 yards rushing and quarterback Tony Eason was on target with a 10-12 performance for 71 yards as the Pats set up a Super Bowl date with the Chicago Bears. After New England got on the board first with a Tony Franklin 23-yard field goal, the Dolphins stormed back for their only lead of the afternoon when Dan Marino passed 10 yards to Dan Johnson early in the second quarter. Eason brought New England right back with three touchdown tosses, and the Pats led 24-7 after three quarters. Miami's last score of the day came early in the fourth quarter when Tony Nathan grabbed a 10-yard TD pass from Marino. New England fullback Mosi Tatupu ended the game's scoring with a one-yard TD jaunt midway through the fourth quarter.

1990 AFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 17, CHIEFS 16 Joe Robbie Stadium
January 5, 1991 Miami, FL

Dan Marino threw two fourth quarter touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a dramatic come-from-behind 17-16 playoff win over the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 67,276 at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the final period, Marino hit on all eight of his pass attempts for 101 yards and two touchdowns. It was the 16th time in his career that Marino has engineered a fourth quarter comeback. Including the third quarter, Marino hit on his last ten pass attempts to lead the Dolphins back from a 13-3 deficit to a 17-16 win. The Chiefs opened the scoring in the first quarter when Charles Washington blocked a Reggie Roby punt and returned the ball to Miami's 37-yard line. However, Miami's defense stiffened and held the Chiefs to a 27-yard field goal by Nick Lowery. Miami kicker Pete Stoyanovich tied the score at 3-3 in the second period by booting an NFL playoff record 58-yard field goal. Stoyanovich's kick broke the previous record of 54 yards by Detroit's Eddie Murray on December 24, 1983, against San Francisco and it was the second-longest kick of Stoyanovich's career. The Chiefs took a 10-3 halftime lead by scoring on a 26-yard touchdown strike from Steve DeBerg to Stephone Paige. The Chiefs extended their lead to 16-3 on a pair of third quarter field goals by Lowery from 25 and 38 yards. In the fourth quarter, the Dolphins closed the score to 16-10 as Marino hit fullback Tony Paige with a one-yard touchdown pass. The key play in the drive was a two-yard run by Sammie Smith on a fourth-and-two from Kansas City's 45-yard line. The Dolphins forced the Chiefs to punt on their next possession and received the ball on their own 15-yard line with 10:39 left in the game. The Dolphins converted three third downs and drove to the Chiefs' 12-yard line with 3:28 left in the contest before Marino hit Mark Clayton with a 12-yard touchdown pass to give Miami a 17-16 lead. However, the Chiefs had a chance to win the game as they drove from their own 22-yard line to the Dolphin 34 before Lowery's 52-yard field goal attempt was just short.

1990 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

BILLS 44, DOLPHINS 34 Rich Stadium
January 12, 1991 Orchard Park, NY

The Miami Dolphins saw the 1990 season come to an end with a 44-34 loss to the Buffalo Bills in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest in the snow and ice at Rich Stadium. The game was an offensive shootout as the teams combined for 78 points, 48 first downs, 923 total net yards, 662 passing yards, 261 rushing yards, nine touchdowns and five field goals. Individually, Dan Marino (23 of 49 for 323 yards with three TDs and two INTs) and Jim Kelly (19-29-339-3-1) both passed for over 300 yards. Kelly became the only quarterback to throw for over 300 yards against the Dolphin defense in 1990. Mark Duper (three catches for 113 yards and a score) and Buffalo's Andre Reed (4-122-2) and James Lofton (7-149-1) all went over the 100-yard receiving mark. On the ground, the Bills' Thurman Thomas (32 carries for 117 yards and two TDs) and Miami's Sammie Smith (21-99) led the way. Buffalo dominated the first quarter and jumped out to a 13-3 lead. The Bills scored on their first possession as Kelly hit Reed with a 40-yard touchdown strike and the Dolphins answered the score with a 49-yard field goal to close the score to 7-3. Buffalo added a pair of Scott Norwood field goals – from 24 and 22 yards – to close the first quarter scoring. The Bills struck first in the second quarter on a five-yard run by Thomas to lead 20-3. Miami answered the score on its next possession as Marino and Duper combined for a 64-yard touchdown. The Bills came right back and scored as Kelly threw 13 yards for a score to Lofton to take a 27-10 lead. On their next possession Miami was forced to punt, however the Bills' Al Edwards fumbled the punt and Reggie Roby recovered for Miami on Buffalo's 47-yard line. Miami drove down to the two-yard line where Marino ran in for the score to narrow Buffalo's lead to 27-17 at the half. The Dolphins and Buffalo exchanged third quarter field goals as Stoyanovich hit from 22 yards and Norwood connected from 28 yards. Miami closed the score to 30-27 early in the fourth quarter as Marino threw a two-yard touchdown pass to offensive guard Roy Foster. It was the first reception and touchdown of Foster's career as he became the first offensive or defensive lineman to score an offensive touchdown in a post-season contest since Chicago Bears' defensive tackle William Perry rumbled in from a yard out in Super Bowl XX on January 26, 1986. However, the Bills struck back for 14 quick points to put the game away. First, Thomas scored his second touchdown of the game on a five-yard run. On the ensuing kickoff, Miami returner Marc Logan fumbled the ball and Norwood recovered for Buffalo on the Dolphins' 29-yard line. Two plays later, Kelly and Reed combined for a 26-yard scoring toss and a 44-27 lead. The Dolphins scored the final touchdown of the game with just 1:15 remaining as Marino hit Tony Martin with an eight-yard touchdown pass.

1992 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 31, CHARGERS 0 Joe Robbie Stadium
January 10, 1993 Miami, FL

Miami cornerback Troy Vincent recorded a pair of interceptions and quarterback Dan Marino threw three touchdown passes to lead the Miami Dolphins to a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers in the AFC Divisional Playoffs before a crowd of 71,224 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's 31-point margin of victory was the largest by the team in a playoff game. The previous largest margin of victory in the post-season by the Dolphins was three 21-point wins as Miami had a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on January 2, 1972 in the Orange Bowl, a 34-13 win over the San Diego Chargers on January 16, 1983 in the Orange Bowl and a 31-10 win over the Seattle Seahawks on December 29, 1984 in the Orange Bowl. Overall, the Miami defense totaled four interceptions (also safety Louis Oliver and linebacker Bryan Cox), a forced fumble (by cornerback Stephen Braggs), a fumble recovery (by linebacker Dwight Hollier) and a sack (by defensive end Jeff Hunter). The Dolphins held the Chargers to just ten first downs (three rushing and seven passing), 202 yards of total offense (70 rushing and 132 passing) and three of 15 on third down conversions. The Chargers' 15 possessions ended in seven punts, four interceptions, twice on downs, once on a lost fumble and once at the end of the first half. Following a scoreless first quarter, the Dolphins exploded for 21 points in the second quarter to take a 21-0 lead at the half. Miami's 21 points in the second quarter was the most scored by the Dolphins in any quarter of a playoff game in team history. The previous team high for points in a quarter was 20 points which was scored by Miami in the second quarter against San Diego on January 6, 1983. Miami opened the scoring following a Vincent interception which gave the team possession on San Diego's 48-yard line. Marino led the Dolphins on a nine-play, 48-yard drive which was capped-off as Marino tossed a one-yard scoring pass to fullback Tony Paige. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-0 later in the period as the team again gained possession of the ball following a Vincent interception and drove 37 yards and scored on a nine-yard connection from Marino to tight end Keith Jackson. Miami scored the final points of the first half as Marino again connected with Jackson and the tight end made a diving 30-yard reception in the end zone for the score. Jackson became just the fourth player in team history to record two touchdown receptions for the Dolphins in a playoff contest. Miami and San Diego played to a scoreless third quarter before the Dolphins scored the game's final ten points in the fourth quarter. Miami increased its lead to 24-0 early in the final stanza as kicker Pete Stoyanovich booted a 22-yard field goal. The Dolphins scored the final points of the game as running back Aaron Craver scored on a 25-yard run to increase the margin to 31-0.

1992 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

BILLS 29, DOLPHINS 10 Joe Robbie Stadium
January 17, 1993 Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins suffered five turnovers (two interceptions and three fumbles) as the team dropped a 29-10 decision to the Buffalo Bills in the AFC Championship Game before a crowd of 72,703 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Buffalo opened the scoring midway through the opening period as defensive end Bruce Smith sacked Miami quarterback Dan Marino and forced a fumble which was recovered by Bills linebacker Darryl Talley on the Dolphins' 47-yard line. Buffalo scored off the takeaway as Steve Christie converted on a 21-yard field goal. Miami tied the score at 3-3 later in the period as Pete Stoyanovich converted on a 51-yard field goal attempt. The Bills took a 10-3 lead early in the second period as quarterback Jim Kelly threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to running back Thurman Thomas. On Miami's next possession, Marino's pass attempt was batted in the air by Buffalo defensive end Phil Hansen and intercepted by Hansen on the Dolphins' 17-yard line. The Bills increased their lead to 13-3 as Christie kicked on a 33-yard field goal. Buffalo took a 20-3 lead early in the third quarter by capitalizing on another Miami turnover as kick returner Mike Williams fumbled the second half kickoff and Buffalo's Carwell Gardner recovered the ball on the Dolphins' 25-yard line. The Bills scored four plays later as running back Kenneth Davis ran into the end zone for a two-yard touchdown. Buffalo increased its lead to 26-3 as Christie hit on a pair of field goals from 21 and 31 yards. Miami closed the score to 26-10 as Marino connected with wide receiver Mark Duper on a 15-yard touchdown pass. With the TD pass, Marino extended his streak to ten consecutive playoff games with one or more touchdown passes which is tied with the Raiders' Ken Stabler (1973-77) for the NFL's all-time record for consecutive post-season games with a touchdown pass. In addition, Duper's touchdown reception was his fifth post-season touchdown catch and broke the team's playoff record for career touchdown receptions. Duper was tied with wide receiver Paul Warfield (four TDs on 34 career playoff catches) and tight end Bruce Hardy (four TDs on 26 catches). Buffalo closed the scoring later in the period as Christie converted his fifth field goal of the game with a 38-yarder.

1994 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

December 31, 1994 Miami, FL

Dan Marino threw a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 27-17 win in a First-Round playoff contest against the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 69,757 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game was billed as Marino-Montana III and the duel between the two future Hall of Famers lived up to the pregame hype. Marino completed 22 of 29 passes for 257 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions and Montana countered by hitting on 26 of 37 passes for 314 yards with two scores and an interception. The first half was an offensive shootout which was tied at 17-17 with neither team being forced to punt. Kansas City opened the scoring as Montana tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Derrick Walker. Miami answered the score on its first possession as Bernie Parmalee scored on a one-yard run. The Chiefs came right back to close the first quarter scoring at 14-7 as Montana threw a short pass to fullback Kimble Anders who turned the play into a 57-yard catch and run for the touchdown. Miami cut the score to 14-10 early in the second quarter as Pete Stoyanovich booted a 40-yard field goal. Kansas City upped its lead to 17-10 later in the quarter as Lin Elliott booted a 21-yard field goal. The Dolphins closed the first half scoring as Marino tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ronnie Williams. The scoring pass set an NFL record as it marked Marino's 11th consecutive post-season game with a touchdown toss. He moved past a tie with Montana (San Francisco/Kansas City) and Ken Stabler (Oakland) for the longest all-time streak of playoff games with a touchdown pass in NFL history. The Dolphins dominated the second half and outscored the Chiefs by a 10-0 margin. Miami took its first lead of the ballgame at 24-17 on the first drive of the third quarter as Marino and Irving Fryar connected on a seven-yard touchdown pass. Miami increased its lead to 27-17 on a 40-yard field goal late in the third period. The Dolphins forced a pair of turnovers by the Chiefs in Miami territory to preserve the win. First, cornerback J.B. Brown intercepted a Montana aerial on the goal line to stop a drive and then safety Michael Stewart forced and recovered a fumble by Marcus Allen on the Dolphins' 34-yard line.

1994 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

CHARGERS 22, DOLPHINS 21
January 8, 1995

Jack Murphy Stadium
San Diego, CA

Natrone Means rushed for 139 yards and a touchdown to lead the Chargers to a 22-21 win over the Miami Dolphins in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest before a crowd of 63,381 at Jack Murphy Stadium. San Diego had the first scoring threat of the game as they drove down to Miami's 26-yard line, but Miami's Marco Coleman forced a fumble by Means to stop the drive. Following the takeaway, the Dolphins opened the scoring as Dan Marino capped a nine-play, 79-yard drive with an eight-yard scoring pass to tight end Keith Jackson. The Chargers closed the score to 7-3 on their next possession as John Carney booted a 20-yard field goal. Prior to the field goal attempt, San Diego had a first-and-goal from the Dolphins' six-yard line but the Miami defense stiffened and held the Chargers out of the end zone. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-3 on their next possession as Marino and Jackson connected again in the end zone for a nine-yard touchdown pass. Jackson's two touchdown receptions in the contest tied Miami's all-time single-game playoff record, which was accomplished five previous times. San Diego answered the touchdown with another field goal as Carney connected on a 21-yard effort. Once again, San Diego had a first-and-goal on Miami's six-yard line and the Dolphin defense limited the Chargers to a field goal. Miami closed the first half scoring as Marino threw a 16-yard touchdown pass to Mike Williams with just 27 seconds left in the first half to take a 21-6 lead. San Diego opened the third quarter with a long drive which was halted when Means was held for no gain on a fourth-and-one play from Miami's one-yard line and the Dolphins took possession of the ball. However, on Miami's first play following the goal line stand, Dolphins running back Bernie Parmalee was tackled in the end zone for a safety to bring the score to 21-8. Following a free kick by Miami's John Kidd, the Chargers got the ball on their own 46-yard line and drove for a 24-yard touchdown run by Means to cut the score to 21-15. Miami had the ball for just one play — the safety by Parmalee – in the entire third quarter. San Diego took a 22-21 lead with just 35 seconds left in regulation as Stan Humphries threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Mark Seay. The Dolphins had one final chance to win the game as Marino drove the team down to the Chargers' 30-yard line but Pete Stoyanovich's 48-yard field goal attempt with just eight seconds remaining was wide right.

1995 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

BILLS 37, DOLPHINS 22 Rich Stadium
December 30, 1995 Orchard Park, NY

The Buffalo Bills cruised out to a 24-0 halftime lead en route to a 37-22 victory in an AFC First Round Playoff game in front of 73,103 fans at Rich Stadium. The contest proved to be the last game for Don Shula as head coach of the Dolphins. The Bills, led by running back Thurman Thomas' 158 yards, grounded out an AFC Playoff record 341 rushing yards, breaking the old mark of 318 set by the San Diego Chargers against Boston in 1963. Miami quarterback Dan Marino tied an NFL postseason record, with Bernie Kosar while he was a member of the Cleveland Browns in 1986, with 64 passing attempts and completed 33 (tied for second-highest in NFL postseason) of them for 422 yards (third-highest in NFL postseason). The two teams set a new NFL postseason record with 1,038 combined total net yards, breaking the old mark of 1,036 by the Dolphins and the San Diego Chargers in an overtime game in 1981. The Bills took an early 7-0 lead when Thomas scored on a one-yard touchdown run. Buffalo kicker Steve Christie put the Bills ahead 10-0 at the midway point of the first quarter with a 48-yard field goal. Buffalo needed just four plays to go 68 yards and took a 17-0 advantage when fullback Darick Holmes ran 21 yards for a touchdown with 9:54 left in the half. On the Dolphins' next possession, they drove to the Buffalo 40-yard line but Marino was hit by Bills defensive end Phil Hansen as he threw and the tipped ball was intercepted by linebacker Marlo Perry. It took Buffalo just 49 seconds to make the score 24-0 as Kelly connected with Steve Tasker on a 37-yard touchdown pass to cap a three-play, 62-yard drive midway through the second quarter. The Bills added to their lead in the third quarter by driving 55 yards on ten plays and extended their lead to 27-0 when Christie booted a 23-yard field goal late in the third quarter. Miami got on the board when they took the ball on their next possession and drove 67 yards on nine plays and made the score 27-7 when Marino hit wide receiver O.J. McDuffie on a five-yard touchdown pass. The Bills increased their lead to 34-7 when they culminated a 61-yard drive with a 44-yard touchdown run by fullback Tim Tindale with 9:31 remaining in the game. The Dolphins cut the lead to 34-14 on their next possession as Marino connected with wide receiver Randal Hill on a 45-yard touchdown to close out a seven-play, 68-yard drive. The Bills answered with an eight-play, 44-yard drive that saw Christie kick a 42-yard field goal to make the score 37-14. Miami then took its next possession and marched 73 yards on eight plays and cut the lead to 37-22 when running back Terry Kirby ran one-yard for the score and a two-point conversion from Marino to McDuffie was good. The Dolphins then attempted an onside kick and safety Michael Stewart recovered at the Buffalo 49-yard line. However, Miami's last threat of the game was stopped when Marino was intercepted by Bills cornerback Ken Irvin at Buffalo's 13-yard line with 1:51 left in the game. McDuffie set a new club postseason record (tied with nine others for sixth-highest all-time in NFL postseason) with 11 receptions for 154 yards (a new Dolphin postseason record, surpassing Mark Duper's 148 yards vs. Pittsburgh in 1985).

1997 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

PATRIOTS 17, DOLPHINS 3 Foxboro Stadium
December 28, 1997 Foxboro, MA

The New England Patriots recorded their third win of the 1997 season over the Dolphins, and their fourth straight over Miami dating back to 1996, by holding Miami to just a field goal in their 17-3 triumph in a first-round playoff game at Foxboro Stadium. The loss was the Dolphins' third straight in the postseason. New England held Miami to 162 yards of total offense, the lowest total in the 32-game postseason history for the Dolphins, below a 176-yard performance against Washington in Super Bowl XVII. In addition, the three points scored by the Dolphins equalled the fewest points scored by the team in a playoff game with a 24-3 loss to the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl VI. Overall, New England forced three Miami turnovers, while the Patriots did not commit any miscues and 14 of New England's 17 points resulted from a Dolphins turnover. The Patriots sacked Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino four times on the day and Marino was held without a touchdown for the first time in 14 career playoff games. The Dolphins got to the Patriots' 39 late in the first quarter, but were stopped on third and fourth-and-one. The Patriots had an opportunity to take a 3-0 lead early in the second quarter, but Adam Vinatieri missed wide left on a 48-yard field goal attempt. Three plays later, Chris Slade intercepted a Dan Marino pass and returned it 22 yards to the Dolphins' 29. That led to a 24-yard touchdown pass from Drew Bledsoe to Troy Brown three plays afterward, on third-and-five, 4:33 into the second quarter. New England took over at its own 40 with 2:16 left in the first half and drove to the Dolphins' 30 before Vinatieri missed wide right on a 47-yard field goal try with 30 seconds on the clock. On the second play of the second half, Todd Collins picked off a Marino pass and brought it back 40 yards for a touchdown. The Patriots extended their lead to 17 points with 1:58 left in the third quarter when Vinatieri capped a 15-play, 67-yard drive with a 22-yard field goal. The Dolphins got their only points of the game nine seconds into the fourth quarter, on an Olindo Mare 38-yard field goal. Miami had gained possession at the Patriots' 43 after a Corey Harris 40-yard kickoff return and a ten-yard tripping penalty on the Patriots. Harris recovered the ensuing onside kick, and the Dolphins took over at their own 44. On the next play, however, Chris Canty stripped the ball from Marino and Slade recovered at the Dolphins' 41. Miami got into New England territory on each of its last two possessions – getting as far as the 45 and 43 – but were stopped on fourth down on each occasion.

1998 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 24, BILLS 17 Pro Player Stadium
January 2, 1999 Miami, FL

The Dolphins recorded their first playoff win since the 1994 season, snapping a three-game losing streak in the postseason with a 24-17 win in an AFC First-Round Playoff game over the Buffalo Bills at Pro Player Stadium. Doug Flutie connected with Eric Moulds for a 65-yard completion on the game's first play from scrimmage, but Terrell Buckley stripped the ball and Brock Marion returned the fumble 17 yards to the Dolphins' 29-yard line. That led to a 16-play, 57-yard drive which used 8:23 of the clock and ended with an Olindo Mare 31-yard field goal. Miami made it a 6-0 game on Mare's second field goal of the afternoon, from 40 yards out, 4:24 into the second quarter. The score capped an 11-play, 66-yard drive that consumed 6:22 of the clock. Mare attempted an onside kick on the ensuing kickoff that was recovered by the Bills' Dan Brandenburg. Three plays later, Buffalo took its first lead of the game when Thurman Thomas ran it in from one-yard out, two plays after Flutie and Moulds combined for a 37-yard completion to the Dolphins' five-yard line. Buffalo got to the Dolphins' six-yard line with 24 seconds remaining in the first half, but Marion picked off a Flutie pass and returned it 19 yards. A personal foul penalty on the Bills put the Dolphins at their own 35. Dan Marino then completed a 52-yard pass to Oronde Gadsden who then lateraled the ball to O.J. McDuffie, putting the Dolphins at the Bills' nine-yard line. Mare, however, hit the right upright on a 26-yard field goal attempt as time expired in the half. The Dolphins regained the lead at 13-7 on Karim Abdul-Jabbar's three-yard touchdown run with 2:32 left in the third quarter. Abdul-Jabbar rushed for 21 yards on the 52-yard drive, which was accomplished in 12 plays and saw the Dolphins connect on three third down conversions. Stanley Pritchett punched it in for the two-point conversion. Buffalo answered less than two minutes later with a 32-yard touchdown pass from Flutie to Moulds which tied the game at 14 with 48 seconds left in the third quarter. Miami got the ball back and embarked on a 17-play, 77-yard drive that ended with Mare's third field goal of the game, from 23 yards out, 5:15 into the fourth period. Four plays afterward, Jerry Wilson forced the ball loose from Andre Reed after a reception and Terrell Buckley recovered, returning it six yards to midfield. The Dolphins capitalized off that turnover when Marino connected with Lamar Thomas for an 11-yard scoring strike on third-and-seven with 3:32 remaining in the game, capping the eight play drive. The Bills took over at their own 20 and got to the Dolphins' 15-yard line before Steve Christie connected on a 33-yard field goal with 1:33 left in the game. Kurt Schulz recovered the ensuing onside kick for Buffalo, giving them possession at their own 31 with 1:30 to play. The first play of the drive was a 30-yard completion from Flutie to Moulds, putting the Bills at the Dolphins' 39-yard line. From there, Buffalo converted three consecutive third downs, giving them a first-and-goal from the Dolphins' five-yard line with 17 seconds remaining. Trace Armstrong then sacked Flutie, forcing the ball loose, which was recovered by Shane Burton to preserve the victory. Moulds finished the game with an NFL playoff record 240 receiving yards.

1998 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

BRONCOS 38, DOLPHINS 3 Mile High Stadium
January 9, 1999 Denver, CO

Miami failed to score a touchdown in its second straight road playoff game, as they dropped their seventh consecutive postseason road game overall, with a 38-3 loss to the Broncos at Mile High Stadium. After stopping the Dolphins on the first series of the game, the Broncos took over at their own eight and embarked on a 14-play, 92-yard drive that used 7:56 of the clock and ended with a Terrell Davis one-yard touchdown run with 5:55 left in the opening quarter. Davis ran for 38 yards on seven carries on the drive, and John Elway completed five of six passes for 48 yards. Denver took a two-touchdown advantage before the first quarter was over when Davis scored on a 20-yard run with 1:02 remaining in the opening period. The touchdown came three plays after Elway connected with Ed McCaffrey for a 33-yard completion to the Dolphins' 33-yard line. Miami answered with an 11-play, 76-yard drive that consumed 5:55 of the clock and ended with an Olindo Mare 22-yard field goal, 4:53 into the second quarter. Dan Marino completed six of seven passes for 55 yards on the march. Denver scored a touchdown on their third consecutive series when Derek Loville ran it in from 11 yards out with 4:39 left in the second quarter. The score capped an 11-play, 87-yard drive that used 5:28 of the clock. As a team, the Broncos rushed for 62 yards on the drive, including 47 yards by Davis. Davis broke loose for a 62-yard run to the Dolphins' 18-yard line on the first play of the second half, leading to a Jason Elam 32-yard field goal four plays afterward. Denver opened a 28-point advantage 1:37 into the fourth quarter when Elway combined with Rod Smith for a 28-yard touchdown strike. The Broncos finished off the scoring when Neil Smith recovered an Oronde Gadsden fumble following a reception and rumbled 79 yards for a touchdown.

1999 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 20, SEAHAWKS 17 Kingdome
January 9, 2000 Seattle, WA

In the last game ever played at the Kingdome, the Dolphins recorded their first road playoff win since 1972 with a 20-17 triumph over the Seattle Seahawks. The Seahawks' second possession of the game started at the Dolphins' 47 after Miami was forced to punt from its own four-yard line. From there, Seattle needed eight plays before Jon Kitna connected with Sean Dawkins for a nine-yard touchdown pass on third-and-three, with 6:18 to play in the first quarter. The score marked the second third-down conversion on the drive for the Seahawks. Kitna and Mike Pritchard hooked up for a pair of completions on the drive, totaling 29 yards. Brock Marion returned the ensuing kickoff 47 yards to midfield. The Dolphins then moved 37 yards in seven plays, leading to an Olindo Mare 32-yard field goal with 2:05 remaining in the opening quarter. The Seahawks re-gained their seven-point advantage with 45 seconds left in the first half on Todd Peterson's 50-yard field goal, which capped an eight-play, 49-yard drive that used 3:45 of the clock. The Dolphins took over at their own 40 on the opening possession of the second half after Peterson's kickoff went out of bounds. Led by Dan Marino, who completed all six of his passes, totaling 56 yards, Miami embarked on a ten-play, 60-yard drive that consumed 6:05 of the clock and ended with a one-yard touchdown pass from Marino to Oronde Gadsden on third-and-goal. The touchdown pass was the 31st for Marino in his playoff career, moving him past Terry Bradshaw into sole possession of second on the NFL's all-time postseason list. The key play on the march was a 27-yard completion from Marino to O.J. McDuffie on third-and-seven from the Seattle 46. Charlie Rogers took the ensuing kickoff and raced 85 yards for a touchdown to give Seattle the lead once again. The Dolphins pulled to within four points on Mare's 50-yard field goal with 2:22 to play in the third quarter, culminating a six-play, 32-yard drive in which Autry Denson rushed for 25 yards. The ensuing onside kick was recovered by Miami's Shawn Wooden, and the Dolphins took over at their own 42. Although they could not take advantage of that opportunity, Tom Hutton's punt that followed pinned Seattle at their own six. Down by four points with 9:09 to play, Miami gained possession at their own 15. On the third play of the series, they faced a third-and-17 from their own 8 when Marino hit Tony Martin for a 23-yard completion. From there, Miami marched the length of the field in just eight more plays, the final one being a two-yard TD run by J.J. Johnson with 4:48 to play in the game. Two plays prior to the score Marino connected with Gadsden for a 24-yard completion on third-and-10 from the Seahawks 29, giving them a first-and-goal from the 5. Seattle went three and out on their next series, and a Terrell Buckley interception with 23 seconds remaining ended any Seattle comeback hopes. The Dolphins dominated the second half of the game, as they gained 230 yards while holding Seattle to just 32 yards over the final 30 minutes of the game. Miami registered a club playoff record six sacks on the afternoon, including three by Trace Armstrong, who was named NFL Defensive Player of the Week for the Wild Card Round of the playoffs.

JAGUARS 62, DOLPHINS 7 ALLTEL Stadium
January 15, 2000 Jacksonville, FL

The Dolphins allowed the most points in club history and suffered their worst defeat ever as well. The Jaguars took a 7-0 lead on an eight-yard touchdown pass from Mark Brunell to Jimmy Smith on the first series of the game, 4:28 into the contest. A 41-yard completion from Brunell to Smith to the Dolphins' 22 was the key play on the 73-yard drive, in which Jacksonville converted all three of their third down attempts, including the touchdown. On the next play from scrimmage, Aaron Beasley intercepted a Dan Marino pass and Jacksonville took over at the Dolphins' 41. From there, the Jaguars moved 14 yards, setting up a Mike Hollis 45-yard field goal, with 6:19 to play in the opening quarter. The Jaguars scored for the third time in as many possessions when Fred Taylor broke loose for a 90-yard touchdown run with 3:46 remaining in the first quarter. On the following play from scrimmage, Tony Brackens stripped the ball from Marino, Brackens recovered and went 16 yards for the score. On the first play of the second quarter, Jacksonville scored again on a 39-yard touchdown pass from Brunell to Taylor on third-and-14. The Jaguars gained possession at the Dolphins' 21 on their next series after Corey Chamblin blocked a Tom Hutton punt. That led to a James Stewart 25-yard TD run three plays later. Hollis added a 28-yard field goal 1:51 prior to the half. That score came five plays after Carnell Lake recovered a J.J. Johnson fumble at the Dolphins' 30. Miami got its first points of the game three seconds before halftime when Marino and Oronde Gadsden combined for a 20-yard TD pass, on third-and-10. Jay Fiedler connected with Jimmy Smith for a 70-yard touchdown pass, 2:57 into the third quarter, giving Jacksonville 48 points on the afternoon, marking the most points that Miami had ever given up in the postseason. Fiedler fired his second touchdown pass of the day with 6:19 to play in the third quarter when he hit Alvis Whitted for a 38-yard scoring pass. Jacksonville finished the scoring with a Chris Howard five-yard touchdown run 4:23 into the fourth quarter, one play after Donovin Darius recovered an Autry Denson fumble.

2000 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 23, COLTS 17 (OT) Pro Player Stadium
December 30, 2000 Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins recorded the second-largest comeback win in team playoff history as they rallied from a 14-0 halftime deficit to earn a 23-17 overtime win against the Indianapolis Colts at Pro Player Stadium. The Dolphins faced a fourth-and-six from the Colts' 39 on their first possession of the game, but could not convert. The Colts took over and marched 47 yards in seven plays, en route to a Mike Vanderjagt 32-yard field goal. The Dolphins made it to the Colts' 33 late in the first quarter, but on third-and-14, Chad Cota intercepted a Jay Fiedler pass in the end zone. Vanderjagt lined up to attempt his second field goal in as many series, but the run by holder Hunter Smith on the fake was short of the first down. On the next play from scrimmage, Chad Bratzke intercepted a Fiedler pass and returned it four yards to the Dolphins' 25. That led to a seven-play, 17-yard drive that culminated with a Vanderjagt 26-yard field goal. Fiedler suffered his third interception in as many series three plays later when Cota picked off his second pass of the day, giving the Colts the ball at the Dolphins' 18. Two plays later, Peyton Manning connected with Jerome Pathon for a 17-yard score. That was followed by a Manning to Ken Dilger pass for the two-point conversion. The Dolphins had a chance to put their first points on the board with 31 seconds left in the first half, but Olindo Mare missed wide right on a 38-yard field goal attempt. The Dolphins opened the second half with an 11-play, 70-yard drive that ended with a two-yard scoring run by Lamar Smith, 6:51 into the half. Smith rushed for 42 yards on seven attempts on the march. The Dolphins cut the lead to four points 4:37 into the fourth quarter on a 38-yard field goal by Mare, which capped a nine-play, 53-yard drive. The Colts answered with a nine-play, 45-yard march which ended with a Vanderjagt 50-yard field goal. The Dolphins took over at their own 20 with 4:55 to play in the game, and marched the length of the field in 14 plays towards the game-tying score, a nine-yard touchdown pass from Fiedler to Jed Weaver on third-and-goal, with 34 seconds remaining in the game. Fiedler threw for 52 yards on the drive, as he completed six of 10 passes while also rushing three times for 15 yards. The Colts got into field goal position 5:44 into the overtime period, but Vanderjagt missed wide right on a 49-yard field goal attempt. The Dolphins took over at their own 39, and on the third play from scrimmage, they got into Colts territory at the 48 on a six-yard completion from Fiedler to Jeff Ogden on third-and-three. Eight plays later, Smith gave the Dolphins their third straight victory in the First Round of the playoffs on a 17-yard touchdown run with 3:34 left in overtime. Smith's 40 attempts represented a new NFL playoff single-game best. His yardage figure was the second-most ever in an NFL postseason contest.

2000 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

RAIDERS 27, DOLPHINS 0 Network Associates Coliseum
January 6, 2001 Oakland, CA

The Miami Dolphins suffered the first shutout in the team's playoff history with a 27-0 loss to the Oakland Raiders. The Raiders got on the board first 3:34 into the contest when Tory James intercepted a Jay Fiedler pass and returned it 90 yards for a touchdown, the longest interception return ever against the Dolphins in the postseason. The Raiders opened a ten-point lead with 4:52 to play in the first quarter on a Sebastian Janikowski 36-yard field goal, which capped an eight-play, 46-yard drive. Janikowski converted his second field goal in as many offensive series when he hit from 33 yards out, 6:24 into the second quarter. The 12-play, 78-yard drive was highlighted by a 32-yard catch-and-run by Terry Kirby to midfield. The Raiders took a 20-point advantage with 1:53 to play in the first half on a six-yard touchdown pass from Rich Gannon to James Jett on third-and-four. The drive began at the Dolphins' 43 after Charles Woodson recovered a Lamar Smith fumble that was forced by Tory James. Of the 43 yards on the march, Gannon scrambled for 19 yards. The final points of the day were scored on the Raiders' first possession of the second half when Tyrone Wheatley ran it in from two yards out, culminating a 12-play, 54-yard drive that used 6:50 of the clock. Gannon threw for 32 yards on the march, including a 12-yard completion to Tim Brown on third-and-seven, one play prior to the touchdown.

2001 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

RAVENS 20, DOLPHINS 3 Pro Player Stadium
January 13, 2002 Miami, FL

The Dolphins dropped their first home playoff game since January 17, 1993, snapping a three-game home playoff win streak. Twan Russell stripped the ball from Jermaine Lewis on the game's opening kickoff and Tommy Hendricks recovered at the Ravens' 24-yard line, leading to an Olindo Mare 33-yard field goal four plays later. The score remained that way until the third play of the second quarter when Terry Allen scored on a four-yard run, culminating a 17-play, 90-yard drive in which Baltimore ran the ball 12 times totaling 61 yards, led by Allen, who rushed for 27 yards on four carries. With just more than a minute remaining in the first half, Jamie Sharper recovered a Travis Minor fumble at the Dolphins' 41-yard line. The Ravens were unable to capitalize, however, as Matt Stover's 40-yard field goal attempt as time expired hit the left upright. Baltimore extended its lead to 11 points with 1:20 to play in the third quarter when Elvis Grabc hit Travis Taylor in the end zone for a four-yard touchdown pass on third-and-goal, capping an 11-play, 99-yard drive. The key play was a 45-yard completion from Grbac to Taylor on third-and-one from the Ravens' 10-yard line. Peter Boulware stripped the ball from Jay Fiedler on a sack on the third play of the fourth quarter, and Boulware recovered at the Dolphins' 37-yard line. That resulted in a Matt Stover 35-yard field goal six plays afterward. Stover added his second field goal in as many series with a 40-yarder with 2:01 to play in the game. That three-pointer came 11 plays after a Duane Starks interception after the Dolphins had made it to the Ravens' 42-yard line. Baltimore rushed for 49 yards on eight attempts on the scoring drive.

2008 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF

RAVENS 29, DOLPHINS 9 Dolphin Stadium
January 4, 2009 Miami, FL

The Dolphins dropped their third straight playoff decision, and their second in a row to the Ravens. The Dolphins took a 3-0 lead on their opening series of the game when Dan Carpenter connected on a 19-yard field goal, eight plays after Joey Porter recovered a Le'Ron McClain fumble and returned it five yards to the Dolphins' 49. Patrick Cobbs accounted for 41 yards on the drive, on a pair of receptions. The Ravens knotted the score on their ensuing series when a Matt Stover 23-yard field goal capped an 11-play, 59-yard drive. The key play was a 31-yard completion from Joe Flacco to Todd Heap, giving the Ravens a first-and-goal from the 4. The Ravens claimed their initial lead of the afternoon with 2:30 to play in the first half when Ed Reed intercepted a Chad Pennington pass and weaved his way 64 yards for a touchdown. Baltimore added three points, 16 seconds before the half on a 31-yard field goal by Stover, culminating a seven-play, 46-yard drive. The score came four plays after Flacco connected with Derrick Mason for a 31-yard hookup to the Dolphins' 17. The Ravens opened a 17-point advantage 7:27 into the second half on an 8-yard TD run by Le'Ron McClain, four plays after Terrell Suggs recovered a Cobbs fumble at the Dolphins' 19. The Dolphins tallied their first touchdown of the day 1:51 into the fourth period on a 2-yard TD pass from Pennington to Ronnie Brown, two plays after Pennington and Davone Bess combined for a 45-yard completion to the Ravens' 5. The PAT was blocked. Flacco finished the scoring on a 5-yard TD run with 3:53 remaining in the contest, as the he crossed the goal line three plays after Willis McGahee broke loose for a 48-yard run to the Dolphins' 4.

DOLPHINS PRO BOWL TOUCHDOWNS

In the 2012 Pro Bowl, Dolphins wide receiver Brandon Marshall caught a Pro Bowl-record four touchdown receptions and was named as the game's MVP. Prior to that, the most recent Dolphins player to have accounted for a touchdown in the Pro Bowl was wide receiver Chris Chambers, who scored on a 16-yard reception from Peyton Manning in the first quarter to open the 2006 game's scoring. Other Dolphins scoring Pro Bowl touchdowns include running back Ricky Williams, who scored on a pair of one-yard runs as he was named the MVP in the AFC's 45-20 route of the NFC in the 2003 game, wide receiver Mark Clayton, who caught a nine-yard touchdown pass from Buffalo's Jim Kelly in the 1991 game, tight end Ferrell Edmunds, who had a five-yard scoring reception from Seattle's Dave Krieg in the 1989 game, and Hall of Fame wide receiver Paul Warfield, who caught a 32-yard TD pass from Dolphins teammate Bob Griese in the '74 contest.

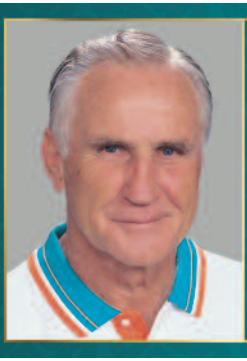
DOLPHINS IN THE HALL OF FAME



DON SHULA

HEAD COACH

INDUCTED: 1997 // BORN: 1/4/30 // COLLEGE: JOHN CARROLL
PLAYER: 1951-57 // ASSISTANT COACH: 1960-62 //
HEAD COACH: 1963-95 // DOLPHINS HEAD COACH: 1970-95

On July 26, 1997, Don Shula capped an illustrious career when he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, following his election into that shrine on January 25, 1997, his first year of eligibility. Shula's unanimous election to the Hall was the ultimate honor in a career full of record-setting accomplishments.

For the past 20 years, Shula has served as Vice-Chairman of the Miami Dolphins, having been named to that position on January 5, 1996. This year marks his 46th season with the Dolphins, a tenure that started when he was named head coach of the club in 1970. He was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium on November 25, 1996, and was inducted in the Dolphins Walk of Fame on December 4, 2011.

Shula's record as head coach of the Dolphins (1970-95) and before that as head coach of the Baltimore Colts (1963-69) is unmatched in National Football League history. In 1995, he concluded his 33rd season as an NFL head coach and his 26th season as head coach of the Dolphins. He owns a career record of 347-173-6 (.665), including a regular season mark of 328-156-6 (.676), and is the winningest coach in NFL history. On November 14, 1993 in Philadelphia, when the Dolphins defeated the Philadelphia Eagles 19-14, Shula won his 325th career game, moving him past the immortal George Halas (324-151-31) and setting an NFL record for most career victories, a mark once thought to be unreachable. Shula's 328 regular season wins also is an NFL record, surpassing Halas' former NFL mark of 318 regular season victories. Shula and Halas are the only NFL coaches to win 300 or more career games, as Shula recorded his 300th career win on September 22, 1991, with a 16-13 triumph over Green Bay in just his 29th year as an NFL head coach, as compared to 36 seasons for Halas to accomplish that feat.

In addition, Shula won Super Bowl titles in 1972 and 1973, one of only six coaches in NFL history to win consecutive Super Bowls. His 1972 team went 17-0, recording the only undefeated season in NFL annals. He is one of only two coaches (along with New England's Bill Belichick) to appear in six Super Bowls, and is one of only two coaches (along with Buffalo's Marv Levy) to reach the Super Bowl three straight seasons (1971-73). He also advanced to the Super Bowl with the Dolphins in 1982 and 1984, as well as in 1968 as head coach of the Baltimore Colts.

A remarkable 20 times in 33 seasons, Shula's teams reached the playoffs. His teams won at least ten games 21 times in those 33 years, and he suffered only two losing seasons (6-8 in 1976 and 6-10 in 1988) in that span. He averaged more than ten wins per season in his career (347 wins in 33 years as a head coach), and he was the youngest coach to win 100, 200 and 300 games.

During Shula's tenure with the Dolphins, from the time he replaced George Wilson on February 18, 1970 to become the franchise's second-ever head coach through his final season in 1995, his winning percentage of .658 (257-133-2) during that time was the best record in all of professional sports. The Dolphins either won or shared first place in the AFC East 15 times in the 26 years under Shula, and reached the playoffs 16 times. His ultimate achievement was the NFL's only unbeaten, untied record of 17-0 in 1972, capped by a 14-7 win over the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl VII. He won a second consecutive Super Bowl title in 1973, defeating the Minnesota Vikings 24-7 in Super Bowl VIII, and compiled an overall record of 32-2 in those back-to-back seasons, a two-year mark that has yet to be surpassed.

Before joining the Dolphins, Shula spent seven years (1963-69) as head coach of the Colts. In that span he compiled a record of 73-26-4 (.728) and advanced to the playoffs four times, including two appearances in the NFL Championship Game, in 1964 and 1968 after 12-2 and 13-1 campaigns, respectively. He became the youngest head coach (33 years old) in the history of the NFL when he was named the Colts' head coach in 1963.

Shula succeeded Weeb Ewbank as head coach in Baltimore after serving three years (1960-62) as defensive coordinator of the Detroit Lions, with the team going 26-13-1 in that period. Shula entered the coaching ranks with an assistant's job at Virginia (1958) and Kentucky (1959) before joining the Lions.

Shula broke into the NFL as the lone rookie on Coach Paul Brown's defending NFL champion Cleveland Browns in 1951. He was involved in the largest trade in modern NFL history, a 15-player deal with Baltimore in 1953, and Shula played four seasons with the Colts (1953-56) and one season at Washington (1957) at right cornerback. He had 21 career interceptions for 247 yards in seven seasons. In college, he was a running back at John Carroll University in Cleveland, and in 1950 he gained 125 yards when the Blue Streaks upset Syracuse, 21-15.

Shula also contributed to the growth of the NFL off the field by serving from 1975 though 1995 (including the last two years in that span as co-chairman along with George Young of the New York Giants) on the league's influential Competition Committee, which evaluates and recommends changes in playing rules to make the game more open and exciting, and to improve player safety.

In addition to his own election to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Shula was selected to present five other members for induction into the Hall (Larry Csonka, Bob Griese, Jim Langer, Larry Little and Dwight Stephenson), including two (Csonka and Langer) on the same day.

Coach Shula was further honored on January 31, 2010, when NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell announced the establishment of a new league award – "The Don Shula NFL High School Coach of the Year Award" – which honors high school football coaches that display the integrity, achievement and leadership that Coach Shula exemplified throughout his NFL career. The Don Shula Award winner is recognized at the Super Bowl and receives $10,000 and his high school football program is awarded $15,000.

In addition, on that same day the Dolphins unveiled the "Perfect Moment in Time" statue in honor of Coach Shula. The ten-foot sculpture depicts Coach Shula raised upon the shoulders of two players, Nick Buoniconti and Al Jenkins, and captures the perfect moment in time immediately after the Dolphins completed their undefeated season in 1972. The statue adorns the entrance of the Dolphins' corporate headquarters at Sun Life Stadium, and that office bears the address of "347 Don Shula Drive" to reflect the total number of victories Shula amassed during his career.

Along with his football responsibilities, Shula always has given considerable time, plus financial and emotional support, to many area charities. The Don Shula Foundation, formed primarily to assist breast cancer research, was established as a tribute to his late wife, Dorothy. Shula also has been active in the American Cancer Society, March of Dimes, American Red Cross, the United Way and Catholic Charities.

A member of the Class of 1951 at John Carroll, Shula helps fund a $1 million chair in the University's Department of Philosophy. On September 27, 2003, John Carroll University showed its appreciation for Shula's support of the school by naming its new stadium Don Shula Stadium. Shula also has received honorary doctorate degrees from John Carroll, St. Thomas University, the University of Miami and Florida Atlantic University.

Because of his success on the football field and his long-time civic and charitable service, Shula has received countless prestigious awards recognizing his contributions, including the 1993 Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year Award and the 1994 Horatio Alger Award. In addition, along with Ken Blanchard, in 1995 Shula co-authored "Everyone's A Coach," a highly acclaimed book that outlines the application of their managerial philosophies for business and personal success. Shula personifies those business principles himself, serving as an equity partner in two highly successful undertakings, Shula Enterprises, Inc. along with Don Shula's Steakhouse, LLLP. At age 82, Shula started a hamburger chain, "Shula Burger," and has opened 10 stores in the past three years under that umbrella with five more planned in Miami.

Shula's oldest son, David, 56, and his wife, Leslie, have three sons, Danny, Christopher and Matthew. David served as the head coach of the Cincinnati Bengals from 1992-96, and when Don Shula's Dolphins played David Shula's Bengals on October 2, 1994 and October 1, 1995, both at Cincinnati's Riverfront Stadium, it marked the only two times in the history of professional sports that a father and son faced each other as head coaches. David currently is the National Brand Ambassador for Don Shula Steakhouse, Inc. His son, Chris, is a defensive quality control coach for the San Diego Chargers, becoming a third-generation Shula to coach in the NFL, following his father and grandfather.

Shula's other son Mike, 50, currently is in his third season as offensive coordinator for the Carolina Panthers after servng the previous two years as the team's quarterbacks coach. He joined the Panthers after serving four years as the QB coach of the Jacksonville Jaguars (2007-10). He spent four seasons (2003-06) as the head coach at the University of Alabama and led the Crimson Tide to a Cotton Bowl win and a 10-2 record in 2005. He had rejoined the Dolphins' staff as quarterbacks coach in 2000 after serving the four previous seasons as the offensive coordinator of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers; he also spent the 1991-92 seasons as a coaches' assistant under his father in Miami. Mike and his wife, Shari, have three daughters, Samantha, Brooke and Ryan.

Mike and David Shula presented their father for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1997, becoming the first pair ever to present a Hall of Famer for induction.

Shula's oldest daughter, Donna, has five children, Alex, Lindsey, Tyler, and twins Calvin and Carly. Another daughter, Sharon, resides in New York, while youngest daughter, Annie, lives and works in Broward County.

Shula and his wife, Mary Anne, reside in Miami Beach and continue to be very active in charitable and community affairs. Most recently they visited U.S. soldiers stationed in Iraq and Afghanistan as part of a USO tour to raise troop morale. They were married on October 15, 1993, and their family together now includes eight children, 16 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

DON SHULA'S MILESTONES

Don Shula passed the immortal George Halas to become the winningest coach in NFL history when he registered victory number 325 in Miami's 19-14 win at Philadelphia on November 14, 1993. Shula concluded coaching with a career record of 347-173-6 (.665). On December 25, 1994, in Miami's 27-20 win over Detroit, Shula won the 319th regular season game of his career and broke the NFL record for most regular season coaching wins by Halas (318 wins). Shula owned a 328-156-6 (.676) regular season record. In 1991, Shula joined Halas (324 wins) as the only NFL coaches with 300 or more career wins. Shula accomplished his milestone 300th career win with a 16-13 triumph over the Green Bay Packers on September 22, 1991. Shula won the 300th regular-season game of his coaching career with a 16-13 overtime win at New England on December 27, 1992.

Shula added another historic career milestone in Miami's 30-7 win over the Buffalo Bills on September 16, 1990, as he recorded his 200th regular season victory since joining the Dolphins in 1970. Shula joined Hall of Fame coaches Curley Lambeau (Green Bay), George Halas (Chicago) and Tom Landry (Dallas) as the only NFL coaches to earn 200 or more regular season wins with one NFL club.

Nick Buoniconti, the driving force of the Dolphins' famed "No-Name Defense," inspired his teammates with his outstanding play and fiery leadership. During his seven years with the Dolphins the team advanced to three straight Super Bowls (1971-73) and won twice (1972, 1973), with one of those wins coming after their unparalleled undefeated season in 1972. Buoniconti was only 5-11 and 220 pounds and was considered to be too small to play middle linebacker. However, as many coaches noted, he always "played bigger than his size" during a stellar 14-year career with the Dolphins and the Boston Patriots.

The only member of the Dolphins defense to be elected to the Hall of Fame, Buoniconti joined the team in 1969 after playing seven seasons with the Patriots. During his tenure with the Dolphins, he was honored as the team's Most Valuable Player three times (1969, 1970, 1973), named to the AFL All-Star game in 1969 and was selected to two Pro Bowls (1973, 1974) following the merger of the two leagues. In 1990, he was voted as a linebacker on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on November 18, 1991, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on December 4, 2011.

Before joining the Dolphins, Buoniconti helped the Patriots capture the 1963 AFL Eastern Division title, and he played in five AFL All-Star games. Overall in his 14-year career, he played in 183 games and recorded 32 career interceptions. He was named to the All-Time AFL team in 1970, and overall was named a first team All-AFL/AFC choice eight times.

A native of Springfield, Massachusetts, Buoniconti had an outstanding collegiate career at Notre Dame. Following his retirement from the Dolphins, he and his son, Marc, were the driving forces behind the establishment of the Miami Project to Cure Paralysis, one of the world's leading research and treatment centers for spinal cord injuries.

Buoniconti was elected to the Hall of Fame in 2001 after being named for the first time that year as a nominee from the pre-1976 era by the Hall's Seniors Committee.

DUAL 100-YARD RUSHING GAMES

In the history of the franchise, the Dolphins have had four dual 100-yard individual rushing games and the team is 4-0 in those games. The combination of Larry Csonka and Jim Kiick had two dual 100-yard games, both of which were during the 1971 season. Kiick (20 carries for 108 yards) and Csonka (20-103-1) first accomplished the feat on Sept. 26 at Buffalo. Csonka (20-137-2) and Kiick (17-121) again both surpassed the 100-yard mark on Oct. 24 at the N.Y. Jets. In 1974, Benny Malone (19-104-1) and Don Nottingham (10-102-1) both rushed for 100-plus yards on Oct 27 at Baltimore. In 1975, Nottingham (21-102-3) teamed with Mercury Morris (31-125) to both gain 100-yards on Oct. 5 at Green Bay.

INDUCTED: 1987 // BORN: 12/25/46 // COLLEGE: SYRACUSE '68
NFL: 1968-74, 1976-79 // DOLPHINS: 1968-74, 1979

Larry Csonka ranks as the Dolphins' all-time leading rusher with 1,506 carries for 6,737 yards (4.5 average) and 53 TDs. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, he put together three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (1971-73) as Miami advanced to the Super Bowl each year. Csonka shined in those three Super Bowls, averaging 6.3 yards a carry and going over 100 yards rushing in two of them. Originally drafted in the first round out of Syracuse in 1968, he was named the MVP of Super Bowl VIII after carrying 33 times for 145 yards and two touchdowns as the Dolphins steamrolled the Minnesota Vikings, 24-7, for their second straight NFL title. Called a "modern-day Bronko Nagurski" by Dolphins coach Don Shula, "Zonk" also played three seasons with the N.Y. Giants (1976-78) and one year with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975). His career rushing totals in the NFL when he retired following the 1979 season are: 1,891 carries for 8,081 yards (4.3 average) and 64 TDs. At the time of his retirement, he ranked fifth in NFL history for most total rushing attempts and sixth for most career rushing yards and rushing touchdowns. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his second year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted the fullback on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team and was named as a running back on the Super Bowl Silver Anniversary all-time team. On November 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium. Csonka was further honored when his number 39 was retired by the team during halftime ceremonies on December 9, 2002, becoming the third Dolphin to have his number retired. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on December 4, 2011.

BOB GRIESE

INDUCTED: 1990 // BORN: 2/3/45 // COLLEGE: PURDUE '67
NFL: 1967-80 // DOLPHINS: 1967-80

He was unquestionably the "thinking man's quarterback." Bob Griese, renowned for his poised leadership and ingenious play-calling, sustained the Dolphins offense with a flair for winning from 1967-80.

The bespectacled quarterback became the 14th passer in the NFL's exclusive 25,000-yard club in 1980. On the same day he reached that milestone, he suffered a shoulder injury which ultimately forced his retirement on June 25, 1981. His No. 12 jersey became the first in Dolphins history to be retired, on May 6, 1982, in ceremonies at the team's annual awards banquet. In 1990 he was also voted the quarterback on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on November 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on December 4, 2011. On June 16, 2015, a street next to Griese's high school stadium in Evansville, Indiana, was re-named "Bob Griese Pass" in his honor.

Including playoffs, he had a .681 winning percentage (88-41-1) under Coach Don Shula. "Cornerstone of the franchise," Dolphins founder Joe Robbie called him. He was a consensus All-Pro quarterback in 1971 and 1977, made six appearances in the Pro Bowl and was voted the team's Most Valuable Player six times by South Florida media.

After becoming eligible for induction into the Hall of Fame in 1985, Griese was named as a finalist all five years before being elected to the Hall of Fame in 1990.

"He's probably the most unselfish guy I've ever been around," Shula said. "He got as much of a thrill calling the right running play for a touchdown as he did connecting on a bomb. That's just his makeup."

JIM

INDUCTED: 1987 // BORN: 5/16/48 // COLLEGE: SOUTH DAKOTA STATE '70
NFL: 1970-81 // DOLPHINS: 1970-79

Jim Langer was the anchor of the Miami offensive line during the Dolphins' championship years of the 1970s. Coming out of South Dakota State in 1970, he was signed as a free agent by Cleveland but was released on the final cut. Langer was picked up on waivers by the Dolphins and, after spending most of the year on the taxi squad, played in the final five games of 1970, mainly on special teams. After serving as a backup at center the following season, he won the starting job in 1972, which he would hold until sidelined with a knee injury in 1979. A consensus All-Pro from 1973-77, Langer was a six-time Pro Bowl selection (five times as a starter). Over a 10-year period from 1970-79, he played in 128 straight games. He also made 109 consecutive starts between 1972-79. Voted the team's Most Valuable Player by South Florida media in 1975, Langer also holds the distinction of having played every offensive down in the Dolphins' perfect 1972 season. Wanting to spend the final years of his career near his Royalton, Minn. home, at his own request Langer was traded to the Minnesota Vikings in 1980, where he played for two seasons (1980-81). He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In addition, on November 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on December 4, 2011.

LARRY

INDUCTED: 1993 // BORN: 11/2/45 // COLLEGE: BETHUNE COOKMAN '67
NFL: 1969-80 // DOLPHINS: 1969-80

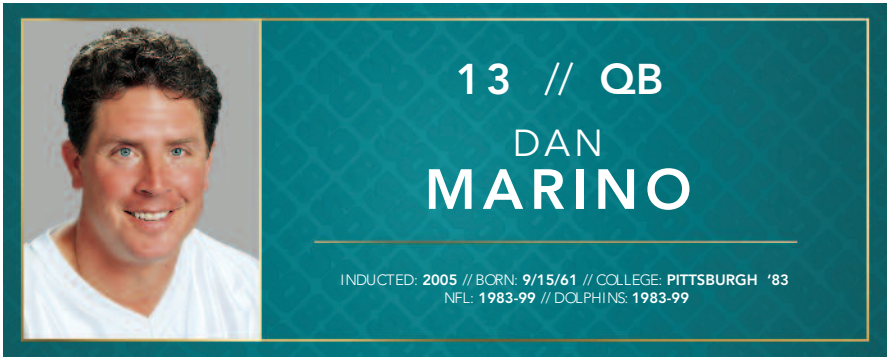
A rumbling giant in the Dolphins' trenches for 12 seasons, Larry Little's very presence in leading a sweep was an intimidating force in a Miami running attack which led the NFL during the 1970s at 2,372 yards per season. Coming out of Bethune-Cookman in 1967, Little entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the San Diego Chargers for a $750 bonus. He was traded to the Dolphins on July 2, 1969, in exchange for Miami cornerback Mack Lamb, a former high school teammate. After having started just four games during his two seasons with the Chargers, Little emerged with the Dolphins and played in 158 regular season games with 152 starting assignments. He also started 12 playoff games for Miami and was a key ingredient of the Dolphins' back-to-back Super Bowl championship teams of 1972 and '73. Little earned All-Pro honors six times (1971-75 and 1977) and was a Pro Bowl selection on four occasions (1971-74). He was the first player in league history to be named as AFC Offensive Lineman of the Year three straight seasons (1970-72) by the NFL Players' Association. Little, who anchored the offensive line which helped set a then-NFL record with 2,960 rushing yards during the Dolphins'

"perfect season" in 1972, was named by the National 1,000-Yard Club as the league's Outstanding Blocker for the '72 campaign. A native Floridian, Little was the first Dolphins player inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame, on March 6, 1978. In 1990, he was voted as a guard on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team. Little was elected into the Hall of Fame in his eighth year of eligibility after having been a finalist on three occasions. On December 13, 1993, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium and was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on December 4, 2011.



Elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame on February 5, 2005 and enshrined on August 7, 2005 ... Others included in the Class of 2005 were Steve Young, Benny Friedman and Fritz Pollard ... Marino's No. 13 jersey became the second Dolphins uniform number to be retired, on Sunday, September 17, 2000, at halftime of the Dolphins-Baltimore Ravens game at Sun Life Stadium ... He was also inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll on that date ... The only other Dolphin player to wear No. 13 was safety Jake Scott, who wore that number from 1970 through 1975 ... Was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on December 4, 2011 ... He announced his retirement on March 13, 2000 ... Marino ranks among the NFL's all-time top ranked passers ... In his 17-year career, Marino played in 242 games (240 starts) and he was 4967-8358 (59.4%) for 61,361 yards, 420 touchdowns and 252 interceptions for an 86.4 passing efficiency rating, which ranked fourth among the all-time passing leaders when he retired ... At the time of his retirement, Marino held 25 regular season NFL records and was tied for five others ... He also held 38 regular season Dolphins records (50, including playoffs) and was tied for six others (eight, including playoffs) ... Currently, Marino holds 30 Dolphins regular season team records (42 overall, including playoffs) and is tied for two others (six, including playoffs) ...

AMONG NFL LEADERS: With a career passing efficiency of 86.4, Marino ranked fourth on the all-time list of passers at the time of his retirement ... He currently ranks 17th on that list ... Marino also is among the winningest quarterbacks in NFL regular season history, ranking fifth in all time regular season victories as a starter:

Marino passed for 3,000 or more yards 13 times (1984-92, 1994-95, 1997-98) in his 17 seasons in the NFL and is third behind Brett Favre (18 times; 1992-2009) and Peyton Manning (16 times; 1998-2010, 2012-14) for the most 3,000-yard seasons in NFL history ... Favre broke Marino's record in 2005 ... Marino led the NFL in passing yards during a season five times, having accomplished that feat in 1984-86, 1988, and 1992 ... Marino tied the NFL record for most seasons leading the league in passing yardage (five) with Sonny Jurgensen (1961-62, 1966-67, 1969); with Drew Brees (2006, 2008, 2011-12, 2014) later tying the record as well ... Marino had 13 career 400-yard games (15, including playoffs) and the Dolphins were 8-5 in those 13 games (9-6 overall, including the playoffs) ... Marino had 63 career regular season 300-yard games (67, including playoffs), and the Dolphins were 37-26 in those 63 300-yard games (38-29 overall, including playoffs) ... Marino's 63 career regular season 300-yard passing games extended his own NFL record for most career 300-yard passing games until it was broken by Manning in 2010 ... Marino owns 11 of the top 12 and 34 of the top 50 passing yardage games overall in Dolphins history as well as 67 of the 104 300-yard passing games overall in club history ...

TOUCHDOWN PASSES: Marino's first touchdown pass on November 26, 1995 at Indianapolis, a six-yard TD pass to Keith Byars with 13:54 elapsed in the second quarter, was Marino's 343rd TD pass of his career, breaking Fran Tarkenton's former NFL record of most career touchdown passes (342), making Marino the league's all-time leader in career TD passes until Brett Favre broke his record in 2007 ... Marino recorded 420 touchdown passes in his career, ranking third in NFL history:

Marino reached the 200 touchdown passes plateau faster than any quarterback in NFL history and is tied with Peyton Manning for the fastest to reach 300 TD passes ... In his career Marino threw at least one TD pass in 203 of his 242 regular-season games as well as in 16 of his 18 playoff games (219 of 260 overall) ... Marino had six career games of throwing five or more touchdown passes, and the Dolphins were 4-2 in those contests ... Marino had 21 career games passing for four or more touchdowns, and he was 16-5 in those 21 contests ... Overall in his career he threw three or more touchdowns in 62 games (67, including playoffs), and he was 41-21 in those contests (44-23 including post-season games) ... Marino threw for 20 or more TD passes in 13 of his 17 years in the NFL ... The only seasons when he failed to reach 20 TD passes came in 1999, 1997, 1996 and in 1993, a season when he played only five games due to injury ... By throwing for 20 touchdown passes in 1998, he extended his own NFL record for most years throwing for 20 or more touchdown passes to 13 seasons, a record that Favre broke in 2008 ... Marino and Peyton Manning are the only players in NFL history to throw 20 or more touchdown passes in their first ten NFL seasons and is one of four players (along with Peyton Manning, Brett Favre and Drew Brees) to throw 20 or more TD passes in ten consecutive seasons ... Four times in his career (1984-86, 1994) Marino threw for 30 or more touchdowns, and he is tied for fifth along with Aaron Rodgers (2009, 2011-12, 2014) behind Favre (nine, 1994-98, 2001, 2003-04, 2009), Peyton Manning (nine, 2000, 2004, 2006-07, 2009-10, 2012-14), Brees (seven, 2008-14) and Tom Brady (five, 2007, 2010-12, 2014) for the NFL record of most seasons throwing 30 or more touchdown passes ... Marino (1984, 1986), Brees (2011-12) and Peyton Manning (2004, 2013) are the only QBs to throw 40 or more touchdowns in two different seasons ... In 1984, Marino threw for 48 touchdown passes, breaking the former NFL record of 36 TD passes that was set by George Blanda of the Houston Oilers in 1961 and tied by Y.A. Tittle of the New York Giants in 1963 ... Marino's record was broken by Peyton Manning of the Indianapolis Colts, who threw for 49 touchdown in 2004 ...

COMEBACKS: Over the course of Marino's 17-year career with the Dolphins, he brought the team back from a fourth quarter deficit a total of 37 times, with 21 fourth quarter triumphs at home and 16 on the road ... Included in that total were three playoff games in which Marino led Miami back in the fourth quarter ... With 37 fourth quarter comeback victories, Marino ranks third in that category: Denver's John Elway has 43 final period come-from behind wins, while Peyton Manning has 41 fourth quarter comebacks ... In Marino's 37 career fourth quarter comebacks, he completed 280 of 441 passes (63.5%) for 3,710 yards with 29 touchdowns and eight INTs in the final stanza for a rating of 104.4 ...

DWIGHT STEPHENSON

INDUCTED: 1998 // BORN: 11/20/57 // COLLEGE: ALABAMA '80
NFL: 1980-87 // DOLPHINS: 1980-87

Dwight Stephenson spent his entire career with the Dolphins, and was considered by many to be the "best at his position ever" in the NFL. He was selected to five straight Pro Bowls (1983-87), and earned starting honors in four of those contests (1983-86). His four Pro Bowl starts is tied for the fourth-most in team history. Stephenson anchored an offensive line which allowed the fewest sacks in the NFL each of his seasons as a starter and enabled Miami quarterback Dan Marino to set numerous passing records. His playing career ended prematurely after suffering torn anterior cruciate and lateral colateral ligaments in his left knee against the New York Jets on December 7, 1987, when he was hit unexpectedly by Marty Lyons on a New York fumble return. Stephenson's greatest honor during his playing days came in 1985 when he was selected as the Miller Lite/NFL Man of the Year for his work in charity and community projects, the first Dolphin to win that award. Stephenson also served as an Assistant Offensive Line Coach on Don Shula's Dolphins staff in 1992. Before joining the Dolphins as a second-round draft choice in 1980, he had an outstanding college career at Alabama, where he was called "the greatest center I have ever coached" by the late Paul "Bear" Bryant. He was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in his sixth year of eligibility after having been a finalist on five occasions. In 1990, he also was voted as the center on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on December 12, 1994, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on December 4, 2011.

PAUL WARFIELD

INDUCTED: 1983 // BORN: 11/28/42 // COLLEGE: OHIO STATE '64
NFL: 1964-74, 1976-77 // DOLPHINS: 1970-74

Paul Warfield sandwiched two stints with the Cleveland Browns (1964-69 and 1976-77) around a five-year career with the Dolphins. After spending his first six seasons in the NFL with the Browns, Warfield was acquired by Miami in January of 1970 in exchange for a first-round pick in the upcoming draft. In his five seasons with the Dolphins, Warfield had 156 receptions for 3,355 yards (21.5 average) and 33 TDs. When he left Miami following the 1974 season, Warfield ranked first on the team's career receiving yards and receiving touchdowns lists, while he was third on the Dolphins all-time record for receptions. His 21.5 average per reception is still the highest in Miami history. His career receiving totals in the NFL are 427 receptions for 8,565 yards (20.1 average) and 85 TDs. At the time of his retirement following the 1977 season, Warfield's career catches were tied for the 17th most in NFL history, his career receiving yards were the sixth-most and his 85 touchdown catches were tied for the third-highest total in the league's history. A member of both the '72 and '73 Super Bowl championship teams, he was selected to play in the Pro Bowl all five years he was with the Dolphins (once as a starter), in addition to being named to three Pro Bowl squads with the Browns. Warfield, one of two Dolphins (along with Mark Ingram) in the team's history to score four touchdowns in one game, also played one season with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975) before finishing his career with Cleveland. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted as a wide receiver on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on November 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on December 4, 2011.

CRIS CARTER

WIDE RECEIVER YEAR INDUCTED: 2013
NFL CAREER: 1987-2002 DOLPHINS: 2002

A fourth round pick of the Philadelphia Eagles in the 1987 Supplemental Draft, Cris Carter developed into one of the most prolific receivers in the NFL. He spent his first three seasons as a member of the Eagles (1987-1989) and then played with the Minnesota Vikings for 12 years (1990-2001), where he helped re-write the team's record book.

Carter finished his NFL career as a member of the Miami Dolphins, coming out of retirement to sign with Miami as a free agent on Oct. 21, 2002. He remained on the team's roster until the conclusion of the season, playing in five games with the Dolphins, including one start, and recorded eight catches for 66 yards and one touchdown. He also was inactive for four games during that span due to a kidney injury.

Carter's career regular season totals include 1,101 receptions for 13,899 yards and 130 touchdowns. At the time of his retirement, Carter ranked second in NFL history in receptions and receiving touchdowns (behind Jerry Rice) and was fourth in reception yardage. During his tenure in Minnesota, he led the Vikings in receptions for 10 straight years, recorded eight straight 1,000-yard seasons and also earned eight consecutive Pro Bowl berths. In 1994, Carter set a then-NFL record for receptions in a season when he hauled in 122 passes for 1,256 yards and scored seven touchdowns. A year later in 1995 he registered his second straight 122-catch season and amassed a career-high 1,371 yards and 17 touchdowns. His two-year total of 244 catches was the most in NFL history. He was named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s, and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2013.

An Ohio native, he played collegiately at Ohio State.

BILL PARCELLS

COACH/EXECUTIVE YEAR INDUCTED: 2007
NFL CAREER: 1983-90, 1993-99, 2003-06, 2008-10 DOLPHINS: 2008-10

Bill Parcells served the Miami Dolphins in an executive capacity, but he is best known for his success as a head coach in the NFL. In his 19 years as a head coach in the league, he experienced just five losing seasons. Four times he took struggling teams and turned them into winners. He won two Super Bowls, and his teams finished in either first or second place in their division 11 times.

Parcells spent almost three full seasons (2008-10) as the Executive Vice President of Football Operations of the Dolphins. He had an immediate impact, inheriting a 1-15 team and turning them around his first year, leading the Dolphins to an 11-5 record in 2008 along with the AFC East title and a playoff berth. The team's ten-game turnaround was tied for the biggest improvement in NFL history.

Parcells had the most success as head coach of the New York Giants. He took over that position in 1983, inheriting a Giants team that had just one winning season in its previous 10 years. After a 3-12-1 season in his first year, the Giants made the postseason as a wild-card team the next two years. In 1986, however, the Giants finished 14-2 and capped the year with a victory over the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXI. And in 1990 the team captured its second Lombardi Trophy with a dramatic 20-19 victory over the Buffalo Bills in Super Bowl XXV. Parcells took over as head coach of the New England Patriots, and in 1996 he led them to a berth in Super Bowl XXXI. After that he moved to the New York Jets, and in 1998 he guided them to a 12-4 record and advanced to the AFC championship game. His final stint as a head coach in the NFL came with the Dallas Cowboys from 2003-06. He led the team to playoff appearances twice during that tenure.

Overall Parcells spent 26 seasons as a coach and executive in the NFL. He compiled an overall coaching record of 172-130-1 in the regular season and 11-8 in the playoffs. He was named NFL Coach of the Year in 1986 and 1994 and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2013.

JUNIOR SEAU

LINEBACKER YEAR INDUCTED: 2015
NFL CAREER: 1990-2009 DOLPHINS: 2003-05

Junior Seau played three years (2003-05) as a linebacker for the Dolphins, but is best known as a perennial Pro Bowl performer for 13 seasons with the San Diego Chargers and also spent his last four years in the NFL as a member of the New England Patriots. During his 20-year career, he recorded 56.5 sacks along with 18 interceptions and was known for his leadership and his passionate style of play.

Seau was acquired by the Dolphins on April 16, 2003 from the Chargers in exchange for a 2004 fifth round draft choice. During his tenure in Miami, Seau teamed with Jason Taylor, Zach Thomas and others to form the nucleus of one the strongest defensive units in the NFL. In 2003, his first season with the Dolphins, he started 15 games and finished second on the team with 133 tackles, the ninth time in his career he recorded 100 or more tackles in a season. He also added three sacks. He proved to be a key addition to a defense that allowed only 90.8 yards rushing per game, the fifth best mark in the NFL, as the Dolphins became the only team in the league not to permit an individual 100-yard rusher. In 2004 he started the first eight games of the season, recording 68 tackles and a sack before being placed on injured reserve with a torn right pectoral muscle he injured on Nov. 1st at the New York Jets. At the time of the injury he was averaging eight tackles a game and ranked second on the team in tackles. Limited by injuries in 2005, Seau only played in seven games with the Dolphins (including five starts) and had 43 tackles and one sack before being placed on injured reserve on Nov. 24th with an Achilles tendon injury. He was released by Miami on March 6, 2006. In two of his three years with the Dolphins (2003-04) his teammates voted him the recipient of the Don Shula Leadership Award.

During his 13 years in San Diego (1990-2002), Seau was voted to 12 consecutive Pro Bowls, becoming just the fourth player since 1970 to be selected ten or more straight times to the Pro Bowl. He recorded 100 or more tackles in eight of his seasons in San Diego and was selected the Chargers' Most Valuable Player six times. He was named the NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1992 by UPI and also was named to the All-Decade Team of the 1990s by the Pro Football Hall of Fame. In 1994 he led the Chargers to a berth in Super Bowl XXIX, the franchise's only Super Bowl appearance, and in the AFC Championship Game that season against the Pittsburgh Steelers he recorded 16 tackles despite playing with a pinched nerve in his neck. That same year he was named the NFL Man of the Year for his philanthropic efforts, and he was a constant and active contributor to his community throughout his career.

Following his tenure in Miami, Seau spent his final four seasons (2006-09) in the league with the New England Patriots. In 2007, he recorded 74 tackles and 3.5 while playing in all 16 games for Patriots' AFC Championship team that went undefeated in the regular season before losing to the New York Giants in Super Bowl XLII. Seau retired following his final season with the Patriots in 2009, and he died on May 2, 2012 in San Diego at the age of 43. He was elected to the Hall of Fame on January 31, 2015 in his first year of eligibility.

A native of San Diego, Seau played collegiately at the University of Southern California (USC).

THURMAN THOMAS

RUNNING BACK YEAR INDUCTED: 2007
NFL CAREER: 1988-2000 DOLPHINS: 2000

A second-round draft choice of Buffalo in 1988, Thurman Thomas went on to enjoy a stellar 13-year NFL career (1988-2000), the first 12 with the Bills. He was a critical component that catapulted Buffalo to an unprecedented four straight Super Bowl appearances, following the 1990-93 seasons.

Thomas concluded his career as a Dolphin after signing with the team as a free agent on March 7, 2000. He played in nine games that season and rushed for 136 yards on 28 carries and caught 16 passes for 117 yards and a TD. He sustained a career-ending knee injury in a game at San Diego on November 12, 2000.

Thomas' career regular season statistics include 12,074 rushing yards and 65 touchdowns on 2,877 attempts, and 472 receptions for 4,458 yards and 23 touchdowns. At the time of his retirement following the 2000 season, his rushing yardage total ranked ninth in NFL annals while his 16,532 total yards from scrimmage were sixth-most and fifth among running backs. He was named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s, was selected as a first- or second-team All-Pro five times and was voted to the Pro Bowl five straight years. His election into the Pro Football Hall of Fame was announced on February 2, 2007 in Miami.

A native of Houston, Texas, Thomas played collegiately at Oklahoma State.

STOFA TWICE TRADED BY DOLPHINS

The only player for whom the Dolphins received trade value twice is QB John Stofa. Stofa, who joined Miami as a free agent in 1966, was traded on December 26, 1967, to Cincinnati for first- and second-round draft choices in 1968. He re-joined the Dolphins as a free agent in 1969 and was traded on November 23, 1971, to Denver for a seventh-round pick in 1972.

DOLPHINS RETIRED JERSEYS

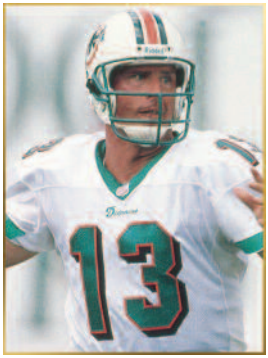
BOB GRIESE #12

Bob Griese's No. 12 jersey became the first Dolphin number to be retired, on May 6, 1982, in ceremonies at the Dolphins' annual awards banquet.

No other player in the history of the Dolphins, either before or after Griese, wore No. 12 in regular season play.

Griese was further recognized when he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1990.

For a full bio of Griese, please see the Hall of Fame section of the media guide.



DAN MARINO #13

Dan Marino's No. 13 jersey became the second Dolphin uniform number to be retired, on Sunday, September 17, 2000, at halftime of the Dolphins-Baltimore Ravens game at Sun Life Stadium. He was also inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll on that date. Marino was furthered honored when he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2005.

The only other Dolphin player to wear No. 13 was safety Jake Scott, who wore that number from 1970 through 1975.

For a full bio of Marino, please see the Hall of Fame section of the media guide.

LARRY CSONKA #39

Larry Csonka's jersey No. 39 became the third number in club history to be retired, during halftime ceremonies of the Dolphins' game against the Chicago Bears at Sun Life Stadium on December 9, 2002.

No player other than Csonka ever wore No. 39 in regular season play. Csonka wore that number in his eight years with the Dolphins, from 1968 through 1974 and again in 1979.

Csonka also was honored when he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1987.

For a full bio of Csonka, please see the Hall of Fame section of the media guide.

SHULA IS COACH TO HALL OF FAMERS

Hall of Fame and former Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula has had 15 of his former players enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. This total of 15 is the second-most players that an NFL head coach has had inducted into the Hall of Fame, trailing only George Halas, who had 25 players enshrined.Of this group, seven played for Shula while he was Head Coach with the Baltimore Colts (1963-69), while eight were on his teams with the Dolphins (1970-95).

Hall of Famers who played under Shula in Baltimore include DE Gino Marchetti (Class of 1972), WR Raymond Berry (1973), OT Jim Parker (1973), RB Lenny Moore (1975), QB Johnny Unitas (1979), LB Ted Hendricks (1990) and TE John Mackey (1992)

The Dolphins contingent includes WR Paul Warfield (1983), FB Larry Csonka (1987), Jim Langer (1987), QB Bob Griese (1990), G Larry Little (1993), C Dwight Stephenson (1998), LB Nick Buoniconti (2001) and QB Dan Marino (2005).

DOLPHINS ON THE AIR

WBGG (105.9 FM) and WINZ (940 AM)

Flagship Stations for the Miami Dolphins Radio Network

WBGG (105.9 FM) and WINZ (940 AM) are in their sixth year as the flagship stations for the Miami Dolphins Radio Network.

On March 1, 2010, the Dolphins announced a multi-year radio broadcast rights partnership with Clear Channel Communications that resulted in WBGG-FM (Big 105.9) and WINZ-AM (940 – Miami Sports) being the Dolphins flagship stations. All Dolphins preseason, regular season and playoff games are broadcast exclusively in South Florida on those two outlets and throughout South and Central Florida on The Miami Dolphins Radio Network.

In addition to the game broadcasts, a two-hour pregame and a two-hour postgame show round out "Dolphins Game Day Live" coverage on WBGG, WINZ, The Miami Dolphins Radio Network, Dolphins.com, the In-Stadium Television Network, the Dolphins Television Network and the Dolphins mobile app.

The radio and TV broadcasts are part of the Dolphins' fully integrated multimedia assets that include websites (Dolphins.com, DolphinsCheerleaders.com and SunLifeStadium.com); social media platforms (Dolphins Facebook page, Dolphins Twitter, and Dolphins Instagram); radio programming (the Finsiders daily multimedia show airing on Fox Sports Florida and on 940 AM and WBZT in West Palm Beach, Dolphins Game Day radio on 940 AM, 105.9 FM and 1140 AM; television programming (Finsiders Final Drive, The Joe Philbin Show, Dolphins Weekly Live, The Fifth Quarter, The Fifth Quarter Overtime, and Under The Helmet airing on CBS4 and My33); video programming (the In-Stadium Television Network; video boards; video streaming on Dolphins.com; print platforms (Finsiders Playbook game day publication) and mobile platforms (Dolphins Mobile App including live video streaming, updates and images available on phone or iPad devices).

Jimmy Cefalo begins his 11th season as part of the Dolphins' radio team, and is certainly well-known as both a broadcaster and a former Dolphins player. For many years he served as the sports anchor for WPLG-TV (Channel 10), first joining that station in October of 1992 as the host of Sports Monday. Since then he became the sports anchor for Local 10 News Monday through Friday and anchored the station's popular "Sports Jam Live," which aired on Sunday nights.

Before joining WPLG, Cefalo assembled a long list of impressive broadcast credentials. He is best known for his work as a color analyst on NBC's network telecasts of the NFL and also served as a correspondent for NBC News on the "Today Show," sports anchor for "NBC News at Sunrise" and co-host of NBC's broadcast of the 1988 Olympic Games in Seoul. Cefalo also co-hosted "PM Magazine" and "AM South Florida" on WTVJ-TV and hosted the "Trump Card" game show, nationally distributed by Warner Brothers Television.

In 1988, Cefalo snared an Emmy for his writing on NBC's Olympic telecasts. In addition, the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association named him Florida Sportscaster of the Year six times (1998, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004 and 2005).

Prior to his broadcasting career, Cefalo played seven seasons with the Dolphins (1978-84) as a wide receiver, and finished with 93 catches for 1,739 yards and 13 touchdowns. His best season came in 1981, when he caught 29 passes for 631 yards (21.8 yards per catch) and three touchdowns. He also was a member of two Dolphins Super Bowl teams, and in Super Bowl XVII against the Washington Redskins, he caught a 76-yard touchdown pass from David Woodley, which at the time was the second-longest reception in Super Bowl history. Cefalo originally joined the Dolphins as a third-round draft choice in 1978 following a stellar collegiate career at Penn State.

Joe Rose again joins Cefalo on the team's radio broadcasts, and like Cefalo he built a broadcast career after his playing days ended. He is in his 10th season as a Dolphins radio analyst. He previously served as the sports director for WTVJ-TV (Channel 6), joining that station in 1992. In past years, he hosted "The Coaches Show" on that outlet and was featured on the station's successful "Sunday Sports Final" as well. Rose is well-known locally for his popular 6-10 a.m. weekday show on WQAM.

Rose was a Dolphins tight end from 1980-85, and in that time caught 112 passes for 1,493 yards and 13 touchdowns. He had his best year in 1983, when he had 29 catches for 345 yards and three touchdowns. He is best known for catching Dan Marino's first regular season touchdown pass, a six-yard reception on September 19, 1983 in Los Angeles versus the Raiders. Rose originally was a seventh-round draft pick of the Dolphins in 1980 after playing at the University of California.

Joining Rose and Cefalo in the booth for the regular season is former Dolphins great and Pro Football Hall of Fame member Bob Griese, who is in his fifth year as a member of Miami's radio team after a long tenure on ABC and ESPN's broadcast teams for college football.

In July 2015, the Dolphins announced a multi-year deal with 1210 ESPN Deportes in Miami to be the team's Spanish language flagship station. 1210 ESPN Deportes (WNMA-1210 AM) and the Miami Dolphins Spanish Radio Network will broadcast every Dolphins game. This season marks the 34th consecutive year that Dolphins games will be broadcast in Spanish.

PRESEASON TELEVISION

All four of the Miami Dolphins preseason games will be broadcast on WFOR-TV (Channel 4) in Miami. It marks the 20th consecutive season WFOR has served as the preseason home of the Dolphins and the four games on WFOR will also be carried on WBBH/NBC Ch. 2 in Naples/Ft. Myers, WTVX-CW Ch. 34 and WWHB Ch. 48 (Spanish) in West Palm Beach/ Treasure Coast and WRDQ Ch. 27 in Orlando.

The Dolphins open the 2015 NFL preseason schedule on the road on Thursday, Aug. 13 as Miami travels to Chicago to face the Bears at Soldier Field. It is the 14th time the teams will face each other in the preseason, with the Bears leading the series by a 4-8-1 count. The game will be played at 8 p.m. and will be televised live on WFOR, WBBH, WTVX and WRDQ.

Miami continues on the road the following week as they head to Carolina on Saturday, Aug. 22 to face the Panthers at 7 p.m. ET at Bank of America Stadium. Miami and Carolina meet for the fifth time in the preseason and first time since 2012.

The Dolphins play their first home game of the preseason when they welcome the Atlanta Falcons to Sun Life Stadium on Saturday, Aug. 29 at 7 p.m. Miami and Atlanta will meet for the 14th time with the Falcons leading the preseason series by an 8-5 margin.

The preseason concludes for Miami at home against Tampa Bay on Thursday, Sept. 3 as the Buccaneers pay a visit Sun Life Stadium. Kickoff is set for 7 p.m. This will be the 15th consecutive season and 22nd time in 24 years that the Dolphins and Buccaneers have met in the preseason, with Miami leading the series by 17-12 margin.

Dick Stockton handles the play-by-play for the games on WFOR. Stockton has a long history of covering almost every major sports event on a national level. Currently he is a member of FOX's NFL broadcast team and also handles national telecasts of Major League Baseball and the National Basketball Association on both FOX and Turner Sports.

Joining Stockton as a color analyst will be former Dolphins great and Pro Football Hall of Fame member Bob Griese. In addition, Nat Moore, the Dolphins' third all-time leading receiver and one of the most popular players in club history, again will handle color commentary. Kim Bokamper, a former Dolphins Pro Bowl linebacker, will continue in his role on WFOR's broadcast team as a sideline reporter.

DOLPHINS DRAFT FROM FLORIDA COLLEGES

The Dolphins have selected a player from a Florida university in 25 of the team's 50 college drafts. Overall, the Dolphins have drafted 46 players from a Florida school. With the selection of center Mike Pouncey out of the University of Florida in 2011, the Dolphins have selected a player from the state of Florida eight times in the first round. The University of Miami leads the way with 17 Dolphins draftees, followed by 14 from the University of Florida, eight from Florida State University, four from the University of Tampa, two from Bethune-Cookman and one from Florida A&M.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS: Media representatives who do not have press credentials for the entire season (but will be working for an accredited media outlet on an immediate deadline) may request them on a single-game basis. Reserved credentials can be picked up at the press will call booth, located outside SW Gate of Sun Life Stadium, on the day of the game. ALL members of the media picking up credentials at the will call window must present a valid photo identification. In addition, all media members must show valid photo identification upon entering the stadium. The media entrance is at SW Gate.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers with accredited media outlets on an immediate deadline may request credentials on a single-game basis from the Dolphins' media relations department. Credentials WILL NOT be issued to freelance photographers unless granted special approval by the Dolphins. Field photographers are reminded to remain outside of the bench area. ALL photographers are required to wear a vest that must be obtained prior to the game in the photo lounge located adjacent to the press box elevator inside SW Gate. All photographers must kneel when shooting in either the East or West end zone.

STILL PHOTOGRAPHY: Still photography of any kind is NOT permitted at any time in the Dolphins' locker room following both home and road games, in addition to the locker room at the team's training facility during the course of the week.

VIDEO PHOTOGRAPHY: Video photography is limited to just interviews in the Dolphins' locker room following both home and road games, in addition to the locker room at the team's training facility during the course of the week. B-roll footage is NOT permitted at any time.

EDWIN POPE PRESS BOX: To get to the Edwin Pope Press Box, enter at SW Gate. Go through a set of double doors and turn right to access the press elevator. Exit the elevator on the second floor and the press box is to your left on both the second and third floors. Individuals with "West Press Box" credentials should exit the main press box doors on the third level and proceed right. Walk through the BankUnited Club Level to the West Press Box doors on the right. Only credentials issued by the Dolphins will be honored for admittance to Sun Life Stadium.

PHOTO WORK ROOM: To access the photo work room in Sun Life Stadium enter at SW Gate. Go through a set of double doors and turn right, follow the hallway towards the Press Elevator and enter the double doors adjacent to the elevator. To enter the field from the Photo Work Room proceed through the work room to the inner ring of the stadium, turn right and follow the inner ring about 200 feet to the field tunnel which will located on your left.

LOCKER ROOMS: Admission to the home and visiting locker rooms is governed by each individual team. Only media representatives with proper credentials, granting locker room access will be admitted. No one will be admitted to the locker rooms prior to the game. Both teams' locker rooms are located on the ground level on the west side of the stadium. From the press box, take the elevator to the ground level. Out of the elevator, bear right and go through the double doors to the corridor. Go straight to the main corridor and turn left. The Dolphins' locker room will be on your left, and the interview room will be about 20 yards further, also on the left. Continue straight past the tunnel, and the visitor's interview room, as well as the visitor's locker room, will be on the left.

INTERVIEW ROOM: Head Coach Joe Philbin will hold his post-game press conference immediately following the conclusion of the game in the interview room, which is located on the ground level in the west side of the stadium.

PARKING: Press parking at Sun Life Stadium is very limited. All parking requests must be directed to the communications department, (954/452-7010).

TELEPHONES: Any media member desiring to have their own press box telephone line must order it directly by emailing telco@dolphins.com. Instruments can be ordered from the Dolphins' communications department, (954/452-7010).

WIRELESS ACCESS: Sun Life Stadium offers wireless internet access in all areas of the press boxes and the photo work room. The access is free of charge and works with all wi-fi enabled computer equipment. For those computers that do not have wi-fi capabilities, every seat is equipped with a hardwire ethernet network jack to which members of the media can connect using a Cat 5 ethernet patch cable.

FIELD ACCESS: Only working newspaper, network TV photographers, club/stadium officials and a limited number of local TV photographers are permitted on the field during the game. Press box passes will not be honored for field admittance at any time, unless authorized by the Miami Dolphins.

FOR MORE INFO: For more information on the Dolphins, contact the communications department: Jason Jenkins, senior vice president of communications and community affairs; Matt Taylor, director of football communications; Theresa Manahan, communications manager; Hank Nathan, football communications manager; Gayle Baden, communications coordinator and Michael Farnham, communications coordinator. Office phone number is (954) 452-7010 and (954) 452-7000-switchboard.

TRAINING CAMP: The Dolphins practice at The Doctors Hospital Training Facility at Nova Southeastern University during both the preseason and regular season. The campus is located in Davie at 7500 S.W. 30th Street.
